State Convention-State Fair. RALEIGH, Oct. 11 .- The State Convention adjourned sine die, after a session of 31 working days. In the last few days of the session, many important ordinances were passed, amounting to a general emancipation of the Legislature from the restrictions under which it has labored since 1868, and giving it larger powers. The public debt question was not interfered with. Several ineff ctual attempts have been made to repudiate the special tax bonds. The State fair commenced to-day

Additional Arrests - Collision

NEW YORK, Oct. 11, -Three addition al arrests have been made in the case of the murder of James H. Noe. A man who was with Dolan, the alleged murderer, on the day of the tragedy, a woman with whom he had been on the night before and a man who had been in his company after the nurder. The woman confessed that Dolan and his associate from Westchester quit her on that Sunday morning at four o'clock. Dolan was the man who were the light grey coat that was so accurately described by Mr. Now, He returned at half-past nine with his coat collar turned up, his face scratched and bleeding, his shirt front bedaubed with blood and his vest torn. He was greatly excited when he retired to bed and awoke every few minutes. The woman at noon entered his room with the third man. Dolan, in his fev-rish sleep, had thrown the pillow on the floor, and his herd lay between Mr. Noe's gold watch and the pocketbook. The woman, startled by his fright, threw berseif upon him and exclaimed "Oh John, John, you have killed some one." Dolan sprang out of bed and implored them to say nothing about it and gave the woman five dollars and fifty cents of the money taken from Mr. Noe, to buy him a shirt. On her return his accomplice had got rid of the bloody garment. An unknown schooner ran into and sauk the coal bargs N. L. Lee, off the battery on Saturday night, Captain Cooper's wife and child who were asleep in the cabin, went down with the barge and were drowned. 'I'de Inman line steamer, City of Berlin, arrived at Queenstown to-day, having made the trip in seven days fifteen bours and forty-eight minutes, This is the fastest time on record from port to port.

The legality of the transfer in Dec ember last, of the Little Rock & Fort Smith Railroad and lands, is about to be contested by the old bondholders.
