WILMINGTON, N. C.:
SATURDAY JULY 17, 1875.
BY TELEGRAPH.
Probabilities—WASHINGTON, July 16. For South Atlantic and Gulf States, Tennessee and Ohio Valley, rising or stationary barometer; westerly or southwesterly winds, and continued warm, clear and partly cloudy weather will prevail.
For the Lake region and Middle States, higher barometer and clear or partly cloudy weather, with warm west or southwest winds in latter, and slightly cooler northwest to northeast winds in former. Lower Ohio river and Mississippi, from Cairo down, continue slowly rising.

TALES,
BY HENRY JAMES, Jr.
Whoever takes an interest, whether of mere curiosity or of critical foreboding, in the product and tendency of our younger literature must have had his attention awakened and detained by the writings of Mr. James. Whatever else they may be, they are not common, and have that air of good breeding which is the token of whatever is properly called literature.

A Hundred Years!
YOU might wait and never have the opportunity of buying goods at the prices at which I am offering you stock. It is not to make room for another stock, but is a sale to close out the entire stock in a given number of days; and to insure this, on and after the 15th instant goods will be sold at less than cost for cash only. Come without further invitation or delay, as at the prices the stock will rapidly diminish. Every article is new—no shoddy or auction goods in the store.
Very respectfully,
GEO. LEIBER,

Three Points for Consideration.
During the past five years the VEGETINE has been steadily working itself into public favor, and those who were at first most incredulous in regard to its merits are now its most ardent friends and supporters.
There are three essential causes for this having such a horror of patent medicines, changing their opinion and leading their inclinations toward the advancement of VEGETINE. 1st—it is an honestly-prepared medicine from herbs, roots and herbs. 2d—it honestly accomplishes all that is claimed for it, without leaving any bad effects in the system. 3d—it presents honest vouchers in testimonials from honest, well-known men whose signatures are a sufficient guarantee of their earnestness in the matter. Taking into consideration the vast quantity of medicine brought into this country, and the fact that the VEGETINE is advertised in the newspaper columns, with no prospect of merit or gain, it is not surprising that it has become so popular. For manufacturing a small degree of profit in presenting the following from Rev. J. R. DICKINSON, D. D., the secretary and general pastor of the South Baptist Church, Boston:
The Tired Body Cure for Sleep.
Boston, March 25th, 1875.
H. E. STEVENS, Esq.,
Dear Sir—It is so much from a sense of duty as well as from a desire to see that your VEGETINE—even if it is a patent medicine—has been of great help to me when nothing else seemed to avail. I could safely say, either excessive mental work or unusual care brings upon me a nervous exhaustion that decidedly needs sleep, but as I am a deeply religious man, I could not sleep. I have used your VEGETINE for a night and a light sleep, and I feel better than I have for some time. I have used your VEGETINE for a week, and I feel better than I have for some time. I have used your VEGETINE for a month, and I feel better than I have for some time. I have used your VEGETINE for a year, and I feel better than I have for some time. I have used your VEGETINE for a lifetime, and I feel better than I have for some time.
Very respectfully,
J. R. DICKINSON.

Our Living and Our Dead
Prospectus of 2nd Volume.
NEWBERN, N. C., August 10, 1874.
"Our Living and Our Dead" will hereafter be published as a Semi-Monthly Magazine, containing 48 pages of reading matter, at $3 per year in advance.
For the information of those who are not familiar with this enterprise, I state that the chief object of the Magazine will be to publish the Record that North Carolina and her gallant soldiers made in the late "War between the States," to gather the material for the use of the future historian, and to perpetuate the memory of those brave men, officers and privates, living or dead, who shed imperishable glory upon their native State.
In addition to the WAR RECORD OF NORTH CAROLINA, the Magazine will contain accounts of every section, county, city and town of the State, written by competent and well-informed persons, thus making it pre-eminently a State periodical, in which all classes of our citizens should take interest and pride.
The Magazine will take the place of the newspapers, having more timely, published by me during the past twelve months.
The first number will be published Wednesday, September 23rd, at 10 o'clock, at the office of the Journal, No. 32 Market Street, Wilmington, N. C., and will contain a full and complete list of names of our gallant soldiers, and ready money is needed.
