

Guy's Gin—James Gay. Dyspepsia—E. R. Lockwith. Iron Front—J. & D. Oettinger. Great Excitement—L. Edwards.

Cotton 9 cents. Feeder next week.

The telegraph line to Snow Hill has been completed.

Mr. M. T. Moore has moved to the Sugar Hill on Snow Hill.

Mr. W. J. Canehevell is preparing to build next to Dr. Moore's.

Warren court in session this week. Our Mr. Hardy is on hand.

Talented Tom Battle is to address the Tarboro Guild, September 12th.

A fish fair to be held at Beaufort or New Bern is talked of by dealers.

Mr. H. G. Whitehead is going to improve his residence on Nash street.

It is said to be a fixed fact that Snow Hill is to have a Graded School. Good!

Mr. J. C. Higgins has purchased Mr. J. T. Battle's residence on Goldsboro street.

From a private letter we learn that the prospects for Trinity College are very bright.

Dossey Battle, we surmise, will be editor of the Rocky Mount "Reporter" within a month.

Mr. J. A. Duvall is building himself a brick residence on the corner of Spring and Barnes street.

What makes it to have a newspaper called the "Journal"? Its editor will soon be a millionaire.

The Beaufort "Telephone" has entered its third volume, with bright prospects. May it live long and prosper.

The County Commissioners met Monday. They will hold another meeting at the poor house next Monday.

Mr. J. T. Wiggins has bought Mr. A. P. Simpson's stock of goods. He will continue the business at Mr. Simpson's stand.

The Wilson Collegiate Institute opened Monday with a good attendance. The prospects for a full school are flattering.

Prof. G. M. Lindsey has resigned his position as First Assistant in the Graded School. His successor has not yet been elected.

The Mutual Savings Association will hold a meeting in the Court House next Thursday night. Every member is expected to be present.

The Exchange Hotel, next to the Court House, which has just been opened by Mrs. F. L. Finch, was a popular place this week. It is a well kept hotel.

Our young friends, W. W. Hargrave and H. H. Hutchinson have been appointed marshals at the State Fair. Better selections could not have been made.

Mr. J. P. Bizzett, of Nash who bought a bale of cotton to town Saturday, says he wants to give the farmers a receipt for prosperity—it is "plop deep." Good advice.

E. Nash, J. R. Mercer and W. H. Powell have been elected presiding officers of Edgecombe Inferior Court. Frank Powell Clerk, and Thos. H. Battle, Esq., Solicitor. Good officers!

The Rocky Mount "Reporter" says that Mr. J. T. White has bought the interest of B. D. Armstrong in the firm of Armstrong & Gupin, and that the firm name now is Webb & Gupin.

Mr. Dossey Battle has withdrawn from the "Guide" and moved to Rocky Mount to practice law. He will do well there and will be among an appreciative people. We are glad to welcome him to Nash.

A certain young gent who was asked to be a marshal at a neighboring fair was conceited enough to write: "I am very sorry I can't stand it. I wouldn't feel right. The girls will miss me and want dead, but probably they deserve some such compliment."

Rev. C. A. Jenkins, the new pastor of the Wilson Methodist Baptist church, has just closed a meeting at Warsaw which resulted in eight accessions to the church. "The Biblical Recorder" says, "He is destined to become one of the great preachers of North Carolina."

The first bale of new cotton was brought to Wilson last Friday. It was raised by Mr. S. R. Moore, of this county, and was sold to Rousey, Barnes & Co. at 91. Its weight was 500 pounds and it classed strict low middling. It was raised on J. W. Cherry's farm.

Persons living at money order offices can now send an amount up to five dollars for three cents. This will enable our subscribers to remit the amount due at little expense. We hope they will make liberal use of this new way of sending money.

A colored boy on J. D. Wells' place six miles from Tolson, met with a painful accident Wednesday. The gin gearing was being removed and the cog wheel fell on the boy breaking his thigh. Dr. E. G. Moore was called in and the boy is now doing well.

From the report of Register Barnes to the Secretary of State we glean that there are 220,116 acres of land in Wilson county, valued at $1,431,213. The personal property in the county is valued at $1,212,282, and the town lots are valued at $541,272.

