Smothered.

A colored infant, some four months old, the son of a man named Andrew Spencer, was accidentally smothered in bed, at Middle Sound, on Tuesday night. Coroner Hewlett held an inquest and rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

Call To-Day.

This being positively the last day of Dr. Weil's visit, we advise those in want of his services or his inimitable Eye-Glasses at once to avail themselves of the opportunity. Office at Heinsberger's Book Store—up stairs.

Legislative Locals.

In the Senate, on Wednesday, Mr. Long introduced a petition from citizens of Richmond county, praying the enactment of a law to prevent the yearly gatherings known as the Scotch Fair, in that county.

A resolution was introduced by Mr. Allen for the relief of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad.

Lecture by Gov. Vance.

We learn that Ex-Gov. Vance is expected to lecture in this city some evening next week, probably on Wednesday, and that an effort will be made to secure the Opera House for the occasion. More definite particulars will be announced in a few days and as soon as the distinguished gentleman can be heard from again.

Superior Court.

The labors of this tribunal were continued yesterday.

The matter of foreclosure of the mortgage on the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad was brought up by a motion of Counsel to set a day for the trial of the case. The argument on this point consumed the greater portion of the forenoon, and was participated in by Col. Robert Strange and M. London, Esq., for, and Hon. Geo. Davis and Majors C. M. Stedman and D. J. Devane against, the motion. The decision of His Honor was adverse to the motion, as it was against the rule of the Court.

State vs. James M. Deal, for resisting an officer. Not guilty.

State vs. John T. Speight, for larceny, (an old case). Trial not yet concluded.

Arrangement of Cut Flowers.

The London Gardener says that of the various mistakes made by persons in arranging flowers, the commonest is that of putting too many in a vase; and next to that, is the mistake of putting too great a variety of colors into one boquet. Every flower in a group should be clearly distinguishable and determinable without pulling the nosegay to pieces; the calyx of a clove pink should never be hid by being plunged into the head of a white phlox, however well the colors may look. Sweet peas never look so well in the hands as they do on the boughs over which they climb, because they cannot be carried without crowding them; but put them lightly into a vase with an equal number of mignonette, or, rather, ornament a vase half full of mignonette, with a few blossoms of sweet peas, and you get a charming effect, because you follow the natural arrangement by avoiding crowding of the blooms, and putting them with the green foliage which they want to set them off.

Incidentals.

January leaves us to-day.

Wood was in demand yesterday.

No session of the City Court yesterday.

The Grand Jury yesterday found 7 true bills.

Special meeting, this evening, of Concord Chapter No. 1.

One colored man was yesterday admitted to the City Hospital.

Turpentine hands and distillers wanted by Mr. A. H. VanBokkelen.

Judge Clarkoe opened Pitt Court with prayer! Hurry up with those Asylum bills Mr. Legislature.

India rubber weddings are the latest. The shrewd originator thinks there will be a great deal of "give" in them.

This is the last day of Dr. Weil's stay in our city, and those who wish to procure his glasses should make a note of the fact.

Thirty dozen children's button and lace shoes, all colors, just received by Evans & VonGlahn, opposite the JOURNAL office.

Capt. Pennypacker, the Lessee of the Opera House, very kindly tendered the use of it, free of charge, for the Concert last evening.

We are pleased to see that our citizens are supplying themselves with Watson's New Map of the United States. It is reliable.

The Raleigh News, of the 24th inst., arrived last night. It was probably sent, through mistake, via California, or the Cape of Good Hope.

De Witter, the colored Greeley orator, who was in Wilmington during the recent Presidential campaign, is now reporter, in the Senate, for the Raleigh Sentinel.

It is full time, we think, for the city authorities to enforce the ordinances in regard to forestalling. The abuses of privileges in the fish market are very great.

The Grand Lodge, K. of P., which has been in session in this city during the week, adjourned yesterday, at 1 o'clock, to meet in the city of Raleigh on next January 17th.

Notwithstanding the weather, the Wilmington Rifle Guards and their friends assembled in force at the Grand Promenade at the City Hall, last evening, and a very pleasant time resulted.

The crossings at the intersection of Princess and Second streets, one of the most prominent thoroughfares in the city, are in a woful plight. They should certainly be laid over with flagstones and that at once.

The Hop to be given by the L'Ariosa Pleasure Club, at Eclectic Hall, this evening, will probably be one of the most pleasant of the season. The near approach of Lent, which will close the gay season, will give an added interest to the occasion.

The streets were covered yesterday with the snow and sleet that fell on the previous night. It was not cold enough for a solid freeze, however, and there was more slush than there was ice on the sidewalks, rendering pedestrianism anything but pleasant.

