WASHINGTON.

Washington, Nov. 22.—Vice-President Wilson died very suddenly at 7:30 A. M. He rested well last night, and awoke at 7 o'clock, expressing himself that he was feeling bright and better; sat up in bed to take his medicine, lay down on his left side, and expired in a few minutes without a struggle.

Senator Ferry is President of the Senate pro tem.

The Cabinet is in extra session. Secretary Fish will represent the Cabinet at a meeting of Senators and Judges of the Supreme Court, at noon, to arrange for the funeral, after which the President will issue appropriate orders.

The Supreme Court has adjourned until to-morrow.

EXECUTIVE MANSION.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Nov. 22, 1875.

It is with profound sorrow that the President has to announce to the people of the United States the death of the Vice-President, Henry Wilson, who died in the capital of the nation this morning.

The eminent station of the deceased, his high character, his long career in the service of his State and of the Union, his devotion to the cause of freedom, and the ability which he brought to the discharge of every duty, stand conspicuously, and are indelibly impressed on the hearts and affections of the American people.

In testimony of respect for this distinguished citizen and faithful public servant, the various Departments of the Government will be closed on the day of the funeral, and the Executive Mansion, and all the Executive Departments in Washington, will be draped with badges of mourning for thirty days. The Secretaries of War and of the Navy will issue orders that appropriate military and naval honors be rendered to the memory of one whose virtues and services will long be borne in recollection by a grateful nation. (Signed) U. S. GRANT.

By the President, HARRISON FERRIS, Secretary of State.

Nearly all the courts in the country adjourn out of respect for the memory of Henry Wilson.

The Supreme Court of the United States will transact no business this week.

Delegations have been appointed from various places to come to Washington to attend the funeral ceremonies.

The First Brigade of the Maryland National Guard have tendered their services to the President as guard and escort.

The Vice-President passed a quiet day yesterday; heard of Senator Ferry's death about 8 o'clock, which depressed him very much. Before retiring to bed he alluded to it several times; retired at 9:30, sleeping sound and peaceful. At three this morning his rest was disturbed by pain in the chest, which was relieved by rubbing chest with anodyne, which had been prescribed, and again slept. He awoke precisely at 7 o'clock; said he had slept soundly, and was much refreshed; set up in bed; took a glass of bitter water, which had been prescribed; shortly after he arose and walked about the room. His attendant noticed a change in Mr. Wilson about 7:15. He was then lying in bed, drawing short hurried breaths, moving about uneasily, the limbs twitching convulsively. Physicians were called, it being noticed that the breathing grew shorter with each breath, and as the attendant moved the bed to support his head, he gave one long gasp and expired.

Four times last night, before 12 o'clock, he called for water, drinking a glassful each time. Night before last he complained of his old trouble, with pain at the base of brain, and remarked that he must have more determined treatment, but said nothing about it to the doctor. Last night, between 6 and 8 o'clock, he said if the doctor was here I would have a blister applied to the back of my neck. From 8 to 9:30 his attendants manipulated him, pinching him thoroughly, as he never liked to be rubbed. There is no evidence that Mr. Wilson suffered, as his face wears the usual pleasant expression.

A post mortem examination made the conclusion that death resulted from apoplexy.

The special session of the Senate called in April last, after an exciting caucus, selected by a majority vote of one, Thos. W. Ferry, of Michigan, as against Henry B. Anthony, of Rhode Island, the competitor for the place. There has been no change in the Senate since. All the new members participated in the caucus deliberations which brought about the nomination. There is no doubt that if the Senate at its next meeting does not reserve its selection of last April, that Mr. Ferry will be the presiding officer. The revised statutes contain the following:

In case of removal, death, resignation, or inability of both President and Vice-President of the United States, or if there be none, then the Speaker of the House of Representatives for the time being, shall act as President, until the inability is removed, or a new President elected.

FOREIGN.

ENGLAND.

London, Nov. 22.—A letter from Rome states, that besides the long note from the Vatican to Spain on the 12th, Spain had previously received a secret note from the same source which has not yet been published.

CANADA.

Montreal, Nov. 22.—The Cure of the parish of Notre Dame has given public notice that Guibord's grave is illegally shallow.

Yesterday the Cures of the Roman Catholic Churches in this city announced the reception of the pastoral letter relative to the interment of the remains of Joseph Guibord in consecrated ground. The pastoral says, "For we have truly declared, in virtue of the divine power that we exercise in the name of the pastor of pastors, that the place where this rebellious son of the Church has been deposited in separated from the rest of the consecrated cemetery, to be no longer more than an ordinary piece of ground."
