DREADFUL DISASTER ON THE TAGUS.

RELIGIOUS TROUBLES IN BEL-GIUM.

PORTUGAL, June 4-Noon,-Sixty persons were drowned by the capsizing of a lighter in the Tagus.

Paris, June 4-Noon-La Republique Francaise reports that Count Von Perponcher, the German Ambassador at Brussels, has made fresh representations to the Belgian government in regard to the Catholic procession.

BRUSSELS, June 4—Noon—Forty persons were arrested at St. Nicholas for taking part in an affray growing ont of interference with a religious London, June 4 - Noon. - The Daily Telegraph's Berlin despatch says: The German government possesses proof that the charges of conspiracy made against Duniu are unfounded. Dunin's arrest was due to the excessive zeal of a Prussian police. The agent and prisoner will soon be released.

CONSECRATION OF ARCHBISH OP HENNI.

MILWAUKEE, June 4 Noon-Archbishop Henni was consecrated yesterterday. The ceremonies were most imposing. The Cathedral was crowded at 9 a. m. The interior of the Cathedral was beautifully decorated with flowers, Mass began at 10 a. m. Bishop Haiss, of LaCrosse, celebrant, and Bishop Ryan, of St. Louis, delivered the sermon. At the close of mass ered the sermon. At the close of mass Bishop Henni appeared in his Archiepiscopal robes. The bull and brief of the Pope conferring the pallium was read. Monsignor Roncetti, ablegate, advanced to the foot of the Archbishop's throne, and in a lengthy speech in Latin, delivered his mission as delegat d by his boliness.

who knelt to receive it at the foot of the altar. The choir burst forth into a grand alletuia and the bells of the Cathedral rung. The Archbishop gave the benediction, and the singing of Te Deum closed the ceremony. In the evening there was a grand torchlight procession of all the Catholic societies in the city. It was two miles in length and there were five thousand torches. After marching through the principal streets, the procession halted in front of the Archbishop's, when there was a salute of guns and the ringing of the bells of all the Catholic Churches in the city. Addresses were read to the Papal Ablegate and Arcubishops, and their responses made. These exercises were interpersed with music, and at the conclusion the procession separ-

MORE TROUBLE AND LOSS OF LIFE.

THE COLLIERIES AT POTTS VILLE RESUMED WORK.

MAHONEY CITY, June 4-Noon-At curred at King, Tyler & Co.'s colliers, the rioters to disperse. One of the Chiefs replied that they could not drive them away and fired on the sheriff. The firing became general and about two hundred shots were fired and the sheriff being overpowered retreated to the town and reorganized his forces-the citizens volunteering. Eight raiders were wounded sembled them for the purpose of exer-and one killed. Several citizens were cising them in spelling. He then took wounded. The military had arrived his seat and commenced giving out the continuance of the work begun.

There was an alarm occasioned by the discharge of fire arms in the upper covered his self-possession, and being end of Mahoney City at midnight and very familiar with the subject, spelt it the troops were got ready for any right. The next word was "negro, emergency. The shots were fired by which was given to Southard, who, a mob of raiders.

Breckenridge's Escape.

The escape of Breckenridge after the surrender of Lee was quite romantic. Accompanied by Col. Wilson, of his staff, he made his way to Florida, where the two refugees were joined by Col. Taylor Wood, the brother-in-law of Jefferson Davis. Securing a small skiff, they bodily embarked, near Key West, for Cuba, and succeeded in reaching the port of Cardenas, near Havana, in safety .-From thence Gen. Breckenridge proceeded to Europe, and flually took up his residence in Canada. The last years of his life were quietly spent in Kentucky. General Breckenridge Archbishop Henni then read his acceptance of the dignity conferred upon him. B shop Heiss then conferred was christened "Owen County," in honor of the county which secured the county which secured the s fa her to Congress in 1853, in the contest with Gov. Letcher.

Hon, Jefferson Davis.

The Galveston News says that the paragraph which has been going the rounds of the press to the effect that the Hon, Jefferson Davis has been tendered the position of the Presidency of the Agricultural College at Bryan, Texas, is premature at least. Seeing the paragraph, an old Mississippi friend of Mr. Davis wrote to him on the subject, and in reply Mr. Davis states that he has never been apprised of such appointment, but it is inferred from the tone of his letter that he would have accepted the position. He speaks very gloomily of the future of Mississippi; says the majority of negro voters is already so large and so rapidly increasing by immigration that he cannot forsee the day of her deliverence. In speaking of Texas he says: "Texas is the only Southern State which has advanced in prosperity since the war, and as a field for one who has sons to launch upon the world, offers the most inviting prospect."

An Old Time Speiling Bee

We find floating around the press, without credit, a humorous description 3 o'clock P. M., yesterday, Sheriii of a "Spelling Bee" among Mr. Werner telegraphed that his posse had Adams' Cabinet. No doubt the whole been fired upon and asked military as- thing is a coinage of some fertile imsistance. The first disturbance oc- agination, but it may be said of it, as has been so often expressed, of other when the sheriff with a posse ordered witty things-if not true, it is happily conceived. Hear the wag :

Mr. Adams held a book in his hand; from which he selected the words. He said that his administration had called public attention to Gen. Jackson's want of knowledge in orthography, and that it behooved them all to mind their P's and Q's, and that he had asand all is quiet.

Porrsynne, June 4—Noon—All the collieries that had been compelled to suspend work by the raiders resumed this morning, being assured of military protection. The citizens think it will be necessary to retain the troops in their midst for several days to insure the continuance of the work begun.

The military has arrived his seat and commenced giving out words, saying, spell "female." Mr. Clay began by spelling it "female." Barbour, "phe-male;" Porter, "phe-male; "McKinney, who stood foot, and being a cat's paw for the Cabinet, had put himself there without being asked, when Mr. Adams nodded to him, spell at the top of his voice. An interesting event transpired on Friday at La Crosse, Wisconsin, where fifty Winnebago Indians, hav-ing complied with the law in abandoning their tribal relations and adopting the customs of civilization, made their appearance at the Land Office and proceeded to enter forty acres of land each under the Homestead act. The land is located near the Biack River Falls, Wisconsin, and the Indians will at once occupy their new possessions. where they will erect farm-houses, establish schools, and generally cast off the generic habits of their race.

The other day at the Glasgow central police court a young man named Robert Hamilton was charged before Bailie Young with having attempted to pick the pockets of ladies in Ingram street. From the evidence it appeared that the prisoner, who had for some time past been a regular attendant at revival meetings, was standing the other evening in a crowd which had collected in Ingram street, and who were engaged singing hymns from the hymnal published by Messrs. Moody and Sanky. While singing at the top of his voice and apparently with high-strung devotional feeling, "Hold the fort, for I am coming," the prisoner was observed to insert his hands into the processes of first different ledies. the pockets of five different ladies. The last lady whom he attempted to rob seized him in the act, and caused him to be handed over to the police who took him into custody. He was committed to prison for sixty days.
