

assisted in eating a fat pig, raw, at Loyalhanna, Pa., are bow dead. The others will probably die, eaten un alive by trichinge.

profitable. Mr. Edward Fashach, sionate mind that she is the direct from mortgage and cannot support of Raleigh, Las made money at it product of one, the continuance of themselves! The coming year will and others are turping their atten- which is imperatively demanded tell .-- Wilmington "Mail." tion in that direction. for posterity's sake. In her fully d in North Carolina. She was age of twenty-five years-she embodies many times more expenthe wife of flon. Edmund DeBerry and she voted at Mt. Gilead in diture and effort than the cheap labor products of European cradles. 1848, and voted the Whig ticket. The foreign girl should be taken

-The Philadelphia "Record" off the free list. Home industries wishes every woman in the country domand it. Where, is Mr. Bancould be made to understand that dallf - N. Y. "Herald." there is enough tariff in her Sunday dress to buy a new spring bonnet. A Woman Who Laced To Death.

You would not have the shoe nose. But all the saleswomen ural measure, and we used to rank ployer by the girl's mistress. The

Her fellow-servants declared that she would often tie one end of the

the best of sharp

strolling highway

ed the boodle car

of his yest, which eased his mind a

there's many a

rest; but alas! for

-Conkling represents the aristoeracy, Blaine the dash and intel-"But is it not this constant ten lect. Grant the selfishness and Lo | dency to tight laging," we asked, gan- the vulgarity of Republican an indirect but powerful argupolitics, says the Galvestern "News.' ment against corset wearing al-

-The Raleigh "Observer" is together" getting up gubernatorial timber. "Like Jeremiah's figs, leather discarded because numbers The good are very good indeed, of foolish persons are lame and de The bad too sour fo pigs."

form their feet through excessively -Tarboro has a free trade club, tight shoes, I suppose? Well, no The following are officers: Presimore should corsets be wholly indent, iIon. H. A. Gillam; Vice terdicted simply because many President, H. C. Bourne; Secretafoolish women lace themselves to ry, Frank Powell; Treasurer, II. death." Morris. "Have you ever known of such a

-Mrs. Sallie Harris, of Ruthercase ?" ford county, 70 years of age, tired "Yes. A handsome young wo of life and its cares and sorrows, man used to buy eighteen inch corhung herself on a recent morning sets of us a few years ago. She till she was dead, says the Shelby was lady's maid to one of our "Aurora." given to tight lacing, though no

-A young lady in Shelby fell into a well twenty feet deep and was for a slight discoloration of her that she saved her life, says the thought that eighteen was her nat-"Anyora."

her as the most stylish figure that -John S. Long Esq., of New came into the store. One morning Berre, is to deliver the annual ad- she was found dead in her bed s at King's Mountain Iligh with her corset, laced to the very ol, June 12th. In that moun-last notch, a victim to tight-lacing tail region he will soar aloft on the if there ever was one. The details wines of eloquence. were afterward given to our em-

-- It was John T. Howard, the st member of Plymouth Church, girl had long been in the habit of why rushed up and kissed Beecher keeping herself laced so tightly onhis return. Some men are born as scarcely to be able to breathe. lish and some men remain foolall the days of their lives.

laces to a staple in her bed room A New York professor of whis- wall, while seizing the other and ting knew what he was about when with both hands, and then, with he advertised that big months could, this tremendous purchase, struggle by a thorongia course of study, be and tug until the stays were drawn made small, pouting and kissable. up to the very last extremity But his school is besieged by ambitions this wasn't the worst of it, for she maidens, had actually been in the habit of sleeping with them on in this con-_The third annual musical convention of Va. and N. C. will be dition. The post mortem showed held at Petersburg, May 26th-29th, that the ribs were drawn so closely The convention will take strong together as to interlace, there being grounds in favor of having music, toward the last such insufficient its lower branches, taught in space for action of the heart and public schools. lungs as to have caused her untold agonies, which were, however, un-_North Carolina will get about $500,000 the first year from the had put an end to them."-Ex complainingly borne until death Government Education bill. After that it will be more for some years. Why he Went In. The third year it will get $1.118,-179. All this, provided the bill passes the House. -- It has been settled by the material? Not they! It may be taken as a class, continue to grow "Not much, old cove," the boy reurged that the tariff is for the poorer every lear as they are now protection of infant industries, of doing, where will the prosperity which the American is not one; come in? Gup towns and eities butcher, Cyrus Dow; but a duffer but it certainly should not be hard make money by trading with a set