The Raleigh Sentinel says: "The Wilmington JOURNAL, of Thursday, complains of not having received the Sentinel of Tuesday. Our mailing clerk, who is a careful, reliable man, says our paper is regularly mailed to our Wilmington exchanges in the Wilmington package. The fault must be in the Wilmington postoffice."

Wilmington Ship Canal.

An adjourned meeting of the citizens of Wilmington will be held at the Commercial Exchange, to-day, at 11 o'clock, to further consider the projected Wilmington Ship Canal. The call is issued by Col. Wm. L. DeRosset, Chairman of the previous meeting.

It is hoped that there will be a good turn out of our people, so that the plan may have a full and careful consideration.

Before the Footlights.

Duprez & Benedict's Minstrels are in Mobile.

The Martinetti Pantomime Troupe are in Nashville.

Rubenstein and Wieniawski sing in Mobile to-morrow evening.

Theodore Thomas, instead of coming South, this time, has gone back to New York.

The Jefferson Family.

Charles Burke Jefferson, son of Joe Jefferson, the great comedian, was to have made his debut on the Charleston stage on Wednesday afternoon, at the matinee. May the mantle of his father fall on him!

A slight sketch of the Jefferson family will probably be read with interest by the many admirers of the comedian in this city.

The maternal grandfather of Joseph Jefferson was Monsieur Thomas, a refugee from St. Domingo, who escaped with his little daughter, the massacre, by a few hours only, losing a great plantation and a large personal estate. He came with his child direct to Charleston. In her girldhood the fair young refugee became a member of the household of one of the prominent Huguenot families of that city. Afterwards she went upon the stage, and was noted as one of the most attractive singers of her day. She married twice; her only child by her first marriage being the fine comedian, Charles Burke. By her second husband, Joseph Jefferson, she had two children, Camelia and the present Joseph Jefferson. The young comedian who appeared at the matinee Wednesday is, therefore, the great grandson of the old refugee, the grandson of Mrs. Burke Jefferson, and the son of the most famous comedian of all time, as no one has ever, in any country or at any period known to us, achieved the wondrous success of playing one character nearly 1,500 times, in seven years, with an ever-increasing success.

The Heirs of Benj. Craig.

Adjutant General Townsend writes as follows to our Secretary of State, relative to the enquiry recently made of the heirs of Benj. Craig: "I beg leave to state that the only property found was the ancient Commission as a Pilot belonging to Benjamin Craig, which was forwarded to Joshua G. Craig, of Wilmington, on the 17th inst."

National Hotel Arrivals, Jan. 30th.

A B Page, Nichols, S C; C M Clark, Pee Dee, S C; J A Maultsby, Whiteville, N C; W M Bottams, Fayetteville; Geo W Reave, Marion, S C; W J Maultsby and lady, Whiteville, N C; E M Charles, Jr, W E Charles, A Spain White, Darlington, S C; Dr S Angle, Charlotte, N C; J W Brinkley and daughter, Warswell, N C; T F Toon, Fair Bluff; J Q Elkins, Horse Shoe, N C; D B Marsteall, Baltimore, Md; J G King, Goldsboro', N C; P Driesham, Raleigh, N C; T B Newberry, Lumberton, N C; Daniel Roberts, New York.

Who Commenced It?

We inadvertantly omitted to mention in our Senate proceedings, that Dr. Murphy, the able Senator from Sampson, [illegible] mitted to make a statement [illegible] fense of his own county when the previous question was called on the Amnesty and Pardon bill. He said that the first disorder that occurred in his county from political causes, was the day succeeding a large political gathering when Jos. W. Holden, Dr. Menninger and two negroes from this city addressed the republicans, when a colored man, that had declared himself a democrat, and had the manliness to stand by his principles, was shot down in his own house by colored members of the Union League. The second and last murder was that of Minnas Herring. A man confessed the crime, and was arrested by the civil authorities and put in jail. This man was now at work on the farm of Sheriff Lee, of this county, having been pardoned by the United States authorities. —Raleigh News.

The Concert Last Night.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a large and appreciative audience attended the Concert for the benefit of the Jewish Synagogue, at the Opera House, last night. We congratulate the directors upon the excellence of the programme and the manner in which the affair was conducted.

Too much praise cannot be bestowed upon the voice of Mrs. S. R. Weil, every effort of which was vociferously applauded. The aria from Meyerber's "Robert" could not be rendered in a more tasteful and elegant manner, and the favorite song, "Kathleen Mavourneen," drew from the audience great plaudits and many tokens of appreciation in the shape of bouquets.

Such a pure and chaste voice as that of Mrs. D. Kahnweiler is seldom heard in any concert room. The selection from Der FreischutZ and the aria from Rossini's Semiramide delighted the audience beyond measure and were heartily encored.

