ever started on one day.

LEXINGTON, May 17—Noon—The condition of Gen. Breckenridge remains unchanged. He is still cheerful and seems to be much less concerned at his condition than those around him, He has the papers read to him and converses with his few chosen friends who are admitted. Some of his more hopeful friends entertrin hopes of his remaining among them for some time, but experienced persons see he cannot remain much long-er and is liable to be called away at any moment. His pulse is very weak. Many of his relatives and friends from auroad are here to be with him in his
