

The Journal

VOL. XXIV. - NO. 40.

WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1875.

WHOLE NO. 6,804.

The Daily Journal.
WILMINGTON, N. C.:
TU-SDAY, FEB. 16, 1875.
BY TELEGRAPH.
RALEIGH.

THE USURY BILL IN THE HOUSE YESTERDAY.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT POSTPONING ITS ACTION UNTIL MARCH OF NEXT YEAR.

THE SENATE DISCUSSING THE PUBLIC DEBT.

[SPECIAL TO JOURNAL.]
RALEIGH, February 15.
The Usury bill was discussed in the House to-day, but no vote was taken. Much interest continues to be felt on every hand in the matter. The vote will probably be reached to-morrow on the second reading of the bill. The motion pending at adjournment was one made by Mr. Mebane, that the bill should not go into effect until the 1st of March, 1876, which there is some hope of passing.

The Senate is considering the public debt, the same to be settled on a basis of five millions and a quarter, not including the special tax on construction bonds, with interest commencing at 2 and ending at 5 per cent.

HEADQUARTERS.

GRANT TRYING TO FORCE THE WAR BILL THROUGH.

A RED HOT REPORT COMING.

CIVIL RIGHTS IN THE SENATE.

DECISION IN THE SUPREME COURT.

THE SENATE TALKING PINCHBACK.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15--Noon--It is stated that the President favors the cautious bill, and threatens that if Congress fails in its duty he will not fall in his. Should Congress adjourn without action it might be necessary for him to proceed in greater extremes than the mere suspension of the writ of habeas corpus.

EUROPE.

LATEST FROM THE SEAT OF WAR.

THE ALEONISTIS FALLING BACK.

PARIS, Feb. 15--Noon--A Carlist telegram says that Maslades has separated from the army of the North and is blockaded in Pamplona.

All ministers, except La Lanza, at request of MacMahon, remain until after the crisis on the constitutional bill.

Dora is seriously ill.

There is no change in the political situation and no one is willing to undertake to form a new Cabinet.

MADRID, Feb. 15--Noon--Alfonso has arrived. Marquis De Molins, Minister of Marine, goes as Ambassador to France; Conovas del Castillo succeeds him.

SARAGOSA, Feb. 15--Noon--Bazaine has gone to Madrid; the police had to protect him from violence and insult upon his departure. The Alfontists have fallen back. The Carlists have been re-organized. Bilbao is threatened.

BOSTON, Feb. 15--Night--Later advices show that the fighting is not so suffering from want of food or water, and as long as the ice remains firm the crews can make their way to land.

THE RUB.

THE INTENSE COLD WEATHER SUFFERING ON THE BAY.

BOSTON, Feb. 15--Noon--Yesterday was the coldest day of the season. Many harbors along the coast are frozen.

A revenue cutter, just returned from Provincetown, where she has been assisting thirty ice-bound vessels, brings from the stranded Bromfield, bound from Florida to Boston. The men are frosted, and the amputation of their hands and feet will probably be necessary. They were upon two small ice, one being upon reaching the shore and the other in the rigging of the schooner. The cutter, after seeing the schooner, returned to the scene of disaster. Many of the ice-bound vessels are out of provisions.

Brevet Gen. Geo. M. Macy died at Boston, on Sunday, from a wound received from his own pistol, which was discharged by his falling. It was a small pistol carried in the breast pocket.

ELECTRICISMS.

Lieutenant Geo. G. Smith, of the 23d Infantry, has committed suicide at Cheyenne.

At a meeting of the weavers, at Fall River, it was resolved to exclude reporters' letters from other places being read, and urging firmness and pledging aid. A resolution of adherence to the strike was unanimously adopted.

At Cincinnati, whiskey is feverish, and the distilleries active, producing 40,000 gallons daily, to beat the probable tax. During the week $56,540 gallons were taken out of bond, upon which $249,577 tax was paid.

