THE RECENT ELECTIONS.

Well, there is no use to attempt a disguise of the fact that the Republi cans have carried the States of Massachusetts, New Jersey, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Pennsylvania. New York is left to the Democrats. This is about the way the matter stands in these I TEEN DOLLARS, three months, Twen, Northern and Northwestern States. The South has been a quiet, but deepthese States. We all hoped and believed that Ohio and Pennsylvania, as well as New York would bear to vie tory the Democratic banner. And gin to have the smoke clear away from the field, we begin to ask why was the Democratic banner not borne to victory in Ohio and in Pennsylvania. In reply to this question, the short sightand stands before us for an unmistak-ble answer. Lammany, Tilden, and their respective coteries, were seized with a severe attack of hard-money disease, and tried to make their indi-vidual complaint a national epidemic.

THE RISSESSEPPI PARCETON II The New York Herald indu'ges in aby, has at its painted end small some plain talk relative to the recent

It would be a source of great gratifloation to the Southern people, if the facts sustained the Herald in the statement that "the seandalous misrule of Governor Ames was as hateful to the honest Republicans of Mississippi as

But we can live without the gratifiit appear that some North Carolina ish the cup of our joy from the knowl. The Weekly Journal, (Friday) a collector exhibited a profound ignorally redshifted a profound ignorally reason contents and the game of three things—the Bible, the law and the game of faro.

When we read the s'ander in the fight, in which it was decided that the copies, Fight Dollars and a half the copies, Fight Dollars; twenty the copies of the bare fact that the once proud State is finally redeemed, and that too, by a fair, open, stand-up fight, in which it was decided that negro power allied with white knavery, be republished in a North Carolina. Centrary to various fears, bopes and expectations, election day appears to have been as quiet in Mississippi as any one, even a Quaker, could have wished. The Democrats have carried the tate, and this puts an end to the scandalous misrule of Governor Ames, which was as hatoful to the honest Republicans of Mississippi as to the Domocrats Yesterday showed that Attorney General Pierrepont was wise in refusing to intefere in Missicsipot at the demand of the Governor, and that such Republicans as ex Senator Pease, District Attorney Wells and U. S. Marshal Lake were i gh in sdvising that the federal government sound keep its hands off. The responsibility for good goverment will rest after the Legislature meets upon the Demoly interested observer of the contest in erats, and the country will watch their conduct with some curiosity and lively hope that they will prove just and honest rulers. It is probable that the new Legislature will impeach and r move Governor Ames, which will be now that the fight is over, and we be- disappointment to him, as he hoped that it would be of a complexion to elect him to the United States Senate.
