HEADQUARTERS.
ANOTHER NEWSPAPER AT WASHINGTON CITY.

IMPORTANT STEAMBOAT DE-CISION.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Noon.—The Lynchburg Republican re-appears here, with Nolan and Comann on deck and Hardwick at the helm.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Night.— The Comptroller of Currency calls upon the National Banks for a statement of their affairs on the 1st inst. This notice and blanks will be mailed on Monday next.

It has been decided by the Treasury Department that steamers originally built for carrying freight, and afterwards changed to passenger steamers, must be provided with the cross bulkheads required upon vessels built as passenger steamers, and that old boilers may be used on new boats if they have previously been inspected and found to meet the requirements of the law in force at that time, and may be allowed such pressure as upon test they may be capable of bearing.

EUROPE.

MOODY AND SANKEY IN LONDON.

GERMANS EMBIGATING FROM RUSSIA.

LONDON, May 7.—Noon.—The Christian Observer closed last night. Mr.
Sankey, Maj. Coles, of Chicago, and many English and Scotch ministers made speeches. An interesting discussion was held on the value of Sunday Schools. The speakers strongly advocated a lay agency as a measure for conversion.

BERLIN, May 7.—Noon.—Six thousand German families are preparing to emigrate from Russia on account of the oppressive conscription.

WEST INDIES.

THE REVOLUTION AT PORT AU
PRINCE SUPPRESSED.

PORT AU PRINCE, May 7.—Noon.— The revolution has been suppressed by the troops. Gen. Paire was killed upon the breaking out of the trouble.
Foreign Consulates were immediately crowded with refugees. Martial law was proclaimed. The proclamation containing the promise of amnesty to those who would surrender. Tranquility has been restored.

KENTUCKY.

THE AMERICAN MEDICAL AS-SOCIATION.

LOUISVILLE, May 7.—Noon.—The Medical Association to-day appointed delegates to represent the Association at the Congress to be held in Brussels in September next. A committee was also appointed to confer with the Canadian Medical Association on the subject of holding an international convention.

ELECTRICISMS.

General Neill, commander of the troops at the Cheyenne agency, reports that fifty-seven of the Indians who were tried at Fort Bill were convicted and sentenced to the Dry Tortugas.

The boiler of the steamer Senator exploded on Thursday, just after leaving the dock at Portland, Oregon. The forward portion of the boat was blown to pieces. Capt. McGill, Purser Laneey and a number of the crew were killed and many wounded.

James B. McCreey was nominated for Governor of Kentucky, on the fourth ballot.

China has engaged Confederate Gen.
Ripley to construct works on an extensive scale for the defence of the coast and the principal rivers. Gen. Ripley sails from London for the East in a few days.

An ex-conductor was killed by a Cincinnati Adams express messenger after the messenger had received two shots. The robber sawed the end of the door, while the messenger claims that he was awake.

Gen. Sheridan's father is dead.

Wm. E. Sturtevant, the triple mur-derer, was hung yesterday at Plymouth. He was steady to the last. The arrangements were complete and the affair was a success. The curiously arranged pulleys and weights that jerked him were patented. The Sheriffs of different counties of Massachusetts were present to witness the success of the experiment.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad Company have paid the interest due on their bonds since the first of May, and have relieved two hundred thousand dollars of the debt of the road.

A female swindler, calling herself Mrs. D. C. Elliott, has been victimizing the Richmond, Petersburg and Norfolk banks by means of raised drafts.

CUBA.

MORE TALK ABOUT CRUSHING THE REBELLION.

New York, May 6.—Night.—Havana letters say the battle of Palma Cota greatly elated the Spaniards; they only require about three months to crush the rebellion completely; ever so many Cubans killed, and only one Spaniard was hurt.

STATE NEWS.

The Hash county jail doors stand wide open.

The scarlet fever is in Charlotte with several fatal cases already.

The revival at Toisnot continues with unabated interest. There have been over fifty conversions.

Paul Crutchfield, an employee on the Northwestern road, had his arm badly mashed on last Tuesday, at Greensboro, while coupling cars.