The unprovoked and uncharitable attack made upon the editor of this paper by Elder Moses T. Moseley, the Wilson correspondent, in the last issue of the "Telegraph," scarcely merits a reply. The head and front of our offending item from the Wilmington "Star" in which the Rev. W. L. Moseley is said to have been a member of the Campbellite church. We see from the Wilmington "Star" that Rev. W. L. Moseley, a fine looking man, aged 40, has been the pastor at Elkton, S. C. He thus out to be a swindler and a con artist from the Iowa penitentiary. He swindled one of his members at Elkton. Moseley has given leg bail. We understand that he is the same man who made Wilson his home about seven years ago. This "Star" contains an account of an insult to the body of christian people who are sometimes called by this name. He thinks we were "moved a long way from christian charity," when we quoted the above item from the "Star," where a large and well-selected stock of goods. See his advertisement. L. Edwards has returned home with a mammoth stock of goods. See his attractive advertisement. Judge Geo. V. Strong, Hon. W. T. Dorch, and Esq. B. H. Bunn, F. A. Daniels, W. J. Daughtey, John W. Blount, E. T. Boykin, E. W. Pow, in addition to our local bar, attended to the legal business of court this week. G. M. Bell, of Rocky Mount, was in town this week. Miss Mollie R. Goodloe, of the Rocky Mount Graded School, is to take charge of Oak Hill Seminary at Asheville. She is an accomplished lady and superior teacher. We regret that our popular telegraph operator, Will. Cantwell, is still sick. Mr. Jeffries, of Fremont, is in his place. He is improving now and we hope soon to see him all right again. Miss Mattie Kinney, returned home Monday. Our popular and handsome young druggist, W. W. Hargrave, has been appointed a delegate to the National Pharmaceutical Convention at Washington, D. C. He will leave to-day to be present. Dr. G. M. Bell, of Franklin, has been in town this week shaking hands with his many friends. Miss Lou Daniel left Saturday to take her place as music teacher in La Grange Academy. Col. W. E. Green, President of the Representative and upright citizen, was in town this week. Fitzgerald, of the "Reporter," Hobgood, of the "Home," and Johnston, of the "Messenger," snuffed on this week. James C. Taylor, of the "News-Observer," was conspicuous by his absence. Senator Jas. S. Battle is in town. Aug. Belsmeyer has returned from a business trip to Washington, Greenville and Toronto. Mr. Buck Carter of Nash, has returned to Philadelphia to his drug business.

On Friday night last as the Northern bound train, which leaves Wilson at 11:40, was passing Old Jones, a brick was thrown in the car window. It happened that a gentleman on the train had, not two minutes before the throwing of the brick, moved from the window which was broken by the brick. Had he not moved at that exact time he would have received a painful if not serious blow. The rascal, whoever he is, ought to be captured and severely punished.

It was our pleasure to attend Mr. J. H. Lee's school exhibition, one mile from Barcott's mill, last Friday. There was a large crowd present—estimated at 400—and the exercises were pleasant and profitable. We regret that we have not space for the well-chosen and well-rendered programme. Mr. Lee has consented to conduct a subscription school until December. He is an energetic teacher and inspires his pupils with a desire to learn. Superintendent of Schools Murray is present and was much pleased with the exhibition and is loud in his praise of both teacher and pupils.

Mr. Rountree Watson of this county has some ideas on the subject of the duties of overseers of the public roads which deserve the respectful attention of the overseers of the roads elsewhere. Mr. Watson, believing that he had been appointed overseer, proceeded to summon hands to work the road, and finding one of them refractory and disposed to disobey his orders, he resorted to a violent and highly effective mode of discipline so strongly recommended by Solomon. The disobedient hand received a good whipping and he and the supposed overseer were tried in the Superior Court this week for an offence of not guilty to the roads elsewhere. Mr. Watson, entered as both defendant and witness having testified that the pretended appointment of Watson was a joke and that he had a bona fide belief in his authority and his right to enforce obedience by a resort to the corrective rod.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN? The last issue of the Durham "Recorder," edited by handsome E. C. Hackney, contains the following: "The senior editor is in luck. He received the pictures of two box snails, hailing from Wilson, N. C. last week, with a request to make a selection if either suited. One weighed 17 years, weight 150, the other was 20, weight 130. We will have to give brother Joe Daniels credit for this piece of luck."

We beg to be excused from receiving the last issue of Wilson's "Black and White." We know nothing of the transaction, and are loath to believe any of our losses would make so unkindly a request, of even so handsome and captivating a young man as brother Hackney.