-Sik culture is becoming more to convince any calm and dispas- of customers who are never free mare." The farmer laughed quite thought would surely stop there, hearty at the story Albert told > and said: "Now for a city lad you've been quite sharp and bold. As for that bad highwayman, ed over a big log and the buggy The Fly Yankee Boy.

you've served him very slick, for WITH SOME NOTES ABOUT A BRIN- you've playd him for a sucker by a thorough Yankee trick."Then the DLE COW, A HIGHWAYMAN, AND saddle bags were opened, and the A THRIFTY FARMER, DONE UP treasure was all told. There was to head and catch him he dodged IN RHYME.

just $1,000 in silver coin and gold So you want a story, children ! four revolvers, and a demijohn. sometimes on four wheels and Well, be quiet, and you shall hear The boy says: "Well, I swow! don't about a good old farmer man, who you think I got a good fair price in my hand and Mrs. Arp, my wife, lives in New Hampshire; but the for that old brindle cow?" Now, says that when she came to the boy-the farmer's hired hand. he had hid the swag in a couple of the whip a waving and looking for purey, better creation, and was Mr. Fair found himself annoyed be- guages conquered the French and This Boston boy was very fly- socks, he turned and said to Albert all the world like a ring master what some folls might call tough; while a tear stood in his eye: "My "Not at all," said the forewoman. he'd had his optic molars cut, and lad, I must admit that you have thought I was making the colt run was somewhat up to snuff; but yet been extremely fly; and, as you've round just for my own amusement. and honest, and sold my cow so well, I think I can Well there's no use in making a was squar wn to he; and his afford to give you for your services long story of it now, for what's was never ku ling was his greed a suitable reward. From this day only serious fi fle did his duty henceforth you shall have (or I'll tore that buggy all to pieces and fer pumpkin p y and quick; he know the reason why) at every nobly-was never tried to shirk his task by meal your belly full of good, fat or sick; he never pumpkin pie." playing lame grumbled at th hash nor the coffee MORAL. --which was

e-but he never This story, children, shows you ed with his share quite was satis The larmer loved how the man who lives by theft of pumpkin pie doth often miss his clever grip-in and worked him ask began at 5 a. m. other words, "gets left." It also there, very light (his t and ended-9 at night). Ilis name shows you how a boy, by being wealthiest customers and was was Albert, but for short, the old bold and fly, may get permit to one would have suspected it save didn't take much time and rhymed pie. onite well with work. One summer ----morn the old man rose at early A Marriage in Georgia. candle light and bellowed for his

Boston boy with all his power and Recently a runaway couple apmight. When Bert showed up the plied to a popular Justice of the farmer said, "Go drive the brindle Peace to be married. The J. P. cow to Concord. for I've sold her did not have any form of ceremony | for your | ride ?" to the butcher, Cyrus Dow. He'll with him and as time was precions ash: be sure you pay you $40 he proceded to tie the knot off hand. keep it hid, for I have heard thus: there's robbers round as bold as

"You, Gus Keelin, do solemly So keep your wits swear that to the best of your Capt. Kidd. and let your weath- knowledge an' belief you take this ter for rheumatism than riding," about you, lad. er eye be on the watch for rogues ver woman ter have and ter hold said I. and shappers, for they are awful for yerself, yer heirs, exekycrters, administrators, and assigns, for So Albert ate his morning meal your an' their use and behoof forof pork and pumpkin pie, and ever?" washed it down with coffee strong "I do," answered the groom. --with coffee made of rye-then "You, Anna Bowlin, take this he hoofed it down to Concord, with yer man for yer husband, to hey the lean old brindle cow, when he an' to hold forever; and you do soon caught on the man he sought further swear that you are lawfully -the butcher, Cyras Dow, The seized in fee-simple, are free from latter paid has for the cow four all incumbrance, and hev good right golden eagles bright, which Albert to sell, bargain and convey to the then proceeded to hide from mortal said grantee yerself, yer beirs, adsight, for, on his way to Concord. ministrators, and assigns?" he had studied upon a plan to get "I do," said the bride, rather ers and crooks or doubtfully. on. So he tuck-"Well, Gus," said the Squire, " the lining "that'll be about a dollo'n' fifty 6 racket cents."

