ANOTHER INDIAN CONFERENCE

AND ITS RESULTS.

THE DEBT STATEMENT.

THE CONFEDERATE DEAD AT ARLINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Noon.—President Garret, when interviewed in Chicago a few days ago, was reported to have said that the Postmaster General had written to the effect that if the Pennsylvania Company did not carry the mails in the Baltimore and Ohio cars over their new divisions he—Postmaster General—would withdraw all the Western mails from the Pennsylvania Railroad. When Scott saw this statement seemingly so authoritatively made by Mr. Garret, he wrote to the Postmaster General, asking him for facts in the case, and received yesterday the following reply:

WASHINGTON, May 31, 1875.
Hon. T. A. Scott.—In reply to yours of the 28th, I would state that I have written no letter to the B. & O. R. R. Company to the effect that I would withdraw the Western mails from your road. I have written no letter except one transmitting a copy of Mr. Kue's letter of May 19th, in which I made no statement. I learn from Mr. Garret, who is here, that the newspaper report of his conversation is incorrect.

(Signed.) MARSHALL JEWELL,
Postmaster General.

The Chicago Internal Revenue Collector, Wadsworth, received a note from Commissioner Pratt requesting him to tender his resignation. The note assigns no reason for the request, except that the good of the service demands such a step. Wadsworth has not yet given an answer.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 1.—Night.—Another Indian conference was held to-day. Speeches were made by Red Cloud, Spotted Tail, Bad Wound and Secretary Delano. The latter told the Indians that the Government would give them $25,000 for their hunting privileges in Nebraska, and if they did not accept that they might as well cease talking. After considerable discussion among the Indians they agreed to accept the proposition, though the great chiefs express doubts about getting their just rights, and before signing any papers hope to have another talk with their Great Father, the President. Spotted Tail said he wanted the $25,000 this afternoon. The money will be expended in buying presents for them.

The debt statement issued to-day shows a reduction last month of $1,189,456. The decrease of the debt since June 30th, 1874, is $12,964,265. The balance is, currency, $4,355,107; coin, $34,267,602. Special deposits held for the redemption of certificates of deposits $55,646,000. The Government disbursements during May aggregated $15,384,788, exclusive of payments on accounts of the interest on the principal of the public debt.

A. J. Falls, Chief Clerk of the Department of Justice, has resigned. His successor has not yet been appointed. The President will leave for Long Branch on Thursday next.

The Postmaster General having advised the Pennsylvania Railroad Company that the Department was satisfied with the present arrangements for the postal car service, Mr. Scott replied yesterday that as the Pennsylvania Railroad did not desire to use Mr. Garret's car between New York and Philadelphia, the mails would hereafter be transferred at West Philadelphia to one of their own cars and sent to New York on the regular train.

The mails were accordingly transferred to-day occupying about 20 minutes and causing no delay. Mr. Scott has also offered, if the mails are sent by the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad to carry them on the limited express and thus expedite the transportation of the through mails between Washington and New York by over an hour without additional compensation. In this way the mails would go by a continuous steam route of fast trains.

The Southern Memorial Association to-day decorated the graves of the Confederates dead at Arlington, 233 in number. A large number were present from this city and the adjoining country.

After prayer by Dr. Elliott, of the Association Episcopal Church, the assembly proceeded to the grounds where rest the Confederate dead, and proceeded to decorate the graves.

Dr. Garnett stated that letters had been received from Richmond, Winchester, and other places.

Mr. C. P. Harmon read that from the Richmond, regretting the inability of the Association to attend, and forwarding an eloquent floral offering.

There was no speech making, and the ceremony was exceedingly impressive and solemn.

THE FIRE FIEND.

MAXWELL, Ont., June 1.—Noon.—The house of Mr. VanMeer, near this place, was recently destroyed by fire. Three children perished in the flames.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., June 1.—Noon.—The total loss by the recent fire is about $550,000. Insurance about $450,000.

EUROPE.

THE QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE IN THE BRITISH COMMONS.

SOME EXTENSIVE FAILURES REPORTED.

LONDON, June 1.—Night.—The House of Commons resumed the consideration of the question of privilege.

