THE MEASURE THOUGHT

DEFEAT OF THE PROPOSED NEW COUNTY OF COHARA.

Mr. Mebane's amendment to postpone the operation of Usury bill to March 1st, 1876, was finder consideration during the day, but the merits of the bill were discussed. Messrs. McRae, Finger, Walker and Oaksmith. spoke against the bill, and Mr.

The House is in session to night but no vote has been reached. The probabilities of the passage of the bill are not so positive, and the friends of the bill are not so confident of its success. There is a strong probability of an extension of time.

MORE TROUBLE WITH THE COLORED CADET BAKER.

RETT AND SCOTT.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16-Noon-A dispatch from Baltimore says : Some more midshipmen of the Naval Acade my are getting into trouble over the colored cadet, Baker. On Tuesday of last week he quarreled with some of his classmates and was snowballed. He cursed them liberally, and next day midshipmen Hood, of Alabama, and Seton, of South Carolina, care across Baker in an obscure part of the Academic grounds and notwithstanding his apologies, gave him a ter rible beating. An investigation is to be made. In the meantime two parties are under quarantine suspension The authorities have made tried to keep the matter quiet, and it only became known through the talking of some of the midshipmen outside of the academy.

a renewal of hostilities. The Pennsylvania Railroad has taken steps to from the freight and passenger traffic north of Philadelphiaover their Jersey lines. This means war to the bitte end. The quarrel involves the freight and passenger traffic North and West, and indirectly South.
