A THIRD PARTY. Our neighbor, The Morning Star, parties," that very day it again abanhas always, it seems to us, accepted done North Narolina to the tender Demogratic success with many misgiv- mercies of the Radical party, "homoings, and Democratic defeats and dis- genous," at least, in a desire for the sentions have been to it a never failing plunder of the people of the State, and source of a "Third Party" project. In decrees the defeat of the Constitutional 1872, it pronounced in favor of Greeley amendments. Any effort to disrupt long in advance of his nemination at the Democratic p rty now will prove Baltimore, as the exponent of this the most disasterous blow to North Third Party -this 'crystallization of Carolina which she has received since the best materials of both the old par- the war. In its editorial in Sunday's issue, the Star fears that the contest for Speak- party. erabip will create a deadly scism among D moerats, destroying all hope of victory next November. It adds :

Such a result to the contest over an office as this would make soberminded servative people but to make a party

Washington to hope for a nobler consummation of Monday's work than the triumph of one man and section merely would be at the sacrifice of party uni ty and the country's expectation.

This was evidently written before the result of the Democratic caucus was known for the article, as if its worst fears are realized, concludes :

P. S .- Kerr was nominated by the caucus last night, and the victory over liberal ideas in fluance, &c., seems com-

The interest and the excitement attending the canvass for Speaker were not greater than that which always results from the decision of a party caucus when offices of great importance are to be filled. Nominations for President and Vice President, for Governor, and for United States Senator are and the same division among friends. elapsed since the Democratic party had controlled the House of Representa

However great their divisions were, they seemed to have been more p rsonal than resulting from any well defined political differences; and never was a canvass more pleasantly and and honorably conducted. Mr. Handall, the defeated candidate, in moving to make the nomination of Mr Kerr unanimous, expressed the sentiment of his supporters, and the entire Demo cratic party of the country, when he said: "From this moment the differ-"ences among ourselves must be at "an end, and thus present a united " f out to our adversaries. Our mis-"sion on this floor must be, "as far as we are able; to "restore the Government to its "Constitutional purposes and to ex " pose the corruptions of the admin-" istration."

While our soutemporary has confi deuce in the "sagacity" of our Repres entatives we have confidence in their ability and honesty and purpose to carry out this mission. And just one word about this "Third Party" suggestion. We shall not review the successes of the Democratic party during the past few years. Suffice to say that a majority of States, have placed the D mocratic party in control of the II use of Representatives, and in control of the States them selves, and the people who so voted are not in the humor for another Greeley PAINTS, GLASS, VARNISH campaign, and another disgraceful defint. That cauves has served its purpose, and may have repaid the party for its undertakt g. A repetition would be the height of political folly,

And we say candidly, but with full confidence in the assertion, that a very arge proportion of D-moeratic voters in the country will not to 1876, as they did not in 1872, vote far "Third Par-Tuesday Morning, Becember 7, 1875. Iy" candidates, although the nomina-ocratic National Convention. This "Third Party" movement has SAGGING, now been in existence for several years, and Newton Booth, the sporadic Senstor from California, is the only visible - vidence of its existence. Mr. Hamilton, the Senator from Texas, elected as a Republican has drifted into an independent position from the influence LVE, of surrounding circumstances, and his place will soon be filled by a Democrat, for Texas is among the most pornounced Democratic States of the Union. Messra Banks and Seelye, of Massachusetts, Chittenden, of New York, and one or two more, are Republicans, elected by Democrats in Repub. lican Districts, and are classed as Independents, and would probably favor any combination which would keep them in power. And just here we will notice the fact that all Senators and Representatives in Congress who are classed as Independents, like the candidates for President and Vice President in 1872, are Republicans, and generally vote with that party in in late styles, and at all purely political questions. Now we desire to warn our contem, porary, and we do so in no captious spirit, but in behalf of the best interests of the people and the country, that the day upon which the "Convative people," i. e., the National Democratic party, concludes to "make a party out of the better material of old constitutional purposes, and to do so we must employ all the material of a united and determined Democratic
