NORTH CAROLINA.

SUITS OF THE WESTERN N. C. R. R. AGAINST I. P. BAYNE & CO.

VERDICT IN FAVOR OF THE ROAD.

New York, March 17.—Noon.—In the suit of the Western North Carolina Railroad Company, of North Carolina, against L. P. Bayne & Co. for $480,000 in bonds the referee has decided in favor of the Railroad Company. Mr. Bayne was held in $200,000 to give up the bonds but on consenting to deposit the bonds in the hands of the Court he was released on the nominal bail of one thousand dollars.

HEADQUARTERS.

ENFORCEMENT OF THE NEW TARIFF BILL.

BOGUS BROOKS REWARDED AT LAST.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Night.—The President has sent a message to the Senate regarding the Black Hills. A treaty will be attempted to open up the country and in the meantime intruders will be expelled.

Commissioner Douglas decides that the tariff and tax bill signed by the President March 3rd commences its operation from midnight of March 2d. All tobacco, cigars and cigarettes stamped, sold or withdrawn after that hour must be reported for additional tax.

Ex or bogus Governor Brooks, of Arkansas, has been nominated for postmaster at Little Rock.

The Postmaster-General has ordered transient newspapers to be forwarded at old rates until April first.

It is understood that the Republicans will not press the resolution endorsing the President's recognition of Kellogg as the Governor of Louisiana.

EUROPE.

DEBATE ON THE ECCLESIASTICAL BILL IN THE GERMAN PARLIAMENT.

MORE TROOPS FOR CUBA.

Berlin, March 17.—Noon.—The debate on the ecclesiastical bill was opened by the Minister of Public Worship, who insisted upon the necessity of fresh legislation upon the relations of the Church and State.

Bismarck spoke in support of the bill, and said the "more obedience was due to God than to man, certainly did not mean that more obedience was due to a Pope misguided by justice, than to the King. The Government was doing its duty in protecting German freedom of mind against Rome."

The House agreed to discuss the bill in full a sitting instead of referring it to a committee.

MADRID, March 17.—Noon.—The Mendez Nunez sailed from Santander, for Cuba, with troops.

PARRIS, March 17.—Night.—Pasquier, upon taking the Chair of the Assembly, used strong phrases against the Bonapartists, which were applauded.

The Assembly will dissolve in August and the election for the new Assembly will occur in the Autumn.

THE FLOODS.

BREAKING UP OF THE ICE ON THE DELAWARE.

PORT JERVIS FLOODED.

BRIDGES SWEEP AWAY AND TRAVEL IMPEDED.

PORT JERVIS, March 17.—Noon.—At 8 o'clock this morning sharp whistles gave alarm of the approach of a flood. King street was flooded by 7 o'clock, and the railroad bridge, three miles west of her, was swept away. At 8:40 o'clock the ice broke below; thirty blocks were flooded and some houses carried off, but no lives lost. The railroad bridge from above crashed the bridge here, and the suspension bridge eight miles below here is doomed.

WILMINGHAM, March 17.—Noon.—The Chief Engineer of the Erie Railroad has gone to the Delaware bridge to arrange temporary means for crossing the river. No travel can go west of this place by the Erie Road for probably two weeks.

PITTSBURGH, March 17.—Noon.—The bridge over the Susquehanna river was swept away ten minutes after the passage of the passenger train.

BALTIMORE.

DESPERATE AFFAIR AMONG SEAMEN.

REJECTION OF A PROPOSED CHANGE IN THE CONSTITUTION OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

BALTIMORE, March 17.—Night.—Last evening three sailors of the Italian bark Giuseppe Emmanuelle, which arrived in this port yesterday, and is lying at the lower canton, were permitted to go ashore. Returning on ship-board about 12 o'clock, all mad from drink, they rushed with drawn knives on B. N. Gray, the Custom House officer in charge of the vessel, who, to save his life, took refuge on an adjoining ship. The drunken sailors then made an assault on the crew on deck, during which Francisco

Tombras, one of the drunken men, plunged a knife into the breast of his brother, also a sailor on the Emmanuelle, inflicting a mortal wound. The fracas was only ended by a squad of police who were sent on board.

At a called meeting of the Ruling Elders of the Presbyterian Church of this city, held last evening, to consider the overture sent down from the last General Assembly, for action of the Presbytery, in regard to a change in the Constitution of the Church, by authorizing the election of the Ruling Elders for a limited time, not less than three years, on what is known as the notary eldership, the following resolution was, after an interesting discussion, unanimously adopted: That we disapprove of the Assembly's overture, and so far as our voice can be heard in the response of the Presbytery to the same we return an emphatic negative.

CUBA.

ATROCITIES BY THE COMBATANTS.

