That, in view of the great labors and lessons taught by him to the generation of his countrymen, a committee from various countries of Middle Tennessee be appointed to select some suitable place and day for appropriately celebrating the obsequies of our departed countrymen, and that the committee be authorized to select so me parage who shall prepare an address. person, who shall prepare an address embodying the lessons which Andrew Johnson has given to his countrymen, and that the following persons be ap-pointed as such committee upon obse-quies of Andrew Johnson.

THE FLOODS.

The committee is comprised of over one hundred of the most prominent citizens of Middle Tennessee.

Every arrangement is made for the funeral to take place at Greenville, Tennessee, on Tuesday, but this may be changed, and the remains brought to this city for interment.

A special dispatch to the Nashville papers from Greenville, dated 7 o'clock says: Mr. Johnson died of paralysis and heart disease. He had been complaining somewhat of ill health during the past month, but felt no serious

IMMENSE DAMAGE TO THE CROPS IN OHIO AND ILLINOUS.

Columbus, O., August 2.—Heavy rains last night filled the cellars here-tofore dry, and covered corn and wheat fields even more deeply than they were before.

The Seaotto river is higher than for years, but no fears are felt for the lawe. The Hocking Valley Railroad Company only run trains to Hancasplaining somewhat of ill health during the past month, but felt no serious apprehensions. Last Wednesday he took the morning train to visit his daughter, with whom Mrs. Johnson had been sojourning for the past six weeks. He rode in a hack from Carters Depot to her residence, some miles distant, and was received in good spirits on his arrival, and eat heartily at dinner, and after a few minutes of general conversation, retired up stairs and conversation, retired up stairs and conversation, retired up stairs and conversation of the st Miss Lillie Stover. While thus en-gaged his tongue refused utterance, and to her great consternation, he fell from his seat to the floor. Help was instantly summoned and almost as he was raised, he expressed as he was raised, he expressed indistinctly, however, that his right side was paralized. After being taken to bed, when the family spoke of sending for a physician, he forbade it, saying that he would soon recover. On this secount summoning of medical aid was defered 24 hours, when Dr. Jobe was called from Elizabethtown, two miles distant. He instantly because treatment, mided by Dr. Came. began treatment, sided by Dr. Came ron, and seemed at one time during the next day, to be succeeding. The patient conversed imperfectly in regard to domestic matters, and did no seen conscious of the approaching dissolution. But his case was beyond the skill of physicians, and at 7 o'clock last night he became ucconscious. Mrs. Patterson and Andrew Johnson Jr., arrived an hour later, with two physicians from Greenville, Drs. Sray and Taylor, but he did not recognize my of them, and after seven hours and a half of unconsciousness, hours and a half of unconsciousness, he peacefully breathed his last, surrouded by his wife, children and all his grandchildren, except the son and daughter of ex-Senator Patterson.

His body will be brought here tomorrow morning, and will be buried with masonic honors on Tuesday.

Knoxville has requested the honor of burying the illustrious dead, but the family are unwilling that his remains should be removed from his home to any place, unless possibly to

Extensive preparations are accordingly being made by various civil and military organizations to attend the funeral here, where they will be joined by officers of this and neighboring counties.

counties ATRASS .311 WASHINGTON, July 31-The following executive order has been issued :

Washington, July 31, 1875.

It becomes the painful duty of the President to announce to the people of the United States the death of An-

President to announce to the people of the United States the death of Andrew Johnson, the last survivor of his honored predecessors, which occurred in Caster county, East Tennessee, at an early hour this morning.

The solemnity of the occusion which called him to the Presidency, with the varied nature and length of his public services, will cause him to be long remembered, and an occasion of mourning for the death of a distinguished public servant.

As a mark of respect for the memory of the decessed, it is ordered that the Executive Mansion and the several departments of the Government at Washington be draped in mourning until the close of the day designated for his funeral, and that all public businesse be suspended on that day.

It is further ordered that the War and Navy Departments cause suitable honors to be paid on the occasion to the memory of the illustrious dead.

By order of the President,

U. S. Grant, will thereafter close. The National flag will displayed at half mast. At the dawn of day thirteen guns will be fired, and afterwards at intervals of thirty minutes, between the rising and setting of the sun, a single gun, and at the close of the day a national salute of thirty-seven guns. The officers of the army will wear crape on their left arm and on their swords, and the colors of the several reciments will be colors of the several regiments will be put in mourning for the period of 30 days.

An order was issued to-day by Commodore Ammen, acting secretary of the navy, directing in pursuance of the Presidents order, announcing the death of Ex-President Johnson, and that the ensign at each naval sta-tion, and of each vessel of the United States pavy in commission, be hoisted at half mast from sunrise to sunset, resolutions were adopted:

1st. That we learn, with sorrow, of the sad bereavment of the people of Tennoasee in the loss of a guide, who has for so many years pointed out the right way to political safety, and whose services, at this time, appeared to us so important to the Republic.

2d. That we deeply simpathize with his aged and afflicted wife in ner bereavment, and with his daughter and son and their families, in the loss they are called to mourn.

and that a gun be fired at intervals of every half hour, from sunrise to sunset at each naval station, and on board of flagships and of vessels acting singly on the day of the funeral where this order may be received in time, otherwise on the day after its receipt. The officers of the navy and marine corps will wear the usual badge of mourning attached to their sword belt and left arm for the period of 30 days.

London, August 2:—The London Times in its obituary article on Anand that a gun be fired at intervals of every half hour, from sunrise to sun-set at each naval station, and on board

Times in its obituary article on Andrew Johnson, says, his career illustrates both strong and weak points of American social and political systems. During his term of office he showed himself wanting in tact, refinement and knowledge of men; yet he had some qualities which are not so abundant in American politics as to be dispised when found. He had danntless courage, some practical weight and honesty, and was never shadowed by suspicion.

FORTY OR FIFTY UNION PRIN-TERS IDLE IN WASHINGTON. Washington, August 2 .- The notice given some time ago by certain parties employing printers and publish ers that the wages would be reduced and the ten hour rule adopted, or in other words that they would not be governed any further by the rules of Columbia typographical union No. 101 took effect to day. The employers notified their journeymen that if they did not propose to work on the new scale, they need not return to work to-day. In consequence of this action on the part of the employees, and the non compliance by the journey-men, there are probably forty or fifty hands walking about to-day. The va-cancies thus created will be filled by non union printers.

CENTENNIAL TROUBLES. LONDON, August 2.—The O'Connell centennary demonstration is assuming unprecedented political and diplo matic significance, embarrassing to the Liberal Home rulers and the government. The Lord Mayor of Dublin, supposed to be at the instigation of the wiley Cardinal Cullen.a pure churchman, caring nothing for the memory of O'Connell, has given the affair an ultramentane character, offensive alike to Irish and Engler. ter, offensive slike to Irish and Englis liberals, the Protestant noblemen, the Home rulers and Fenians. The invitations were mainly extended to Catholic laymen, and to the Bishops of Eugland, France and Germany, which England, France and Germany, which has drawn an indignant protest from one of the Irish peers, who claims that the Lord Mayor is unauthorized to use his office for a purely Catholic purpose. The Home rulers and Fenians will probably have independent celebrations in honor of the Liberator.