Rev. A. W. Mangum, of Edenton Street Methodist Church, in Raleigh, has been invited to deliver the annual address at Greensboro Female College.

Rev. Dr. Hooper, L.L. D., has accepted the invitation to deliver the address of welcome to the members of the State Medical Society, which convenes at Wilson on the 18th inst.

The Winston Sentinel says: Little Charlie Ogburn killed a crane near town last week that measured five feet seven and one-half inches from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other.

The Tarboro Southerner says: We are pained to announce the critical condition of Mrs. Gen. W. D. Pender.
It is feared she will not recover. She is suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

The Charlotte Observer says: A man named Peter Peeler, of Cleveland county, hung himself in his barn Wednesday. It is a singular fact that Crow, the former owner of the plantation on which Peeler lives, hung himself some years ago near the same spot. Peeler was deputy sheriff, and during the war was Lt. Col. of Militia.

The Southern records a Democratic victory in Tarboro last Monday, the result of which was that Jesse A.
Williamson, Jacob Feidenheimer, Frederick Phillips, Daniel W. Hurt, Alex. McCabe and Joseph Cobb, were elected Commissioners, four of whom are Democrats.

The Charlotte Eagle says: Mr. J.
Armstrong, aged 63, a resident of Gaston county, was thrown from his buggy and killed last Tuesday, while returning from Dallas to his home. Mr.
Armstrong, we learn, had been drinking heavily, and on the road leading from Dallas to the South Fork, his horse became frightened and threw him out, breaking his neck on the wheels.

The Rocky Mount Mail says: At the land sale last Saturday Mr. Wm. S.
Battle bid off a beautiful lot on Church street, and immediately presented it to the Episcopal Church. This is a handsome present, and we trust that the Church will bestir itself and soon commence the erection of a handsome building. Quite a large amount has already been subscribed.

The Salisbury Watchman says: Mr.
J. W. Bradford, of Davis, has left on our table several specimens of mineral rocks, indicating deposits of iron and copper, and possibly silver. These specimens were taken from a shaft sunk by Mr. B. N. Allen, of Fulton; and they promise something, and we hope it will turn out that there is a valuable mine of some character at the place named.

The Charlotte Observer says: In a letter to Col. Brem, Capt. Blankenship, of the "Richmond Howitzers," says he thinks his battery will come to Charlotte on the 20th, if the Centennial Association will furnish horses for the guns and officers. Notice Col.
Brem's advertisement for forty horses.

The howitzers are said to have the handsomest uniform, and to be the best drilled military organization in the Southern States.

DIED.

In Minneapolis, Minn., on Saturday, the 1st inst., Mrs. Eliza K. Brown, wife of Jas.
Potts Brown, in the 61st year of her age—having been born on the 1st of February, 1814.
Deceased was the youngest daughter of Samuel Potter, Esq., an honored citizen of the Upper county, inheriting from him great decision of character and the keener sense of right. She was a woman of uncommon worth and intelligence—respected, beloved, honored, by all who knew her. She was religious by instinct, and in the most absolute belief in the truths of the Bible. In the simplest and most exalted faith in the at present by the Lord Jesus Christ—principle, imbibed even in her childhood—her life has been one of sincere charity, purity and love, in the entire fulfillment of all her duties, as wife, mother and friend. The scene of her death was a beautiful portrayal of the principle of her life. In patient respect, when tormented by the pangs of her disease, with which she had suffered for seven months, surrounded by nearly all her family, she awaited with calm eyes, assured by confident hopes, the removal of the veil. Her last distinct words were "that great change is coming." She died in peace with God, and in love and peace with the world.

Official Report.

The following is a correct report of the sales of SEWING MACHINES made by the leading Companies during the past four (4) years.
A careful examination of the figures will show that the sale of the "SINGER" has largely increased each year, while, on the contrary, a corresponding decrease is shown in the sales reported by all other companies. Now the questions naturally arise: How long will the state of affairs last? How long will the other companies be able to keep offices open in our different cities and towns when they are selling so few machines? All persons who think of buying a machine should consult their own interest and get a good one from the old, reliable SINGER MANUFACTURING COMPANY.
