PENCILLINGS-GLEANINGS marry.

of a post office in Randolph conn havor with the cotton seed in New-State Senator Jas. S. Battle has there will not be enough seed to been elected one of the Trustees ef plant a crop.

England.

aged 18 months.

One of the gravest cases of omission by our legislature was the failare to increase the number of Supreme Court Judges.

Mr. James D. Murphy, of La Grange Academy has been offered a professorship in a College at Lamartine, Nebraska...

at 10 o'clock at night. Good!

Senator David Davis, who mar-pendent ticket. The business of the Tarboro common council. "Southerner" has been arranged! and will not be sold at public anc-

The Charlotte "Observer" tells names of their lovers in numarried cluded to wait.

college property. than thesay that, we clip from its like, columns more than from any other weekly in the State.

and truthful public officer. The Boston Herald says that a Quincy on the cars, complacently there that ever a woman had.

A little child five years old was the most from it. in Baltimore.

the legislature than he did when would bloom in beauty .- Nash Ad- cane. Wild with pain and passion, more than a million and a half, and He came to Arkansas a year ago, the war closed.

"LET ALL THE ENDS THOU AIM'ST AT, BE THY COUNTRY'S, THY GOD'S, AND TRUTHS'."

VOLUME 13.--

WILSON, NORTH CAROLINA, MARCH 23, 1883.

"Well, all I've got to say, is, if you are a person of such refinement and GATHERED FROM ALL PARTS good breeding you ought to be A FORMER WILSONIAN above talking to a drunken fellow this time of the night.

There is a Chicago divorce suit HERE, THERE, EVERYWHERE. because she wanted to call the ALLIGATORS AND SNAKES. baby John Frederick, and he was determined to name it Edward Gordon. It would perhaps be a good scheme for young couples to name President Arthur wants to the baby before they get married.

Tom's logic staggers: Husband

(2 a.m., after a curtain lecture,)-

An order has been received here The State Medical Secrety meets says the Green boro "Patriot." from a firm in Newberry, S. C., for "Why bot," is the novel name 500 cats. The rats are playing berry, and unless exterminated,

The Durlam "Tobacco Plant"

One of the substantial farmers of Sparta, Ga., when he was married, twelve years ago, had to borrow money to pay for his marriage The Rome, Ga, city council has license, and, not having a decent raised the license tay on bar-rooms suit of clothes, the young woman to $600, and compells them to close whom he was to marry tore the wool from sheepskins, spun, wove The latest abscunding eashier and made him a suit of clothes.

things by adding a pretty girl to "Are you the judge of reprobates!" who came for the benefit of their the peoples funds traveling with said Mrs. Partington, as she walked health, who died here. This part If President Grevy carries out his "I am a judge of probate." "Well, poor man to come to settle and exintention of resigning his office, the that's it, I expect," quoth the old pect to make a living. All the land French will be in a stew. A stew lady: "You see my father died that will make oranges is owned by without Gravy will be a bad detested, and he left several little Yankees who have plenty of money.

ried Miss Barr 11st week, is 68 The Russians have a model liquor years old and weighs 320 pounds, law. The degree regulating the Miss Burris 40 years old and her Lionor traffic just signed by the Emperor, is peculiar. There must Wm, Sprague, of "Conkline" no. be only one liquor shop in a villiag, toriety has married a divorced was and where two or three villiages man and been nominated for Gov. are almost contiguous, one shop ernor of Rhode Island on the Inde. must suffice for the group. The seller must be a native of the place, appointed and paid by the who will not sell, and the other

