The Wilson Advance. FRIDAY, OCT. 22, 1880. Poet. LIFE'S CROSSES. He was old and weak and shabbily dressed. The time-beaten wreck of a man, Whose story the passer-by might have guessed.

As I dropped a pittance into his hat I said: "Your lot is hard; But he cheerily answered: "Yes! It is that, For I'm blind and poor, and barred From all that gives to life its joy."

I walked through a famous uptown square, And I envied the rich man's ease; But lo! on the silver door bell there A crape fluttered out on the breeze.

I heard the plaudits and laughter ring In a theatre packed to the walls, Where the star was a famous comedy king, Who smiled in response to the call.

I thought of a Judge who was honored of men For the power and place he had won, Yet the felon, one day, in the prisoner's pen, Was the Judge's only son.

And thinking of this—how wealth and fame And honor and power all May have his grief to hide, or its shame, I could not choose but recall.

INDIANA TO BE REDEEMED. Democratic National Executive Committee in Session—Address to the Democratic Voters of the Country.

New York, Oct. 14.—The Democratic National Executive Committee is in session this afternoon at the Democratic headquarters. Among the members present are Senator Barnum and Messrs. Scott, of Pennsylvania; Smalley, of Vermont; Hewitt, of New York; Barnes, of Georgia; and Cleveland, of New Jersey.

Gen. Wiltz, of Louisiana, and Daniel Dougherty, were also in consultation. The situation of the canvass was discussed in detail, and the following address was adopted:

To the Democratic and Conservative Voters of the Country:—The election of President and Vice-President is now before you. State and local dissensions are banished from the issues of to-day.

Gen. Wiltz, of Louisiana, and Daniel Dougherty, were also in consultation. The situation of the canvass was discussed in detail, and the following address was adopted: To the Democratic and Conservative Voters of the Country:—The election of President and Vice-President is now before you.

broad land the same methods can be brought to bear that were used by the Republican managers in Indiana and Ohio? Can the great States of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, California, Colorado, Nevada, and New Hampshire be bought, intimidated and defrauded?

The Republican party have put in nomination for President and Vice-President two men, who, by the admission of their own party and press, are unworthy of your confidence.

Fellow-citizens, the first day's repulse at Gettysburg ended on the third with Hancock in front in glorious victory. That victory secured to us our Union.

By order of the National Democratic Committee. Wm. H. BARNUM, Chairman. INDIANA.

ADDRESS OF THE DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE—CAUSES OF THE RECENT DEFEAT—A DETERMINED EFFORT TO BE MADE TO CARRY THE STATE IN THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 15.—The Democratic Executive Committee have issued the following address: To the Democratic and Independent Voters of Indiana:—The result of the election last Tuesday is a deep disappointment to us all.

The extent of the success which the Republican party has achieved in this State is as much a surprise to the Republicans as it is to the Democrats, and proves that a majority of the Republican party were as ignorant of the means which their corrupt leaders were employed as we were.

A few months ago an old gentleman was sailing a notice on a fence in Galveston. A friend, passing, said: "Why don't you have the notice put in the paper, where people can read it?"

GENERAL NEWS NOTES. Colquitt's majority as Governor of Georgia will be over 60,000. Two thirds of the Legislature are in favor of Brown for Senator.

In the case of DeJarnette, convicted of the murder of his sister and sentenced to be hanged on the 29th inst., at Danville, Va., the Supreme Court of Appeals has awarded a writ of error and supercedas and will hear the case at Richmond in December next.

A large number of business men of Cincinnati have issued an address urging the election of Hancock, and declare that his election cannot injure possibly the business interests of the country.

O. G. Sleately, Executive Committee. GEN. HANCOCK AND THE TARIFF QUESTION. A LETTER TO GOVERNOR RANDOLPH.

New York, Oct. 15.—Gen. Hancock has written the following letter to ex-Gov. Randolph, of New Jersey, in regard to the interview published in the Paterson Guardian:

Governor's Island, N. Y., October 12.—My Dear Governor: I have received your favor of the 11th inst. In my letter of acceptance I expressed my full sympathy with our American industries.

My Dear Governor: I have received your favor of the 11th inst. In my letter of acceptance I expressed my full sympathy with our American industries. I thought I spoke plainly enough to satisfy our Jersey friends regarding my tariff views.

By order of the National Democratic Committee. Wm. H. BARNUM, Chairman. INDIANA.

There is no longer the slightest remaining doubt of the entire safety of Virginia for Hancock and English. It is not probable that she will cast her vote for the Democratic ticket on the 22d of November, and by a very decisive majority, so that the sun will shine on the morning of the organization of the party is now perfect.

VIRGINIA SAFE. There is no longer the slightest remaining doubt of the entire safety of Virginia for Hancock and English.

confidence has been reestablished, the enthusiasm of our people is aroused, and the spirit by which the whole party seems now to be animated vividly recalls to mind the fervor of 1869.

We have tidings from every county in the State confirmatory of this cheering condition of things. Democratic Readjusters who have acted with the adverse faction in State politics from an honest conviction that the State debt should be adjusted on a different basis from that demanded by those who favor the payment of our entire indebtedness, refuse to be controlled by that faction in casting their votes for President, but recognizing the regularity and authority of the regularly and authority of the Conservative-Democratic party, now support the electoral ticket framed by the Richmond convention of the 19th of May, and the congressional candidates in the several districts regularly nominated under the authority of their party.

They wholly reject the counsels of the arbitrary faction, who would decide them into the support of a pretended ticket, which is name by no recognized authority and bound by no pledges, and whose electors will be free to cast the vote of Virginia as their chief may direct, should they succeed in carrying the State. But even admitting that these electors would feel themselves instructed and bound by their instructions to vote for the Democratic candidate, yet as there is a doubt the people generally feel it is the best policy to be on the safe side and make assurance doubly sure by voting for the electors who must obey their instructions or proclaim themselves forever infamous.

I am, very truly yours, WINFIELD S. HANCOCK. To Hon. Theo. Randolph, Morris town, N. J.

AN OLD STORY REMODELLED. An old monkey, desiring to teach his sons the advantage of unity, brought them a number of sticks, and desired them to see how easily they might be broken one at a time.

THE LATE THOMAS H. BENTON. Mr. Edward J. Hale, in a communication to the Charlotte Democrat, confirms what we said of the late Thomas Hart Benton. He tells what the late excellent Judge Elymer said to him.

According to Webster. A few months ago an old gentleman was sailing a notice on a fence in Galveston. A friend, passing, said: "Why don't you have the notice put in the paper, where people can read it?"

That old familiar proverb "a talking stone gathers no moss" has been exploded by the marriage, in one of our western cities of Herbet L. Rollingsstone to Emma J. Moss.