BAILEY'S TOWNSHIP. Nash county, was the scene of another old fashioned runaway match on Sunday, August 24th. The parties were Pharaoh Norton and Polly Eatman. Z. R. Bizzett, Esq., helped the young party onward in their journey by putting their head under the matrimonial noose. The marriage took place in the forest—God's own temple—with the sky for a roof and mother earth for the floor.

In the same township, September 1st, another couple ran away from the folk and were joined together for better or for worse, and will henceforth pull together in a double harness. Taylor Eatman, Esq., was the officiating justice. It seems that runaway matches are getting to be fashionable in "Old Nash."

GRADED SCHOOL AT FAISONS. The enterprising little town of Faisons, Duplin county, has established a Graded School. From a private letter from a friend we glean that on September 1st, the tax payers met and elected the following board of trustees: Col. Wm. E. Hill, J. S. Westbrook, James F. Shine, Jesse Watkins, and Isham Taylor. At a meeting of the board Col. Hill was elected President, J. S. Westbrook, Sec. and Treas., and Mr. Peter McIntire, of Canada, the principal. The school opened last Monday with sixty scholars. Prospects are good for 100. The school is now supported by private subscription, but a petition to vote for a tax will be presented to the board of County Commissioners. It is expected to run the school under the provisions of the Durham bill. The people of that progressive community are anxious to have a good school and, better than that, they are able to support it. Old Duplin is a good county and its inhabitants are a hospitable and high-toned people. We see from the report of the educational interests of the whole county a boom.

ELDER MOSES T. MOSELEY. CENSOR OF THE TOWN OF WILSON. The unprovoked and uncharitable attack made upon the editor of this paper by Elder Moses T. Moseley, the Wilson correspondent, in the last issue of the "Telegraph," scarcely merits a reply. The head and front of our offending item from the Wilmington "Star" in which the Rev. W. L. Moseley is said to have been a member of the Campbellite church. We see from the Wilmington "Star" that Rev. W. L. Moseley, a fine looking man, aged 40, has been the pastor at Elkton, S. C. He thus out to be a swindler and a con artist from the Iowa penitentiary. He swindled one of his members at Elkton. Moseley has given leg bail. We understand that he is the same man who made Wilson his home about seven years ago. This "Star" contains an account of an insult to the body of christian people who are sometimes called by this name. He thinks we were "moved a long way from christian charity," when we quoted the above item from the "Star," where a large and well-selected stock of goods. See his advertisement. L. Edwards has returned home with a mammoth stock of goods. See his attractive advertisement. Judge Geo. V. Strong, Hon. W. T. Dorch, and Esq. B. H. Bunn, F. A. Daniels, W. J. Daughtey, John W. Blount, E. T. Boykin, E. W. Pow, in addition to our local bar, attended to the legal business of court this week. G. M. Bell, of Rocky Mount, was in town this week. Miss Mollie R. Goodloe, of the Rocky Mount Graded School, is to take charge of Oak Hill Seminary at Asheville. She is an accomplished lady and superior teacher. We regret that our popular telegraph operator, Will. Cantwell, is still sick. Mr. Jeffries, of Fremont, is in his place. He is improving now and we hope soon to see him all right again. Miss Mattie Kinney, returned home Monday. Our popular and handsome young druggist, W. W. Hargrave, has been appointed a delegate to the National Pharmaceutical Convention at Washington, D. C. He will leave to-day to be present. Dr. G. M. Bell, of Franklin, has been in town this week shaking hands with his many friends. Miss Lou Daniel left Saturday to take her place as music teacher in La Grange Academy. Col. W. E. Green, President of the Representative and upright citizen, was in town this week. Fitzgerald, of the "Reporter," Hobgood, of the "Home," and Johnston, of the "Messenger," snuffed on this week. James C. Taylor, of the "News-Observer," was conspicuous by his absence. Senator Jas. S. Battle is in town. Aug. Belsmeyer has returned from a business trip to Washington, Greenville and Toronto. Mr. Buck Carter of Nash, has returned to Philadelphia to his drug business.

On Friday night last as the Northern bound train, which leaves Wilson at 11:40, was passing Old Jones, a brick was thrown in the car window. It happened that a gentleman on the train had, not two minutes before the throwing of the brick, moved from the window which was broken by the brick. Had he not moved at that exact time he would have received a painful if not serious blow. The rascal, whoever he is, ought to be captured and severely punished.