There has been an embezzlement among the Chinese prisoners in jail at Singapore, in which sixty-seven were killed and injured, including sixteen wardens.

The Cuban residents at New York had a mass meeting on Saturday. Jose Socrates Jomegan presided. The object of the meeting is to consider the best method of assisting their brethren in the field.

Victor Place, Franco-Cassini at New York, during the Franco-Prussian war, died recently in France.

A fire at Darien, Georgia, destroyed a number of stores and the Gazette printing office. Loss $100,000. Insurance $10,000. This is the third fire within six months. It is supposed to be the work of negro incendiaries.

At New Orleans, on Sunday night, Henry Ducher, colored, who was returning from church, was assailed by a party of drunken soldiers who drove him home where he had a shot gun, with which he killed Warren Hicks, Co. D, 3d Infantry.

THE GLENN CIVIL RIGHTS RESOLUTION.

The following proceedings are reported by the Raleigh News upon the Glenn Civil Rights Resolutions, which were the special order on Friday:

Mr. Glenn took the floor, and said that he arose for the double purpose of supporting the resolutions, and also making a motion for postponement, having been earnestly requested by warm personal friends of the Republican party to do so. He did not wish any one to think that on making this motion he intended to dodge, or in any way evade the question. He said, at the time he introduced these resolutions he had no thought of the commotion they would create, and regretted that such was the case, but nevertheless he stood on the very same ground that he took then, and would not retract one word or sentiment uttered then. He had been abused and vilified by friends, and the Republican press of the country, or a part of it, had seen fit to heap on him vituperation and abuse, and though his feelings have been wrought up to some extent, yet he cared nothing for it. He was sent here by the good and honest people of Yadkin county, a constituency that would reflect honor upon any man. To that constituency he had made solemn pledges, and in the course of it had pursued he only carried out those pledges. He closed his remarks by making the motion to postpone till Thursday next.

Mr. Poole said:

I favor the postponement of the resolution to a certain day, in order that members may have mature deliberation on the most momentous questions ever before this House.

Sir, when I look over this hall and see the crowd of anxious faces, both in the galleries and in the lobby, I feel the magnitude of its importance. There never has been a subject preferred to the consideration of the people of North Carolina of more vital interest than this. I have no disposition to delay action on my own account. The position I have taken on this floor heretofore, I still adhere to in regard to this vital question. The newspapers may criticize my action, and I may be condemned by some and my motive impugned, but that does not deter me from doing what I believe to be right as a humble member of this body.

My course here, which has been the cause of such extended notoriety recently, is not inconsistent with the position which both my noble colleague (Col. Dale) and myself occupied before our constituents in the last campaign. The subject was then daily discussed before them. I retract nothing I said then, I have no regrets now for my action upon the Civil Rights bill in Congress, but remain steadfast and unmovable in those principles which I believe dear to the hearts of all true North Carolinians; believing the passage of that odious measure will only degrade and lower us in the scale of human society. If the Senate fastens that law upon us, I would not be true to my constituents to affiliate longer with the party that does it--and they will sustain me in my course. But in order that there may be a full and untrammelled expression by the members, and the House seems to be crowded with other business to-day, I think the postponement asked for by the gentleman from Yadkin (Mr. Glenn), is proper, and I hope will meet with no objection whatever, out of courtesy to him and those who wish for more time for reflection.

As to myself, my course is plainly marked out in the remarks which I made the other day.

Mr. Speaker, I think a matter of such vast magnitude as this, should rest upon all in one solid phalanx both for the good and harmony of this great nation.

With these remarks, I call for the question.