A German has patented an in a while, and get from $25 to $50 per vention which stamps him as a acre for land that will not sprout tion as advertised. Frank Powell, Yankee by nature if not by birth-Esq., is now editor and proprietor. It consists of a little book whose The legislature passed a law to leaves are made of perfumed toilet the effect that no State tax shall soap, and is meant especially for be levied or collected in 1881, pro- travelers. When he wants to wash and it was a Fair, too. The only vided the $600,000 due is paid by his hands he simply tears out a things that I saw that reminded the owners of the Western N. C. leaf—one is sufficient for the purme of North Carolina was two corn pose-and the book can be put back dry into the pocket, of a Baltimore drummer named Last Thursday night the hearse Why the people in this part of the Johnson who was put off the cars and coffin were sent after says the country think that corn grows in for riding in his shirt-sleeves in the Kinston Free press, one of our citi hulls like peas. ladies' car. He sued for damages, zens who was sitting by the fire I have not seen as much hog tooing to a fine art, and is making of waiting a short while longer, and a half cents per pound.

national school. Now, they have omist tens of two old men, aged 100 is if he has money enough to get "young feller," and declared that against that too. students, and own $11,000,000 in like a couple of boys." The residence of the town once held a meeting, it is said, and drew lots to de-The Roanoke "News" has en- cide upon the person who should tered upon its twelfth volume. We kill his grandfather, that the peocan be stow no higher compliments ple might see what a funeral was

-prietor of the Washington "Post" The "Robesonian" favors the recently married a Miss Brady, second best and the largest lemons Margaret's sister, on the Navy tion of $10,000 for the Botanic Sannders, Secretary of State, for lady of 35, and one of the remark-Governor in 1884, and pays a just able features of the wedding was tribute to the services of that able, the receipt of a kind letter from his divorced wife wishing for him all the happiness he had failed to en. The Terrible Fight Between Stevens The Wilmington "Review" comes lady passing the burial ground at joy in his first marriage. He and his bride have gone to Europe.

battle was thickest, says he feels broomsedges would be dressed in last words had hardly left his lips Hathaway, of Fall River, Mass., happier over the adjoarnment of living green, and the old land when Stephens hit him, with his whose estate shows liabilities of the peace, was never known to smile.

THE FLOWERY LAND.

VEGETABLES ARE SCARCE. Mr. W. H. Barbee, a former resident of Wilson has recently made his home in Florida, and from the firm and unvielding, could long following which was written to a riend in this place, it will be seen determined to finish his work. He triet: of the land of flowers:-ED.

DEAR SIR: -According to promise I will drop you a few lines this morning to let you know what I know, and what I The Durham "Tobacco Plant" says: Col. W. T. Blackwell and Mr. have seen since I have been here. thinks that Senator Jas. S. Battle P. A. Wiley, of Raleigh, will, on or Florida, "the land of flowers"--it is has the Confiressional bee in his before the first of April, commence a lie, for I have not seen half a dozen the banking business in Durham. natural flowers since' I have been "Consecutive polygumy" is what They will have a cash capital of in the State. To tell you the truth Dr. Dix calls the frequent mar. $150,000 and that amount will be there are no flowers here and the riages following divorces in New increased whenever the business land is so poor it will not bring them, for it is a land of water, aligators, We sympathize with Brother Two hundred girls have left Lim snakes and a few oranges and lem-Davis of the "Torchlight" in the crick for this country. There is ons. By the way, water is the death of his little boy-only child- plenty of room here for all the nice most precious thing here, for peogirls in Ireland, and of course all ple in this place have to buy all the girls in Ireland are nice. They their drinking water. They pay may even be able to find husbands | 30 cents per barrel for it. Think of some of our nice young men it, the land of flowers and no when they get able to support hus, drinking water! I have not had a good drink of water since Heft home and there is nothing but water here either. There is not but one man in this place who has a garden, and I will bet my head off of my shoulders that I can eat every thing that there is in it, in a week, raw. This is the land of flowers where invalids come at death's door and are generally carried infidels, and I want to be their ex. I will tell you what it would cost you to buy an orange grove. There is a grove about one and a half the man has been offered $65,000 for it and will not take it. He says be will take $75,000, but is not judge what it will take to settle > cow peas. They could not make me a present of it and compel me to pay tax on it.

