RALEIGH.

THE USURY BILL IN THE HOUSE.

IT PASSES ITS SECOND READING.

AND COMES UP AGAIN TO-DAY AS SPECIAL ORDER.

AMENDMENTS ALL VOTED DOWN.

[SPECIAL TO JOURNAL.]

RALEIGH, February 17.

In the House to-day, the Usury bill passed its second reading by a vote of 63 to 35.

The proposed amendments were all voted down.

It comes up on its third reading in the House to-morrow, as the special order for 11 o'clock.

HEADQUARTERS.

PETITIONS FOR AID TO THE TEXAS PACIFIC ROAD.

THE HOUSE EXERCISED OVER THE SENATE BILL.

JUDGE RUSSELL WANTS OUR MUNICIPAL ELECTION LAW RULED OUT.

THE CASE TO BE TRIED AT RALEIGH NEXT MONTH.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16—In the Senate various petitions were presented from the citizens of Pennsylvania for aid to the Northern Pacific and Texas Pacific Railroad, and referred to the Committee on Railroads.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17—Night—House—The Tariff Bill was discussed all day in the Committee of the Whole. The amendments did not get beyond the first section, which applied only to whisky. Proposals to reduce the tax from 81 to 85 cents and to strike out the provision taxing stock on hand, were rejected.

An amendment was adopted increasing the duty on champagne from 80 per dozen quarts to 85, and from 80 per dozen pints to 85.

The evening session is for business other than political to be reported from the Judiciary Committee.

The Senate at the expiration of the morning hour took up the resolution to seat Pinchback. Morton, who has the bill in charge, said he hoped the Senate would sit it through, and there is now a probability of an all night session.

Information has been received here that a motion was made to-day by D. L. Russell, counsel for plaintiffs, before Judge Bond, of the U. S. Circuit Court, at Baltimore, for an injunction to prohibit the holding of the municipal election of Wilmington, N. C., on the ground that the charter recently adopted by the Legislature of North Carolina disfranchised negroes. The case is to be tried at Raleigh on the 6th of March.

A man, supposed to be laboring under temporary insanity, leaped from the dome of the Capitol to-day to the roof of the main building, at least one hundred and fifty feet. His name is unknown. The dreadful occurrence caused great excitement.

The name of the person who jumped off the dome of the Capitol to-day, was James McMahon, a carpenter of this city.

PENNSYLVANIA.

TUESDAY'S LOCAL ELECTIONS.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 17—Night—The election yesterday for Councils resulted in the choice of 22 Republicans and 7 Democrats to the Select, and 55 Republicans and 15 Democrats to the Common Council.

In the third ward James L. Marshall, Democrat, was elected by twelve plurality over Harry Hunter, to fill the vacancy in the State Legislature caused by the death of Wm. H. Fagan.

In one division of the fifth ward the ballot boxes were destroyed.

WILLIAMSPORT, Feb. 17—Night—A Democratic Mayor has been elected. The Republicans carry the balance of the ticket.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 17—Night—The Republicans elect the Controller by 125 majority.

SCHENECTADY, Feb. 17—Night—The Democrats have elected their Mayor.

READING, Feb. 17—Night—Evans, Republican, has been re-elected as Mayor.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Feb. 17—Night—A Republican Mayor has been elected.

DELAWARE.

BREAKING UP OF THE ICE IN THE BAY.

DELAWARE, BRIDGEWATER, Feb. 17—Night—The southwest wind of this morning carried the ice out to sea and took many vessels with it. A part of these returned this evening without difficulty.

The barges Chesapeake, from Havre, for Philadelphia, had her bow ports stove by the ice and sank in twenty minutes in five fathoms of water. The crew were saved. She lies about two miles south of Henlopen, with her lower yards just under water.

EUROPE.

PROGRESS OF THE IMPERIAL STUDENT.

THE WAR IN SPAIN.

JOHN MITCHELL WILL GIVE THEM TROUBLE.

LONDON, February 17—Night—The Prince Imperial at Woolwich was seventh in his class and first in fencing and riding.

Disraeli will introduce a resolution declaring John Mitchell ineligible. The captain and thirteen of the crew of the Sydney Dawn are missing, the remainder of the crew arrived at Valencia.