At the conclusion of Mr. Poole's remarks, Mr. Walker, of Richmond, said:

Mr. Speaker, I will cheerfully concede to the gentleman from Yadkin all that he can demand. There is no gentleman in this Hall whatever be his political affiliations, for whom I feel a higher personal regard than my honored friend from Yadkin. I have risen, Mr. Speaker, not to oppose his wishes, but to comment upon one expression which fell from his lips during the course of his remarks. He says that his position may result in his political ruin, as a born son of North Carolina, and with a heart swelling with the generous impulses which characterize her people, I will tell the gentleman that no man who follows the lead of his conscience, and obeys the commands of his judgment, and especially one who stands in vindication of the supremacy of the Anglo-Saxon race, can ever fail to command the affections and the support of every true North Carolinian who is not trammelled by passion or prejudice. I have said all, and even more than I intended to say, but I do sincerely hope that the motion of my friend will be adopted without dissenting voice.

The motion to postpone prevailed.

DIED.

On Monday night, the 15th inst., EDDIE BASKCROFT, son of Nathaniel and Rosalie Baskcroft, aged 12 months and 10 days. The relatives, friends and acquaintances of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Baskcroft are invited to attend the funeral at 5 o'clock, this afternoon, from their residence on Second, near Church street.

SPECIAL.

The best dressed men in town are wearing Warwick Collars. They say there is nothing like them for comfort.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the Texas Gift Concert Association, in another column. The Association has been meeting with abundant success and refers to all citizens of Denton and Northern Texas. We recommend those of our readers who desire purchasing tickets to do so at once, so as to stand an equal chance of drawing the capital prize.

The times of Fansh, through which the human voice breaths, should never become rusty. To keep the teeth free from blemish, to render their decay impossible, it is only necessary to use FRAGRANT BUZZBOND. It is antiseptic and supremely wholesome.

The public are hereby assured, through the columns of the Journal, that Parma's Purgative Pills contain no injurious principle, but that they may be administered to children and the most weak and debilitated constitutions in small doses, with great certainty of success.

Dr. A. Johnson, one of the most successful practitioners of his time, invented what is now called Johnson's Amalgam Linctament. The great success this medicine has met with in curing all diseases of throat and lungs will make the name of Johnson not less favorably known, than that of Louis Napoleon.

Consumptives, Take Notice.
Every moment of delay makes your cure more hopeless, and much depends on the judicious choice of a remedy. The amount of testimony in favor of Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure for consumption, far exceeds all that can be brought to support the pretensions of any other medicine. See Dr. Schenck's Almanac, containing the certificates of many persons of the highest respectability, who have been restored to health, after being pronounced incurable by physicians of acknowledged ability. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup alone has cured many, as these references will show; but the cure is often promoted by the employment of two other remedies which Dr. Schenck provides for the purpose. These additional remedies are Schenck's Sea-Weed Tonic and Schick's Kidney Pills. By the timely use of these medicines according to directions, Dr. Schenck certifies that most any case of Consumption may be cured.

Dr. Schenck is professionally at his principal office, corner Ninth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, every Monday, where all letters for advice may be addressed.

Seed Potatoes.

NOT LANDING FROM SCHOONER MARY B. BEVER.

300 Ribs, Extra P. N. Eye.
300 B's, Extra R. Eye.
Best Maine and Dutch New Barrels.

For sale by
SINIFORD, CROW & CO.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

E. FRANK & CO'S Ammoniated Bone Phosphate.

100 TONS OF THE ABOVE WELL KNOWN and valuable Fertilizer for sale for cash or on crop time--satisfactory security. Liberal discount on lots.

O. G. PARSLEY & CO.
Feb 15

Boydin, Carmer & Co., Wholesale Druggists, &c., BALTIMORE, MD.

Successors to Wade, Boydin & Co.
STILL MANUFACTURE and sell large quantities of their Standard Proprietary Medicines, such as "Everybody's Vegetable Cathartic Pills,"
"Wilmington's Cholera and Diarrhoea Medicine,"
"Boydin's Worm Killer,"
"Boydin's Cough Syrup,"
"Boydin's Liver Tonic," or "Compound Extract of Mandrake,"
"Baird's Hair and Cattle Powders,"
"Baird's Hair Conditioner,"
"Baird's Bitters and Schnapps,"
All the above goods are fast becoming a household name, and are kept generally by druggists and country merchants.

