THE KELLOGG GOVERNMENT TO BE RECOGNIZED.

BUTLER'S MOTION TO TAKE UP CIVIL RIGHTS BILL

DEFEATED.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24-Noon-The Seriate Committee on Railroads agreed to raport against the Northern Pacific Raod and all other subsidies, except from Scott's Southern Pacifig, which they will consider on Monday.

It is said by one of the most prominent Republican Senators, that during the present week a joint resolution will be introduced, recognizing the of a cotton press near Charlotte. Kellogg Government, irrespective of Pinchback's admission as a Senator from Lonisians, and that a military Governor for Louisiana, or any other Southern State, as some have par-tially suggested, is out of the question. Sheridan will remain at New Orleans without limit as to time. WASHINGTON, Jan. 25—Noon—In the House, a large number of bills as will remember there is no better school than this, combined with cheap-news.

In the Senate, a large number of petitions were presented for a repeal of the law of 1872, relative to various foreign products of ten per cent, duty, and against the re-enaction of the duty on tea and coffee. Beferred to the Finance Committee.

The navy department took fire at 12:30 to-day, and still burns. WASHINGTON, Jan. 25 - Night. - SENATE - Vice President Wilson being absent from the city, Anthony, of Bhode Island, was elected President pro tem.

Robertson, of South Carolina, presented joint resolutions from the Bouth Carolina Legislature, asking an appropriation of one hundred thou-saud dollars to deepen the harbor of Charleston. Referred to the commit-

Morrill, of Vermont, introduced bill to establish an education fund and apply a portion of the proceeds of the public lands to public education, and to provide for the more complete en-dowment and support of national col leges for the advancement of scientific and industrial education. Ordered to be printed and lie on the table. Morbill at an early day for the purpose of submitting some remarks thereon.

The Chair and before the S nate a letter from the Secretary of War, in answer to a resolution of the Senste of the 11th instant, transmitting copies of the correspondence in relation to certain disorders in the State of Louisiana. Ordered to be printed and re-ferred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

Pitzaugh was nominated for Collector of Customs at Natchez, Miss, House—A bill was introduced regulating telegraph tolls, also aiding Southern milrosds.

By Young of Georgis: A bill appropriating $50,000 for the improvement of the Etawata river, and also improving Galveston harbor.

The bilt making Houston, Tex., a port of entry, and also the bill making the caual connecting L ke Michigan, Illinois, and the Mississippi river, special order for February 3d, passed by a vote of 179 to 55.

The motion allowing the Speaker to forbid dilatory motion upon certain questions, was defeated by a vote of 150 to 98 not required two-thirds Repulsiveness opposed to the civil rights bill voting nay. The debate was quite spirited. Among the Republicans voting no were, Buffington, Burchard, Burleigh, Foster, Hale, of Me., Hale, of N. Y., Kasson, Merriam, Phelp', Price, E. H. Robarts, Sener, Smith of O., Willard, of Vi., Willard, of Mich.

The bill authorizing another bridge at St. Louis passed.

Butler moved to take up the civil rights bill. Defeated by a vote 147 to 93—not two-thirds—the Republicans voting no were Butler, of Tenn., Harrison, Hyde, Lofland, Lonndes, Maynard, Sener, Sheats, Sloan, Smith, of Va., Stanard, Strait, and Thornburg.

In the Supreme Court to-day, there was nothing of importance, questions of fact occupied the Judges. Nothing whatever affecting the South, and no general principles of law were enunciated.

The Statesville Intelligencer says: James D. Hodges, a revenue officer of this city, was shot and severely wounded in the arm while attempting to enter a distillery in Gaston county yesterday.

Col. J. W. Hinton, of Norfolk, died suddenly on Saturday from heart disease. Col. Hinton was a native of this State and began life as a merchant, studying law he soon arose to prominence. He was regarded as one of the finest stump speakers in the South. [Col. Hinton was the brother of Mr. J. N. Hinton of this city.—Eds.

The Raleigh News says : The see sion of the Supreme Court Friday and Saturday was consumed entirely in the argument on the cases of Cloud vs. Wilson, and Moore vs. Hilliard, both cases being heard in conjunction. In the first case, Mr. McCorkle appeared for the plaintiff, and the defence represented by Mossrs. Graves, Smith & Strong, and J. W. Graham. In the latter case, Mesers, E. G. Haywood, J. B. Batchelor and Judge Fowle appeared for the plaintiff, and Messre, Smith & Strong, Battle & Son, D. M. Carter and Gen. Cox appeared for the defendant. Each of the attorneys took part in the argument, and the matter was thoroughly discussed, every available point being brought to bear. The Court will probably render a decision

Monday evening. The Raleigh News says: A meeting of the City Commissioners was called last evening for the purpose of electing a Mayor to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mayor Holden. All the Board were present, and acting Mayor H. M. Miller presided. After the meeting was called to order, Commissioner Royster said that owing to the limited notice given of the meeting and its purpose, he was unprepar-ed to cast his vote, and moved that the meeting adjourn till next Wednesday night. He had had no opportunity of consulting with his constituents on the subject, and as he was elected to this Board to represent and reflet their wishes, he would protest against any vote being taken to-night. Commissioner Stronach coincided with the views of Mr. Royster, and seconded the motion for postponement. The motion prevailed.

The Baleigh News says: The following named gentlemen have been appointed Vice Presidents of the State Agricultural Bociety for the several