Mr. Stilson Hutchins, the pro- two cents a piece for the best and her farm wagons, and stopping at out to the House that the Sundry

W. H. BARBEE. Sanford, Florida, March 4, 83.

to the front with the following: A drew a keen pointed dirk knife and WILLIAM R. made one furious thrust at his weak little adversary. Instantly as he did so, however, Stephens, held in his left hand, interposed it moment to hold him at arm's length. Once more it was thrust at Stephens, cutting a deep gash in his orm; eighteen times it cut deep into his breast, arms and body, but still he did not fall, Then he could hold out no longer, No courage, no spirit, however withstand such attact. Cone was at he is not a very great admirer threw all his great weight against the umbrella, which broke: Stevsns, half fainting, fell upon his back. The giant Cone was at his throat in a moment, his head, by a grip of iron was seld against the eruel floor. "Retract, or I'll cut your cursed throat!" hissed Cone. 'Cut! I'll never retract!" gasped the almost lifeless Stephens. The knife came down. With an almost superhuman effort the prostrate man cought it in his right hand. Clean through the muscles, tendon, and bones of the hand it cut, then stuck fast and reached no vital part. With desperate strength Cone tried to wrench it free. In the struggle Stephens was once more dragged to his feet. The blood was rushing in streams from his many wounds. At this moment others came to his relief and saved his life. The wounds which Mr.

Stephens received were examined. It was found that one of them had penetrated to within a sixteenth of an inch of his heart. An intercostal artery had been cut. When he recovered he refused to prosecute Cone, and that person, instead of getting his deserts in State prison, was fined $1,000, and, with patriotic, but that does not materito go free. To the day of his death Mr. Stephens spoke of him in terms | Cox of North Carolina has made ty."

A Healthy Lamb Story.

mine."

MAsher of Sweet Sixteen. anxious to sell at that, so you can ton were invaded this morning by machinery for collecting the inter- "I have been arrested on a charge and pa he always sings for all that house, your lady of appearances. be invested. O'Neill got the money here. All of the land that will bring oranges is owned by people land I would not have. But these land agents get a greeny once in

They had a Fair here last week shucks on exhibition and they drew more attention than anything else.

you ever saw for one cent a piece. Yard.

Lucy Willia 8, a negress, is un. Court are to be chosen, and, if the Judge Cone, of Georgia, had called the little motherless creatures bedoing." mains in a closet. The oder of tiouris troubling both parties, but a misunderstanding arose between to try the experiment of letting a new member of the House who that letter hardened. I embraced establishment. He said that reburning desh revealed the crime. The Republicans are likely to suffer them on the same subject through the little lambs share with the little has the courage to stand up and the last accounts of them they and the last accounts of them they are likely to suffer them on the same subject through the little lambs share with the little has the courage to stand up and the last accounts of them they are likely to suffer them on the same subject through the little lambs share with the little has the courage to stand up and the last accounts of them they are likely to suffer them on the same subject through the little lambs share with the l the miscarriage of a letter and also one for nonrishment from her own manfully opposed a petty abuse spurned my teachings. I was time son could enjoy religion as well in French Marquis Tallyrand-Peri- were making for Virgin a. If these raped by a negro school teacher litthe young men in these old a feeling on the part of the judge breast. The trial was entirely sucnamed Alexander Yaney. She States who are looking westward and his friends that he had been cessful, and the little creatures now are glad enough to blink; a clear- am here." was not pure white, and he got off with longing eyes would make as bullied; and the gentlemen met at come to her regularly for nourish headed man who can talk solid with two years in the penitentiary. complet sacrifice of their pride, and the Atlanta Hotel and fought. ment and are thriving under their william Ruffin Cox of North Care. He deserved death. This occurred put forth their energies as fully Cone demanded a retraction of his novel nursing. here as they would have to do to threat, which was not made. A Guilford county member of the keep from starving in the west, "Then," said Cone, who was a There seems to have been a very legislature, who served four years fortune would smile upon them, powerfully built man, "I denounce wide range between the foresight in the war and tought where the and the brierpatches and fields of you as a miserable traitor!" The and hindsight of Mr. George T.