Wilmington Lodge No. 319.

Regular meeting the P. M. (Tuesday 16th) at 7 o'clock. Business of importance will come before the meeting.
By order W. S.
PRESTON CUMMING,
Secretary.

Valuable Real Estate FOR SALE.

We offer for sale on accommodating terms that THREE STORY BRICK BUILDING, with all c. situated upon south side of Market between First and Second streets, embracing upon the first floor the two large commodious stores, occupied by G. A. Flier, Bag, and Messrs. Sherr Bros, and above 15 rooms, with gas, water and all modern improvements, by Mrs. A. Fickert, at No. 100 North Second street. The whole yielding in three deposed times a rental of thirty-one hundred and fifty dollars ($31,500).

The lot has a front of (34) thirty four feet upon Market street, running south 122 feet to Belmont Alley, with a lot in the alley adjoining back in rear of store occupied by Messrs. Hubert and Haver, upon which there is a Two Story Brick Building used as a Bakery.

For a full description, examination and terms, apply to
GRONLY & MORRIS,
Auctioneers.
Real Estate and Stock Brokers.

A VICTORY! Our Children's Toes.

WE HAVE AT LAST SUCCEEDED IN getting CHILDREN'S FINE SHOES, that are fine and drossy, with no brass or silver tips, and are more durable than the metallic tips they are now wearing on their feet. Parents will do well to try them. Call and see them.

AT--
EVANS & VORGLAHN'S,
Boot and shoe Store,
Feb 15

The Usury Bill.

All those in favor of the Usury Bill, now pending in the Legislature, are invited to attend a Mass Meeting at Brooklyn Hall, this evening, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of memorializing the Legislature to pass the same.

MANY CITIZENS
Feb 15

Grand Anniversary BALL.

HOWARD RELIEF FIRE ENGINE CO. NO. 1, At the City Hall, Thursday Evening, Feb. 18th, 1875.

Committee of Arrangements:
JAMES MADDER, W. H. STRAUSS,
A. ADRIAN, FRED MARKERS,
JOHN MEYER, JOHN C. OLDBRITTEL.

Tickets may be had upon application to either of the Committee.
Feb 15

NOTICE.

A meeting of the First Ward Democratic Conservative Club will be held Wednesday night next, at 8 o'clock. As matters of great importance will be considered, a full attendance of all Conservative voters in the Ward is earnestly requested. By order of the President,
W. A. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

Grand Rally.

The Democratic-Conservative voters of the first and second precincts of the Third Ward will meet to-night at Brooklyn Hall, at 7 o'clock sharp, for organizing for the campaign. All voters are earnestly requested to attend.

By order of the COMMITTEE.
Feb 15

Christian Reid's LATEST NOVEL,

Hearts and Hands, A Story in Sixteen Chapters, By CHRISTIAN REID.

Author of "A Daughter of Bohemia," "Morton House," "Valerie Aymer," etc., etc. 50 CENTS. Just received by Express.

For sale at
HEINSBERGER'S
Live Book and Music Store.

BALANCE STOCK OF CLOTHING,

Gents' Furnishing Goods, HATS, CAPS, &c., Selling Very Low. MUNSON & CO., CITY CLOTHIERS.

Hardware.

Nails, Putty, Cotton Cord, Coffee Mills, Corn Shells, Shot, Claps, Pewter, Prick Ash, File, Po-Ke, Utility Regras, Clocks, Ringers, Regras, &c. at prices that will suit the whole trade, can be found at the Old Es established Hardware House of
JOHN DAWSON,
No. 25 and 27 Market St.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Notice.

HAVING DISPOSED OF OUR SADDLE HARNESS and Trunk Business, Stock, Good Will and Book Accounts, in Wilmington, N. C., to Messrs. Carpenter and Mallard, we hereby tender our thanks to a generous public for their liberal patronage the last few years, and ask a continuance of the same to our successors, who have been acceptably in our employ for many years and are thoroughly posted in the Saddle, Harness and Trunk Business in all its branches.