happened to me for a hundred s fears at "Are we married?" asked the foresight other. dollars."

lip 'twixt "Not by a durned sight ye ain't, honest people's fingers and rogue's quoth the Justice, with emphasis; They were standing at the front dishonest grip. Just as Albert "but the fee comes in here." gate, "Won't you come in the par-lor and sit a little while, George, his vest a crook hat stopped out-duced and handed to the "Court," Mayor of Charlotte that it is worth dear?" "N-no, I guess not," replied side to take a chew of "Jackwood's who examined it to make sure 825 to curse one of the anointed. George, hesitatingly. "I wish you Best." Through the wintow his that it was all right, and then pock-the "Observer" says this is the would," the girl went on; "It's quick eye had seen the yellow etcd it, and continued:

according to instructions, to the tired and so I just stepped back for among other things, that he must ration Mrs. Fair took up her resi. Blodgett's X Roads. He taught other European nations. a moment to shut the gate and never get out of temper nor live dence in the elegant home belong- a writing school and played the As to the president al candidates even with the guy, I rode away his horse lot gate all right and I ty well for a man, I reckon, but it eldest son, took a foreign tour, and homestead under doubtful circumwouldent suit a woman at all. I on their retarn secured quarters at stances, and was heard of no more The following questions and an heard a smart old man say once a hotel here. but finding the gate shut he took that a woman who dident have In the meantime, the prospect fights at Possum Hollow, where he a little roundance and went sailing temper and show it now and then which a divorce suit in a family of won golden honors serving in the den too feeble to perform the duties down towards the spring and jumpwas no account, for while a man such enormous wealth opened up capacity of umpire. His career of president?" ought to be a philosopher and go had caused several attorneys and since that time is too well known jumped too for it was doing its according to reason, a woman others to take a hand in the matter, to require comment. If nominated now. That is a positive advantage. level best to keep up and then he wasent made that way. She is and this infinence was not calcu- he would very likely be defeated; No man was ever yet hurt by what took the grand rounds of the hlll full of emotions, and is bound to lated to allay the ill feeling. Mrs. but he would enjoy the canvass. he didn't say, and I say that withside grove and every time I tried show them. She is up and down- Fair filed a bill for divorce at Vir. -"Lexington Dispatch." now calm and now exerted - accord- ginia City on the 7th of last May. me and kept on with the buggy, ing to the circumstances. Her love The allegations caused something is stronger and her dislikes more of a sensation, and it was expected sometimes on two. I had the whip intense. She has more wonder and that a long trial would be the re ... Says Ruskin:-"What do you as president." curiosity, more tenderness and sult. Lawyers, detectives, and go- think the beautiful word "wife" story isn't all about the farmer nor the farmer owned a heart as big as back door to see what was the lears, more sympathy and rever betweens imagined that they had means! It is the great word in to commend Mr. Tilden as a presihis land, for if implicates a Boston Neighbor Brown's off ox. So after racket I was standing there with ence and hope. In fact, she is a lich picking within their grasp, and which the English and Latin lan dential candidate!"

> mother and the nurse of children. tions. "Her preatice hand she tries on man, And then she made the lasses."