Mr. Nathan Mayer sang Chickring's, "In the night she told a story," and Perche L'Adoro, from Arditi, in a manner highly creditable to that gentleman.

Prof. Rueckert's and Miss Greenwald's performances were highly appreciated, and their piano duet, the overture to Suppe's "Deicter und Bauer," was vociferously applauded, as was also Miss Greenwald's piano solo.

Mrs. Emanuel deserves great credit for her execution of Verdi's difficult composition, Non Fu Sogno "Kiss Waltz," and "Comin' thro' the Rye," were rapturously received. Her voice is an exquisite soprano.

Mr. C. J. Miers' violin performances prove that that gentleman has devoted considerable time and study to the cultivation of the "king of instruments." His solo, "Sounds from Home," and the duet with Mr. Mayer, were heartily encored.

The trio from Belisario, "Life has no power," was beyond doubt one of the gems of the evening.

We sincerely hope that the Concert will be repeated, as the music-loving people of Wilmington seldom have such an opportunity of testing the critical tastes. The floral tributes were showered upon all the performers, which proved the hearty appreciation of the audience.

To Skeptics.

The almost daily receipt of voluntary testimonials from every part of the country, from Physicians, Clergymen, old and young, male and female, is sufficient to convince the most skeptical that Dr. TUTT'S EXPECTORANT is the most valuable LUNG BALSAM of the age; many wonderful cures have been performed by it, as may be seen by hundreds of certificates in the hands of the proprietor. Try it and yourself thank us after.

BAINBRIDGE, GA., Sept. 24, 1869.

Mr. L. H. M. McTyre:

Dear Friend—Enclosed please find P. O. order for five dollars, and I shall have to apologize for not writing to you before. I have been quite sick, and very busy when well, therefore neglected it. You will please send me per Express two more bottles of Tutt's Expectorant. It is certainly a splendid thing for a cough; it has cured me effectually of my cough, and also several others to whom I gave it.

With a thousand thanks for the medicine you sent me.

I remain your sincere friend,

R. C. SCOTT.

for the Cure of Scrofulous Taint, Rheumatism, White Swelling, Gout, Goitre, Consumption, Bronchitis, Nervous Debility and all diseases arising from an impure condition of the Blood.

The merits of this valuable preparation are so well known that a passing notice is but necessary to remine the readers of this journal of the necessity of always having a bottle of this medicine among their stock of family necessities.

Certificates can be presented from many leading Physicians, Ministers, and heads of families throughout the South, indorsing it in the highest terms. The Fluid Extract of Rosadalis.

DR. S. WILSON CARR, of Baltimore, says he has used it in cases of Scrofula and other diseases with much satisfaction.

DR. T. C. PUGH, of Baltimore, recommends it to all persons suffering with diseased Blood, saying it is superior to any preparation he has ever used.

REV. DABNEY HALL, of the Baltimore M. E. Conference South, says he has been so much benefited by its use that he cheerfully recommends it to all his friends and acquaintances.

CRAVEN & CO., Druggists, at Gordonsville, Va., say it never failed to give satisfaction.

SAM'L G. McFADDEN, Murfreesboro, Tennessee, says it cured him of Rheumatism when all else failed.

WE CLERGYMEN WERE CURED

of Chronic and Acute Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Sciatica, Kidney and Nervous Diseases, after years of suffering, by taking Dr. Fitler's Vegetable Rheumatic Syrup—the scientific discovery of J. P. Fitler, M. D., a regular graduate physician, with whom we are personally acquainted, who has for 30 years treated these diseases exclusively with astonishing results. We believe it our christian duty, after deliberation, to conscientiously request sufferers to use it, especially persons in moderate circumstances who cannot afford to waste money and time on worthless mixtures. As clergymen we seriously feel the deep responsibility resting on us in publicly endorsing this medicine. But our knowledge and experience of its remarkable merit fully justifies our action. Rev. C. H. Ewing, Media, Pennsylvania, suffered sixteen years, became hopeless. Rev. Thos. Murphy, D. D., Frankford, Philadelphia. Rev. J. M. Davis, Hightstown, New Jersey. Rev. J. S. Buchanan, Clarence, Iowa. Rev. G. G. Smith, Pittsford, New York. Rev. Jos. Beggs, Falls Church, Philadelphia. Other testimonials from Senators, Governors, Judges, Congressmen, Physicians, &c., forwarded gratis with pamphlet explaining these diseases. One thousand dollars will be presented to any medicine for same diseases shown equal merit under test, or that can produce one-fourth as many living cures. Any person sending by letter description of affliction will receive gratis a legally signed guarantee, naming the number of bottles to cure, agreeing to refund money upon sworn statement of its failure to cure. Afflicted invited to write to Dr. Fitler, Philadelphia. His valuable advice costs nothing.
