EVARTS CLOSES HIS ARGUMENT.

THE BEECHER TRIAL ON ITS LAST LEGS.

New York, June 9.—Noon.—Mr. Evert's closing argument at 6:40 o'clock, yesterday evening. He was particularly severe upon Tilton and thanked the jury for their patience and complimented them for having done their duty faithfully as citizens.

New York, June 9.—Noon.—The Brooklyn City Court room was packed this morning with spectators as it had never before during the trial. The entrance of Mr. Beecher, who was to deliver the closing address, was the signal for a storm of applause, which was with difficulty checked by the Court officers. Ex-Judge Fullerton arrived shortly after and received a similar ovation. The friends of the plaintiff were mustered in strong force and scarcely a vacant place was to be found in the room. The ante-room and corridors were thronged with the satisfied parties, who were unable to gain admission to the Court-room. The plaintiff was early in his place behind his counsel, and was closely surrounded by the surging multitude. The throng was so great that Judge Nelson gave instructions to the officers in charge of the Court to make some arrangements and prevent a similar occurrence in the future. Beecher and his wife were absent when the proceedings began. The Judge cautioned the audience to preserve the utmost silence. Beecher then said and that at last Theodore Tilton had the opportunity to be heard in a court of justice after having been overcome with calumnies. At the Church investigation every one saw that Tilton and his witnesses were off from a hearing, and it was no wonder that public clamor demanded that justice should be done to him in this unfortunate transaction. At this point Beecher and his wife came into the room and took their usual places in the Plymouth throng.

EUROPE.

SOME BRITISH TROUBLES IN THE EAST.

UNEASY LIES THE HEAD THAT WEARS A CROWN IN SPAIN.

THE CARLISTS UNCONQUERABLE AS YET.

DUSKY ROYALTY IN LONDON.

THE ASCOT RACES.

London, June 9.—Noon.—A dispatch to the Times from Bangkok says that Mr. Forsyth, the British Envoy to Burma, has been instructed to demand of the King an immediate explanation of the friendly reception given in the murder of Margy, a British explorer.

The Burmese are cutting the telegraph.

The steamship with the Sultan of Zamboanga and suite on board has arrived at Gravesend.

A Paris correspondent of the Times, alluding to the rumors of the Republican movement in Madrid, says that those who are watching the course of affairs in Spain are satisfied that the Alfonsoist government is apprehensive. They assert that the Spanish Ambassador has renewed his complaint relative to the tolerance of Carlistism on the frontier, and has warmly protested against the ostensible charity fetes, the real object of which is to raise money in Paris for the Carlists. It is supposed that Franco will pay less attention to these complaints than he formerly does at present, as they are a slight interest in the case of King Alfonso, whose government is too weak to pursue a course agreeable to Germany.

Competent authority, an attaché of the Spanish Ambassador in Paris, officially reports that the Carlists muster forty-five thousand good soldiers, besides an equal number of second rates, and will continue to be victorious so long as the war is conducted as at present.

A dispatch from Vienna says that the Princess Wundisgratz has sent three hundred thousand florins to Don Carlos.

Madrid, June 9.—Noon.—The rumors of the Republican movement, in consequence of recent military events, prove that the troops are unable to gain any advantage over the Carlists.

London, June 9.—Night.—At the Ascot meeting to-day the race for the Royal Hunt Cup was won by Thuringian; Prince White Bart was second, and Lady Patricia third. Twenty ran. The Coronation stakes were won by Maud Victoria; Lady of Urnard was second; Rejaleja third. Seventeen ran. The Ascot Derby stakes were won by Gilbert; Spinaway second, and Earl of Dartry third. Five started.

ELECTRICISMS.

At Topeka, Kansas, yesterday, while Deputy United States Marshal Ramsey and posse were attempting to arrest two horse thieves at Stockton, Kansas, one of them shot Ramsey in the abdomen and he died in about an hour afterwards. After being shot, Ramsey killed the other who shot him, and the other thief escaped.

