CIVIL RIGHTS COMING TO THE FRONT AGAIN.

TRYING TO LUG IN ARKANSAS.

THE CANADIAN TREATY REJECTED.

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL FAIRLY BEFORE THE HOUSE.

BEAST BUTLER CALLED A MURDERER TO HIS FACE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Night.—Suzette—Lorenz introduced a bill authorizing the retirement of Brevet Brigadier-General W. H. Emery, of the U. S. Army, with rank and pay of Brigadier General. Referred to Committee on Military Affairs.

House.—The House has voted to reconsider the vote by which the Civil Rights bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Night.—Suzette—Clyton, of Arkansas, submitted a resolution requesting the President, if not in compliance with the public interest, to transmit to the Senate such information as is in his possession, and not heretofore sent to Congress, respecting affairs in Arkansas, together with such recommendations as he may deem proper in reference thereto.

Johnson, of Virginia, objected to the latter part of the resolution and said it was not customary to call upon the President for recommendations.

Clyton consented to striking out that part of the section objected to, and as amended it was agreed to.

The Vice President laid before the Senate a communication from the Secretary of the Treasury, in answer to the resolution of the Senate December 18th 1873, in regard to the number of bales of cotton seized, by whom taken, when and where sold, price obtained, disposition of proceeds &c. Ordered to be printed and referred to Committee on Claims.

Cameron, of Pennsylvania, called up the House Bill appropriating $25,000 to defray the expenses of entertaining His Majesty, King Kalakaua, during his recent visit to this country. Passed.

A large number of the bills reported by the Committee on Pensions were passed.

The balance of the day was occupied by Morrill, of Vermont, in a speech against the proposed Canadian reciprocity treaty. An Executive session followed, and the treaty was rejected.

House.—The civil rights bill was fairly gotten before the House to-day, and the Senate bill was offered as a substitute for that reported from the Judiciary Committee. Another substitute was offered by White, of Alabama.

In Butler's opening speech he alluded to portions of the Southern people as bandits, horse thieves and assassins. This remark was resented by McLean, of Texas, who said that the only murderer he knew on the floor was Butler himself, who had murdered a man at New Orleans.

Butler characterized this language as improper, ungentlemanly and raffish, and the Speaker ruled that the language of both was unparliamentary.

Butler added that the trouble with the country was that he had not hanged more, as he ought to have done.

There was a good deal of confusion and excitement during this scene, but everything smoothed over and the debate went on. The vote will be taken to-morrow.

The Senate, in Executive session to-day, confirmed S. F. Stallay as Postmaster at Washington, N. C., and Mary C. Danner as Postmistress at Secretary Robinson was before the House Appropriation Committee this morning on the general subject of appropriations for the various navy yards. He recommends the strong restoration of the Pensacola yard. He has not yet indicated his views with reference to the Senate Naval Committee's report looking to the abolition of certain yards, the Washington yard being included in the list.

The House is in session to-night on the Civil Rights bill.

No result yet in West Virginia. The last ballot is as follows: Walker 22, Coff 15, Price 15, Brannan 13, Johnson 8, Camden 6, Faulkner 4, Dennis 2, Pendleton 1.

WISCONSIN.

THE DEMOCRATS AND BOLTERS ELECT THEIR SENATOR.

HOW THE THING WAS BROUGHT ABOUT.

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 3.—Night.—The eleventh ballot elects Angus Cameron, of La Crosse. The vote: Cameron, 68, Carpenter 59, Scott 51.

The Democratic caucus nominated Cameron and aided by bolters effected the result.

The election of Mr. Cameron was brought about by the coalition of the Democrats with the bolting Republicans. The latter offered the Democrats four names from which they might choose a candidate: Judge Cole, ex-Governor Lewis, General Guppy and Angus Cameron. The Democratic caucus last night nominated Cameron, conditionally, upon his acceptance of the platform; that includes hard money tariff for revenue only, and the supremacy of civil authority in time of peace.

THE LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SENATE.

FORTY-FOURTH DAY.

FEBRUARY, 2d, 1875.

A communication was received from the Attorney General, in response to a request from the Senate, asking his opinion as to the constitutionality of a taxing act. His opinion was that a license tax on dogs would be unconstitutional.

Mabson, colored, a bill to better compensate commissioners. Referred.

Mr. Graham, a bill to incorporate the Direct Trade Union, Patrons of Husbandry. Referred.

The navy bill being the special order, Mr. Busbee stated he regretted that he was compelled to have been absent from his seat yesterday when such a furious onslaught was made upon his position. He did not design speaking upon the subject at present, but desired having the following certificate read:

At a meeting of District Grange, No. 1, on the 3d September, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

DISTRICT GRANGE No. 1, Office Secretary.

Resolved, That the repeal of the usury laws will tend to cheapen money.

B. C. MANLY, Sec'y.

A true copy of resolution passed September 3d, 1874.

B. C. MANLY, Sec'y.

Mr. Busbee stated that District No. 1, was composed of 80 subordinate Granges, in the counties of Franklin, Granville, Nash, Wake, Johnston, Johnston, Orange and Chatham, averaging over 40 members each, representing nearly 4,000 farmers.

On motion, the further consideration of the bill was postponed until to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Love, a resolution sending greetings to Tennessee over the election of Andrew Johnson to the United States Senate. It heartily endorsed the election of Mr. Johnson, and declared the belief that this election was a glorious triumph of the cause of liberty.

After considerable discussion, participated in by Messrs. Kerr, Mills, Love, Standford and Waring, Mr. LeGrand moved to table the whole question, which was done by a vote of 35 to 5.

On motion of Mr. Waring, the bill on the Public Debt was made the special order for Tuesday next at 12 o'clock.

Marvelous Beyond Precedent
Is the effect of SOZODONT upon the whole economy of the mouth, keeping the gastro-intestinal tract in perfect order, giving to the breath a balmy fragrance.

Many valuable horses die from the effects of colic. The best thing to do in a case of this kind is to pour a bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment into a long necked junk bottle, add half pint of molasses and water, then pour the whole down the horse's throat. In ten minutes the horse will begin to eat.

Parson's Purgative Pills will greatly relieve, if not entirely cure, dyspepsia, when everything else fails. They have been tried in some desperate cases, and have given more relief than any other medicine.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills.—These doctored, well-celebrated and popular medicines have effected a revolution in the healing art, and given the faculty of seeing 20 times which have for many years obstructed the progress of medical science. The false supposition that "Consumption" is a fatal disease, and that physicians from attempting to find remedies for that disease, and patients afflicted with it are obliged themselves to die, without making an effort to escape from a doom which they supposed to be unavoidable. It is now proved, however, that Consumption can be cured, and that it has been cured in a very great number of cases (some of them apparently desperate ones) by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, and in other cases by the same medicine in connection with Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, one or both, according to the requirements of the case.

Dr. Schenck himself, who enjoyed uninterrupted good health for more than forty years, was supposed, at one time, to be at the very gate of death, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless, and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the above-named medicine, and since his recovery, many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success.

Full directions accompany each, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professional at his principal office, corner Fifth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, every Monday, where all persons for advice may be addressed. Schenck's medicines are sold by all druggists.
