MORTON GETS THE FLOOR.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE TO BE SENT IN ON MONDAY.

THE DAWN OF A NEW ERA FOR THE COUNTRY.

WASHINGTON, March 5 -Noon-SEN-ATE-A : soon as the new Senators were sworn in Morton offered resolutions acknowledging the Kellogg government in Lousiaua and for the admission of Pinenback as Senator from that State; they were laid over. He gave notice that he would call up the Natter perhaps on Monday.

Washington, March 5-Night-SENATE-At no time since inauguration day has there been such a crowd present as this morning witnessed the open ng of the extra session of the Senate, and swearing in of the new Senators. The weather was disagreeable, and a snow storm prevailed, but the ladies were not deterred. 'The galleries were filled with ladies long before the hour for meeting. By eleven o'clock it was impossible to obtain standing room, even in the doorways. Upon the floor of the Senate, the curious were hunting out the seats of Andrew Johnson, Gen. Burnside and other prominent Senators who were to be sworn in. Upon the desk of Andrew Johnson, on the Democratic side of the Chamber, as well as upon that of Mr. Dawes, on the Republican side, were handsome boquets. Burnside entered the Chamber, greeted with a round of applause from the galleries. Andrew Johnson did not make his appearance until after the meeting of the Senste, when he was called up to take the oath. He was greeted with applause, which was soon checked by the Vice-President. At 12 o'clock Vice-President Wilson called the Senate to order. Chaplain Sunderland, in his opening prayer, in- tive of the Moderate Right shall enter voked the Divine blessing upon the Senate, saying: As these Senators are assembled here to commence a new chapter in the history of this body, give to each of them life, health and strength, and in all their labors and responsibilities may they lean upon

Thy arm for support. Maj. McDouald, Chief Clerk, then read the proclamation of the President convening the Senate in extra session, after which the Vice President directed him to call the names of the new Senators. Ascalled they advanced to the Vice President's desk and were sworn in in groups of three or four, as follows: Bayard, of Delaware, Bruce, of Mississippi, Burnside, of Rhode Island, Cameron, of Wisconsin, Christiancy, of Michigan, Dawes, of Massa-chusetts, Eaton, of Connecticut, Edmunds, of Vermont, Hamlin, of Maine, Johnson, of Tennessee, Kernan, of New York, McMillan, of Minnesota, McDona d, of Indiana, Paddock, of Nebraska, Randolph, of New Jersey, Thurman, of Ohio, Wallace, of Penn-sylvanis, Whyte, of Maryland, Caperton, of West Virginia, Cockerell, of Missouri, Jones, of Florida, Maxey, of Texas, Withers, of Virginis, the last named five taking modified oaths, they having been engaged in the Confederate cause. The new Senators were nearly all escorted to the Vice President's desk by their colleagues. After the oath had been administered to Johnson, a handsome boquet was handel to him by a page, with whom it had been left by some friend of the ex-President. Mesers. Booth, of California, and Sharou, of Nevada, not having reached the city, did not remark when their names, were called spond when their names were cilled. After administering the oath of office, Vice President Wilson shook hands with each Senator, the new Senators

Anthony submitted an order that the early hour of meeting be 12 o'clock. Agreed to. Edmunds submitted a resolution providing for the appointment of a Committee of two Senators to wait upon the President and inform him that a quorum had assembled and the Senate was ready to receive any communication from him. Messrs. Edmunds and Stevenson were appointed. Morton, of Indiana, submitted the following, which was read and laid having all been sworn and seated.

Resolved by the Senate that the State government now existing in Louisiana and represented by Wm. P. Kellogg, as Governor, is the lawful burned to death a few days ago, and government of said State that it is Republican in form and that every assistance necessary to sustain its proper and lawful authority in said State, should be given by the United States when properly called upon for that purpose to the end that the laws may be faithfully and promptly executed, life and property protected and defended, and that all violators of the

that the Senate might as well meet to-morrow; it was well known that there was a necessity for the reorganization of the committees, and that it might as well be done this week as next. The motion of Anthony was agreed to. On motion of Frelinghuysen at 12:20 o'clock the Serfate took a recess till one o'cleek Upon re assembling Edmunds, from the Committee te wait upon the Pres-ident, reported that he had performed that duty, and the President replied that he would communicate with the Senate on Monday next.

Adjourned till Monday. London, March 5-Night-A Berlin special says that the German Government demands the dismissal of the Papal Nuncio and the cessation of relations between the Vatican and Lavaris.

In 1715, one hundred years ago, and before the Declaration of independence, the German citisens of Charkston rallied to the standard of American Liberty. They organised a corps for the defence of the Colonies in the great war for freedom and rendered signal service in the establishment of self-government. Their record in the Revolutionary struggle is a matter of history. Their services during that momorable contest, under General Lincols of the Continental army, and at the degree of Savannah and Charleston and on other hattle fields are proud testimonials of their patriotism and devotion. They sealed their devotion to that cause with the blood and lives of many of their numbers.

In 1812 the German Fusiliers were again called upon to assist in the defence of the coast, and in 1836, when the bloody tomahaws of the Seminole drenched the plains of Florida with the blood of its people, and the cry for succor was again wafted to the shores of the prints of 76, volunteered their services and aided in redeeming their sister State fro the rothless hand of the savage.

1775. 1875 CENTENNIAL

CHARLESTON, S. C.

Carolina, will celebrate their Centennial An niversary on the third of May, 1875, with cere monies appropriate to so interesting an occasoldest military organisation in the United States.

As early as 1192 they attached to their military feature, a society for the support of their indigent widows, orphans and destitute members in this noble cause of charity, they live expended large sums from their own private resources; these have been shattered by the calamities of the war.

This will be, as is believed, the first military contennial colebration in these United States. The Fueliliers desire to crown this centennial, not only by giving interest and significance to the occasion, but also by placing upon a permanent basis, a fund for the relief of the widows and orphans of their deceased mem'ers; these chiecus would indeed be fit and grateful ynemorials of this historic occasion. They therefore appeal with confidence to their follow wittens throughout the broad expanse of this Union, whose liberties, now enjeyed, they helped to achieve. Whatever douations may be given for these purposes will be gratefully acknowledged.
