J. F. Josephs, clerk of division accounts, testified that he sent Avery to St. Louis in '72, to examine the accounts of revenue agent Gunther; Avery reported verbally that Gunther's accounts are probably correct; he remarked that Joyce was going to send us a Christmas present on the following February; in February he handed witness a package containing $100; said I would send it back to Joyce; Avery said no, that it was sent in such a manner that no trouble could come of it; I returned the money to Joyce, and told Commissioner Rogers, who spoke to Avery, who said he intended to return his too.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Nov. 27.—In the United Sta es Circuit Court to day, Hon. W. M. Evarts, of New York, counsel for the Chesapeate & Oli Bailroad, med-a motion for the dismissal of the proceedings appointed a receiver for the road and looking to an early sale of the same. He contended that jurisdiction in the matter belonged to the State and not to the Federal Courts. He cited numerous decisions of the U. S. Supreme C urt bearing on the ques-

S. Supreme C. uct bearing on the question to establish his position.

Judge Shipman, of New York, counsel for the plantiffs, stated that after examining authorities he was satisfied that this court had no jurisdiction.

Judge Bond, after stating that the court was not ready to hear such a motion, by request of counsel fixed the 20th of December as the time and Alexandria at the place for the next hearing of the case.

was convenient that Justice Waite be present at that time.

From the report of the Second Auditor it appears that the State debt on the 30th of September, 1875, exclusive of bonds and certificates held by the literary and sinking fund, was $20,514-38, the debt as reported October 1st, 1874, was $29,957,104.75.