It was our pleasure to attend Mr. J. H. Lee's school exhibition, one mile from Barcott's mill, last Friday. There was a large crowd present—estimated at 400—and the exercises were pleasant and profitable. We regret that we have not space for the well-chosen and well-rendered programme. Mr. Lee has consented to conduct a subscription school until December. He is an energetic teacher and inspires his pupils with a desire to learn. Superintendent of Schools Murray is present and was much pleased with the exhibition and is loud in his praise of both teacher and pupils.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN? The last issue of the Durham "Recorder," edited by handsome E. C. Hackney, contains the following: "The senior editor is in luck. He received the pictures of two box snails, hailing from Wilson, N. C. last week, with a request to make a selection if either suited. One weighed 17 years, weight 150, the other was 20, weight 130. We will have to give brother Joe Daniels credit for this piece of luck."

We beg to be excused from receiving the last issue of Wilson's "Black and White." We know nothing of the transaction, and are loath to believe any of our losses would make so unkindly a request, of even so handsome and captivating a young man as brother Hackney.

BAILEY'S TOWNSHIP. Nash county, was the scene of another old fashioned runaway match on Sunday, August 24th. The parties were Pharaoh Norton and Polly Eatman. Z. R. Bizzett, Esq., helped the young party onward in their journey by putting their head under the matrimonial noose. The marriage took place in the forest—God's own temple—with the sky for a roof and mother earth for the floor.

In the same township, September 1st, another couple ran away from the folk and were joined together for better or for worse, and will henceforth pull together in a double harness. Taylor Eatman, Esq., was the officiating justice. It seems that runaway matches are getting to be fashionable in "Old Nash."

GRADED SCHOOL AT FAISONS. The enterprising little town of Faisons, Duplin county, has established a Graded School. From a private letter from a friend we glean that on September 1st, the tax payers met and elected the following board of trustees: Col. Wm. E. Hill, J. S. Westbrook, James F. Shine, Jesse Watkins, and Isham Taylor. At a meeting of the board Col. Hill was elected President, J. S. Westbrook, Sec. and Treas., and Mr. Peter McIntire, of Canada, the principal. The school opened last Monday with sixty scholars. Prospects are good for 100. The school is now supported by private subscription, but a petition to vote for a tax will be presented to the board of County Commissioners. It is expected to run the school under the provisions of the Durham bill. The people of that progressive community are anxious to have a good school and, better than that, they are able to support it. Old Duplin is a good county and its inhabitants are a hospitable and high-toned people. We see from the report of the educational interests of the whole county a boom.

ELDER MOSES T. MOSELEY. CENSOR OF THE TOWN OF WILSON. The unprovoked and uncharitable attack made upon the editor of this paper by Elder Moses T. Moseley, the Wilson correspondent, in the last issue of the "Telegraph," scarcely merits a reply. The head and front of our offending item from the Wilmington "Star" in which the Rev. W. L. Moseley is said to have been a member of the Campbellite church. We see from the Wilmington "Star" that Rev. W. L. Moseley, a fine looking man, aged 40, has been the pastor at Elkton, S. C. He thus out to be a swindler and a con artist from the Iowa penitentiary. He swindled one of his members at Elkton. Moseley has given leg bail. We understand that he is the same man who made Wilson his home about seven years ago. This "Star" contains an account of an insult to the body of christian people who are sometimes called by this name. He thinks we were "moved a long way from christian charity," when we quoted the above item from the "Star," where a large and well-selected stock of goods. See his advertisement. L. Edwards has returned home with a mammoth stock of goods. See his attractive advertisement. Judge Geo. V. Strong, Hon. W. T. Dorch, and Esq. B. H. Bunn, F. A. Daniels, W. J. Daughtey, John W. Blount, E. T. Boykin, E. W. Pow, in addition to our local bar, attended to the legal business of court this week. G. M. Bell, of Rocky Mount, was in town this week. Miss Mollie R. Goodloe, of the Rocky Mount Graded School, is to take charge of Oak Hill Seminary at Asheville. She is an accomplished lady and superior teacher. We regret that our popular telegraph operator, Will. Cantwell, is still sick. Mr. Jeffries, of Fremont, is in his place. He is improving now and we hope soon to see him all right again. Miss Mattie Kinney, returned home Monday. Our popular and handsome young druggist, W. W. Hargrave, has been appointed a delegate to the National Pharmaceutical Convention at Washington, D. C. He will leave to-day to be present. Dr. G. M. Bell, of Franklin, has been in town this week shaking hands with his many friends. Miss Lou Daniel left Saturday to take her place as music teacher in La Grange Academy. Col. W. E. Green, President of the Representative and upright citizen, was in town this week. Fitzgerald, of the "Reporter," Hobgood, of the "Home," and Johnston, of the "Messenger," snuffed on this week. James C. Taylor, of the "News-Observer," was conspicuous by his absence. Senator Jas. S. Battle is in town. Aug. Belsmeyer has returned from a business trip to Washington, Greenville and Toronto. Mr. Buck Carter of Nash, has returned to Philadelphia to his drug business.

