EDITORIAL NOTES.

King Alfonso, although only seventeen years old, looks nineteen, and his physiognomy, according to an observer, indicates uncommon shrewdness and intelligence, and a by no means imaginative, but frank, firm and resolute character. The Spaniards have only one word to characterize his looks-simpatico.

A circular signed by bankers from various parts of the country is going of the hearty endorsement they have the rounds, proposing the formation of a bank in New York with a million dollars capital, with eleven directors chosen from among the bankers subscribing, its designs being that the loanable resources of the bank shall c.vil over the military power, be employed in discounts to its stockholders.

Not a very likely story.

The centennial celebration of the Lexington fight on the 19th of April greatest possible calamity that could promises to be very successful. Besides the President of the United States and several of his cabinet, Gov. Gas ton, of Massachusetts, and suite are expected to be present; also the governors of the original thirteen states, representatives of the thirty towns participating in the opening scenes of the revolution, and the presidents and facolleges.

The following story is going the rounds: "When the news of Carpenter's defeat reached the White House, the President was engaged with a Republican Senator in discussing the Louisiana question. After reading the telegram announcing the sad result, he handed it over to the visitor with the inquiry: 'Where is this to stop?' The Sepator paused a moment, and then significantly answered: 'That depends upon you, Mr. President."

A colored man and a white woman having asked Mayor Wickham, of New York, to marry them, he refused to perform the ceremony, saying: "While I am Mayor of this city I shall never marry a black man to a white woman, nor a black woman to a white man." To a bystander who suggested that perhaps he had not read the Fifteenth Amendment and the Civil Rights bill, the Mayor replied: "I know all about those laws, but you oan rest assured that, not withstanding them, no marriage between whites and blacks can take place in this hall while I am Mayor of this city."

The Countess Kisseldoff, the wife of a once Russian ambassadorto Paris, has just been buried. She separated pendent paper, but recently taken in from her husband soon after their hand by some of Grant's admirers and marriage, and since then found her added to the rapidly decreasing list of only distraction in gambling. HIT HIM AGAIN.

President Grant's disgraceful mestage in regard to affairs in Arkansas meets with but little favor even among the most unscrupulous of his partisans. The hot shot continue to full in at his front door, and from quarters where he should least expect them, and the most artful dodger in the world could not avoid an occasional hard hit. The indications are that there will soon not be a corporal's guard left among the press of the country who will have the effrontery to offer anything like an apology for his mad acts.
