Rowan county will vote in June next upon the proposition of a county subscripton of $100,000 to this Road, and its advocates are confident of an overwhelming majority.

The Charlotte Observer says: We learn from passengers on the North Carolina train yesterday, and from private telegrams received in this city, that a considerable fire occurred in Concord on Monday night. The flames were discovered about 11 o'clock, assning from the rear of Litaker's store, which is situated near the Court House. The front part of the house in which the fire originated, is used as a candy shop and bar room, and the rear, or an L adjoining it, is occupied by negroes. This building was consumed, but some of the con-tents were saved. From the store the fluxes communicated to the Court House, and, not withstanding the efforts made to save it, it also was consumed, and with it many of the records in The papers in the Sheriff's office were saved, as were those also, we believe, is the lungs, liver or kidneys, the in that of the Register of Deeds. Consumptives, Take Notice.

Every moment of delay makes your cure more hopeless, and much depends on the judelous choice of a remedy. The amount of testimony in favor of Dr. Schenck's Pulmonte hip discharging large quantities, and Syrap, as a cure for consumption, far exceeds all that can be brought to support the pretenstone of any other medicine.
