

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY AT WILSON NORTH CAROLINA. BY JOSEPHUS DANIELS, Editor and Proprietor.

Subscription Rates in Advance. One Year $10.00 Six Months $6.00

NEWS OF A WEEK. GATHERED FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

ENCLOSURES—GLEANINGS. The scarlet fever prevails in...

The Dog Must Go. Many men of many minds...

The Dog Must Go. The writer of a letter to the...

Secretary of the Treasury. Secretary of the Treasury...

Stores of J. W. Gant and Richmond Lawrence were burned at...

Jeff Davis never has been at Asheville this summer. She was the recipient of much attention.

Countess Schlatka fell over a rocking chair in San Francisco...

Loss of the Presidency need not necessarily hurt Blaine out of business.

Over one hundred bushels of grass-hopper have been captured this summer...

Mr. Faneell's tobacco factory at Durham was destroyed by fire last week.

The Italian Government has been advised by its Consuls to prohibit the emigration of organists...

The first sermon preached in North Carolina, of which there is any record...

A man named Solomon Robbins at Wilmington Monday night, influenced by drink...

It will do no harm to try. We have been told that it watersmen with pump and unbroken skins...

W. T. Blackwell, of Durham, owns 100 nice residences and is going to build 187 new ones.

It is said that many laborers are engaged at Bazaar Roost, N. C., mining a white rock called "deception."

One of the most curious incidents in the history of American slavery in America...

In an enthusiastic and harmonious convention the Democrats of Wake nominated the following ticket...

Prospects of the canvass. We have made careful inquiries of well informed persons in several of the most important States...

THE WILSON ADVANCE.

"LET ALL THE ENDS THOU AIMST AT, BE THY COUNTRY'S, THY GOD'S, AND TRUTHS'."

WILSON, NORTH CAROLINA, SEPTEMBER 12, 1884.

---NUMBER 32

RATES OF ADVERTISING. One Line One Insertion $1.00 Two Insertions $1.75 Three Months $4.00 Six Months $7.00 One Year $12.00

POLITICAL POINTS.

WHAT THE POLITICIANS ARE TALKING ABOUT.

THE POLITICAL CALDRON.

The Republicans of the eighth district have nominated L. L. Green, of Watonga for congress...

Arthur has turned out Mrs. Atkinson as Postmistress at Georgetown, S. C. and put in a negro.

Old Ben Bolt, the great blundering, travels in a luxurious sleighing car hired for the occasion...

Maj. J. W. Daniel, the eloquent Virginian, is going to Ohio to do campaign work for Cleveland and Hendricks.

Our friend, Juo. R. Morris, of Goldsboro, goes for the Baltimore Herald for slandering Gen. Steeles...

Mr. George W. Charlotte, of Beaufort, who presided over the Republican convention that nominated Judge Pool for Congress last year...

The following county ticket was nominated in Beaufort: For the House, W. H. Patrick; For Sheriff, R. T. Hodges; For Register, Arthur Mayor; For Coroner, Wm. Baynor; For Surveyor, J. F. Lamhan Jr.

Alast. What perils do environ the new who meddles with cold war in a Maine correspondent of the New York Tribune says the Germans are opposing Mr. Blaine because he is a teetotaler...

Mrs. Belya A. Lockwood, of the Washington lawers, has been nominated for President by the Woman's National Equal Rights Party.

"The Smiths are a good race," said Rev. Mr. Anderson to about 3,000 men, women, and children...

"Let the politicians lead them," answered the writer. "The first equipment of a good legislator should be an accurate knowledge of the public wrongs and the method of remedying and redressing them."

No sane, reasoning, right-minded man will ever had any greater benefit to a country than sheep, much less that dogs should live at the expense of sheep.

Fail to give sheep industry relief and the result is cynichally expressed in a few lines.

The Old Hollow-Log Joke. "Tell these people what you are," he would say...

TOLD BY GEN. SCALES AT LENORE. "Tell these people what you are," he would say...

The Democrats of Sampson county, at their convention on Thursday, nominated E. T. Boykin, Esq., for the Senate, Buck Hill for Sheriff, Josiah Robinson for Register and A. B. Chesnut for Treasurer.

One of the phenomena of the canvass, according to all the reports to which the Blaine ticket are subject, is that the Republicans...

Statesville "Landmark": An intelligent citizen of a remote part of this county, talking a few days ago, ventured the prophecy that Cleveland and Hendricks will run further ahead of the State and local Democratic ticket in Fredrick county than any Presidential candidate have ever done before.

The Republicans met in Raleigh on the 31st inst., to nominate a candidate for Congress in the 4th district. Only seven delegates were in attendance.

A Gander Story. A "gander" story is given to the public by the Shelby "Aurora."

BILL ARP'S TALK.

ENTERTAINS HIS FRIENDSON PIG AND WATERMELON.

THE TRICKS OF TRADE.

I was peeling some nice soft peaches for dinner just to save Mrs. Arp the trouble...

Concerning Indiana, we have the vote for the State for Cleveland by at least ten thousand.

Lova, our private correspondent from my pipe on the piazza floor and get a little dirt from my shoes on the baisters and leave some dirty water in the pan at the back door.

From Michigan we get confident reports that the State will be lost to the Blaine ticket.

