"BOSS" TWEED.

It will be seen that by the action of the Court of Appeals for the State of New York yesterday "Boss" Tweed has been released from the penitentiary. While it will be impossible for him even to regain his old power and influence, we should not be surprised to see him stirring things up in New York.

A MILLION DOLLAR WEDDING PRESENT.

Miss Alice M. Singer, daughter of the sewing machine inventor, was married on Wednesday in South Devon, England, to W. A. P. La Grove, formerly of Brooklyn. It is stated that the bride's dowry is one million dollars, in addition to which she received ten thousand dollars worth of diamonds. Her wedding dress cost one thousand dollars, and each of the six bridesmaids received a dress worth two hundred and fifty dollars from Mr. Singer.

ADVERTISING TO HAVE A "VELOCIPED TOURNAMENT."

The entries have already reached the unexpected figure, says the Constitutionalist, of twenty-nine. Handsome prizes have been provided, and the boy world in our neighboring city is alive with interest and expectancy. The entries are divided into six classes, according to age. Class I includes boys from twelve to fourteen years of age while class 6 is composed of three and four year olds. The entries in the latter class are already six in number. The riders will be formed in a procession—mounted, of course—before the races begin, and started on a prescribed course by Col. Wilson and Mr. Matt. O'Brien. Rare fun is anticipated.

THE CANVASS IN OHIO.

The Republicans of Ohio have evidently planned their campaign in the interest of the candidacy for the Presidential succession of Vice President Wilson, the champion of bigotry and prohibition, the Know Nothing and Crusader. The most conspicuous plank in the platform seek to inflame religious animosities, and arouse sectarian bitterness; the next most efficient weapon upon which reliance is placed, is the movement to enforce total abstinence not only by law, but by enacting bands, and other destructive instrumentalities resorted to by insane fanatics. The Wilson type of Republicanism thus takes precedence; and special pains are taken to exclude its opponents from any participation in the canvass, not only by the alienations provoked by this crazy policy, but by impudent methods of treating the third term question, and by movements which most excite the alarm of all the Conservatives. It is impossible that the crusading bigotry should succeed in a State noted for its liberality.

A FEW days ago Hon. H. M. Polk, of Bolivar, Tenn., the name of the Central Executive Committee of that Centennial Celebration of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, presented to the people of the State, through Governor Porter, a national flag, one of four used on the great occasion. In his letter to the Governor, Colonel Polk says: "I have the honor to present to you, in the name of the Committee, this banner, the emblem of our country's greatness and glory—the first flag ever unfurled in vindication of the rights of popular constitutional liberty, which were first publicly and authoritatively proclaimed independence of kingly rule at Charlotte Town, in the county of Mecklenburg, May 20, 1775. This banner is a token of the esteem and affection which the old North State entertains for her daughter, and bears witness to the common devotion of their people to the foundation principles of local self-government." Governor Porter responds to this in sentiments of the utmost loyalty, saying among other good things: "This gift from mother to daughter is significant of a renewed devotion to the flag of her country, and in that spirit her daughter's acceptance is made. It is eminently proper that this flag should be received at your hands, an honored son of Tennessee, a descendant of one of the signers of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, who unites in his own character the virtues which have made so many of his race conspicuous."

SOUTHERN SENTIMENT.

The Philadelphia North American, is a leading Republican paper of the North, but we believe it does the square thing by the South, according to its lights. We take great pleasure in publishing the following, which, under the heading "Southern Sentiment," recently appeared in the editorial columns of that paper:

Until recently all the evidence of Southern sentiment attainable at the North was partial, partisan and contradictory. There was proof of loyal and disloyal feeling, of industry and of demoralization, of we come to Northern capital and enterprise, and of sharp opposition to both. It was impossible to estimate the proportions of either and forecast their consequences. The importance of having a reliable national sentiment and industry revived under that attracted constant attention. In order to secure those some who, notwithstanding their kind feelings to the South, doubted their return, and doubting apprehended new disorders, introduced and sustained the Congressional Force Bill; others withheld the efforts they wished to make there; and Northern business suffered through want of confidence in Southern purpose.

Since the adjournment of Congress business has attracted many Northern capitalists to various portions of the South. Several members of Congress have traveled there to acquaint themselves with the facts precisely. A delegation, disappointed in reaching Mexico, exposed the same judiciously, and visited the North than at any time since the war, and an unusual number have visited Philadelphia. Correspondence has increased and the press has contributed its important testimony. The very different instrumentalities have covered the whole field and given the definite knowledge required. This is, in substance, that the Southern people, by a great controlling majority, are peaceable, industrious, sanguine and patriotic—that the business depression felt at the North has visited the South and suffered special augmentations, but that this is disappearing there as here, and that the future can be depended upon.

