LIFE INSURANCE MANIA.

There have been many and strange speculative manias in the world's history. How often has it been verified in the past, that "the earth hath bubbles as the sea hath."

But the most remarkable and at the same time the most revolting, is the speculation known as the Death-Insurance business.

The mania seems to have reached its highest development in the State of Pennsylvania and has attained some prominence in Maryland and perhaps other States.

The modus operandi of these death-insurance appears to be as follows: A company is formed for the purpose and adopts the assessment principle of life insurance.

Whenever a death occurs, every person owning a policy of a thousand dollars, usually upon the life of some other person, is assessed a dollar, and larger policy holders in proportion.

At my residence in this county about September 1st, a male yearling about two and a-half years old. The owner can get his property by proving property and paying for all expenses.

RAILROAD TROUBLES.

Our readers will remember that we opposed the sale of the Western N. C. Railroad, and ventured the prediction at the time, that trouble, in addition to the sacrifice of a valuable State property, would grow out of it.

FOR SALE!

My house and lot situated on the corner of Tarboro and Lee streets in the town of Wilson. The lot is a desirable one, good garden, and good well of water on the premises.

NOTICE!

Having qualified as Administratrix of Sophia Deans, deceased, notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to the deceased, to make immediate payment, and all persons having claims against the deceased are required to present them for collection before the 15th day of September 1882.

CLEAR THE TRACK FOR I AM HERE AGAIN.

WITH the greatest bargains ever seen in Wilson. I take this method of informing my old customers and the public at large, that I have returned to this place to again lead the market in selling the very cheapest goods, the greatest bargains, and in fact to again assume the life of the CHAMPION OF LOW PRICES—THE ORIGINAL.

I was fortunate enough to procure the most select variety of goods at the lowest imaginable prices, and am therefore prepared to astonish you with the bargains that I am offering.

A DOLLAR SAVED IS A DOLLAR MADE. And I am satisfied that even in the small purchase of only five dollars worth of goods at my place, I can save you the above named dollar—for I am determined to sell you any article in my line at least twenty per cent. cheaper than the same can be bought for at any other store in town.

WHAT THE PUBLIC WANTS. And where to procure the same at the very lowest prices. My stock of goods for the fall trade is unusually large and varied, and embraces DRY GOODS, CLOTHING, BOOTS, SHOES, HATS, and CAPS, LADIES and GENTS FURNISHING GOODS, LADIES HATS, MILLINERY, FANCY GOODS, EMBROIDERY, HOSIERY, NOTIONS, TRIMMINGS, CLOAKS, SHAWLS, TABLE and OIL CLOTHS, TRUNKS, VALISES, SATCHELS, &c.

In short anything usually found in a first class Variety Store, and each branch is complete in all its details. To give you an idea of what you can expect please note a few of my prices:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Calicoes 5c per yard; Ladies Hose 5c a pair; Alpaca 5c per yard; Men's Half-Hose 5c a pair; Woosted 10c up; Needles 3c a paper; Bleaching 5c up; Pins 3c a paper; Almanac Plaids 8c per yard; Handkerchiefs 4 for 15c; Spun Cotton 90c per bunch; Ladies silk Scarfs 5c a piece; Counterpanes 50c a piece; Boys Hats 25c a piece; Linen Towels 5c up; Men's Hats 50c a piece; White Vests 10c a piece; Gents White Shirts 50c up; Nice Ladies Shoe 50c up; Gents Undershirts 20c up; Gents Shoes 50c up; Gents Drawers 20c up; Kid Gloves 40 cents.

In short I will merely say that no matter at what price you are offered any goods at any other store, come to the ORIGINAL CHAMPION and get the same goods twenty per cent. less. I am in earnest and will do just what I tell you. I therefore advise all in want of goods to avail themselves of my offer and standing advance.

Come and satisfy Yourself. That I mean to maintain my title of the old and only original champion of low prices.

FALL AND WINTER. AFTER THREE WEEKS OF HARD WORK MY IMMENSE NEW STOCK OF FALL AND WINTER GOODS IS AT LAST IN ORDER. I CAN SAFELY ASSERT THAT IN POINT OF Variety, Quality and Quantity, MY PRESENT STOCK HAS NEVER BEEN SURPASSED IN THE STATE.

Large as my usual purchase of Dress Goods are, I have this season purchased more than double the usual quantity, and feel confident that I can suit my customers in anything desired, from the ordinary (calico) to the finest.

Camels Hair Plaids, French Novelties, Silks, Satins, Satin Surah, &c.

In Dry Goods and Notions I cannot begin to enumerate, yet would like to mention a beautiful assortment of plain, plaid and fancy sackings, plain and fancy Beaver Cloakings, &c. My stock of wraps consists of Cloaks, Dolmans, Jackets, Palatots and Shawls. I have quantities of Spreads, Quilts, Blankets, &c., and a thousand other desirable articles.

To my Clothing Department I paid special attention and am satisfied that my assortment of Men's, Youths' Boys, and Children's suits, Overcoats, Reversible Overcoats and Ulsters, is second to none, and my prices will always be as low or lower than the lowest. In Boots and Shoes I have exclusive control of several makes, every pair of which is warranted.

Hats, Caps, Trunks, Valises, &c.

On my second floor I have quantities of Carpets, Rugs, Mats, Oil Cloths, Crumb Cloths, &c., Glassware and Crockery of all kinds. I cordially invite an inspection from all.

Respectfully, E. Rosenthal.
