ROOMS OF THE CENTRAL Ex. COM. OF THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY, Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 16th, '74.

The State Executive Committee of the Conservative party-which is composed of the various Congressional Executive Committees-will please meet in Raleigh on Wednesday, Jan uary 20th, 1875, to consult in regard to important matters.

Members of the Conservative pross are invited to attend. W. R. Cox,

Chairman of Central Com. J. J. LITCHFORD, Secretary.

THE DEMOCHATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTER AND ITS AP. PROACHING MEETING.

We desire to call special attention the meeting of the Executive Committee of the Democratic party that is to be held in Raleigh on the 20th of this month.

The meeting to be held on the 20th will doubtless be one of the most important ever held by the Executive Committee. As is generally understood its object is to arrive at some conclusion in regard to the calling of a Convention. This being the case and the decision to be made being so momentous in its consequences to the party and to the State it is incumbent upon every member of that Committee who loves his party and his State to be present at the appointed time .-Nor is it any the less incumbent on the various gentlemen from different parts of the State who have been specially invited to give the Commitsee the benefit of their opinion to be present. The press too ought to be fully represented. Witnesses as our people are to the scenes of lawless outrage and military despotism that are daily occuring, no true North Carolinian, whose duty it is to be there will fail for any cause save the very gravest to be present in Raleigh at the meeting on the 20th of this month,

Let the meeting be a full one, let it represent the true sentiment of the party, let harmony prevail and unbiased by any mere pride of opinion or by that very natural feeling that makes men unwilling to recede from any position once taken, let us act for the good of the party and for the good of North Carolina.

The following named gentlemen are members of the State Executive Committee from this section of the State, J. A Engelhard, of New Hanover

It is a masterly statement of the law and facts of the case, fortified by ful reference, to the Constitution of Louisians, to that of the United States, to Common law, to Statut | aw and to Parliamentary law. As an argument it is simply unanswerable. And then, too, the manner in which it was done was inim table. It was truly that of a gentleman as well as a statesman. It was our good fortune once to meet Mr. Bayard, and he is the only gentleman whom we ever knew born Mr. Jesup and Mr. Stewart, are to be north of Mason and Dixon's line, and read side by side with those of tried who never lived at the South, who would be taken for a Southron born

GRANT BAYS THE " MILITARY " ARE NOT LAWYERS, and GRANT is right, and furthermore GRANT is himself some. Hearty, the thing which men call "civil liberty." The acknowledged head and thing of a "military," and like "NB- patriarch; of the free press of America, crastry knows no law." In his message GRANT says that General SHRID-

Did GRANT ever hear of such a document as that called the Constitution of the United States! Did he ever hear of such a thing as an expost facto law? Did he ever read the 4th clause point, gave varied and carnest expresof the IX section of Article I of the Federal Constitution? It says. " 4. No bill of attainder or ex post facto law shall be passed. Does he know that any law passed now or in the future affixing new punishment to acts com nitted in the past would be an ex post facto law?

Verily " the military " are not lawyers, and verily, verily, GRANT and SHERIDAN are "military." And yet, great Heaven, the destiny of the country is in their hands !

WHERE, OH ! WHERE IS BELKNAP and the rest "of us"?

THE MONSTER NEW YORK IN DIGNATION MEETING AT COO-

From all accounts, the New Yorkers and a moester meeting at Cooren Isstructs on Monday night last. There has been nothing equal to it, we are told, since the great assembly of the people of New York in April, 1861, when the war feeling was at its height Men of all shades of political opiniou, it is said, put uside their differ-nees to nuite in a common assertion the principles underlying every form of really republican government. The New York World says:

In the list of the officers of last night's meeting the names of original anti-slavery men like Mr. Francis G. Shaw, and of conspicuous Republicans like Mr. Evarts, Mr. Peter Cooper, of New York. Mr. Belmont, who called the meeting to order, struck the true key-note of its meaning when he evoked to the minds of all who heard him the recollections of that great demonstration of 1861, 'in which, leader then, as to-day qualities. We know not if he be of constitut onal Democratic party of the Union the dread issue forced upon us by our misguided brethren of the South. By those memories Mr. Bel-mont appealed to them to rouse themselves now once more in behalf of a thing "dearer than the Union, dearer Mr. Bryant, with whose speech the meeting opened—a Republican to-day as in 1861 he was a Republican—re- Expressed the determination to Mr. Belmont's address, when he declared organized and given shape and purone motive only bore sway, "a sincere desire to preserve the Constituion from violation, and to prevent an act of arbitrary power from becoming a a precedent in the future." To this determination all the speakers, each fu his own way and from his own standsion, and to this in all the forms in which it was presented to them the mighty assembly of the people thundered forth their unanamous 'Amen,' in a manner which beyond all doubt or peradventure, that whatever pains may be taken by guilty officials or by pur-blind partisans to becoud and beelog the true issue now made up between President Grant and his lientenants on the one side and the citizens of the United States on the other side, the people of New York at least distinctly understand that issue, have deliberately resolved to meet that issue, and mean to determine that issue in one