An Act to Call a Convention of the People of North Carolina.

WHEREAS, The present Constitution of North Carolina is, in many important particulars, unsuited to the wants and condition of our people; and whereas, in the judgment of this General Assembly, a convention of the people is the only sure, and is besides the most economical mode of altering or amending it, and believing the end in view utterly impracticable by legislative enactment on account of the great number of discordant and conflicting provisions of the Constitution as it now is, now therefore, SECTION 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, (two-thirds of all the members of each House concurring,) That a Convention of the people of North Carolina, be and the same is hereby called, to meet in the Hall of the House of Representatives in the city of Raleigh, on Monday, 6th day of September, A. D., 1875, for the purpose of considering and adopting such amendments to the Constitution as they may deem necessary and expedient, subject only to the restrictions hereinafter provided. SECTION 2. The said Convention shall consist of one hundred and twenty delegates, and each county shall be entitled to the same number of delegates that it has members of the House of Representatives under the present apportionment, and the said delegates shall have the qualifications required of members of the House of Representatives, of which qualifications the Convention shall be the judge. SECTION 3. On the 1st Thursday of August, 1875, the sheriffs of the State shall open polls for the election of delegates to the said Convention from their respective counties, and the election aforesaid, and the registration for the same, shall be held and conducted; the officers thereof, including registrars and judges of election, appointed; the votes counted and compared; the result proclaimed, and certificates issued in the same manner as is provided by law for the election of members of the House of Representatives of the General Assembly. SECTION 4. The said delegates shall be called to order at 12 o'clock on the day fixed therefor, by the Chief Justice or one of the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court or Secretary of State, who, if there be not a quorum, shall adjourn them to the same place, and from day to day, until a quorum shall appear; and on the appearance of a quorum he shall administer to each of them the following oath: "You, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the delegate elect shall choose,) that you will faithfully maintain and support the Constitution of the United States and the several amendments thereto, including the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments; and that you will neither directly nor indirectly evade or disregard the duties enjoined upon you by the act of the General Assembly authorizing your election. So help you God." And no delegate shall be permitted to sit or be entitled to a seat in said Convention, or act as a delegate thereat, until he shall have subscribed the above oath or affirmation; and as soon as a majority of the delegates elect shall have thus appeared and been sworn in, they shall then proceed to elect their own presiding officer, and such other officers and servants as they, from time to time, shall find necessary; and if a vacancy shall occur, they shall be filled in the same manner as the like vacancies are filled by law in the case of vacancies in the General Assembly. SECTION 5. The Convention shall have no power to consider, debate, adopt or propose any amendment to the existing Constitution or ordinance upon the following subjects:

The Homestead and Personal Property Exemptions, the mechanics' and laborers' lien, and the rights of married women, as now secured by law, nor to alter or amend section 3 or 5, article V, of said Constitution, nor change the ratio between the poll and property tax as therein established; nor shall the said Convention have power to propose or adopt any amendment or ordinance vacating any office or term of office now existing and filled or held by virtue of any election or appointment under the existing Constitution and laws, until the same shall be vacated or expired under existing laws; but the said Convention may recommend the abolition of any office when the present term therein shall expire or vacancies occur, and they may provide for filling such vacancies, otherwise than as now, and limiting the terms thereof. Nor shall the Convention adopt or propose any plan or amendment or ordinance of compensation for the owners of emancipated slaves, nor for the payment of any liability or debt incurred wholly or in part in aid of the late war between the States, nor for the restoration of imprisonment for debt; nor shall they require or propose any educational or property qualification for office or voting; nor shall said Convention pass any ordinance legislative in their character, except such as are necessary to submit the amended Constitution to the people for their ratification or rejection, or to convene the General Assembly.

SECTION 5. The Constitution, as amended, shall be submitted to the people for ratification or rejection, and shall not be binding until the same shall have been ratified by the qualified voters of the State, and the Convention shall prescribe the mode wherein shall be the sense of the people therein shall be taken and recorded. SECTION 6. There shall be printed immediately ten copies of this act for each member of the General Assembly, and one hundred copies within thirty days after ratification for each board of county commissioners, and the use of the registrars and judges of election in their respective counties; and this act shall be in force and take effect from and after its ratification. Ratified the 19th day of March, A. D. 1875.