The motion offered by the Marquis of Hartington on May 6th, was taken up. It was to the effect that the House should not entertain any complaint with respect to the publication of the proceedings, except in cases of wilful misrepresentation, or when publication is prohibited, and that strangers shall not be obliged to withdraw unless disorderly or by special direction of the House. This motion was rejected.

Mr. Disraeli then moved that if attention is called by any member to the presence of strangers, the House shall decide by division whether they will be withdrawn; furthermore, that the speaker be empowered to order their withdrawal whenever he thinks fit. Mr. Disraeli's motion was unanimously adopted.

A meeting of the Conservative members of Parliament was held at the residence of Mr. Disraeli to-day, when an understanding was arrived at as to the general policy of the Government on a question of privilege. No reporters were present.

The Aberdeen Iron Company has failed. Liabilities £750,000; nominal assets £250,000. This total valuation of the works is together with that of the Plymouth Iron Company, which is one concern with the Aberdeen Company. This failure involves Fenderick & Co., bill brokers, and Glead & Co. Smith. Their liabilities are placed at £200,000, for the greater part of which their creditors hold securities. James Dabburn is also involved. The latter's liabilities are estimated at £34,000 and assets £25,000.

MADRID, June 1.—Noon.—It is reported that Gen. Paturo has been arrested for complicity in a Republican conspiracy.

LONDON, June 1.—Night.—Two hundred houses have been destroyed by fire in Cabanal, Spain.

The Abanillo Iron Company, the failure of which has been announced, gave employment to five thousand people. Several additional small failures have been announced.

ILLINOIS.

CONVENTION OF THE NATIONAL TEMPERANCE ASSOCIATION.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Night.—The Convention of the National Temperance Association began this morning. Among the delegates are Miss Weichmann, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Denmar, President of the New Jersey Temperance Union. Vice-President Wilson delivered the opening address, after which a letter of greeting, from Schuyler Colfax, was read. Mon. Hiram Price, of Davenport, was chosen President, and Hon. Joshua Hyde, of New Hampshire, First Vice-President, with other Vice-Presidents, representing various States' Unions. Vice-Presidents at large were elected as follows: William B. Dodge, Schuyler Colfax, Henry Wilson, Mrs. Jennie Willing, Rev. J. Russell, Thos. B. Hunt and Mrs. Mary Livermore. John N. Stearns was elected Secretary. In the afternoon session most of the delegates were present, and listened to the address of welcome, from Rev. A. E. Kittredge, of Chicago.

PHILADELPHIA.

ARREST OF ALLEGED BOND FORGEES.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—Noon.—The Pinkerton Agency arrested to-day Jas. H. Gaw, W. J. Stevenson and Peter Burns, who are charged, in connection with Robert Wishart, who it is reported is in custody in New York, with having been implicated in forged bonds of the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad, which were traced to George F. Heik, whose arrest, in connection with the safe-guard insurance trouble, took place in November last. The parties were placed in $25,000 bail. A woman is also under arrest for dealing in forged and stolen bonds—three $1,000 bonds, in the name of Mr. Oettinger, of Raleigh, N. C., being found in her possession.

Mr. Cunliffe Owen and Col. Stewart Sandford, English Commissioners to the Centennial, have arrived here.

GOTHAM.

BEAST BUTLER A DEFENDANT IN COURT.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Night.—At the opening of the U. S. District Court to-day, before Judge Benedict, in the suit brought by Wm. F. Herbert, against Gen. Butler, for a share in a consular fee of $20,000, paid to Butler by G. B. Lamar, Judge Benedict said it was clear to his mind that the plaintiff had not thoroughly established his case, and he therefore instructed the jury to find a verdict for the defendant, which they did.

ELECTRICIANS.

A mail bag was picked up in the river at Savannah, yesterday morning, and found to be yesterday mail from Charleston, S. C., to Jacksonville, Fla. The letters had all been read.

Monsignore Boncetta, and Dr. Ubbelli, papal envoys, are at Milwaukee to participate in the ceremony of bestowing the pallium upon Arch-Bishop Henni, which takes place next Thursday.

