

The Daily Journal.

WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, APRIL 16, 1873.

BY TELEGRAPH. FROM RALEIGH.

THE FOREIGN INSURANCE TAX.

OPINION OF THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

AGENTS MADE LIABLE FOR THE QUARTER ENDING MARCH 31st.

(SPECIAL TO THE JOURNAL.)

Raleigh, April 15.—The Attorney-General advises the Treasurer that Agents of foreign Insurance Companies must pay a tax of two per cent. on premiums for the quarter ending the 31st of March, and to impose the penalties if they refuse.

THE FIRE FIEND.

VERY DISASTROUS FIRE AT SPRINGFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS.

THREE QUARTERS OF A MILLION BURNED.

EIGHT HUNDRED OUT OF EMPLOYMENT.

Springfield, April 15.—Noon.—The mills No. 1 and 2 of the Dwight Manufacturing Company, including 4,000 bales of cotton, were burned this morning—loss $750,000. Eight hundred workmen are thrown out of employment.

STEAMER ATLANTIC.

EFFECTS OF SUNDAY'S STORM.

THE WRECK HARD AND FAST.

ANOTHER THEORY OF THE DISASTER.

HALIFAX, N. S., April 15.—Noon.—The wrecked steamer Atlantic remained hard and fast yesterday.

The only effect of Sunday's storm on the wreck was to carry away the mainmast.

The sea was so high yesterday that no work could be done.

New York, April 15.—Night.—London papers, at hand to-day, state that the first dispatch received by the owners of the steamer Atlantic, announcing the loss of the vessel, attributed the disaster to the watch on deck mistaking Sambre for Devil's light.

THE NEW REVELATION.

DEMOCRATIC MAYOR AND COUNCIL IN TRENTON, N. J.

Trenton, April 15.—Noon.—The Democrats elected a Mayor, and have the Council by 13 to 8.

LOUISIANA.

THE NEGRO KU KLUX.

LATEST FROM GRANT PARISH.

THE OUTLAWS WHIPPED OUT.

NEARLY ONE HUNDRED KILLED.

THE RINGLEADERS AND WHITE ALLIES ESCAPE.

PRACTICAL RECONSTRUCTION IN COLFAX TOWN, GRANT PARISH.

New Orleans, April 15.—Night.—The Steamer South-Western being the following from Grant Parish: The negroes had barricaded themselves in Colfax Court House, numbering 400, thoroughly armed.

One hundred and fifty men gathered from the surrounding parishes and made an attack on Sunday at noon.

The Court House was stormed at 3 o'clock. Negroes refused in the Court House. After further fighting the negroes displayed a flag of truce.

Several detachments moved on the Court House when the negroes opened fire. Capt. Hardnet was shot in the bowels, it is feared fatally.

They retreated outside of their breastworks.

As the only means of dislodging the negroes the Court House was fired and the negroes shot as they came from the burning building.

It is reported that from 80 to 100 negroes were killed, and there were none to be found for miles around.

The ringleaders and their white allies escaped. The Captain of the South-Western confirms the above, and says he saw 18 or 20 dead negroes and brought two wounded whites to Alexandria.

The South-Western left Colfax Sunday evening.

The saddest case on record is that of the want of a bible at the inauguration of a Missouri Governor.

The ceremony was detained until a messenger was sent over to the penitentiary to procure a copy.

HEADQUARTERS.

MODOC AFFAIRS NOT UP IN CABINET.

ANOTHER OF THOSE HIGHLY IMPORTANT CLAIMS DECISIONS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15.—Noon.—The Government has received nothing from the Modoc country since Sunday.

The President has appointed Lewis H. Mayer Collector for the first Alabama District.

The Postoffice Department has ordered a railway postal service from Allendale, S. C., to Augusta, Ga.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Night.—The Cabinet meeting to-day did not discuss Modoc affairs.

It is tacitly understood that the military have them in hand.

The Supreme Court of the United States to-day announced the following opinion in the case of Lopyers vs the United States.

Appeal from the Court of Claims. The Court of Claims in this case gave judgment against the appellant on a claim for cotton delivered to the agents of the Government under the act giving permission to persons sympathizing with the rebellion to sell their cotton, providing they would give one-fourth thereof to the United States.

The cotton was turned over to the Government on the 26th of July. On the 24th the President had issued a proclamation removing the restrictions on the trade in the district where the cotton was delivered—the Red River district—and it was on that day filed in the State Department, but it was not promulgated through the public press until the 26th.

The Court of Claims held that it was not valid until published, and was not published until promulgated as stated. This Court reverses that judgment, with direction that the Court of Claims enter a judgment for the appellant, holding that the only way to guard against the mischief arising from the uncertainty of proof as to the time of publication, is to apply the same legal presumption to proclamations that is applied to statutes; that is, that they had a rated existence at the beginning of the day of their date, and in the absence of fraud to permit no inquiry on the subject.

Mr. Justice Swayne delivered the opinion. Mr. Justice Bradley dissented.

Maj. Thos. Oehlert has been appointed Marshall of the Eastern District of Texas.

TENNESSEE.

THE MURDER OF GENERAL HINDMAN.

UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPT TO HARBOR CORPUS VAUGHN.

