

pudiated the fraud and rascality port to the coalition movement but they were fearful that it of the Republican party. It was not, strictly speaking, a Demo- want to be on the loosing side. force in American politics, the licans-there are honest Repub- the administration with all its ticans north of Mason and Dixendorse .he corruption of their 300 majority."

did not renounce their political ear marks. He has, since unit-

so numerous and so diversified Not to vote will be about equivoas in the United States. As lent to a vote against the school would not succeed and did not they have entered as a controlcratic victory-it was a Repub- Now that the Republican party people are beginning their inlican Waterloo. Honest Repub- of the State is solid for it and fluence on the social condition of the country, and the methpower at the back of it, it does ods by which they are shaping not seem like a difficult thing on's line-could not longer to wipe out a little more than all things to suit their own requirements. Individuals die, party, and while many of them This is another of Mr. Price's but corporations are immortal

President Arthur.

His accidency, or as he is sometimes called the Guiteau President, has been on a trip of pleasure and recreation to the "land of flowers." His "acting and doings" have been duly chronicled by enterprising cor-

-IN-

ALWAYS at the FRONT

that I have moved my shop to Mr. BRYAN HOUSE,

W. T. Clark's old stand where I am

ing came.

ed defeats that would have buried a dozen parties, whose only support was a winning policy, and is to-day more strongly entrenched in the aflections of the people than-eyer, although it has not been in power in twenty years. When "we see that these things are so. and that the Democratic party their country's good. owes its long-life and brilliant successes to its devotion to idea "anything to win." We have been surprised beyond measure to find the usually correct and and able editor of the charlotte Journal-Observer, judicious nominations, and an

In a recent issue he says:

"There is a great deal of date for Governor as John N. "highfalutin" sentimentalism Staples, of Greensboro, would feated, etc., etc., but we would young, talented, progressive and not swap one square victory for one of the most effective camof the administration of this retaining in the democratic pargovernment. Sentimental poli- ty of the State the young and tics are played out-they are vigorous element, without dead, and when the corpse is which defeat is certain.' brought in range of the public eye it becomes an object of contempt and derision." We repeat we are surprised that a gentleman, so widely known and highly respected, should give expression to such sentiments. The voters of this country are more anxious to have the affairs of state honestly administered than to be .victorious, the assertion of politicians to the contrary notwithstanding.

-there is absolutely no limit faith, they aided the Democrats ing with the radicals, kept to their existence, and unless to put their candidates in power steadily in view the capture of their political influence is desbecause they believed it would the young men of the State, un- troyed and their power to cenresult in a more honest and der the promise of political pre- tralize wealth restricted, there economical administration of ferment. This has been his is no telling what form our the public affairs. The Repub- central idea, and around it all government will assume. lican party, in order to win, had his hopes centre. We happen They . are working radical sacrificed principle for policy, to know that the young men changes in our political and They were successful for a are not easily deceived by such industrial'systems, and in the while but their day of reckon- inducements as Price Mott & very thoughts and habits of Co., hold out to them. It is an our people. Their rapid growth,

The Democratic party is em- insult to the young men of the their great wealth, their trephatically a party of principles. State to say that they can be mendous power, their utility It has been held together nearly bought with office. They con- of action, and their success in a century, not by the "cohesive stitute a large portion of the ac- controlling legislations, have power of public plunder," but tive strength of the democratic alarmed the intelligent and by a steady devotion to a set of party, and we wish to say, as thoughtful, and brought into fixed principles. It has suffer- one of them, that they are not the field of active politics, an there for office; neither can antagonistic force, which is they be induced to leave it for every day extending its lines office or political preferment.-- as if preparing for an approach- Well as was said of the old They are there because, desir- ing struggle.

ing the welfare of their State It is an undeniable fact that Did not Nero fiddle while Rome and the honest administration of corporations have arisen to was burning. the affairs of government, there their present condition by an is no other place for them. They unscrupulous use of their are there for principle-for wealth and power-that they stand unflinchingly by the par-But the Sun correspondent ty which favors their designs, evidently sees some little rift subscribing liberally to its "corprinciple we cannot subscribe to in the cloud and gives us a lit- ruption fund," and making its that pleasing, though false, the encouragement as will be candidates their own. In every seen in the following :

State and National election "It will be in the power of their power is felt. They secure the democrats to give the coali- the best legal talent in the tion movement a lively fight, country to act as their agentsand with good ma agement, they control newspapers to Col. A. M. Waddell, a prominent awakening to the spirit of the mould public opinion, and even ligure in our State politics, ad- times, success for them is not Congressmen, it has been shown, vocating any such false theory; impossible. But the young take fees in their service while and progressive element must voting on measures affecting be recognized. Such a candi- their interests. The credit Mobilier scandal and the sense about the great virtue and con- be almost sure to lead them on of National degradation which sistency of standing up for to victory. Col. Staples is a its discovery occasioned, will "principle" even if we are de- true Jeffersonian Democrat, not be soon forgotten. But strange to say they still mainall of it. It is slush, and rot. paign speakers in the State.-- tain a like connection with cor-What the Democratic party has Men like him on the ticket porations fully as corrupt, and got to do first, is to get control would have much influence in legally exacting. Stockholders in national banks vote in Congress to increase the value of their stocks-Railroad stockholders and holders of stock in other corporations, cast their their property or multiply their Will the Democratic party privileges. Members of Concarry the next National elecgress are partners in manufaction? This is a question, which turing establishments, arrange gives $703.35 to the whites and every Democrat is inclined to tariff bills, so as to protect their $462.05 to the colored people as answer promptly in the affirown productions. In fact the the district now stands. If the mative. But looking deeper into the situation it will found government has been made a means, by which the people are law the fund for the colored that our reliance for success will be somewhat on luck and taxed for the benefit of corpor- people will be somewhat inaccidents, coupled with the ations. They are the embodi- creased, and that of the whites press. And with the disposition, peculiar to that section LIME, (fine).... and to the party to which the President belongs to imitate the manners and customs of MEAL (new). royalty, his "downsitting and FLOUR, per bbl. his uprising" his lunching, his su fishing and hunting experience MOLASSES, (cuba,) and hunting experice and his adventures by land and on the CHICKENS., PEAS, (cow). briny deep, have been published to the world. His impressions of Florida have been variously reported. By some correspondents he is represented to have been delighted with everything, fishes and 'gators included; by others it is said his aesthetic tastes were French King "Le Roi S'Amuse."

The Outlook.

A young lawyer, a son of Judge Staley, of Knoxville, Ky., shot himself because his sweetheart kicked him. Thus one more crank, has gone out into the great beyond. A man who would commit suicide, because a lady refused to marry him, has not the manhood sufficient to deserve the love of any woman. He may be talented and smart and all that but there is a screw loose in him somewhere and a sensible young woman would not care to link her fortune with his.

It seems from the present condition of the registration books and other information we have, as to the prospects of the Graded School bill, that there is actual danger of its defeat. It is not too late to insure the success of this great and useful measure, if the real friends of the school will exert themselves, and remember that it is important that every man should do his duty by his counvotes to increase the value of try, in behalf of civilization, whether he has children or not.

> The general school fund Graded School bill becomes a

Have established a General In-

Notice.