On Friday night last as the Northern bound train, which leaves Wilson at 11:40, was passing Old Jones, a brick was thrown in the car window. It happened that a gentleman on the train had, not two minutes before the throwing of the brick, moved from the window which was broken by the brick. Had he not moved at that exact time he would have received a painful if not serious blow. The rascal, whoever he is, ought to be captured and severely punished.

It was our pleasure to attend Mr. J. H. Lee's school exhibition, one mile from Barcott's mill, last Friday. There was a large crowd present—estimated at 400—and the exercises were pleasant and profitable. We regret that we have not space for the well-chosen and well-rendered programme. Mr. Lee has consented to conduct a subscription school until December. He is an energetic teacher and inspires his pupils with a desire to learn. Superintendent of Schools Murray is present and was much pleased with the exhibition and is loud in his praise of both teacher and pupils.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN? The last issue of the Durham "Recorder," edited by handsome E. C. Hackney, contains the following: "The senior editor is in luck. He received the pictures of two box snails, hailing from Wilson, N. C. last week, with a request to make a selection if either suited. One weighed 17 years, weight 150, the other was 20, weight 130. We will have to give brother Joe Daniels credit for this piece of luck."

We beg to be excused from receiving the last issue of Wilson's "Black and White." We know nothing of the transaction, and are loath to believe any of our losses would make so unkindly a request, of even so handsome and captivating a young man as brother Hackney.

BAILEY'S TOWNSHIP. Nash county, was the scene of another old fashioned runaway match on Sunday, August 24th. The parties were Pharaoh Norton and Polly Eatman. Z. R. Bizzett, Esq., helped the young party onward in their journey by putting their head under the matrimonial noose. The marriage took place in the forest—God's own temple—with the sky for a roof and mother earth for the floor.

In the same township, September 1st, another couple ran away from the folk and were joined together for better or for worse, and will henceforth pull together in a double harness. Taylor Eatman, Esq., was the officiating justice. It seems that runaway matches are getting to be fashionable in "Old Nash."

GRADED SCHOOL AT FAISONS. The enterprising little town of Faisons, Duplin county, has established a Graded School. From a private letter from a friend we glean that on September 1st, the tax payers met and elected the following board of trustees: Col. Wm. E. Hill, J. S. Westbrook, James F. Shine, Jesse Watkins, and Isham Taylor. At a meeting of the board Col. Hill was elected President, J. S. Westbrook, Sec. and Treas., and Mr. Peter McIntire, of Canada, the principal. The school opened last Monday with sixty scholars. Prospects are good for 100. The school is now supported by private subscription, but a petition to vote for a tax will be presented to the board of County Commissioners. It is expected to run the school under the provisions of the Durham bill. The people of that progressive community are anxious to have a good school and, better than that, they are able to support it. Old Duplin is a good county and its inhabitants are a hospitable and high-toned people. We see from the report of the educational interests of the whole county a boom.