without uttering a word, Cone assets of five thousand dollars.

seizing a stout umbrella which he A DESERVED TRIBUTE FROM THE NEW YORK "SUN." as a defense and was able for a

A CLEAR-HEADED MEMBER

A GOOD RECORD FOR HIM The New York "Sun" pays the following compliment to Gen. W. R. Cox, of the Metropolitan dis-

Cox. Everybody knows the Samuel Sullivan Cox who represents the Seventh, Eleventh, and thirteenth wards of this town. They call him Sunset, but his sun never sets. The Forty-seventh Congress is the twelfth in which he has served; it is a qurater of a century since he first carried into the House of Representatives his wit, his philosophy, his knowledge, of what interests men, his industrious habits, his in corruptible conscience, his honest purpose to speak and vote right. The other Representative Cox hails from the hill country of North Carolina, and his name is William Ruffin. We learn from the Congressional Directory that he is a new member. He has been a cotton planter, a rebel Brigadier, a practising lawyer, a Judge of the Superior Court, and a chairman of the Democratic State committee. He has finally made his way into Congress, where he is likely to the sort frequently encountered in "I am not well to-day," said the himself in the woods on the White- see me come flying out of the alley the visions of the virtuous and the Judge, turning to the lawyers, fish Bay road, and had been dead with my coat tail full of boots you alize with great frequency.

ploy and the neighborhood. The gance." price for clothes and make them tents. The husband was on the bers only five were from Southern spoke of my past life." She cough-Elizabeth City, N. C. says the pay for lt, for you will never get alert, however, and one day caught States, and Mr. W. R. Cox was one ed again and caught a flow of blood Sixty years ago, the Methodists Norfolk Landmark is the place more than one job out of a man. the couple. His indignation knew of the five. Turning to the re- on a handkerchief which she press-As soon as you come here and get no bounds, and it is said that he cord on the River and Harbor steal ed to her lips. "I speak of it now of this county had but one denominational school. Now, they have omist tells of two old men, aged 100 a look at the country he leave, that thrashed both his wife and her of 1882, we find that Cox voted because I know that this is the last away with. When any one leaves he would kill the latter on sight by We have a copy of Mr. Cox's here he has to have money to leave pouring two loads of buckshot in- speech against the petty and conwith, for he cannot walk, he is to his body if he found him in the temptible robbery of the public bound to take a boat or railroad neighborhood agam. The youth funds by means of the habitual apcar, for we are completely sur disappeared from the vicinity for propriation for the Botanic Garden rounded by water. To tell you the awhile, but yesterday returned and -the florist's establishment which truth there are not much here and eloped with Mrs. McCaffrey, the supplies Senators and Representabut little of that. Oranges sell at pair coming to the city in one of tives with boquets. He pointed and from one to one and a half for the residence of the giddy but aged Civil bill contained an appropria-

Garden swindle, the Legislative bill $11,700 more; while a sporadic item in the Sundry Civil bill give $2,500 "for the storage and protection of palms and other tropical and sub-tropical plants." "Now." said Mr. Cox, with great good is re-elected.

His Last Court.

Old Judge Greyson, a justice of daughter! before the "carpet baggers" began railroad commission.

COX. their reckless ways, and year after THAT year, by the will of the voters, he held his place as magistrate. The lawyers who practised in his court > every one soon learned that the old man never engaged in levity. Every morning, no matter how bad the weather might be, the old man took his place behind the bar which, with his own hands, he had made, and every evening, just at a certain time he closed his books and went home. No one ever engaged him in private conversation, because he would talk to no one. No one even went to his home, a little cottage among the trees in boy, as the youth was firing frozen he was a disgrace to civilization. In the Forty-seventh Congress the city's outskirts, because he had there were two members named nevershown a disposition to make garbage in the alley-> even lived in the immediate vicinitioneering," because he never asked he exhibted the executive side of lay it to a boy!" such a legal mind that the people justice," and every lawyer in Ar vour house, honest?" kansas referred to his decisions-His rulings were never reversed word of it to a living soul or I am a puted bim. ed before him. "The old man seems more than ever unsteady," remarked a lawyer as the magistrate took his seat. "I don't see stay, inasmuch as he appears to how a man so old can stand the I ever heard of, except the smellbe an old-fashioned Demecrat, of vexations of a court much longer" when they found a tramp who hung haten to the mocking bird. If you

