An important railroad suit has just been decided at Auburn, N. Y., in which William B. Torpe, of that city, was plaintiff, and the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company the defendant. The plaintiff set | Marriage License - Know all men by forth that he was unable to find a seat these presents, that we Thomas Jefferin any of the ordinary cars of the train while coming from Syracuse to Auburn, and took a sent in the Wagner drawing-room ear. The conductor demanded extra fare from him, which he refused. The porter thereupon ejected him from the car, tearing his clothing and inflicting some slight serrtches, on account of which he sued the companp for $10,000 damages. The jury allowed the plaintiff $1,000. According to this decision railroad companies are under obligations to furnish seats for all passengers, and if they are not to be obtained in the ordinary cars the to be obtained in the ordinary cars the drawing-room car may be occupied Charles City, widow, for which a license is desired, then this obligation

THE GAUGE QUESTION. On Thursday last Gol. A. S. Buford, President, and W. H. Green, Master of Transportation of the Richmond & Danville Railroad, were arrested by Cyrus P. Mendelhall, Esq., Major of Greensboro, for violating the statute prohibiting railroads from altering their gauge. Governor Brogden and Solicitor Strudwick were informed of the arrest by telegraph.

The parties applied to Judge Schenck, of the Ninth Judicial District, for a writ of habeas corpus, as Judge Kerr was holding Court in this circuit, and Judge McKoy, with whom he had exchanged circuits, had finished and returned to his home in "I'll try it," was Simonson's laconic finished and returned to his home in

VIRTUE IN 1TN OWN BEWARD. General Sheridan will take his young bride out on the plains for the wedding trip, visiting, among other places, the famous Yellowstone River, the rival of the Yosemite of California. Scoretary Belknap and others accompany the bridal party, and General Ouster's cavalry expedition of twelve hundred troopers will furnish the es-

Thus do we see that " virtue is its own reward" and that Republics (the Grant Administration Republic) are not always ungrateful. Sheridan was Howard said: sent to Louisiana by President Grant for the purpose of enforcing the behests of a party over the rights of a people, and nobly did he fulfill his commission in overriding State laws and the rights of the common people before the common law. The campaign was brief, glorious and decisive, and will bear a hand in the election of hests of a party over the rights of a the Demogratic sandidate for the Presidency next year. This New Orleans campaign and his ride in the valley of Virginia when a thousand barnes were burned in the very teeth of an unarmed multitude of old men, women and children and, later, the massacre of the Piegan Indians, has entitled the brave and chivalrons Sheridan to the lasting gratitude of the party of plunder. Beheld the reward. A bridal trip to the Yellowstone River, and an escort of a legion of troopers, all at the public expense! Verily, somebody er mon b, or Two DoLLARS and TWENis laying up wrath unto the day of wrath, for himself and others.

BRODDY SHERMAN.

Sherman's war book, full of glorification of himself at the expense of truth and justice to others, has called forth a variety of comments from the press. Some the attaches to the coat tails of rising greatness) see in it but an opportunity to land and glorify the big bummer while others, who have little to do in the way of political axe grinding, do not hesitate to condema, in most unqualified terms. From the Herald.

The Death of Histor Polk. We could plainly see three persons standing in front of a line of breastworks and a larger group in the background. As it was evident that they were watching our movements, Stanley suggested that a few shots be fired to drive them under cover. Howard suggested that perhaps Bishop Polk was in the party, when Stanley turned to Captain Simonson, his chief of artil-

reply. And away he galloped to the rear. A few minutes later a section of The case came up for hearing bethe Fi(th Indiana battery (Simonson's) fore Judge Schenck at Charlotte on was unlimbered within twenty feet of Saturday, at chambers. The Judge us. The Lieutenant sighted the gun discharged the defendants on the and the shot exploded over and to the right of the group. Simonson, when the gun had been reloaded, dismount they were arrested is unconstitutional ed and said : "Here, Lieutenant, let and void, and because the prisoners | me try it." He took the range and the messenger of death sped on its mission. Our glasses were bent upon the group and we observed a commotion as the shot took effect in the group Judge Marshall, of Richmond, were that scattered to the rear. While S: menson was upon his knees sighting the gun for another discharge, Captain Leonard, chief of Howard's Signal Corps, sitting on his horse beside me, read the Confederate signal and caught the words : "General Polk is killed!" With a look of amazement Leonard turned to

Howard and Stanley and exclaimed:
"Bishop Polk is killed!"
"What?" exclaimed Howard; "have you interpreted the signal correctly?" "Yes, General Simonson's last shot killed him. They are signalling it along the line."

The young men of the staff who were eracking jokes instantly ceased, and for a moment none spoke. Then "Well, a Chris ian has fallen. Such is war." Just then Simonson cought the

"Thank God! Yesterday they killed my dear brother; I have killed a licutemant-general, and an avanged!"

Without discharging the piece Simulation arrows, remounted, and joined the staff. The enemy was so demoralized that he evacuated the mountain, and half an hour afterward we stood upon the spot where Folk fell and saw the ground stained with his blood. A day or two after poor Bimonson fell, shot on the skirmish line in Ackworth woods. ine in Ackworth woods,