ELDER MOSES T. MOSELEY. CENSOR OF THE TOWN OF WILSON. The unprovoked and uncharitable attack made upon the editor of this paper by Elder Moses T. Moseley, the Wilson correspondent, in the last issue of the "Telegraph," scarcely merits a reply. The head and front of our offending item from the Wilmington "Star" in which the Rev. W. L. Moseley is said to have been a member of the Campbellite church. We see from the Wilmington "Star" that Rev. W. L. Moseley, a fine looking man, aged 40, has been the pastor at Elkton, S. C. He thus out to be a swindler and a con artist from the Iowa penitentiary. He swindled one of his members at Elkton. Moseley has given leg bail. We understand that he is the same man who made Wilson his home about seven years ago. This "Star" contains an account of an insult to the body of christian people who are sometimes called by this name. He thinks we were "moved a long way from christian charity," when we quoted the above item from the "Star," where a large and well-selected stock of goods. See his advertisement. L. Edwards has returned home with a mammoth stock of goods. See his attractive advertisement. Judge Geo. V. Strong, Hon. W. T. Dorch, and Esq. B. H. Bunn, F. A. Daniels, W. J. Daughtey, John W. Blount, E. T. Boykin, E. W. Pow, in addition to our local bar, attended to the legal business of court this week. G. M. Bell, of Rocky Mount, was in town this week. Miss Mollie R. Goodloe, of the Rocky Mount Graded School, is to take charge of Oak Hill Seminary at Asheville. She is an accomplished lady and superior teacher. We regret that our popular telegraph operator, Will. Cantwell, is still sick. Mr. Jeffries, of Fremont, is in his place. He is improving now and we hope soon to see him all right again. Miss Mattie Kinney, returned home Monday. Our popular and handsome young druggist, W. W. Hargrave, has been appointed a delegate to the National Pharmaceutical Convention at Washington, D. C. He will leave to-day to be present. Dr. G. M. Bell, of Franklin, has been in town this week shaking hands with his many friends. Miss Lou Daniel left Saturday to take her place as music teacher in La Grange Academy. Col. W. E. Green, President of the Representative and upright citizen, was in town this week. Fitzgerald, of the "Reporter," Hobgood, of the "Home," and Johnston, of the "Messenger," snuffed on this week. James C. Taylor, of the "News-Observer," was conspicuous by his absence. Senator Jas. S. Battle is in town. Aug. Belsmeyer has returned from a business trip to Washington, Greenville and Toronto. Mr. Buck Carter of Nash, has returned to Philadelphia to his drug business.

On Friday night last as the Northern bound train, which leaves Wilson at 11:40, was passing Old Jones, a brick was thrown in the car window. It happened that a gentleman on the train had, not two minutes before the throwing of the brick, moved from the window which was broken by the brick. Had he not moved at that exact time he would have received a painful if not serious blow. The rascal, whoever he is, ought to be captured and severely punished.

It was our pleasure to attend Mr. J. H. Lee's school exhibition, one mile from Barcott's mill, last Friday. There was a large crowd present—estimated at 400—and the exercises were pleasant and profitable. We regret that we have not space for the well-chosen and well-rendered programme. Mr. Lee has consented to conduct a subscription school until December. He is an energetic teacher and inspires his pupils with a desire to learn. Superintendent of Schools Murray is present and was much pleased with the exhibition and is loud in his praise of both teacher and pupils.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN? The last issue of the Durham "Recorder," edited by handsome E. C. Hackney, contains the following: "The senior editor is in luck. He received the pictures of two box snails, hailing from Wilson, N. C. last week, with a request to make a selection if either suited. One weighed 17 years, weight 150, the other was 20, weight 130. We will have to give brother Joe Daniels credit for this piece of luck."

We beg to be excused from receiving the last issue of Wilson's "Black and White." We know nothing of the transaction, and are loath to believe any of our losses would make so unkindly a request, of even so handsome and captivating a young man as brother Hackney.

BAILEY'S TOWNSHIP. Nash county, was the scene of another old fashioned runaway match on Sunday, August 24th. The parties were Pharaoh Norton and Polly Eatman. Z. R. Bizzett, Esq., helped the young party onward in their journey by putting their head under the matrimonial noose. The marriage took place in the forest—God's own temple—with the sky for a roof and mother earth for the floor.

In the same township, September 1st, another couple ran away from the folk and were joined together for better or for worse, and will henceforth pull together in a double harness. Taylor Eatman, Esq., was the officiating justice. It seems that runaway matches are getting to be fashionable in "Old Nash."

GRADED SCHOOL AT FAISONS. The enterprising little town of Faisons, Duplin county, has established a Graded School. From a private letter from a friend we glean that on September 1st, the tax payers met and elected the following board of trustees: Col. Wm. E. Hill, J. S. Westbrook, James F. Shine, Jesse Watkins, and Isham Taylor. At a meeting of the board Col. Hill was elected President, J. S. Westbrook, Sec. and Treas., and Mr. Peter McIntire, of Canada, the principal. The school opened last Monday with sixty scholars. Prospects are good for 100. The school is now supported by private subscription, but a petition to vote for a tax will be presented to the board of County Commissioners. It is expected to run the school under the provisions of the Durham bill. The people of that progressive community are anxious to have a good school and, better than that, they are able to support it. Old Duplin is a good county and its inhabitants are a hospitable and high-toned people. We see from the report of the educational interests of the whole county a boom.