I was talking to a nice young lady one day about woman's rights and she said that men and women done can't be helped. That colt both had too many rights now. and indulged themselves in some got away from it before he quit that dident belong to them. For trying. He run it against three instance, said she, a man has no trees and over four logs and left right to be a fool, and no woman the beautiful top in one place and has a right to be hemely. "But the wheels in another and the how can she help it ?" said I. shafts got bent backwards undera woman is born "ugly." as we call neath the running gear and I it, it surely is not ber fault." "Of can't tell to this day how they got course not," said she, but if she is born that way she musent stay I walked into the house and said that way. She can be good if she man called him Bert, because it gorge himself on Yankee pumpkin nothing for ten minutes and I wants to be, and she can be kind didn't want anybody to say any and entertaining, and that will thing to me. Mrs, Arp never said make any woman pretty on intinothing either but set down to her mate acquaintance. The homeliest sewing just as natural and sorter woman I ever knew was the most hummed a piece of a tune. After fascinating and attractive. And a spell she looked over at my side just so the biggest dunce of a man can keep from being a fool if he "It was a very pleasant evening tries to; at least he can be a silent out he was a fool."

rheumatism for you to take a ride Boy Or Man. "They say that walking is bet-

The story that a resident of a Georgia town has purchased from gave me such comfort about that first week of his contract he has gained five and a half pounds in vindictive dispatches as have gone weight, and he has expressed con- forth to the world. I am the man, every point in my power," It became painfully evident to worth of sweet potatoes, and that the lawyers and detectives that Mr. he has another hill that he put two

The capacity of the average ter was called in court at Virginia sell as well as those already sold. Well, it is not so bad as it might small boy for candy is said by the City, and after an hour's hearing he will realize in the neighborhood have been for I might have been best authorities to be eleven and a in it and had my wheels and my half pounds. A fall-grown girl is nounced that a decree would be acre. This beats cotton to death. body and my springs all tore up. known to have a capacity of nine It will cost about twenty dollars to pounds of caramels, which is equiv-

she will pick it up in the road or pounds of miscellaneous candy. get it somehow and that I musn't while no man, so far as is known, black rascal through and I thought versity. An old hattin poet thes stories were put in circulation con. is supposed to have been born tariff may provoke retahatory measplied, "I've sold your brindle cow, he was serene and knew he was to describe a perfect man, and says cerning the cause. After the sepa- when he was quite young, near ures on the part of England and collared all the dust, which I don't away he went like he was shot out above or below a certain line of ing to the family on Nob Hill, in accordeon from 1849 to 1859, he expressed the opinion that the think was square; so to make you of a gun. He run down to the calm serenity. That will do pret this city. The Senator, with his About that time he left the old nomination of Tilden would be wise until the year of the famons dog swers are given :

"And you do not believe Mr. Til-

"Well, they say be can't talk out the least hesitation. What we want in the presidential chair are men who think more and talk less. A man should have his tongue cut off when he enters the white house made so because she was to be a yond measure by their solicita- Greek. I hope the French will Tilden is so much in ill health that some day get a word for it instead he is practically uscless as a presi-Feeling that Mrs. Fair had been of that "femme." But what do you dential candidate. I tell yon, ill improperly influenced by some of think it comes from? The great health is another advantage her counsellors, the Senator deter- value of the Saxon words is that Mr. Tilden in ill health should be mined to make no contest of the they mean something. Wife means president, his infirmity would prove suit. In a card to the public he "weaver." You must either be a protection against the throngs of denied the allegations made in his house wives or honse mothes, re men who want something." wife's bill, and a day later (on the member that. In the deep sense

An Interview About Tilden.