It is reported that John Mitchell refused to take the oath of allegiance. It is also said that the Home Rule members will refuse to support Mitchell, his policy differing from theirs.

A meeting at T. P. O'Connell's declared that in case Mitchell was rejected they would again return him.

Paris, Feb. 17—Night—It is reported that Don Carlos, Don Alfonso and others have raised a large sum in London to carry on the war against Alfonso.

WEST VIRGINIA.

THE CAPITOL BILL TO BECOME A LAW.

ALLEN T. CARPENTER ELECTED U. S. SENATOR.

HUNTINGTON, Feb. 17—Night—The Governor has agreed not to veto the Capitol bill, and in five days it will become a law. On adjournment of the Legislature the Governor will proceed to Wheeling to make arrangements for the removal of the Capitol.

On joint ballot in the Legislature for U. S. Senator, Allen T. Carpenter received 35 votes, Judge Moore 25, and Price 19. The members then began casting their votes and the result then stood, Carpenter 68, the Republicans voting for Berkshire.

Carpenter's election will be a great help in pacifying the Charlestonians for the loss of the Capitol.

THE HUB.

ACTIVITY IN THE WOOL MARKET.

Boston, Feb. 17, 1875—Night—There is a steady demand for all kinds of domestic wool. Manufacturers are purchasing in lots as wanted, and fair average sales are noticeable for some weeks past on comparatively dull market indicates that the stock in the hands of manufacturers is quite small.

No material change in prices is expected. At present the bulk of the stock is held with considerable firmness and desirable lots of fleeces are only offered where full current prices are realized.

The sales of Pennsylvania and Ohio fleeces have been at from 53 to 57 cents for XXX and choice.

ELECTRICISMS.

There has been a terrible fire at Port au Prince, by which five hundred houses were burned.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad has reduced its passenger travel from thirty to forty per cent, and from all competing points.

There is a large fleet below Baltimore, the bay closed to sailing vessels. It is reported that the insurgents in Cuba have abandoned jurisdiction in Cienfuegos.

No suffering for food in the Massachusetts ice bound fleet, as the shore was easily reached on the ice.

Hon. John B. Dryden, ex-President of the Jersey Fire Commissioners, suicided by shooting himself yesterday.

The strawhouse of Vise & Co., has failed. Liabilities $1,000,000.

BALTIMORE.

THE RAILROAD WAR.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 17—Night—It is stated that orders have been issued to the employees of the New York and Pennsylvania Central to receive no freight and no tickets for points on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, nor to honor through tickets issued by the B. & O. Road.

Hold Robbery in San Francisco.

A bold robbery was committed in the Dime Savings Bank of San Francisco on the evening of the 6th inst. It has been the custom of the bank to keep open on Saturday evenings until 9:30 o'clock, to accommodate laboring people. During the business hours of the bank a large amount of the deposits in currency and coin is placed in the show windows as an inducement to careless men to deposit their money in a safe place.

On the night mentioned, about 8 o'clock, as the clerks were busy at their books, some daring fellow walked deliberately up to the window and dashed a brick through one of the large panes. At the same instant he inserted his two hands through the convenient aperture, and before the crash of the window pane had even attracted the attention of the persons inside, he had escaped with his fists full of greenbacks. When the consternation which the daring deed excited had somewhat subsided an examination was made, and it was discovered that the audacious thief had carried away over $1,000 in greenbacks.

When is a small boy like a big banker? When is a wraith-child.

Boston has one man who cannot tell a lie. He is a deaf and dumb peasant vender.

"Pray," said a gentleman the other day to a lady, "do you like steamboats?" "No," she replied, "not much, but I am exceedingly fond of a smock." He took the hint.

A disrespectful son asked his father: "Why is neighbor Smith's liquor store like a counterfeit dollar?" "I can't tell, my son," "Because you can't pass it," said the boy. That boy got a leather medal in the shape of a number ten boot.

"Where's the molasses Bill," said a red headed woman sharply to her son, who had returned with an empty jug. "None in the city mother. Every grocery has a big black board outside, with the letters chalked on it, 'N. O. Molasses'."

