HEADQUARTERS.

SCHENCK WANTS TO BE RECALLED.

GETTING READY TO SETTLE PINCHBACK'S HUSBAND.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—In the Senate, Edmunds, of Vermont, moved to amend the resolution for the admission of Pinchback, by inserting the word "not" before the word "admitted," so it would read "Resolved, That P. B. S. Pinchback be not admitted, &c." He said as it was the understanding that no vote would be taken to-day, he would not call for the vote now.—Thurman, of Wisconsin, then took the floor and spoke in opposition to the admission of the applicant.

Minister Schenck requests his recall from St. James, on account of pressing private business.

No nominations were made to-day. The only confirmation was Bowen, postmaster at Camden, South Carolina.

In the Senate the discussion of Pinchback occupied the day, only interrupted by Morton and Thurman accusing each other of lack of legal lore.

DELAWARE.

PREPARING TO FIGHT CIVIL RIGHTS.

DOVER, March 13.—Noon.—A State Senator gave notice that he would ask permission to bring a bill entitled "An act in relation to certain classes of persons exercising civil employment." The bill provides that keepers of hotels or taverns, &c., shall not be obliged by law to furnish refreshments or entertainment to persons whose reception or refreshment be offensive to a major part of his customers or injure his business. Similar provisions for places of amusement and carriers of passengers.

EUROPE.

COMMISSIONS FOR THE NEW CARDINALS.

THE NEW FRENCH MINISTRY AND THE ASSEMBLY.

ELECTION KNOTS IN TIPPERARY.

ROME, March 13.—Noon.—Count Marcotoky, of the Noble Guards, serving the Pope, will start from Rome immediately for New York, bearing letters, or the official notification to Archbishop McClosky of his elevation to the Cardinalship, and in a few days subsequently the Ab Legate Mgr. Honorelli will follow with the Cardinal hat.

PARIS, March 13.—Noon.—Buffet announced in the Assembly that the policy of the new Ministry would be distinctly Conservative and devoid of the characteristics of either of provocation or weakness. This statement was made to reassure an industrious and orderly population. The address concluded by challenging a vote of want of confidence. The declaration was received with icy coldness by the Assembly, and no demonstration of either satisfaction or dissent was made.

TIPPERARY, March 13.—Noon.—Mitchell 8,114; Moore, Conservative, 746.

TIPPERARY, March 13.—Night.—Considerable disorder prevails on account of some of the citizens refusing to illuminate in honor of Mitchell's reelection. Several houses were sacked.

CUBA.

VALMASEDA TO OPEN A BRISK CAMPAIGN.

THE INSURGENTS BURNING PLANTATIONS.

HAVANA, March 13.—Noon.—Valmaseda assembled a number of the wealthiest citizens and requested an advance of one hundred thousand sterling to pay the expenses of bringing reinforcements from Spain. The sum required was subscribed.

Valmaseda has notified the officers of the volunteers that they will soon be needed for temporary active service. The battalions are deciding by lot which shall go.

Six hundred insurgents entered Sagua District and burned twelve plantations.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

THE LATEST RETURNS.

NO ELECTION OF GOVERNOR BY THE PEOPLE BUT THE DEMOCRATS HAVE A MAJORITY.

CONCORD, March 13.—Noon.—Latest figures: House 191 Republicans and 179 Democrats, with four towns not heard from. The Senate stands five and five with no choice by the people in two districts. The Council stands three Democrats and two Republicans. In a vote of 78,000 for Governor a plurality is not reached by one hundred. The Democrats have a majority. Two Democrats and one Republican are elected to Congress.

GOTHAM.

THE RAILROAD WAR REVIVING.

New York, March 13.—Night.—A morning paper says: The prospects now are that instead of an agreement between the Pennsylvania Central and Baltimore and Ohio Railroads, there will be a general railroad war in the course of a few weeks, in which the rates will be cut to very low figures.—The Pennsylvania committee reassembled this a. m. Nothing known as to what transpired.

ELECTRICISMS.

A general suspension of work in the wool hat factory at Reading, Pa., on account of the large stock on hand and the dullness of trade is announced.

The National Fire Insurance Company of Philadelphia proposes a settlement on a basis of 40 per cent.

There are indications of an end of the strike at Fall River, Mass.

Brigham Young returned home from the Fenitentiary, escorted by a number of friends.

The steamer R. H. Hart, reported sunk at Island No. 102, ran against a drift. Harly Hendon, Clerk, jumped overboard and was drowned. Ten or fifteen negro deck passengers are supposed to be drowned.

A. B. Brown, of Philadelphia, formerly Postmaster, and for many years President of the Fidelity and Safety Trust Company, is dead.

The Philadelphia cotton and woolen manufacturers have resolved upon no advance in the present rate of wages.

Miller's distillery at Sterling, Ill., has been burned. Loss $90,000.

The fishing schooner Sarah H. Crosby, of Gloucester, Mass., has been absent eleven weeks and is given up as lost. She had crew of twelve men. This makes the fourth vessel from that port lost in the past two months, and an aggregate of forty-three men.

NEW JERSEY.

A QUACK DOCTOR IN TROUBLE.

PATERSON, March 13.—Night.—Dr. Ricardo, having applied for the Courts for a discharge as an insolvent, his application was granted to-day. His creditors at once filed a bill undertaking to show that he had got rid of his property in order to defraud them.

The principal creditor is Walter Schaefer, the boy to whom a jury awarded $50,000 for alleged malpractice by Ricardo. The defendant was committed to jail.

