NEWS OF A WEEK

—Blaine is now canvassing in Indiana and Logan in Iowa.

—The Baptist State Convention meets in Raleigh on the 12th of November.

—Capt. G. L. Dudley, private secretary to Governor Jarvis, died in Raleigh last week.

—The New York "World" says the Democratic party in that city is solid for Cleveland.

—Senator Vance thinks Gen. Seales's majority will not be less than 10,000. It can be made double that.

—The 22d annual Fair of the Cumberland county Agricultural Society will be held at Fayetteville Nov. 10-14, inclusive.

—Jas. Y. Joyner Esq., of La Grange, has accepted a place as a teacher in the Winston Graded School. He is a fine teacher.

—The solid South has so far turned up not a single outrage, while Wisconsin and Ohio have each painted the campaign with blood.

—There will be a mass meeting at Fremont on Saturday. Hon. W. T. Dortch, Capt. Swift Galloway and Maj. McTammy will be the speakers.

—Mr. Joseph Bradley, the leading republican in Stokes county, is out in a card in which he says he cannot vote for York. And still they come.

—High Point claims to have shipped 10,000 pounds of wool in one day. Also a Point firm shipped $1,200 worth of such and doors one day last week.

—Capt. A. C. Davis, with about 100 of his cadets and the Davis School Band, went to the State Exposition last week. The boys presented a fine appearance.

—When Butler spoke in Philadelphia the other night one of the gallery gods threw a large spoon on the stage. The ever brazen Ben took it up and used it to make gestures with.

—The Detroit "Free Press" very pertinently says: "It costs the protective tariff men so much to defeat Frank Hard that they will knock another 20 per cent. from laborers' wages next year."

—It is said that the only white man who will vote the radical ticket in Warren county is candidate C. A. Cooke, the radical nominee for Attorney General.

—The barbecue in Brooklyn frightens the Republicans. That's nothing. Wait until the 4th of November and the entire county will have a barbecue, at which the Republican party will be roasted in the Exposition.

—The Exhibition is attended by about ten or fifteen thousand daily. Fine gold watches have been presented to President Prunrose and Secretary Fries. Forsyth obtained the $100 prize for having the finest county exhibit.

—"Oh, I do so dote on the sea," she gurgled. "If you only had a yacht, Augustus, dear!" "I have no yacht," he sighed, "but I can give you a little smack."

—The Republicans are sending a large number of negroes to North Carolina from Washington city to vote the Republican ticket. They are to be sent to sparsely settled counties. Let Democrats be on the lookout for these rasicals and thwart their plans.

—There are in this State about 40,000 men who do not go to the polls. The probabilities are that eight out of ten of these would vote the Democratic ticket if they voted at all. Let them be brought out in November and York will be buried clear out of sight.

—Kinston "Press." Some man over in Greene county, we learn, wanted to know how Blaine and Cleveland stood on the "no fence" question, and what the platform of the National Democratic and Republican parties said on this subject.

—It is astonishing how much importance some of the Republican office holders attach to the fact that Cleveland was once a sheriff and as such hung two men. They must be afraid that if he is elected President he will fall into some of his old habits.

—Walter P. Williamson, Esq., has withdrawn as Republican candidate for Elector of the Second District and Mr. O. Hubbs has been placed on the ticket in his stead. Mr. Williamson, we presume, was disqualified on account of holding the position of postmaster at Tarboro.

—Herman Kolb, an upholsterer in Philadelphia, was unable to digest peas, so several have been examined by the doctor. He is apparently well now.

—A fine constitution may be broken and ruined by simple neglect. Many bodily ills result from habitual constipation. There is no medicine equal to Ayer's Pills to correct this evil, and restore the system to natural, regular, and healthy action.

—The Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee have sent out two million tracts, whilst the Republicans have sent out three millions. Both have closed up.

Let Every Democrat Go To The Polls. While our success seems assured, we will make it overwhelming and triumphant if we can get out a full vote. And I ask that you urge, through your columns, the people everywhere to lay all other business aside on election day and go to the polls and see that their neighbors go to the polls and give one day to their State and their country.

ELECTION LAWS.

Read and Remember. The following officers are to be elected: Presidential electors to be voted for in one box; State officers voted for in separate boxes...

Read and Remember. The registration books are to be revised and kept open for new names up to the day of election. Men must register and vote in the precinct where they live.

Read and Remember. The polls shall be opened at seven o'clock at sunset. Every voter shall hand in his ballot to the judges who shall carefully deposit the ballots in the boxes.

Read and Remember. The following classes of persons shall not be allowed to register or vote in this State, to-wit: First, persons under twenty-one years of age, second, idiots and lunatics; third, persons who, upon conviction or confession in open court, shall have been adjudged guilty of felony or other crime infamous by the laws of this State...

Read and Remember. When the election shall be finished, the registrars and judges of election at each precinct shall stand, shall open the boxes and count the ballots, reading aloud the names of the persons that shall appear on each ticket; and if the result shall be two or more tickets rolled up together, or any ticket shall contain the names of more persons than such elector has a right to vote for, or shall have a device or mark, or shall be so stained as to be illegible, such tickets shall not be numbered in taking the ballots, but shall be void, and the said counting of votes shall be continued without adjournment until completed and the result thereof declared.

Read and Remember. The judges of election shall appoint one of their number to attend the meeting of the board of county canvassers (which is constituted of a majority of members this appointed) and shall deliver to him the original return or statement of the result of election in the township, ward or precinct; and the board of county canvassers shall meet on the second day after the election, at 12 m., at the Court House, select a chairman and after being sworn proceed to open and canvass the returns, make abstracts of the legal votes for each person for the respective offices, and sign such abstracts. The register of deeds is the clerk of the board unless they elect another person in his place. In Carteret, Hyde and Dare the board meets on the seventh day after the election. Pamphlet copies of the election law have been sent out by the Secretary of State for the officers of election and such officers will refer to the law as the guide in performance of their duties, and the canvassing boards are urged to be careful in making and posting the abstracts and disposing of them as the law directs (secs. 2694, &c.)
