New York, Aug. 22-Night,-This morning, while a number of men were pulling down a building at the corner of West Eleventh, near Hudson street, the walls fell in killing four men in stantly, and wounding nine others to such an extent that death is looked for.

have murdered for the recovery of $12,000 worth of property of the murdered man.

It was stated in the Sheriff's office to-day that Comptroller Green had sent word that he was making preparations to pay the judgment for which the furniture in the Comptroller's office and other city property were advertised for sale on Tuesday next.

This morning Michael Broadwick, while in a state of semi-intoxication, querreled with his mother-in law at 81 Carmine street. His daughter, fearing he might seriously injure her, called on her two sons, one of whom, James Broadwek, aged 19, rushed into the room and endeavored to take his father away from the poor woman whom he was savagely beating. when he turned on him with a large knife and stabbed him twice in the heart. He staggered and fel', but got up again and went up to the second floor and fell dead. The man's brother interfered and the father made a lunge at him and stabbed him nearly not fatally. At this point the police and were almost always quarrelling. Broadwick had been drinking hard for some days, and at the station house professed to know nothing about the bloody deed.

This week's imports are nearly eight million dollars, including over four and-a-half million for dry goods.
