The Daily Journal.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1871.

THE JOURNAL, DAILY AND WEEKLY.

On Thursday, the 28th inst., the DAILY JOURNAL will enter upon its TWENTY-FIRST ANNUAL Volume. The WEEKLY JOURNAL is far advanced in its TWENTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL Volume. The foundation, growth and firm establishment of these papers have become identified with, and are significant to, the prosperity of Wilmington. It is the purpose of the Proprietor to make them more useful and influential by extending their circulation. To do so the subscription price to both the DAILY and WEEKLY, beginning with the new Volume, will be greatly reduced, according to the schedule below. There will be no reduction in the size of the paper. This will render the JOURNAL the cheapest paper in North Carolina, when the size and amount of reading matter is considered.

This reduction of twenty per cent. in the subscription rates to the DAILY JOURNAL and thirty-three and one-third per cent to the WEEKLY JOURNAL, necessitates the payment to be made invariably in advance.

Club rates with three of the leading agricultural papers of the South have been established, to which attention is invited.

The friends of the JOURNAL are earnestly requested not only to remit promptly the amounts due and renew their subscriptions for another year but to use their exertions to aid in extending its circulation. The reissues of a large number of subscribers has crippled many efforts to extend the usefulness and influence of the paper.

After the 28th instant no name will be placed upon the subscription books without the prepayment of the subscription price AND AFTER DUE NOTICE AND REASONABLE TIME THE NAMES OF ALL DELINQUENT SUBSCRIBERS WILL BE ERASED. AS THERE WILL POSITIVELY BE NO EXCEPTION TO THIS RULE, IT IS TO BE HOPED THAT NONE WILL BE OFFENDED. ALL SUBSCRIBERS WILL BE DULY NOTIFIED OF THE EXPIRATION OF THEIR TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Attention is invited to the following schedule of subscription prices:
