preachers have gone. Where the carcass is there will the eigles be gathered together. and the eagle you know is the great American bird that is tamped upon money and follows it about. The country is the nursery of he towns, and the towns are has good schools and churches He arrived at his destination tion. At last accounts the mother and society. When a town merbecomes a little uppity and bigity, and so moves to the city. know when he got off. He seem-Just so with lawyers and doctors, and even the preachers and offered to work it out, but, aries and beautiful churches. We needn't talk about the negroes going to town. White olks love to go to town too. some of them go to educate their children, but a good many go like the father goes to the ircus-just to please the children. The town is a fair compromise between the city and the country. It is not so good as the country, but a good deal better than the city. I wouldent live in a city. I wouldent ive in Atlanta or Birmingham if I could help it. Why, my character, and I have yet to olks can't keep up with the learn of a single case were the ville. They are away behind trust. He will lie and he will in their calls. They have to keep a list just like keeping a muster roll. It keeps them They trotting half the time. They failed to take care of it and de love to sit by and hear them a negro betrayed a trust?" alk over their calls and tell Then he rehearsed his faiththan I thought was in the town. protector. He said the negro saw Traveler. That is all right, that is social had some bad traits and bad leasure, and we are all social passions, but he never was eings. But in a city it is im- known to be guilty of a breach possible for folks to keep up of trust.

with so many visitors, and they The jury was profoundly imhave to classify into sets, and pressed, and so was the court. which seemed as fruitful a producer and leave the place." these sets try to draw the lines Judge Webb remarked to a of wealth as the goose. A conjurer do it exactly, and so they dove-tail into one another in spite of other-darkey stole the tobacco, for he was under no judiciary liar with a small down took a fancy.

He asked the Indians how much family with culture. The passed away, or moved away, Indians stood in awe and astonish may be a fraud, for aught you can moving about in her sombre, black was no opening for her but the trouble is that this keeps the and their descendents are ment. After the professor left their tell." a poor thoroughbred. Folks who have nothing else to think about are very jealous town. There is wealth and reof this ostracism of the sets. finement there. It is the home Even poor folks with no culture of Governor Seay, the most under misfortune.

nother time-that he shant,

HE WITSON ADVANCE

VOLUME 17.--

have a good time.

is spreading fast. It is called

'Sheep-calling,' and is taken and begins to call his sheep.

stance : 'Gentleman of the jury, bacco, nor was he knowing or

WILSON, NORTH CAROLINA, DECEMBER 8, 1887.

NUMBER-45.

BARBARA'S ERROR.

The black land region is black score years and is the accepted with them all the week except leader of the Sabbath school Saturday, and then they go to and the best singer in the town, town and paint the town black. and exempmlary in all the vir- SHE REPENTED OF HER ter, and found his way to their home softly: THE NEGRO IS I arrived in Eutaw one Satur- thes that belong to a Christian day evening and could hardly gentleman. He is a sample of get through for the negroes, our people. He leads and they and was told it wasn't a very follow. Then we have the site good Saturday for them either. of the old Mesopotamia church, They were all in a good humor the oldest church in this region, country except the negroes. man, Mr. Dunlap, now past four and has happy as possible. If and near it is the old grave they brought any money they spent it. If they had any credit they used it. If they had neith- of the hamlet sleep.' There is er they came anyhow just to history buried there-history those people did not worship They have got a new kind of Mammon. No, sir; they wor-

> BILL ARP. AN EXTRAORDINARY STORY.

tion of a Correspondent. COLUMCIA, S. C., Nov. 26 .- An extraordinary occurrence is report-You can hear him half a mile away saying, 'Co-sheep, co-sheep, co-sheep, co-sheep,' and by and by age, who has been ill several days, the darkies begin to come from died last Wednesday. The body the neighboring woods, where was properly prepared and dressed they have been hiding, and they for burial, and placed in a coffin, come blating and crying, 'baa- the darkies of the neighbood hold baa-baa,' and some comes on ing their customary noisy "wake" their all-fours, and they cut up over the corpse all through Wedall sorts of capers, and the nesday night. The funeral services young rams fall over one anoth- were to be held in the colored church Thursday afternoon, and that these new towns are ontic- er, and butt their heads togeth- the body was to be interred in a up to the old darky and gets a point within 500 yards of the cemegrain of corn and goes away tery, the pall-bearers were startled with another bas and takes by a crying noise somewhat resemroundance, and after awhile bling the mewing of a cat, appagrain of corn, and so on, and so on all the day. They are all black sheep, and remind one of the old song, 'Ba a, ba-a, black sheep, got any wool.'

The procession was halted, and after one was halted The negro is still a curiosity woman was alive, but unconscious, des resolution to and his species had been without a cloud forward with a wild cry, and was party. an unsolved problem. Judge and that a new born babe shared

Webb, of Eutaw, an elegant old with her the narrow bed. Several vation, told me that a negro were terror stricken and fled. to be hauled some distance and o town he goes, for the town be delivered to the purchaser. ceived kindly and necessary attenwith only one box, and could was doing well, there being every not account for the other ex- indication of her complete recovery, cept by saying that another ne- whilst the infant is hearly and rogro rode with him on the wagon bust and is thriving as well as any nevertheless, he was indicted and arraigned for trial. The mile " an old negro asked of a me." case was fully proved against street car conductor. "I wanter go Just then a young man rode by said: him, and there seemed no es- out to see Brudder Lias Smif. Am't on a powerful black horse. Mark The truth is, Alice, I am sorry cape from conviction, but a kind er flesh an' blood brudder, yet, un- saw a sudden change pass over and pained; but not for myself. defend him, and said in sub-

"Five cents." "Jes fur er mile? I tell ver dat this negro did not steal that tojes a brudder in de faith."

"The fare is five cents." willing to its disappearance. 1 "Jes fur er mile."

have been raised with negroes. My first cry was in my black "How much is it fur two miles?" mammy's arms, and from my "Inst the same." "Cook yere, hew fur yer take me early youth until now I have fur fi' cents ?"

"Five miles." "What's de name o' de place?"

"Take me all de way out dar fur fi' cents?"

"An' won't take me no mo'n er mile w'ar Brudder Smif libs fur no

As Good as Golden Eggs.

they would take for him, to which ious. Money is generally at through this splendid blackland to sell him. The professor said, the bottom of it-a big pile of region and see the stately man- "Him heap fine dog," at the same oor family on a strain to keep struggling in the towns or on village they took the dog down to to line, and I do think that the railroads for a living; many the river bank and killed and dis- girl's eyes. ie rich folks ought to give of them are the best blood of sected him; but to their great chaoot and help these poor folks the south, and they show it grin they found that the professor out, for a rich scrub is not equal still in their pluck and energy had milked him of all the money. Tricks with which every boy is familiar are still miracles among family-of his past life," Greensboro is a beautiful savage people.

'What have you got at Eu. wages too."

MISTAKE,

A Lesson of Love as Taught by Barbara and Her Devoted Husband .- All Ends Well.

from the passers-by. ed in the woods which stretched in- gentle mistress. vitingly away in their shady coolness at the back of the grove.

jests of the rustic beaux who gen- work a-day sort of a husband." ble. She was sorry to lose Mark's so.

she turned toward him.

the towns, and the towns are the nurseries of our cities. It is just so everywhere. When a farmer gets rich enough to go to be hauled some distance and for the nurseries of our cities. It is just so everywhere. When a farmer gets rich enough to go to be hauled some distance and the towns, and the towns are the towns are the towns, and the towns are the towns, and the towns are the towns are the towns, and the towns are the towns, and the towns are the towns, and the towns are the towns are the towns, and the towns are the to ting together."

"Poor Mark! I am sorry." There was no mistaking the ex- page said; Genuine pity was in them for the you to day, Mark?" it! Give me a chance before you into your head?"

How much yer charge ter go er you'll only promise to try and love like yourself."

hearted lawyer volunteered to derstan' jes er brudder in de faith." Barbara's face. Turning, he saw, Did you ever hear any one speak of with a bitter pain tugging at his a girl who was once the beauty of heart-strings, that the eyes of the the village-Barbara Wildman ?" stranger's face with a rapt, linger of Mark's infatuation and disap-There was no mistaking the an- band's lips.

swering look in the eyes of the equestrian, as bowing low, he rode quietly. lingeringly by, turning, ever and Barbara answered proudly: "I do not wish to deny tt." Then, cheese making."

manly toil.

A sudden anger flamed up in the a suggestion. "But you know nothing of his

when he was cross-examined, he dam't always send seed to succeed.

These Alabama towns are prospering and have good shools and churches, and society. Nobody lives in the shools at that grand old gentle
What have you got at EuWhen he was cross-examined, he admitted that he had been five weeks at harvesting and was twenty, and said gently.

When he was cross-examined, he admitted that he had been five weeks at harvesting and was twenty, and said gently.

Several years passed by, during the make your frouble. Barbara.

When he was cross-examined, he admitted that he had been five weeks at harvesting and was twenty, five pounds in pocket.

"Tell me your trouble. Barbara.

"Tell me your trouble. Barbara.

"Tell me your trouble. Barbara.

"The woman raised her head and that her tongue was patalized.

"The woman raised her head and the weeks at harvesting and was twenty, five pounds in pocket.

"Troth, that's a fact," said he; "I liked over until he felt as though the mast cry out in his agony.

Several years passed by, during which Mark led a louely life. His disappointment, while not souring his kindly nature, had made him indifferent to social pleasures. But after a time his uncle Clifton moved with his family into the village.

When he was cross-examined, he admitted that he talked over until he felt as though the west at laked over until he felt as though the mast cry out in his agony.

Several years passed by, during which Mark led a louely life. His disappointment, while not souring his kindly nature, had made him indifferent to social pleasures. But after a time his uncle Clifton moved which Mark led a louely life. His disappointment, while not souring his work with the talked over until he felt as though the mast cry out in his agony.

"Tell me your trouble. Barbara.

"The woman raised her head and life."

"The woman raised her head and looked wonderin not long before they drew Mark | I am unworthy, and God has "out of his shell," as they called it. punished me." He grew to enjoy their merry chatquite often. One of the cousins had formed a friendship with a sorry for it, He who chasteneth the young girl named Alice Maron children he loveth will also forwhile away at school. It had proved we?" liking between schoolmates, and said Barbara, suddenly looking at Groveland. She was a gentle little thing, "It is past the time of miracles; whose shy blushes at the most tri- but He can bring healing to the vial word addressed her by Mark afflicted heart of the mourners." The young people of Groveland at first amused him greatly. He were having a pic-nic. It was in a tried to draw her out, and in doing with tears. pleasant grove, just at the edge of so found, after a time, that the pain "There is no death like that of of the old wound had gone forever. love, and I have killed it in my hus-The scene was a picturesque one, Little Alice, with her childish ways, band's heart. He hates me! and I Most of the b'ocming village girls the image of the lost Barbara.