RAISING THE BLACK FLAG.

New York, March 17.—Night.—A letter from Sagua says: Col. Bonilla captured the hospital, where he found eighty wounded soldiers, alleged to have been in distress, whom Bonilla shot. This act explains more fully why Pope, Gonzales and the other rebel chiefs in the neighborhood of Sagua and Remedios have determined upon a general massacre and boudoir.

THE FIRE FIEND.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT ATLANTA.

ATLANTA, March 17.—Noon.—A destructive fire occurred this morning on Whitehall street. G. W. Jackson's confectionary store, Paul Jones' liquor store, and other buildings were burned. Loss $130,000; about $48,000 of which was covered by insurance.—The origin of the fire is thought to be accidental.

ELECTRICISMS.

The weavers and spinners at Fall River have gone to work.

The New Hampshire vote for Governor is as follows: Cheney 39,285; Roberts 39,163; White 754.

The cashier of Ansonian National Bank at New Haven, plead guilty of false entries in favor of Henry Clews & Co., and was sentenced to jail for five years.

Beck Brothers, stock brokers in Boston, have failed. The senior partner is dead, from an over dose of chloroform.

The steamer W. J. Lewis, from Vicksburg, for St. Louis, has been burned. Five persons are missing. Hamilton McDowell, Democrat, was elected mayor of Burlington, N. J., on Tuesday; also the entire Democratic ticket, which is the first time in six years that the Democrats have carried the city.

In the New York Assembly a bill to enable wives to testify against their husbands in criminal cases was reported adversely on yesterday, and its report was agreed to.

The Austin Powder Company's mills exploded yesterday at Cleveland, Ohio. Twelve buildings were demolished and three persons killed.

The first enforcement of the compulsory education law in that vicinity occurred at Fishkill Village, N. Y., yesterday, where several boys were arrested and forced to enter the district school house. More arrests will occur to-day.

Literary.

THE SPECTER LOVER. By Mrs. E. D. E. N. Southworth, author of "Fif Play," "How He Won Her," "Changed Bird," "Bridal's Fate," "Miriam," "Cruel as the Grave," "The Lost Heiress," &c. Philadelphia: T. B. Peterson & Brothers. Wilmington: P. Heinsberger.

This book assumes its title from the first of a number of charming little stories, all under one cover, the "Specter Lover," being from Mrs. Southworth's pen and the others from that of her sister, Mrs. Frances Henshaw Baden, author of "The Bride's Secret," &c. They furnish pleasant reading matter for an idle hour and the book itself may be placed in the home library along with the series of works written by Mrs. Southworth and published by the Petersons.

ISABELLA VINCENT. A Novel. By George W. M. Reynolds, author of "The Court of London," "Rose Foster," "Caroline of Brunswick," "Venetia Trelawny," etc. Philadelphia: T. B. Peterson & Brothers. Wilmington: P. Heinsberger. Price 75 cents.

VIVIAN BERTRAM; OR, A WIFE'S HONOR. A SEQUEL TO ISABELLA VINCENT. By George W. M. Reynolds, author of "The Court of London," "Rose Foster," "Caroline of Brunswick," "Venetia Trelawny," "Mary Price," "Lord Saxondale," "The Banker's Daughter," "Count Christoval," &c. Philadelphia: T. B. Peterson & Brothers. Wilmington: P. Heinsberger. Price $1.

Why has Scurvy? Because the staple Dietaries of America? Simply because it is impossible to eat it, even for a week, without perceiving its hygienic effect upon the teeth, the gums and the breath.

It is a rare thing that physicians give any countenance to a medicine, the manufacturer of which is a secret. About the only exception we know of is John's Anodyne Liniment. This, we believe, all doctors, and many of them use it in their practice with great success.

Persons requiring purgatives or pills should be careful what they buy. Some pills not only cause griping pains, but leave the bowels in a torpid, costive state. Parsons' Purgative Pills will relieve the bowels and cleanse the blood without injury to the system.

Consumptives, Take Notice. Every moment of delay makes your cure more hopeless, and much depends on the judicious choice of a remedy. The amount of testimony in favor of Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure for consumption, far exceeds all that can be brought to support the pretensions of any other medicine. See Dr. Schenck's Almanac, containing the certificates of many persons of the highest respectability, who have been restored to health, after being pronounced incurable by physicians of acknowledged ability. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup also has cured many, as these evidences will show; but the cure is often protracted by the employment of two other remedies which Dr. Schenck provides for the purpose. These additional remedies are Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic and Man-trake Pills. By the timely use of these medicines, according to directions, Dr. Schenck certifies that most any case of Consumption may be cured.

Dr. Hehenek is professionally at his principal office, corner Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, every Monday, where all letters for advice must be addressed.
