Practical Architects and Builders. Z. Z. Y.

At a regular meeting of Morning Star Ledge No. 85, A. F. & A. M., held in their hall in the town of Nashville on the 24th day of March, A. D. 1883, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, On the 1st day of March, 1883, Brother Willie Griffin, who for 18 years had been a member of this Lodge, was called from the Lodge on earth to the Supreme Grand Lodge above by the grim monster death.
Therefore,
Resolved, That in the death of Brother Griffin this Lodge has lost one of its oldest, purest and most upright members, the community one of its most respected citizens and his family and relatives one whose upright walk and correct deportment they may look back upon with pride.

Resolved, That while we submit with cheerfulness to the divine will we grieve over the death of our brother.

Resolved, That we sincerely sympathize with the family and friends of our brother in this to build would do well to call and get our