Professor Benson has reduced tat. just as well he had no objections beef and it sells from ten to twelve amash" on the roadside and in bers who voted last Friday morn- excite your sympathy. I have massat near, he was a stranger Claffin was a Vermont school home. She did not anthorize him friendly thickets, where they "billed ing against the River and Harbor many at time been drawn from Racine," who belongs to our teacher, Charles O'Congor was born to act for her, but mentioned who piles of money by picking the After a little persuasion they constant was sort of of the poorest of Irish parents, who before courts, but I never before church, and be leeked at ma sort of of the poorest of Irish parents, Pe. her western agents were. A short on earth before which I will be arraigned. I was fifteen years old when I felll in love with the man My father said he washad, but Illoved him. He came again and again, and when my father said he should come no more I ran away and married him. My father said I should never come home again. I had al ways been his pride and had, loved so dearly, but he said that I must never again come to his home my home, the home of my youth and happiness. How I longed to see him; How I yearned to put my head on his breast. My husband became addicted to drink-He abused me. I wrote to my father, asking him to let me come home, but the answer that came morning that the church was unu. peace maker and she shall be re-When the late Alexander H. short time ago in an adjoining sense, "I insist that when appro- was I do not know you!" My hus- sually full of sewer gas. He said warded. remarked to a stranger, "I've got One of the most important State Stephens returned to Georgia from county, a farmer had a sheep which priations are made for a specific band died—yes, cursed God and he had spoken of the matter b. three of the best husband's lyin elections of this year will be that Washington in 1848, where he had gave birth to twin lambs and died object, all those appropriations died! Homeless and wretched, and Ohio. A Governor, Treasurer, Audiopposed the admission of California soon after. The lambs were bright should be put together, so that the with my little boy, I went out into tor and two judges of the Supreme and New Mexico, he heard that and healthy, and what to do with House can understand what it is the world. My child died and I was a meek and humble follower of bowed down and wept over a pan the Lumb, and was willing to east whose daughter slipped away from to us, but we are satisfied of the der arrest in Washington for holding her new horn ing h ing her new-born lufant over a store moving it roughly stove until it roasted to death, when she canceled the death, which the juge had denied, he sometimes the case, to have a district and yet votes against the not those who disobey my compression and their the first time in over twent which the juge had denied, he sometimes the case, to have a district and yet votes against the not those who disobey my compression and their the sheek. If the report is true

> Several lawyers rushed forward. far as he was concerned he had got famous grandfather's possessions, certain method would have been to A crimson tide flowed from her enough. Everybody look of every. the American public will not sym- have gone back of the old Academy lina. We are glad to say that he lips. They leaned her lifeless body cise, and pa looked at ma as pathize with the prostration of any pulled off their coats and waded in. head back against the chair. The though he knew where the sewer old paternal Crossus, who is anx. This all amounts to a farce in one old magistrate had not raised his gas came from, and ma looked at ions to sell his daughter to a scene from the fact that the authoreyes. "Great God!" said a lawyer pa real mad, and me and my chum broken-down foreign libertine with ities will have them. "he is dead." The woman was his lit out, and I went home and dis- a broken-down title. Such fathers never joked with him, because THE HEALTH OFFICERS AF-. TER HIS MISCHIEF.

LIMBERGER CHEESE.

ing?" said the grocer to the bad

"Well, in nine cases out of ten nominated and elected him. He they would hit right, but what do soon gained the name of the "hard you think is the trouble over to

As far as we are aware, Mr. let me add, quickest of your abili- ma were just getting ready to go to church, and I cut off a piece of of consideration and forgiveness, no long speech since he went to Every one saw that the old man cheese and put it in the inside

Her attentions finally became so of the Treasury, not as a foraging tinued: "As I say, no man can swhee," and they didn't sing any open that Farmer Mack, as he is ground provided by Providence for defend me. I am too near that more, but they looked at each called by the neighbors, objected, Congressman and their constitu- awful approach, to pass which we other as though they smelled when she concealed the charred rety years. The temperance quest would "slap his face." Afterward, nursing infant, and she concluded River and Harbor bill on principle; mandments.' I turned away from smelled like a bone boiling estab.

BAD BOY

HIS FATHER IN TROUBLE. a block to air hissilf. Pa came HE HAS GONE TO EUROPE.

smell of the house he opened all the doors, and ma put a comfortable potatoes at the man who collects She tried to get pa to drink some cabolic acid. Pa finally convinced welcome the visits of those who . "O, they are searching for sewer gas and such things, and they have ty. His office was not given him got plumbers and other society exthat smelled so, as well as the through the influence of "elec-perts till you can't rest, and I have come away for fear they would find any man for his vote. He was first the sewer gas and warm my jacket, ing pa went down to the health elected because, having once been Say, do you think it is right, when office and got the inspector of nuisummoned in a case of arbitration, anything smells awfully, to always

"S-h-h! Now don't breathe by the higher courts. He showed dead boy. You see I was over to no sentiment in decision. He stood the dairy fair at the exposition upon the platform of a law which building Saturday night, and when he made a study, and no man disthey were breaking up, me and my chum helped to carry boxes of Several days ago a woman charg cheese and firkins of butter, and a ed with misdemeanor was arrang- cheese man gave each of us a piece of limberger cheese, wrapped up in tin foil. Sunday morning I of fare and tooth-picks, and biltired. O, it was the offulest smell