There are heavy forest fires in Sullivan and Delaware counties, N. Y., and several villages have been abandoned and one life lost.

Chas. W. Sargeant, Secretary of the New Hampshire Historical Society, and cashier of a bank, suicided yesterday. No cause but insanity.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

A RADICAL OFFICIAL LEAVES HIS COUNTRY FOR HIS OWN GOOD.

THE WORK OF FUNDING THE STATE DEBT.

CHARLESTON, June 1.—Noon.—C. P. Leslie, member of the State Legislature, is reported to have absconded, to avoid an arrest, on the charge of defrauding the State while Land Commissioner, during Governor Scott's administration. The proceedings were directed by the State authorities, and bail fixed at $44,000. Leslie is also charged with election frauds and rioting.

The funding of the State debt goes on rapidly, the amount already funded being six million dollars, or about one-half of the entire debt.

The Academy of Music, in this city, has been purchased for $42,000, by John E. Owens, the comedian, under whose auspices it will henceforth be conducted.

Not a Fish Story Exactly.

Mr. Mullett's official ghost still rises occasionally, though the substance has been pretty effectually put down. There is no doubt that in many instances "the evil that men do lives after them," and if all reports are true the Chicago Custom House is a notable instance. The investigation made by Gen. Holman, and Mr. Potter, Supervising Architect of the Treasury, show that the Government has to pay considerable for past mistakes, or worse. The Chicago Custom House has reached its present stage of incompleteness at a cost to the Government of about $2,000,000. The material employed in its construction came from the Buena Vista quarry. The recent investigation has discovered that while much of the stone from this source is excellent, a large portion is brittle, more of it rotten, and some of a different species altogether and wholly unfit for building purposes. Mr. Potter does not think that any portion of the walls of this new structure can be saved, but that all will have to be re-laid on the ground. This will make the $2,000,000 expended a dead loss, and even should considerable of the material prove fit for use the extra labor of sorting out and building over will swell the bill larger than tax-payers will like to see. Of course it is not necessary to make any charges in connection with these revelations. The people will be apt to fix the responsibility where it belongs, though perhaps the investigation now going forward will assist them in forming conclusions.

Prof. H. Becker, of the Forsyth, Ga., Female College, has composed and dedicated a piece of music, called "No Third Term Quotation," and dedicated it to the New York Sun. The Advertiser publishes a card from Mr. C. A. Dana, editor, thanking Prof. Becker for the compliment.

Sensitive bather to bathing attendant: "Listen! if I am to be drowned, or nearly so, I want it to be distinctly understood that I am not to be stood on my head, or rolled on a barrel, or any such ridiculous exhibitions made of me. If I can't be revived without any of these performances, I prefer to be left alone."

DIED.

In this city on the evening of the 31st ult., of paralysis, DANIEL FERGUS, aged 84 years. Deceased was born in Onondaga county, in this State, but removed to Wilmington when quite a boy. He was for a long time a merchant of this city, but for some years before the late war retired from business with an ample competency.

When war was declared against England in 1872, he was one of the gallant spirits of this State who volunteered for the national defence.

Quiet and unobtrusive in his manners, firm and conscientious in all his dealings with his fellow men, he commanded the respect of all who knew him in his long career and attracted to him the warm love of devoted friends. His integrity in all his business transactions shone out to a remarkable degree, and so proverbial was his honesty that his word was considered as good as his bond.

For nearly fifty years he was an exemplary follower of the teachings of the Divine Master, and in all the relations of life he illustrated the character of the true Christian gentleman.

Like his father, he has passed away; but though dead in the flesh he lives again in the realms of Him, who saith, "I am the resurrection and the life."

The funeral will take place this morning from his late residence on Second street, at 9 o'clock. The friends of the family are invited to attend.

In this city, on the 1st inst., CATHERINE G., wife of W. H. Day and daughter of Jno. A. Sanders, Esq., aged 22 years and 33 days.

The friends and acquaintances of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, which will be held at 4 o'clock, P. M., from the First Presbyterian Church, and thence to Oakdale Cemetery.