ELDER MOSES T. MOSELEY. CENSOR OF THE TOWN OF WILSON. The unprovoked and uncharitable attack made upon the editor of this paper by Elder Moses T. Moseley, the Wilson correspondent, in the last issue of the "Telegraph," scarcely merits a reply. The head and front of our offending item from the Wilmington "Star" in which the Rev. W. L. Moseley is said to have been a member of the Campbellite church. We see from the Wilmington "Star" that Rev. W. L. Moseley, a fine looking man, aged 40, has been the pastor at Elkton, S. C. He thus out to be a swindler and a con artist from the Iowa penitentiary. He swindled one of his members at Elkton. Moseley has given leg bail. We understand that he is the same man who made Wilson his home about seven years ago. This "Star" contains an account of an insult to the body of christian people who are sometimes called by this name. He thinks we were "moved a long way from christian charity," when we quoted the above item from the "Star," where a large and well-selected stock of goods. See his advertisement. L. Edwards has returned home with a mammoth stock of goods. See his attractive advertisement. Judge Geo. V. Strong, Hon. W. T. Dorch, and Esq. B. H. Bunn, F. A. Daniels, W. J. Daughtey, John W. Blount, E. T. Boykin, E. W. Pow, in addition to our local bar, attended to the legal business of court this week. G. M. Bell, of Rocky Mount, was in town this week. Miss Mollie R. Goodloe, of the Rocky Mount Graded School, is to take charge of Oak Hill Seminary at Asheville. She is an accomplished lady and superior teacher. We regret that our popular telegraph operator, Will. Cantwell, is still sick. Mr. Jeffries, of Fremont, is in his place. He is improving now and we hope soon to see him all right again. Miss Mattie Kinney, returned home Monday. Our popular and handsome young druggist, W. W. Hargrave, has been appointed a delegate to the National Pharmaceutical Convention at Washington, D. C. He will leave to-day to be present. Dr. G. M. Bell, of Franklin, has been in town this week shaking hands with his many friends. Miss Lou Daniel left Saturday to take her place as music teacher in La Grange Academy. Col. W. E. Green, President of the Representative and upright citizen, was in town this week. Fitzgerald, of the "Reporter," Hobgood, of the "Home," and Johnston, of the "Messenger," snuffed on this week. James C. Taylor, of the "News-Observer," was conspicuous by his absence. Senator Jas. S. Battle is in town. Aug. Belsmeyer has returned from a business trip to Washington, Greenville and Toronto. Mr. Buck Carter of Nash, has returned to Philadelphia to his drug business.

On Friday night last as the Northern bound train, which leaves Wilson at 11:40, was passing Old Jones, a brick was thrown in the car window. It happened that a gentleman on the train had, not two minutes before the throwing of the brick, moved from the window which was broken by the brick. Had he not moved at that exact time he would have received a painful if not serious blow. The rascal, whoever he is, ought to be captured and severely punished.

It was our pleasure to attend Mr. J. H. Lee's school exhibition, one mile from Barcott's mill, last Friday. There was a large crowd present—estimated at 400—and the exercises were pleasant and profitable. We regret that we have not space for the well-chosen and well-rendered programme. Mr. Lee has consented to conduct a subscription school until December. He is an energetic teacher and inspires his pupils with a desire to learn. Superintendent of Schools Murray is present and was much pleased with the exhibition and is loud in his praise of both teacher and pupils.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN? The last issue of the Durham "Recorder," edited by handsome E. C. Hackney, contains the following: "The senior editor is in luck. He received the pictures of two box snails, hailing from Wilson, N. C. last week, with a request to make a selection if either suited. One weighed 17 years, weight 150, the other was 20, weight 130. We will have to give brother Joe Daniels credit for this piece of luck."

We beg to be excused from receiving the last issue of Wilson's "Black and White." We know nothing of the transaction, and are loath to believe any of our losses would make so unkindly a request, of even so handsome and captivating a young man as brother Hackney.

BAILEY'S TOWNSHIP. Nash county, was the scene of another old fashioned runaway match on Sunday, August 24th. The parties were Pharaoh Norton and Polly Eatman. Z. R. Bizzett, Esq., helped the young party onward in their journey by putting their head under the matrimonial noose. The marriage took place in the forest—God's own temple—with the sky for a roof and mother earth for the floor.

In the same township, September 1st, another couple ran away from the folk and were joined together for better or for worse, and will henceforth pull together in a double harness. Taylor Eatman, Esq., was the officiating justice. It seems that runaway matches are getting to be fashionable in "Old Nash."