Messrs. Carpenter and Mallard will settle all claims contracted against us in Wilmington, N. C., and collect debts due us and receipt for the same.
J. S. TOPHAM & CO.

A. Carpenter. J. S. Mallard.

Saddles, Harness, &c.

HAVING BOUGHT THE ABOVE MENTIONED Goods, we offer a full stock of SADDLES, HARNESS, TRUNKS, COLLARS, BRIDLES, And All Kinds of SADDLERY GOODS, AT VERY LOW PRICES.

For Cash or to prompt paying buyers. We respectfully solicit patronage.
CARPENTER & MALLARD,
Feb 5

Notice to Electors!

Notice is hereby given that the Registration Books will be opened at 11 o'clock A. M. on MONDAY, the 15th instant, (to be kept open according to the requirements of the recent Act passed by the Legislature amending the City Charter) at the following places:

In the First Ward, at the Engine House on Ann street, between Front and Second streets; For the Second Ward, at the Court House in the first precinct of the Third Ward at Thurston's Bar Room; in the second precinct of the said ward, at Wilmington and South Main thoroughfares, corner of Led Cross and Seventh streets; in the third precinct, at the corner of Ann and Seventh streets; and in the fourth precinct, at Anthony Howe's shop on Queen street, between Third and Fourth streets.

W. P. UPHAM, JAMES W. KING, G. A. WILKINS, A. J. YOPP, JENES HODGES, E. H. DARRIN, Registrars.

BLANK BOOKS, ENVELOPES, PAPERS OF ALL KINDS.

Pens, Ink, Penholders, Mucilage, Ink Stands, Paper Weights, Pen Knives, Copying Cups, Dampening Cups, Gouging Strucles, Letter Books, Blotting Paper, Letter Press, Lead Pencils, Elastic Bands, Steel and Rubber, Ink and Pen Holders, &c., &c.

ALSO--
Sheet Music and Musical Instruments.

For sale at
CONOLEY & YATES'
City Book Store.

Executor's Sale.

Valuable Sound Plantation at Auction.

ON THURSDAY, February 19th, 1875, at 11 o'clock A. M., I will sell at Exchange Corner, for the purpose of division and settlement of the Estate of James Stokely, dec'd, all of that valuable Plantation, with all improvements thereon, consisting of miles upon the Sound, east by the lands formerly occupied by Dr. A. F. Newkirk, north by the lands of W. A. Wright, James Grant and others, west by Mott's Creek, and which separates it from Wrightville.

Containing 1,105 Acres, 300 of which are cleared and under fence. Eight to ten choice sites for Summer residences. 100 Acres of Pine, White Oak, &c. TERMS--One-third cash, balance in 1 and 2 years, with 8 per cent interest.

O. W. OLDHAM, Executor.
GRONLY & MORRIS, Auctioneers, Real Estate and Stock Brokers.

RED AND WHITE ONION SETS.

For sale by
GREEN & FLANNER.
Seeds! Seeds! Seeds!

New Crop 1875, grown by Landeth & Buis. For sale by GREEN & FLANNER,
Druggists.

At Manufacturer's Prices!

We will close out our ENTIRE STOCK AT PRIME COST! Manufacturer's Prices!

FOR CASH! FOR CASH! Our assortment is well selected, comprising the best goods of the best factories in the country.

Ladies' Boots and Shoes! Gentlemen's Boots and Shoes! Children's Shoes! Infants' Shoes!

ALL AT COST FOR CASH. DUDLEY & ELLIS, Sign of the Big Hook, No. 41 MARKET STREET.

Butter and Cheese. 15 Tubs and Firkins Butter, 100 Boxes Cheese.

For sale by
KROENER & CALDER BROK.

Tobacco, Tobacco, Tobacco. 250 Boxes Chewing Tobacco.

For sale by
KROENER & CALDER BROK.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

BROWN & RODDICK

&lt;