th of May) he issued the follow- you must either weave men's for-The "World" this morning pub tunes and embroider them, or feed "I am the man, and I am willing upon and bring them to decay. lishes an interview on Tilden's to bear all the odium which the Wherever a true wife comes, home physical condition held with a public, in its ignorance of the real is always around her. The stars "prominent gentleman" known to acts, may choose to cast on me; may be over her head; the glow possess the most reliable knowledge but my regret is for my wife, whose worm in the night's cold grass may on the subject, as he is and has name has been improperly associa- be the fire at her feet, but home is been for many years Tilden's most ted and incorporated in dispatches where she is, and for a noble wo- intimate friend and constant assotransmitted all over the country. man it stretches far around her, ciate in his public as well as private Now, as always, my desire has been better than houses ceiled with ce affairs. At the gentleman's part c to do that which would contribute dar or painted with vermilion- ular request, his name is omitted. to the happiness of my wife and shedding its quiet light for those The gentleman says: "Tilden children. If I have in any way who else are homeless. This, I weighs between 125 and 130 pounds. failed, God knows it has not been belive, is the woman's true place I have known him 40 years. From the time he was 18 until he was 55, he never but once exceeded 125. pounds. He weighs as much now as the average since he grew to manhood The story that he takes or has been taking narcotics to inried a beautiful Chicago girl, and duce sleep is totally false. He has done so in no instance for years. Ky. In a few years Stephens went and never was in the habit of coing East to buy lond, but was not so. He is a remarkably good sleep heard from again. Last summer er; nor is he paralyzed on either the wife married again. On Mon- side. He has a rheumatic afferday Stephens returned. He did tion of some of the fingers on the left hand. He is sometimes subwife recognized him, threw her ject to tremor of the hands, but arms about him and kissed him. generally not sufficient to prevent his carrying a tumbler of water to his mouth, or to prevent his writing his signature, which he has occasion to do frequently every day. 1 happen to know, he was called upon in a trust to affix his signature 500 times, which he did the same day. His sense of hearing is uncommonly acute in both ears. He hears the slightest whisper. His eyes three-quarters of an acre $160 are something wonderful. He reads three to five hours every evening, besides what he does in the day Fair was not going to defend the hundred bushels in at housing time. He has a quick and erect walk and does not mind going up three or four flights of stairs. voice is feeble by reason of debility with closed doors the Judge an- of $250 from three-quarters of an of the vocal chords, which increases when he is fatigued. The medical men say that the tremor of the hands does not touch any vital ness of my family. If my wife one and then folks wouldent find thinks a separation will contribute to her further happiness, then her BILL ARP. mind and mine are alike. I have a confectioner for $12 the right to any mean or unmanly purpose. My

"Well, you will have a good chance for that now" said she; and eat unlimited candy for a month she laid down her work and laughwould be more interesting than it ed at me-and that's the way she is if the age of the purchaser had broke me of the pouting melanbeen specified. As the purchaser choly. And that's always the way is spoken of as "he," we may as-When I am distressed and low down she is all serene and lively but whether he is a man or a small and cheers me up. Fact is she boy we are not told. During the buggy business that I am almost sorter sore about that ring master fidence that he can eat two and a she is the woman, and in these rehalf pounds of candy on the twen- lations I will' shield her name at P. Exum tells us that he sold from tieth day. From this we may hazard the conjecture that he does not him. And Ralph said "goodness eat more than that amount daily, in which case he is certainly man.

case. On the 13th of May the mat- time. If these have not rotted, and children would be given into her repair the damage and she says she will pick it up in the road or pounds of miscellaneous candy. would pay to her in cash and Uni-ted States bonds $4,250,000, besides riving her title to the residence on N. Y., said : "I am not an advo

Now, as ever, I want that which will best contribute to the happi-An Enoch Arden Story. An exchange says, "Nine years ago a man named Stephens mar done nothing to merit the obloquy they began farm life near Milton, cast upon me. Those who best know me will tell you what my desires are. God has blessed me with wealth, and I have never used it for heart and hand have always been not intend to be known but the open to those in distress, and will continue to be to those who seek or require my help. I repeat that in The new husband stabbed the wife this matter with my wife, which in the neck killing her instantly. sume that he is of the male sex; has been made so public. I have Stephens drew a revolver and shot nothing to say in ther than that it the murderer, who turned and cut pains me to see her name and mine him across the neek. Both men associated with such dastardly and are fatally injured."

What "Wife" Means.

-Goldsboro "Bulletin": Dr. W.

prompted by a desire to do so. and power."

in a circus and she actually of the house and remarked:

"Uncommon." said I.

every evening," said she.

"I expect it will be good for your glad it happened. But still I am part of it and then again I overheard the children asking Ralph if he wasn't glad that it wasn't gracious I wouldn't have had it