were there, dressed in their crisply- From the first Mark had seemed shut apon me, But I drove him' starched and neatly ironed white to Alice all that was good and no from me with my hateful, wicked dresses; some with bright-colored ble, so his wooing was a speedy one, temper, and the rest of my life will whose great, dark eyes usually ings," he thought, tenderly, "to she had thought her widowed. flashed back a merry answer to the make up for such a commonplace, "Are you in earnest? Do you however, their brightness was un- for he well knew that the little wo- looked at Mark's wife. "You are der a cloud; for Mark Everson was man would not have changed him an angel, and I will believe what er, and still they come and cry graveyard about two miles away. standing at her side, and the tete- for a king; and though he considered in her line body was to be interest in graveyard about two miles away. standing at her side, and the tete- for a king; and though he considered in her line body was to be interest in graveyard about two miles away. Standing at her side, and the tete- for a king; and though he considered in her line body was to be interest in graveyard about two miles away. Standing at her side, and the tete- for a king; and though he considered in her line body was to be interest in graveyard about two miles away. Standing at her side, and the tete- for a king; and though he considered in her line body was to be interest in graveyard about two miles away. endeavoring to avoid was inevita mind it was very sweet to have it was wrecked. I should have given who robbed the Fayetteville post- or to come in and storm the citidel.

and their brains with them.

The best lawyers and doctors and merchants and the best of corn, and so on, and s den resolution to end his suspense, to mar its brightness. Alice as a caught to his breast. matron had grown even more at-"Well, Mark" she said gently, tractive than in her girlhood. Care gentleman of leisure and obser- of the pall-bearers and mourners "what is it you want to say to me?" sat lightly on her white forehead; 'You must know without my tel- and her soft, pink cheeks seemed le since the time when, a little from his weekly marketing expediboy and girl, we used to go nuts tion to the neighboring town seem away from you-anywhere I ed Nov. 30th, the Department of glance upwards at them, (also some bled. Alice noticed it; and after a unwelcome presence."

pain she was causing, but no love. He look up in surprise.
"Don't, Barbara! I can't bear "Why, little wile, what put that sey a decided 'No.' I'll do things "I don't know, I'm sure. Unless her wild anger at some fancied for you no one ever did before, if it is that you seem so quiet and unde man ain' mor sho nuff brudder girl he loved were resting on the Alice had heard, the whole story had apparently merged into indiff-

ing expression in them which had pointment, but she made no sign, ty and bright ways had first atnever irradiated them for him, her though her heart gave a great throb tracted him. at hearing the name from her hus-"Why, what of her?" she asked

"I saw her to-day, and it made anon, to smile at the fair face my heart ache. She is the mere is alone and friendless. Think of "So it is that stranger whom you it! Barbara Wildman looking for love! You need not deny it," he employment! Couldn't we find a said, almost fiercely. "I saw it in place for her, Alice? She was a notable worker in the old times, How one Woman Successfully Manand could help in the butter and

Mark looked at her in pained sur- firmness which made her face too vere needed, her husband enlisted, prise, as, blushingly and hesitating severe looking to be attractive .- | and was killed, leaving his wife ly, she told him this, overcoming She went about her duties with a with five small, hopeless children. usiness—these social distinc- It is sad to travel overland they replied that they did not want her maidenly shyness and reserve pre-occupied air, as though her Thrown entirely on her own re- It is True in This Section of the so that the honest heart, whose thoughts were far away; but they sources, she in reality laid her hand friendship she coveted, need not were faithfully performed. She to the spindle, and supported her money—but money is frequent- sions deserted and tumbling time rubbing bim down the back to drive its owner to take a rash step made no effort toward sociability. family by spinning thread and talked over until he felt as though she put her tender arms about her, meaner when we say that she wes

He had a number of daughters- ed herself to and fro, moaning to NEWS OF A WEEK

Alice caught the words, and said, "If you have done wrong and are

"Jan he bring the dead to life!" she was to spend the summer in Alice with eyes that seemed to read her very soni.