Lova, our private correspondent shows, is at least an uncertain state, with the probability that it will cast its electoral vote for Cleveland.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

From all over New England reports reach us which show a state of politics very different from the Blaine men.

A TERRIBLE PANIC.

THE PEOPLE OF NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. WILD WITH RAGE.

MADDENED DEPOSITORS.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., September 8.—New Brunswick is shaken to its centre.

Shelly has discovered a deficit of over one million dollars in the surplus cash and securities.

Men rush frantically to the doors of the National bank, only to be told that the business of the institution is suspended for the present.

Shelly was left as the custodian of this estate and of the bank and savings banks.

Over $700,000 was taken here.

In the G. B. Adrian estate over $30,000 is gone.

Mr. Mahlon Runyon, who committed suicide, had $60,000 in government bonds.

Mr. Runyon had negotiated for all of these and had commensated the matter some three days before his death.

Runyon knew nothing of Hill's doings, trusting him implicitly.

Mr. Runyon had $60,000 in government bonds.

Mr. Runyon had $60,000 in government bonds.

Mr. Runyon had $60,000 in government bonds.

Mr. Runyon had $60,000 in government bonds.

Mr. Runyon had $60,000 in government bonds.

Mr. Runyon had $60,000 in government bonds.

Mr. Runyon had $60,000 in government bonds.

Mr. Runyon had $60,000 in government bonds.

Mr. Runyon had $60,000 in government bonds.

Mr. Runyon had $60,000 in government bonds.

Mr. Runyon had $60,000 in government bonds.

Mr. Runyon had $60,000 in government bonds.

Mr. Runyon had $60,000 in government bonds.

Mr. Runyon had $60,000 in government bonds.

Mr. Runyon had $60,000 in government bonds.

Mr. Runyon had $60,000 in government bonds.

Mr. Runyon had $60,000 in government bonds.

Sensible Advice to Girls.

The lady who fills the chair of Professor of Domestic Science in the Illinois Industrial University has been giving sensible "advice to girls" in a lecture at St. Louis.

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

She called women the world's home-makers, insisted that reform in women's education was the urgent need of the times...

A Good Point.

Judge Fowle, in his speech the other day over in Johnston, N. C., "News-Observer" says, made a good point.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

He directed attention to the fact that the Civil Rights plank in the Republican platform had lost the support of the best men who have heretofore been supporters of that party in North Carolina.

BISHOP PIERCE.

A GREAT PREACHER AND GOOD MAN PASSED AWAY.

HIS END WAS PEACE.

SPARTA, GA., September 3.—Bishop Geo. F. Pierce, Senior Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, died at his home at Sparta, Ga., this morning at 8:45 o'clock.

He had been in feeble health for some time, and had been in a constant and rapid decline since his return from the "California" trip meeting on the 13th of August, where he preached with great earnestness and power.

For fourteen years Bishop Pierce has been troubled with an obstinate rheumatism, which during the last few years has been the occasion of a constant drain upon his system.

His indomitable will and tireless zeal kept him so constant in his great work that even friends who possessed more knowledge of his affliction knew little of his inconveniences and distress, he often suffered.

The proximate cause of his death was a low convulsion, the result of some three weeks' confinement in bed. His death is believed to be the direct result of his trouble with his throat.

People who heard his great sermon on the second Sunday in August, at the camp meeting near his home, are amazed when they are told that at that time his emaciated and aged frame weighed 108 pounds.

He preached at Thomason, Georgia, sitting in a chair during part of the sermon. He had an appointment to preach at Walker's Bluff, in Green County, Ga., only three days before his death.

He preached his first sermon in 1830, and on that day he was sick into death.

It is not generally known that he was free from any ailment of his body during his last sickness. His death was as painless as death can be.

No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he. His death is a loss to his church, his country and his world.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

BISHOP PIERCE.

A GREAT PREACHER AND GOOD MAN PASSED AWAY.

HIS END WAS PEACE.

SPARTA, GA., September 3.—Bishop Geo. F. Pierce, Senior Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, died at his home at Sparta, Ga., this morning at 8:45 o'clock.

He had been in feeble health for some time, and had been in a constant and rapid decline since his return from the "California" trip meeting on the 13th of August, where he preached with great earnestness and power.

For fourteen years Bishop Pierce has been troubled with an obstinate rheumatism, which during the last few years has been the occasion of a constant drain upon his system.

His indomitable will and tireless zeal kept him so constant in his great work that even friends who possessed more knowledge of his affliction knew little of his inconveniences and distress, he often suffered.

The proximate cause of his death was a low convulsion, the result of some three weeks' confinement in bed. His death is believed to be the direct result of his trouble with his throat.

People who heard his great sermon on the second Sunday in August, at the camp meeting near his home, are amazed when they are told that at that time his emaciated and aged frame weighed 108 pounds.

He preached at Thomason, Georgia, sitting in a chair during part of the sermon. He had an appointment to preach at Walker's Bluff, in Green County, Ga., only three days before his death.

He preached his first sermon in 1830, and on that day he was sick into death.

It is not generally known that he was free from any ailment of his body during his last sickness. His death was as painless as death can be.

No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he. His death is a loss to his church, his country and his world.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.

His death was as painless as death can be. No man was more loved by his people or more respected in his community than he.