The Sunday Herald, a reliable Washington journal, asserts that while Butler was arguing the passage of the Civil Rights bill last week—and almost within sound of his voice—a negro attempted to outrage a little white girl in one of the corridors of the Capitol.

A story is told of an old gentleman, who always took notes of the minister's sermons and on one occasion read them to the minister himself. "Stop, stop!" said the latter on the occurrence of a certain sentence. "I didn't say that." "I know you didn't," was the reply. "I put that in myself to make sense."

Even in the saloons, opinions upon grave subjects are expressed forcibly. A gentleman slightly under the influence of the intoxicating bowl furnished proof of this fact a night or two ago. "Whisky, zur," he said, "hic—brightens the intellect. It ought to be introduced into the public schools, zur."

There is a quarrel between the two sovereigns of Siam, and the second King has fled for shelter to the British Consulate at Bangkok. The second King in Siam, though clothed with royal rank, is not a real power in the country. He is expected to stand aloof from active interference in affairs of State, and according to the most credible explanation of the existence of this dual sovereignty, he is only a monarch in reserve, a sort of second string to the constitutional bow, ready to take the first King's place if the latter should die, so that there may be no danger of revolutionary violence during an accidental vacancy of the throne. The present first King of Siam is not much more than 22 years of age, and his colleague is about 34. Both potentates speak English. The cause of quarrel is probably this: The young King, whose son is only six months old, and who is surrounded by young advisers, being consumptive, has been forced by these courtiers to make the second King surrender his claims, in order to keep their own party in power. There exists, however, outside the two royal circles, a great feudal family, headed by the late Prime Minister, who, from his dislike to the innovations, has retired into the interior. He is engaged in plots to bring affairs to a deadlock, and thereby strengthen his own influence. The plots of the Chinese secret societies will tend further to complicate the affair.

Mr. Charles Francis Adams, Jr., has a happy knack for working up statistics that make his lecture on railroads as entertaining as it is instructive. He shows conclusively by the official tables that if a person traveled as a passenger on Massachusetts railroads eight hundred miles a day every day of his life, he would, by a doctrine of chances, be seventy years old before he would receive an injury in a railroad accident. French statistics showed that stage-coach traveling was at least fifty times as dangerous as traveling by rail. The danger of being murdered in Massachusetts was greater by far than that of being killed in a railroad accident. In 1873 the railroads carried 42,000,000 passengers without killing one; in the same year in Boston alone five persons were killed by tumbling down stairs, seven by falling out of windows. In fact, Mr. Adams figures seem to prove that there is not a much safer place of refuge in the world than a Massachusetts railway car. We know of many, however, that are cheaper and more comfortable.

SPECIAL.

The best dressed men in town are wearing Warwick Collars. They say there is nothing like them for comfort.

The gates of Pearly, through which the human voice issues, should never become rusty. To keep the teeth for ever free from blemish, to render their decay impossible, it is only necessary to use FRAGRANT SOZODONT. It is a simple and supremely wholesome.

The public are hereby advised, through the columns of the Journal, that Parsons' Eucalypti Pills contain no injurious principle, but that they may be administered to children and the most weak and shattered constitutions in small doses, with great certainty of success.

Dr. A. Johnson, one of the most successful practitioners of his time, invents what is now called Johnson's Eucalypti Linctus. The great success of this article in the cure of bronchitis and all diseases of throat and lungs, will make the name of Johnson not less favorably, if less widely known, than that of Louis Napoleon.

Every moment of delay makes your cure more hopeless, and much depends on the judicious choice of a remedy. The amount of testimony in favor of Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure for consumption, far exceeds all that can be brought to support the pretensions of any other medicine. See Dr. Schenck's Almanac, containing the certificates of many persons of the highest respectability, who have been restored to health, after being pronounced incurable by physicians of acknowledged ability. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup alone has cured many, as these evidences will show; but the cure is often promoted by the employment of two other remedies which Dr. Schenck provides for the purpose. These additional remedies are Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills. By the timely use of these medicines, according to directions, Dr. Schenck certifies that most any case of Consumption may be cured.

Dr. Schenck is professionally at his principal office, corner Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, every Monday, where all letters for advice must be addressed.