can dispatch them to the best, and old back number funeral. Pa and into an office of a judge of probate. of Florida is a poor place for a Not long ago, showing the great Congress, We have read his brief was unusually feeble and no one pocket of pa's vest, and I put an Who marries for love takes a one. He did not do so, however, hole in his mangled hand, he said: remarks on the reduction of the in- thought of any scheme to prolong other in the lining of mals muff, wife; who marries for fortune and both are recorded in the county "Poor Cone! I'm sure he'd be sorry ternal revenue. They are to the a discussion, for all the lawyers had and they went to church. | went takes a mistress; who marries for clerk's office. The original mort if he knew what trouble I have to point. He opposed the sham bill learned to almost reverence him. write with these stiff fingers of of last session because it failed to "Is this the woman?" asked the seat with my chum, looking just-as loved by your wife, regarded by that a cent was ever paid. give relief to the overtaxed laborer Judge. "Who is defending her?" pious as though I was taking up a your mistress, tolerated by your John Beverly, a flagman, pur and producer. He favors the re- "I have no defence, Your Honor," collection. The church was pretty hady. You have a wife for your, chased a little house, giving a peal of all internal revenue taxa- the woman replied. "In fact I do warm, and by the time they got up self, a lady for the world and socimiles from here of four acres and A Giddy Thing of Fifty Elopes With a tion, believing it to be anti-repub not think I need any, for I am to to sing the first hymn pa's cheese ety. Your wife will agree with after, first directing that the prolican in its tendency, and burden- confess my guilt. No man can de began to smell, a match against you, your lady will manage you ceeds of a $2,000 life insurance some and oppressive in its mode of fend me," and she looked at the ma's cheese. Pa held one side of the Your wife will take care of your policy be used to pay off the mort-The confines of East Washing- collection. He regards the present magistrate with a curious gaze- hymn book, and ma held the other; household, your mistress of your gage, the remainder to be used to a reversed scandal from a neigh und revenue as altogether odious of disturbing the peace, and I am is out, and when he braced him. If you are sick your wife will nurse pretended to raise the mortgage boring town Maryland county. "a system of espionage, informa- willing to submit the case. I am self and sung "Just as I am," ma you, your mistress will visit you, and invest the balance, and appro-From information obtained by a mation, and oppressive agencies dying of consumption, Judge, and thought pa's voice was finctured your lady will inquire after your priated the whole of the little es reporter, it appears that Mrs. Mar. which frequently leads to conflicts I know that any ruling made by the with biliousness and she looked at health. You take a walk with tate. garet EcDuffrey, a portly and and bloodshed, and proves most law can have but little effect on me: him, and told your wife, a ride with your misheavy-weighted councry lass of oppressive to that class who are and she coughed, a hollow, vacant him to stop singing and breathe tress, and go to a party with your entrusted O'Neill with $1,50 life fifty summers and as many bleak least able to bear the expenses of cough, and drew around her an old through his nose, cause his breath lady. Your wife will share your insurance money for investment, winters, the wife of a well-to do litigation." He will take part at black shawl that sie wore. The was enough to stop a clock. Pa your lady your debts. If you are Prince George's county farmer, be the next session in a movement to expression on the face of the mag- stopped singing and turaed kind of dead your wife will weep, your miscame infatuated sometime ago with wipe out of existence the present istrate remained unchanged, but cross towards ma, and then he tress will lament, and your lady would make a short loan to a reone of her husband's employes, revenue machinery and officers, his eyelids dropped and he did not smelled ma's cheese, and he turned wear mourning. Which will sponsible party, take a note as se Charley Britt, who is only eighteen. He looks upon the surplus revenue raise them, when the woman con- his head the other way and said, have!-Ez. How our Rich Men Began Life. and he ultimately ordered the ents, but as "a continual invita- know is everlasting death to soul fromy. When they sat down they New York began poor. Jay Gould handsome Charley to leave his em- tion to corruption and extrava- and to body. Years ago I was a sat as far apart as they could get, was a cow-boy, James R. Keene being exposed. Nearly ever per. child of bright promise; I lived and pa sat next to a woman who tame from England with $20 in his youth left the farmer's employ, but Mr. Cox is old-fashioned in his with my parents in Kentucky. used to be a nurse in a hospital, pocket, Rufus Hatch began dealing not the neighborhood, for he still notions of the duty of a Democratic Wayward and light-hearted, I was and when she smelled pa's cheese in "garden sass," D. Appleton kept hovered around like a giddy fily Representative, for he sees no dif- the admired of all the gay society she looked at him as thouge he had a grocery store, James Watson He was stuck for $200 in costs. 'eating goober peas' when they meat since I have been here as you about the web of some tricky and ference in principle between going in known in our neighborhood. A the small pox, and she held her Webb was a country clerk, Henry arrived. He very quietly inform- buy in one month. There is no gandy spider, and thereafter the for big jobs and going in for little man came and professed his love handkerchief to her nose. The man villard was a reporter, Lenoard Chicago has a society craze, A ed them that if it would suit them stock at all, although we have fair youth frequently met his aged ones. There were ninety mem- for me. I don't say this, Judge, to in the other end of the pew, that W. Jerome was a printer, II. B:

queer, and after the minister ter Cooper was a hatter's appren- time ago she got a letter from the prayed, and they got up to sing tice, and the editor of this paper West saying that she had made a again, the man took his hat and began life without a dollar. Now mistakefin withdrawing her money. went out, and when he came by me he owes many times that amount. O'Neill had represented himself as he said, something in a whisper Let the country emulate the exam, her agent and secured the money. about a temple gine factory. Well, ple of the above named successful She could get no satisfaction. His sir, bethre the sermon was over meneverbody in that part of the church had their handkerchiefs to their noses, and they looked at no and ma scandalous, and the two ushers they come around in the pews look. drug stores the other day for store asking to have it changed ing for a dog, and when the minister got over his sermen and wiped "Leader." The druggist inform- rowed a few dollars from each storethe perspiration from his face, he ed her that there was no such keeper. He victimized over twenty said he would like to have the trus. thing, but inquired of her why she residents of Schenectady by this tees of the church stay after meet wanted it. She said that her game. O'Neill went to New York, ing, as there was same business of mamma and papa quarrelled so where, it is said, be made an unsue importance to transact. He said much she really wanted something cessful attempt to raise $20,000 on the question of proper ventilation to make them love each other. There that he has gone to Europe. His and sewerage for the church would is a whole sermon, in that little wife, two daughters and son, are be brought up, and he presumed gutl's desire, for parents to ponder, still in Schenectady. the congregation had noticed this Little angel! She was indeed a a piece in the spare room, under their Caucasian slave market.