At Stockton, Kansas, a horse thief dodged behind a pony. He and Sheriff Ramsey revolved. The thief died immediately and the Sheriff in an hour.

THE TREASURY THEFT.

CHANGES TO BE MADE IN THE TREASURY AND INTERNAL REVENUE OFFICES.

EXTRADITION TREATY BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE OTTOMAN EMPIRE.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Noon.—There is no truth in the report of an additional $20,000 irregularity in the Treasury.

Spinner adheres to the hope that the $47,000 package will be received unless the notes are destroyed, and does not credit the theory that a visitor stole the package.

Treasurer New is expected to reach here to-morrow. It is intimated that he will make some change in the Treasury's office on the 1st of July.

Several important changes are also expected in the Internal Revenue office on the 1st of July.

Senator Morton had a lengthy consultation with Attorney General Pierpont to-day.

W. N. Hughes has been appointed Postmaster at Columbus, Tennessee.

The President has proclaimed the treaty for the extradition of criminals and fugitives from justice between the United States and the Ottoman Empire. The treaty does not apply to any crime or offense of a political character, and neither of the contracting parties is bound to deliver up its own citizens.

General Joseph D. Webster has been appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for Chicago.

OHIO.

DECISIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT.

FUNDS OF BENEVOLENT SOCIETIES DECLARED LIABLE TO TAXATION.

CINCINNATI, June 9.—Night.—By a recent decision of the Supreme Court, the funds belonging to Benevolent Societies were declared subject to taxation. In obedience to this decision the Board of Equalization of this city has sent citation to each society in the limits of Cincinnati to show cause why they should not be taxed on their money credits, &c. The Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Red Men and all other societies heretofore exempt on the ground of charity and their seeming public benefits, have been included in the summons.

THE BOILER EXPLOSION IN LEE, MASS.

TORONTO, Ont., June 9.—Noon.—The fire here last night destroyed property to the amount of $150,000.

LEE, MASS., June 9.—Noon.—The boiler explosion yesterday damaged the 8th paper mill $25,000. Two men were killed and fourteen injured.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

PERSON C. CHENEY ELECTED GOVERNOR.

CONCORD, June 9.—Night.—The Legislature met in joint Convention to-day and elected Person C. Cheney, Governor.

The Colored Emigration Convention, recently in session at Nashville, unanimously recommended that every negro in Tennessee should leave that State as soon as possible.

An interviewer tried to get something out of Butler, touching Grant's letter "Nay," said Billy Ben: "I renounce the Devil and all his works." This is said to be the most sudden conversation on record.

George O. Evans, whose trial on a charge of fraud in the collection of Pennsylvania war claims against the Federal government created a sensation some time ago, died Thursday night in West Philadelphia, aged fifty-four.

General Jackson once made a dinner off a crust of bread and a cup of water when a Cairo wif complains of the scarcity of provisions, her husband asks if she is any better than General Jackson.

A New Mexico editor, in a forgetful moment, the other day, was so imprudent as to venture into his sanctum without having a revolver with him. The Coroner's jury returned a verdict of "deliberate suicide."

The attendance, particularly of women, was largely increased in the Brooklyn City Court last week. Their interest has rarely flagged since the beginning of the Beecher trial, their regular and punctual attendance being often remarked.

A woman in Manhattan, Kansas, wished to plaster a room, but she could buy only the lime and sand. Then she sheared her dog to get hair, put the plaster on herself and papered the walls. That's the way grit works in Kansas.

The will of Miss Mary Telfair, a daughter of ex-Governor Telfair, of Georgia, who died last week, aged 86 years, was filed in Savannah on Saturday. Several munificent bequests are made to societies: The Georgia Historical Society about $175,000, Independent Presbyterian Church, Savannah, $50,000, and Presbyterian Church, Augusta, $30,000. The Hodgson Institution and Telfairville Christian Church have also legacies. Endowment of Telfair Hospital for females, endowment of Telfair's Academy of Art and Sciences and numerous personal legacies are made, including handsome bequests to colored family servants. The estate is valued at over one million dollars.
