THE INDIAN FRAUDS-SUSPIC-ION IN REGARD TO A CABI-NET OFFICER.

Washington, July 14.—Professor Marsh, in a letter to the President regarding Indian bonds, wherein he gives full details. He declares he has no confidence in the severeity of the Secretary of the Interior or the commissioner on Indian affairs in the prosecution of the investigation into these frauds, and that the evidence in his possession reflected unfavorably on both.

Agricultural Congress, RALEIGH, July 14.

The Agricultural Congress is in full operation. Judge Jones, of Arkansas, addressed the Congress to-day upon the subject of establishing agricultural bureaux, in the several States. He read a telegram from the agent at New Orleans of Rockdale po-operation Company of England asking a committee of conference : Maxwell of Ga., Jones of Ark., Jones of Ga., Edwin Butler of Ga., compose the committee. Col. Holt of North Carolina introduced resolution requesting delegates to Congress to urge the legislatures of their respective States to follow precedent so wisely established by Georgia, in establishing State departments of agriculture. Dr. Jones of Georgia, spoke, advocating the resolution and explaining the great good that had been accomplished in that State by this department. He claims that two million dollars would be saved to farmers of Georgia this year by its workings. The resolution was adopted.

The affairs of a direct trade union were discussed. It was stated that when its workings had not been altogether satisfactory it had been established, the fact that it could be productive of great good to the Southern

An essay was read from Dr. E. M. Pendleton of Georgia,, pertaining to agricultural colleges and department of agriculture. Col. Johnson of North Carolina reported from a special committee, advocating the reestablishment of a State banking system as peculiar-ly advantageous to the whole country and asking Congress to relieve the tax upon State banks as a matter of justice and right.

Constitution and by-laws were adopted, making the election of officers biennial. Col. D. E. Butler, of Ga.; re-elected President; Col. J. D. Whitford, of North Carolina, Secretary; R. M. Sims of South Carolina Treasurer; Nashville was selected as the next place of meeting.

the next place of meeting.

A resolution was adopted, urging the importance and the absolute pro priety of producing an abundance of all articles of prime necessity. The committee of proper bases to unite the commercial interests of Southern the commercial interests of Southern and Western States, said these States should be more closely united togeth-er as strongest ties of commercial in-terests existed, by reason of their di-versity of climate and soil, each producing the prime articles of domestic necessities required by the other. A resolution was adopted, request-ing Congress to afford such aid as will insure the construction of three great Trunk Line of railway from Chicago to Morristown Tenn., from St. Louis through Cumberland Gap to Knoxville, and from Memphis to or near Atlanta relict of the late Wm. B. Lord, in the sad year of aer age.

The question of co-operation with the Rockdale society of England was referred to the National Grange.

It is with saddened heart that we chronicle the death of this cetimable and venerable. Mother in Israel." Another of the old land, marks has passed away; another link that bound the present with the past, broken forever. At the ripe age of four score and one years, she has gone to her rest, leaving for us who follow after: the bright example of he holy life.

The was born in this city—its oldest native eitizen—and descended from a family distinguished in our annals for wealth, intelligence and virtus. In early youth she devoted herself to the service of God, at the alter of the St. James' Episcopal (hurch, and throughout her lengthened pi grimage on earth, was ever a firm and consistent member of that church, active in good works, an humble and devout Christian. In all the relations of life, she was himselers—as friend, as wife, as mother, sympatiser, affectionate, devoted—encouraging the despondent, assisting the unfortunate, strengthaning the weak and h. precept and example, illustrating the her daily was the sincerity of her religious convictions. Such a life con. dhave but one ending. So when the summons from the Master came to this aged pillgrim, it found her ready and prepared, and gently as an infant droys to sleep upon its mother's bosom, she siept in Jesus. Blessed sieep.

NEWBERR, N. C., August 10, 1874.

NEWBERN, N. C., August 10, 1874.

"OUR LIVING AND OUR DRAD" will hereafter be published as a Semi-Mouthly Magasine, containing 65 pages of reading matter, at $3 per year in advance.

For the information of those who are not familiar with this enterprise, I state that the chief object of the Magasine will be to publish the Record that North Carolina and her galiant soldiers made in the late "War between the States," to gather the maserial for the use of the future historian, and to perpetuate the memory of those brave men, officers and privates, living or dead, who shed imperishable glory upon their native State.

In addition to the War Record or North Carolina, the Magazine will contain sketches of every section, county, city and town of the State, written by competent and well-inform ed persons, thus making it pre-eminedly a State periodical, in which all classes of our clissess thould take interest and pride.

The Magazine will take the place of the newspapers, having same title, published by me during the past welve mounts.

The first number will be fellowed Wednesd September 9th, 1874. In the meantime, I respectfully ask old subscribers who desire to rone w their subscriptions, and all others who wish the Magazine, to read presudy, as the change and improvements require considerable cutley, and ready soney is needed.