A Little Peace-Maker.

Married the Man she loved.

--NUMBER 9

the bed, and a piece in the bathroom, in the soap dish, and a slice in the album on the parlor table,

and a piece in the library in a book put some under the table, and dropped a piece under the range in the kitchen. I tell you the house was loaded for bear. Ma came home from church first, and when I asked where pa was, she sad she hoped he had gone around and when he smelled around

Selecting A Wife.

Liberal Discounts will be made for Larger Advertisements and for Contracts by the Year Cash must accompany all Adverti-inless good reference is given.

WILSON ADVANCE

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

COLLOSSAL THIEF

anp I went to the dining-room and HE 18 ONE THAT THOROUGH LY UNDERSTOOD IT.

NO RESPECTER OF PERSON.

home to dinner, and when he got a TROY, N. Y., March 14 .- It has been discovered that Emmet O'Neill, the Schenectady broker, who recently failed, has fled, and that he has victimized parties in Schenectady and Duanesburgh out of not less than $250,000. Having mathat it was not him, and then the handling of his father's estate and being presumably wealthy, he was elected a director of the Schechurch, and all Sunday afternoon nectady Bank. From the books of the bank be learned that many farmers in Duanesburgh had funds to invest. He obtained posses sances to come up to the house, sion of their money on plan sible representations and gave as spell he said there was dead rats security forged mortgages. Where in the main sewer pipe, and they further proof was asked he would sent for plumbers, and ma went even forge assignments of mortout to a neighbor's to borrow some gages, including the county eleck's tresh air, and when the plumbers certificate and a copy of the record. began to dig up the floor in the He also forged notes. He had basement I came over here If eight notes out as collateral, purthey find any of that limberger cheese it will go hard with me. The porting to be signed by Col. Church, and each being for $5,000 hired girls have both quit, and ma Only two of these notes were genusays she is going to break up keepine. Ten years ago O'Neitl sold a ing house and board. That is just farm in Duanesburgh to Joseph into my hand. I want to board at McQuade for $9,000, $2,000 being a hotel, where, you can have a billpaid in eash, O'Neill taking a mortopened my piece, and it made me hards, and everything. Well, I gagetfor $7,000. McQuade has paid $2,000, besides interest. Last guess I will go over to the house fall O'Neill told McQuade that the and stand in the back door and original mortgage for $7,000 was and he (O'Neili) would destroy the old instrument. McQuade executed a new mortgage and supposed that O'Neill had destroyed the original

O'Neill had another method. He curity, skilfully forge a copy of the note, and when the money was paid surrendered the forged note and negotiated the genuine. New mother and sisters are also left penn less. Before leaving Schence tady on the mid.ight train, O'Neill taking a hundred dollar greenback A little girl applied at one of our in his hand, went from store to "Love-Powders" says the Winston No one could change it, and he bor

Gone to Fight a Duel.

Rumor has it, says the Williamston "Times," that George A. Sparrow and C. F. Warren have left their home in Washington N. Cato The rich New York millionaire fight a duel. The cause is naknown could in a flower garden, and as are all that remain to him of his fight, a less expensive and a more

The "News-Observer" credits its tributed my cheese all around. I ought to be invariably prostrated locals to the Wilson "Siftings" put a slice in ma's bureau drawer, with some sort of a shock that will that should be credited to the AD-The State of Kansas is to have a down under her underclothes, and interfere with the operation of VANCE. Be a little more careful, Brother Ashe.