COUNTRY.

New Oblinans, March 2—Noon—The Committee of Seventy have adopted resolutions that in their opinion, the members of the legislative caucus who voted to accept Wheeler's proposition, do not reflect the views and wishes of the Democratic-Conservative people of the State. That the Committee deem Wheeler's compromise unwise, impolitic, and utterly subversive of the rights and principle: for which they have been contending. That they adjure these members of the United States Benate who are friendly to the cause of Leuisiana to oppose, by all means Senate who are friendly to the cause of Louisiana to oppose, by all means in their power, the passage of the joint resolution recognizing the Kellogy government. That they announce, on behalf of the Democratic-Conservative people of Louisians, their unalterable resolution to continution Congress and the people of the action fulled States, regardless of the Conservative means who voted to accept Wheeler's

ANOTHER TERRIBLE RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

London, March 2—Noon—In the House of Commons Sir M. H. Beach, Chief Secretary for Ireland, introduced a bill leasening the penalties for the unlawful possession of arms in Ireland, and repealing the law authorizing the closing of public houses; the arrest of persons found out of doors at night in proclaimed districts, and removing restrictions on newspapers. He stated that the government intended to re-enact laws against ribbonism in Westwreath, as it had been assurred that the ribbon conspiracy existed as strong as ever there. He pointed to the fact that John Mitchell was elected to Parliament because he had declared that he never would consent to be at peace with London, March 2-Noon-In the would consent to be at peace with England. And he alluded to the re-England. And he alluded to the re-turn of numerous emigrants from America who said they had acquired the Western vices and forgotten their Irish virtues. These were reasons for not wholly removing the restrictions on the possession of fire arms in Ire-

I a conference with the leadresentatives and Senators to the tax-bill laid on the table. The President and member a research used the senessity of taking the bill, which passed its first reading.

John Mitchell is utterly prostrated in health. He has frequent fainting fits and it is thought that he will be compelled to withdraw from the election contest in Tipperary.

Paris, March 2—Noon—The Assembly to-day re-elected M. Buffet President. by a vote of 479 to 63, the majority being larger than the Assembly jority being larger than the Assembly ever gave before for President. This shows that Buffet will command a strong majority in the House if he succeed in form a Ministry.

Messrs. Martel, D'Audiffret, Pasquier Kerdrel and Piercel were lected Vice-Presidents. London, March 2-Night-There was a railroad accident near Lich-field, Staffordshire; 30 persons were injured.

Consumptives, Take Notice.

Every moment of delay makes your cure more hopeless, and much depends on the judicious choice of a remedy. The amount of testimony in favor of Dr. Scheeck's Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure for consumption, far exceeds all that can be brought to support the pretensions of any other medicine. See Dr. Schenck's Almanac, containing the certificates of many persons of the highest respectability, who have been restored to health, after being pronounced incurable by physicians of acknowledged ability. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup alon- has cured many, as these evidences will show; but the cure is often promoted by the employment of two other remedies which Dr. Schenck pro-vides for the purpose. These additional reme-dies are Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pilis. By the timely use of these medi-cines, according to directions, Dr. Schenek certifies that most any case of Consemption

CENTENNIAL

CHARLESTON. S. C.

The German Fusillers of Charleston, South Carolina, will celebrate their Centennial Au-niversary on the third of May, 1875, with cere-monies appropriate to so interesting an occa-

In 1775, one hundred years ago, and before the Declaration of Independence, the German citizens of Charkston rallied to the standard of American Liberty. They organized a corps for the defence of the Colonies in the great war for freedom and rendered signal service in the establishment of self-government. Their record in the Revolutionary struggle is a matter of history. Their services during that memorable contest, under General Lincotts of the Continental army, and at the stoges of Savannah and Charleston and on other battle fields are proud testimentals of their particitism and devotion. They sealed their devotion to that cause with the blood and lives of many of their numbers.

As carry as 1792 they attached to their military feature, a society for the support of their indigent widows, or phans and destitute members. In this nobis cause of charity, they have expended large sums from their own private resources; these have been shattered by the calamities of the war.

This will be, as is believed, the first military centennial celebration. In these United States. The Fusiliers desire to crown this centennial, not saily by giving interest and significance to the occasion, but also by placing upon a permanent basis, a fund for the relief of the widows and orphans of their deceased members; these chiects would indeed be fit and grateful remortals of this historic occasion. They therefore appeal with confidence to their fellow citizent throughout the broad expanse of this Union, whose liberties, now enjoyed, they helped to achieve. Whatever donations may be given for these purposes will be gratefully acknowledged.
