HEADQUARTERS.

THE LOUISIANA COLLECTORSHIP.

CASEY CONFIRMED.

THE DEMOCRATS VOTED FOR HIM.

WASHINGTON, March 22—Night.—Confederations—Casey, Collector of Customs at New Orleans; Shaw, postmaster at Tallahassee, North Carolina, and Adams, postmaster at Pensacola. The President was indisposed to-day. Visitors were not permitted to see him. No executive business was transacted. The Senate, after a brief open session, went into executive session. Casey's confirmation occupied two and a half hours. It is understood that the Democrats generally voted for Casey upon the ground that he was more acceptable to the people of New Orleans than any person the President would nominate in his stead. The exact figures and names are inaccessible, but it is understood that Casey was confirmed by a respectable majority.

WASHINGTON, March 22—Night.—Nominations—Wm. P. Dockray, Collector of Customs at St. Johns, Florida; Joseph Jagenson, Collector of Customs at Petersburg, Virginia.

FOSTER POISONED HIMSELF.

NEARLY DEAD WHEN HUNG.

THE REASON WHY THE EXECUTION WAS HURRIED.

THE SWINDLE OF THE BANK OF ENGLAND.

FOSTER BURIED IN GREENWOOD.

DR. TYNG DENIES THAT HE POISONED HIMSELF.

THE TWEED CASE IN THE NEW YORK SENATE.

New York, March 22—Night.—A statement is published to-day, based on information derived officially from the Tombs, that Foster took poison the night before his execution.

About eight o'clock yesterday morning the matron of the Tombs found Foster to be sick, and in explanation he admitted that he had taken poison. The man's symptoms in every way confirmed the suspicion. On the morning of the execution the executioner, while many believed that the duration of religious exercises was telling on Foster's nerves, it was, in reality, weakness caused by the poison that was acting on him. The physician of the Tombs says that Foster would have died if the execution had been delayed until ten o'clock.

Judson Jarvis, Clerk of the Arrests Bureau, claims that he discovered to-day strong proof that George MacDonnell, who was arrested yesterday, is either F. A. Warren himself or one of his principal confederates in the late heavy forgeries on the Bank of England. Letters and packages have been found here addressed to Austin Bidwell, A. Byron Bidwell and George MacDonnell. The last mentioned came to Dupont, Sherman & Co., and they know nothing whatever of its owner.

New York, March 22—Night.—The letters and packages which have been addressed to Bidwell, care Duncan, Sherman & Co., bankers, and the Safe Deposit Company, are supposed to contain the missing bonds of the Bank of England. Proceedings to attach these letters were commenced to-day. Bidwell is an accomplice of MacDonnell.

The remains of William Foster were buried this morning in Greenwood. Rev. Drs. Walker and Tyng officiating. After the service Dr. Tyng said that he felt it to be his duty to state, in his belief, that the report that Foster had taken poison was a lie; that he and Dr. Walker were alone with Foster for three-quarters of an hour immediately previous to his going to the scaffold; that he seemed to be in good health and strength and had no remarkable self-possession of mind; that he dressed himself with minute care and covered fully and freely, and on being visited by the Sheriff at 9 a. m., announced his readiness in a full, cheerful voice, and although pinioned, he walked with a firm step and without assistance to the scaffold, where he stood until the fatal moment.

Both clergymen declared that the idea that he attempted or contemplated suicide, was entirely inconsistent with their observations of his physical and moral conduct during the last hours of his life.

Tynd's course, before the Senate investigating committee, like the course that the committee has no jurisdiction, Tynd, not having been intended being a member of the Senate. The committee decided that the question was not within their province and proceeded to examine the witnesses.

ARKANSAS.

CONFEDERATE PROBATES LEGALIZED.

There are to be adopted setting forth the fact that the bona fide persons added into the ranks of the large army, but it will include only well-to-do workmen and their families.

The Weldon News says: Our friend J. T. B. of Ringwood, tells us of another loss by fire. He says the dwelling house of Mr. Tom Lee, now for from Brickleyville, took fire on Monday last, and the wind being so high all efforts to stop it were vain. The flames communicated to an out-house and both that and the dwelling were soon a pile of ashes. Very little of the household goods were saved. We do not know Mr. Lee's circumstances, but losses of this kind rarely fall lightly on any one, and we sympathize with the family.

A Horse Branded. A sad case of depravity in horse-flesh is reported by the Paris Figaro. The favorite horse of a certain baron fell seriously ill; though every care was taken of the animal it rapidly grew worse and began to show signs of sinking. As a last resort, the doctor, an American, suggested that two glasses of brandy, with ginger should be administered every morning. The cure was most speedy; but ever since, the horse, having been accustomed to stand at the door of a wine shop to receive its matrimonial beverage, now stops at every similar establishment it passes, and last week, becoming angry at not being attended to, forced itself right through the window of a mercaderia de liqueres.