GRADED SCHOOL AT FAISONS. The enterprising little town of Faisons, Duplin county, has established a Graded School. From a private letter from a friend we glean that on September 1st, the tax payers met and elected the following board of trustees: Col. Wm. E. Hill, J. S. Westbrook, James F. Shine, Jesse Watkins, and Isham Taylor. At a meeting of the board Col. Hill was elected President, J. S. Westbrook, Sec. and Treas., and Mr. Peter McIntire, of Canada, the principal. The school opened last Monday with sixty scholars. Prospects are good for 100. The school is now supported by private subscription, but a petition to vote for a tax will be presented to the board of County Commissioners. It is expected to run the school under the provisions of the Durham bill. The people of that progressive community are anxious to have a good school and, better than that, they are able to support it. Old Duplin is a good county and its inhabitants are a hospitable and high-toned people. We see from the report of the educational interests of the whole county a boom.

ELDER MOSES T. MOSELEY. CENSOR OF THE TOWN OF WILSON. The unprovoked and uncharitable attack made upon the editor of this paper by Elder Moses T. Moseley, the Wilson correspondent, in the last issue of the "Telegraph," scarcely merits a reply. The head and front of our offending item from the Wilmington "Star" in which the Rev. W. L. Moseley is said to have been a member of the Campbellite church. We see from the Wilmington "Star" that Rev. W. L. Moseley, a fine looking man, aged 40, has been the pastor at Elkton, S. C. He thus out to be a swindler and a con artist from the Iowa penitentiary. He swindled one of his members at Elkton. Moseley has given leg bail. We understand that he is the same man who made Wilson his home about seven years ago. This "Star" contains an account of an insult to the body of christian people who are sometimes called by this name. He thinks we were "moved a long way from christian charity," when we quoted the above item from the "Star," where a large and well-selected stock of goods. See his advertisement. L. Edwards has returned home with a mammoth stock of goods. See his attractive advertisement. Judge Geo. V. Strong, Hon. W. T. Dorch, and Esq. B. H. Bunn, F. A. Daniels, W. J. Daughtey, John W. Blount, E. T. Boykin, E. W. Pow, in addition to our local bar, attended to the legal business of court this week. G. M. Bell, of Rocky Mount, was in town this week. Miss Mollie R. Goodloe, of the Rocky Mount Graded School, is to take charge of Oak Hill Seminary at Asheville. She is an accomplished lady and superior teacher. We regret that our popular telegraph operator, Will. Cantwell, is still sick. Mr. Jeffries, of Fremont, is in his place. He is improving now and we hope soon to see him all right again. Miss Mattie Kinney, returned home Monday. Our popular and handsome young druggist, W. W. Hargrave, has been appointed a delegate to the National Pharmaceutical Convention at Washington, D. C. He will leave to-day to be present. Dr. G. M. Bell, of Franklin, has been in town this week shaking hands with his many friends. Miss Lou Daniel left Saturday to take her place as music teacher in La Grange Academy. Col. W. E. Green, President of the Representative and upright citizen, was in town this week. Fitzgerald, of the "Reporter," Hobgood, of the "Home," and Johnston, of the "Messenger," snuffed on this week. James C. Taylor, of the "News-Observer," was conspicuous by his absence. Senator Jas. S. Battle is in town. Aug. Belsmeyer has returned from a business trip to Washington, Greenville and Toronto. Mr. Buck Carter of Nash, has returned to Philadelphia to his drug business.

On Friday night last as the Northern bound train, which leaves Wilson at 11:40, was passing Old Jones, a brick was thrown in the car window. It happened that a gentleman on the train had, not two minutes before the throwing of the brick, moved from the window which was broken by the brick. Had he not moved at that exact time he would have received a painful if not serious blow. The rascal, whoever he is, ought to be captured and severely punished.

It was our pleasure to attend Mr. J. H. Lee's school exhibition, one mile from Barcott's mill, last Friday. There was a large crowd present—estimated at 400—and the exercises were pleasant and profitable. We regret that we have not space for the well-chosen and well-rendered programme. Mr. Lee has consented to conduct a subscription school until December. He is an energetic teacher and inspires his pupils with a desire to learn. Superintendent of Schools Murray is present and was much pleased with the exhibition and is loud in his praise of both teacher and pupils.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN? The last issue of the Durham "Recorder," edited by handsome E. C. Hackney, contains the following: "The senior editor is in luck. He received the pictures of two box snails, hailing from Wilson,