MEMPHIS, April 15.—Night.—An unsuccessful attempt has been made for the release, on a habeas corpus, of Vaughn, who is under arrest for the murder of General Hindman. It is understood that the prisoner has made a confession implicating persons in Helena, but the police authorities refuse to give any information concerning the case.

CUBA.

O'KELLY STILL IN PRISON.

BIDWELL FULLY IDENTIFIED.

HAVANA, April 15.—Night.—O'Kelly remains at Manzanilla. Caballos evidently intends to leave the solution to his successor, General Pieltain, who is expected shortly.

The English detectives have fully identified Bidwell, the alleged forger.

MISCELLANEOUS.

NEW YORK, April 15.—Noon.—The Trunk lines to the West have been adopted, and new freight tariff for a reduction of 16 per cent. The Herald special says that O'Kelly is under the protection of the British Consul, Dunlop.

O'Kelly is in no immediate danger.

A private dispatch says the Pope's disease is lumbago. He is rapidly recovering.

CHICAGO, April 15.—Noon.—There is a heavy snow storm between Omaha and Cheyenne, which has stopped the telegraphs. There is nothing from the Pacific coast to-day.

Boston, April 15.—Night.—The insurance on the Chiocopee Mills was $613,000. The Mutual Insurance Company of Boston loses $100,000.

SENIPOFIELD, April 15.—Night.—In addition to the Chicopee Mills, the engine and picker houses, two filled stores, and part of the railroad depot, with 1,500 bales of cotton, were burned.

HALIFAX, April 15.—Night.—The gale and high sea has prevented any work on the wreck of the steamship Atlantic.

PHILADELPHIA, April 15.—Night.—John Sidney Jones, who was arrested for firing his store and declared to be insane, and sent to the asylum, escaped from the third story by means of the water pipe. His estate is valued at $13,000.

ROSE, April 15.—Night.—The condition of the Pope is unchanged to-day.

New York, April 15.—Night.—The steamer Antwerp and Minnesota brought 205 passengers.

From the Somerville Palace, 10th.

Died to Death—Verbal Fate of a West Tennessee Young Lady.

It is rarely we are called upon to record any event so sad and heart-rending in its nature and details as the one to which we now allude.

Last week a young lady, named Elias Stearns, whose mother resides on the farm of Mr. Clay Irwin, near Macon, in this county, started out to take a ride on a rather wild horse. Being a reckless rider, and wishing to enjoy the exercise, she laid whip to the animal and was soon going at rapid speed.

On she went, unmindful of danger, until she came to a sudden turn in the road, when the saddle turned, as the horse was in the act of making the circuit, she was dashed headlong against a tree, and fell lifeless and mangled to the ground, never to rise again.

Her chest was completely crushed, and without speaking a word, she ceased to breathe in about fifteen minutes.

She was only sixteen years of age, was in the bloom and flush of maidenly beauty, and her sad, unexpected death was a hard blow to her widowed mother and the remainder of her family.

The deceased was a native of East Tennessee and came to this country about a year ago. Her family are poor but respectable people. They live the hearty sympathies of the entire surrounding community in their sad bereavement.

The New York correspondent of the Chicago Tribune writes:

Speaking of lucky ventures, Robert Bonner was extremely lucky in getting hold of the Ledger. He was working at the press for fifteen or twenty dollars a week, and has been told, by the owner of this paper, who called it the Merchant's Ledger, determined to give it up that he might devote his entire time and attention to a press he had invented, and which he supposed would supplant Hoe's. Bonner, as his story goes, was unwilling to lose his weekly salary, and, consequently, made an offer to the publisher for the property. The offer was accepted, and the Merchant's Ledger, having a circulation of but $3,000, passed into Bonner's hands, and the adjective of the name was dropped. The commercial sheet R. B. resolved to convert into a journal of miscellaneous reading, and to this end he secured the services of "Fanny Fern" (Mrs. Barton), then a new literary light, at the rate of $5,000 per annum—she agreeing to write for nobody else. The experiment, successful beyond expectation, led to other engagements of a similar sort, and to the foundation of Bonner's fortune.

When the proprietor of the Ledger dies, newspaper publishers ought to erect a monument over his grave to the honor of the Apostle of Advertising, as he certainly has been.

It is probably worth more than $1,000,000, and he has expended more than half that sum in advertising. He has paid $3,000 for a single advertisement, and $40,000 for a week's advertising.

He set the fashion of using printer's ink munificently, and verily has he had his reward.

Young Simpson, just beginning the study of natural philosophy, became fond of applying technical names to common objects to impress hearers with a sense of his profound knowledge, and tried the game with his father one evening. When he mentioned to him that he had swallowed some marine cephalopods, his father, who was much alarmed, and he suddenly seized Simpson and threw him to the floor, and held him, and screamed for help. And when Mrs. Simpson came with some warm water, and the hired man rushed in with a garden pump, they forced half a gallon of water down Simpson's throat, and then held him by the heels over the edge of the porch and shook him, while the old man said: "If you don't get them things out of William he will be pined." And when they were out, and William explained that the articles alluded to were merely oysters, then his father fondled him for half an hour with a trunk strap for scaring the family. Subsequently Simpson framed his language in more familiar phrase.—Dunbury News.
