SOME OF THE GOOD EFFECTS OF THE LAST ELECTION.

CIVIL RIGHTS PASSED IN THE SENATE.

THE HOUSE IN FOR ALL NIGHT ON THE FORCE BILL

Washington, Feb. 27-Noon .-- It is stated that the Cabinet agreed yesterday in no contingency to call an extra session of Congress.

Senator Johnson, of Virginia, is too ill to occupy his seat. In the Senate Carpenter spoke against the passage of the civil rights

The House, after disposing of a miscellansons mass of business under an unanimous consent, resumed the consideration of the force bill, and speeches were made against it by

Young, of Georgia, Pierce, of Massa-chusetts, and Poland, of Vermont, Washington, Feb. 27—Night— The Collectors of Internal Revenue are instructed to sell no more eigar stamps than may be necessary for cigars sold or moved from the factory. The Pacific Male Corruption Committee turn King and Erwin over to the next House. Other papers go to District Attorney for such action as may be thought proper. The newspaper men who accepted money for corrupt purposes are to be excluded from the reporter's gallery. House-The insjority and minority Mississippi reports were ordered printed.

An appropriation for the payment of awards of the Southern Caims Commission was passed,
The Election committee report that

Lawrence was, and Sypher was no!, elected from Louisiana.

The consideration of the Caucus Force bill was resumed.

During a colloquy Blane told Butler he was a scoundrel. Trouble arose from the Democrats approaching the Clerk's desk during roll call, their object being to see if by not voting they could prevent a quorum and force the call of the House. After the Democrats had been dered to their seats Butler stalked to the Clerk's desk and leaning on his elbow watched the progress of the call. He was ordered away, but said be had as much right there as Speaker Blane, who at the time was on the floor and near the Clerk's desk, Cessna being in the Chair. Calls of order resulted in the affair benig "clipped."

The House is now voting upon the clause to atrike out the babeas clause. Au amendment making the suspension applicable only to Louisiana, Miss-issippi and Alabama was adopted. There is every indication of an all-night session BENATE-The Committee to sit during recess to examine the various branches of the Civil Service are as follows: Boutwell, Conkling, Merri mor, Eaton and Allison.

Resolutions of the Mississippi Legislature in favor of the Texas Pacific Subsidy were presented.

The Civil Rights bill has finally passed and goes to the President The a neudment relieving Southern jurors of the iron-clad oath was defeated. Logan said that he would vote in favor of relief as a separate measure but to amend the Civil Rights Bill, it would defeat it. The vote was a strictly party one, except Sprague, Schurz and Tiptou.

Many Senators were absent. The vote was 38 to 26. The evening session was unimportant. The tax bill comes up on Monday as unfinished business. Terry, of Connecticut, Carpenter, and Hamilton, of Texas, all voted against the Civil Rights bill.

At 10 o'clock the House was voting on the amendments to the force bill, but was making but little progress, as three dilatory motions are interposed between each question.

ELECTRICISMS.

James Murphy, the Irish giant, died at Baltimore. The Court allows Ann Eliza, who is sting Brigham Young for divorce, three thousand dollars, lawyers fees and five hundred per month, in the pending trial which Brigham was ordered to pay into Court.

Three hundred strikers, at Buck
Mountain, drew the fire from under a botter, stopped the pumps, shot the engineer and fired the mine.

At Hazelton, rough times are apprehanded; the man are gathering in large numbers at the Highlands. The polies have gone back in the meantime to start the pumps.

Fred, Wolff has been appointed assignee of the Alabama and Chattanooga raid, vice Bailey resigned.

In the Louisville Lottery thirty sight per cent, of the tickets have been sold—prizes scaled in proportion.— 89,271 drew the capital prize of $95,-000; 10,075 won the second prize of

At Port Jarvis, the gorge in the Delaware river broke and the water rose twenty feet. The suspension bridges are threatened from the piled ice.

The Beranton Oliff Locomotive

Works were burned, Loes halfa m l-lion dollars. Two handred and fifty persons have been ousted, many of whom have lost their tools.

Cramps and pains in the stouach are the re sult of imperfect in ignstion, and may be im-massistely relieved by a dose of Johnson's Auc-dyne Jaiment A teas-poorful in a little sweet-ened water is a dose.

Heavy outs are good for horees; none will de-ny that; but caus can't reake a horee's coal look smooth and glossy when he is out of e-mitton. Sheridan's saxairy Condition Powders will do this when all else rails.

Native Penri Versus Percelain. Dentiat's wear is a poor substitute for Na-ture's. Let those who to believe, use the SOZODONT, which, if dally applied, will prevent all necessity for false teeth by keeping the real ones sound and healthy.

Consumptives, Take Notice. Every moment of delay makes your cure more hopeless, and much depends on the jubelow choice of a remedy. The amount of testimony in favor of Dr. Schonek's Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure for consumption, far exceeds all that can be brought to susport the pretenions of any other medicine. See I'r. Schenck's Alwanse, containing the certificates of many persons of the highest respectabilly, who have been restored to health, after being pronounced incurable by physicisus of acknowledged ability. Schenck's Pulmonic syrup alon- has cared many, as these evidences will show; but the cure is often promoted by the employment of two other remedies which Dr. Schenck provides for the purpose. These additional remedies are Schenck's Sea Werd Tonic and Mantrate Pills. By the timely use of these modicines according to directions, Dr. Schenck certifies that most any case of Consumption may be sured