ALABAMA.

THE CAL WAGNER CIVIL RIGHTS CASE.

MONTEGOMERY, March 13.—Night.—The negroes swore out a new warrant for Cal Wagner and his ticket agent, the former was discharged, and the latter was bound over to appear at the next term of the Court—bond $5,000. This case caused several theatrical companies to cancel their engagement for this city.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

THE COTTON MARKET DIFFICULTY ADJUSTED.

CHARLESTON, March 13.—Night.—The Standing Committee of South Carolina have consented to Jagger's concession but refused DeKoven's. The difficulty in the cotton market was adjusted to-day. Factors are to sell delivery weight, buyers taking cotton immediately from a swift deliverer and reweighing it with a beam scale. All differences to be referred to the third weigher whose decision is final.

SPECIAL.

The best collars ever made are the Warwick and Elmwood. Try them. Any furnishing store can supply them.

Why has Nozodent

Become the staple Dentifrice of America? Simply because it is impossible to use it, even for a week, without perceiving its hygienic effect upon the teeth, the gums and the breath.

It is a rare thing that physicians give any commendation to a medicine, the manufacture of which is secret. About the only exception we know of is Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. This we believe, all endorse, and many of them use it in their practice with great success.

Persons requiring purgatives or pills should be careful what they buy. Some pills not only cause griping pains, but leave the bowels in a torpid, costive state. Parsons' Purgative Pills will relieve the bowels and cleanse the blood without injury to the system.

Consumptives, Take Notice.

Every moment of delay makes your cure more hopeless, and much depends on the judicious choice of a remedy. The amount of testimony in favor of Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure for consumption, far exceeds all that can be brought to support the pretensions of any other medicine. See Dr. Schenck's Almanac, containing the certificates of many persons of the highest respectability, who have been restored to health, after being pronounced incurable by physicians of acknowledged ability. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup alone has cured many, as these evidences will show; but the cure is often promoted by the employment of two other remedies which Dr. Schenck prescribes for the purpose. These additional remedies are Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills. By the timely use of these medicines, according to directions, Dr. Schenck certifies that most any case of Consumption may be cured.

Dr. Schenck is professionally at his principal office, corner Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, every Monday, where all letters for advice must be addressed.

A CARD.

I take this method of bidding my friends and patrons farewell, as I am about to depart to the city of Philadelphia; thanking you for your kindness and liberal patronage during my stay in your midst.

I would be pleased to see my friends at my new place of business, No. 918 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, where my stock will consist of Millinery Goods, Dress Silks, Trimmings, Laces, Velvets, &c., &c.

All orders will receive prompt attention.

Notice.

APPLICATION WILL BE MADE TO THE General Assembly of North Carolina charter the City Bank of Wilmington.

IN MEMORIAM.

A tribute to the memory of Mrs. ELIZABETH DEANE MADGILL, wife of Col. J. D. Madgill, of New York, who died at Salem, N. C., on the 11th of February, 1875, in the 52nd year of her age.

Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God.

Again has a happy home been made desolate and the tears of sorrowing mothers water the turf on a new made grave. A flower of surpassing beauty has been transplanted from earth's bleak fields to the garden of Paradise; a gentle spirit borne above to deck God's vault with another jewel. Like a delicate perfume or a note of sweet music the life and character of our departed sister cannot be interpreted by words alone; and the writer of the little tribute of love and duty hereby feels the poverty of his pen, in the effort to do justice to her sacred memory.

Fragile in form and with a nervous organization painfully sensitive to the slightest emotion, she had a faith as brave as any martyr's who ever perished at the stake. With a nature singularly simple and childlike she possessed a mind of uncommon power and a judgment of rare precision. The firm guidance she freely gave, and the love and quality of her temper that of any being the writer ever knew.

Thoroughly educated, spiritual beyond, and in love of every consequence, conscious above all earthly standards, knowing but one end could lead that one day she never wavered, but at every cost was faithful to the end. She was a Christian indeed and in truth from her infancy, at no time in her life did she ever desert the banner of the Cross which was to her always a pillar of cloud by day and of fire by night. She was the purest soul the most unquenching and obedient disciple.

Her services as a self-heated or grudging faculty, but an absolute surrender of her entire nature; no religion of mere rites and ceremonies, but one of life in which every trivial act and duty was the outgrowth and inspiration of an all-absorbing faith. With a heart capable of idolatry in its passion for her loved one she submitted to her Master's will and allowed no earthly affection to distract her loyalty to Heaven.

In every relation of life she was faithful. As a wife, mother, daughter, sister and friend she was the ideal rarely realized, with few peers and no equal. Her faith, her love, her sympathy and tenderness, she was always seeking opportunity to do good unto others. Her home her long and patient illness with a meek and gentle resignation, wishing to live for the loved one, but submitting cheerfully to the Father's will.

Her patience was angelic and her death triumphant. She was of a truly most rare and noble nature, one of life's heroisms to earth to make it better and wiser in exemplifying God's eternal precepts.

Death was to her a privilege. She met it with smiles and gladness, and a quick exit of it, but with anguish and tears. She has gained a new glory—we have sustained an infinite loss. A great light has gone out of our lives, but a new star has been born in Heaven. May her beautiful life be to all her loved ones a continual sermon of great persuasion, and may the remembrance of her death inspire them to strive also for that Crown which gave to her the victory.

And here with aching hearts, dear and gentle, we will leave your portrait form to sleep beneath the daisies and your spirit to rest forever in the arms of a loving Saviour.

Her name will be a blessing to all who know her.