The woman's dark eyes filled and drew many an admiring look had brought peace and happiness -- I am to blame. I see it now -- the first to settle his taxes with the into the heart ouce so filled with | Had I been like you, the gates of State this year, my paradise would never have been dler, gets a new trial The old felsashes and bows to match, others and in a twelvemonth after their be as joyless and wretched as it be felt largely for him when he is ing up and down the street in front mer the representative of the largely for him when he is

"While there is life there is Comfort and luxury joined hands hope," said Alice, solemnly. The comfort and luxury joined hands hope," said Alice, solemnly. The Cultivation of sorghum is and not seeing any sign of life, I have an enthusiastic for in beautifying the quaint old home words came to her instinctively. growing to be quite a popular and concluded that I would make the founded on distinct elec-Conspicuous among the rustic stead, for the prosperous young She was greatly surprised to learn profitable industry in North Carolibeanties was Barbara Wildman. farmer had plenty of money, and that Barbara's husband still lived, na, we are pleased to see. The tails a flirt, my cravat a twist and support of what may be ter She was a tall, bright-looking girl, "Alice must have pretty surround- as, judging from her deep mourning greatest need of the State is diver- my breeches a hitch, assumed a gay "meral element" of the State sified ecops.

really think what you say ?" Bar- at one raid of the revenue officers proudly in. erally hovered around her like It would not have done to say the bara's whole soul seemed concen- in Cleveland county; we see from moths around a flame. Just now, concluding clause aloud, however, trated in her eager eyes, as she the Shelby Aurora. Two large ilsee him, and tell him of my love eral Court, and convicted.

"Oh, Elmer, forgive, forgive!" "My poor girl! It is I who should plead to you forgiveness. Can you let the past be as a sealed book, shall again divide us." Explanations followed. Elmer neglect of her handsome, worshipped busband, Barbara had thought Mark thought a moment, then he to punish him by leaving her elegant home, and going away from him penniiess. per was fiery and unreasonable. its constant friction had worn upon Elmer until his fervent love erence toward the wife whose beau-tara, all is now peace and happi- and unless the Western Union does extended to me by my young lady after doing that, consciently talk about calls just like we talk about calls just like we talk about debts and attach about the same importance to them. They delight to have folks come to see them, for it flatters their consequence. I flatter the care of it and de less?

I do not was it of the college, and was in all probabil. I flatter the could? Never. I flow, with a sudden change of manner. I flow the change of manner. I flow the college, and was in all probabil. Then, who well illustrates the college, and was in all probabil. Then, and to take care of it and de liver it if he could? Never. I flow it is a sudden change of manner. I flow shift death of the college, and was in all probabil. Then, and the change of manner. I flow it is a sudden change of manner. I flow it is money, sah, I'se one o' dese p'litical convenes ake of the pleasant days of our her heart. But she was too noble conomists, an' blebs in gittin' de happy childhood. Be, my brother, not to strive against the unworthy children to care for, the eldest of Monday the 5th of December. The talk over their calls and tell what Mrs. A said and Mrs. B fulness during the war—and what Mrs. A said and Mrs. B fulness during the war—and be er mighty fool man dat would be command her voice, she answered:

| A said and Mrs. B fulness during the war—and be replaced the responsibility the first day of May last, Sarah the door of the parlor opened. said, and the mother-in-law and the mother-in-law and the old grandmother, and how when his master was far pay er dollar fur er pair o' britches of the eyes, whose brightness shone please you bring her here. There "Certainly, Mark," If it would of their maintenance and educa- Warren, a white woman of respecthe children behaved, and they stood by the wife and the child- cloze for de same price. Take me through a mist, which suggested is always room for an extra helper." not shrink from the task in despon gave birth to a child whose father can tell more innocent news ren, and was their friend and on out to yer limits, sah."—Arkan- that tears were not far away. He So it was arranged. Barbara dency, but set to work with a de- is a negro named Charles Hanes. a glad smile on my loss, but took the soft, little hand in his came. A quiet, reserved woman—termination that has overcome all About six weeks ago the child was great brown palm, hardened by still beautiful-but not with the obstacles. She assumed control of missing in the bousehold of its manly foil. winsome brightness of old. Suffer- the plantation, made good crops, mother and upon inquiry it was learned that the mother had deliv- and the smile froze on my lips, and The goose that laid the golden but I cannot see you and be in upon her high, broad forehead; and now tunning the business on a cash ered the baby to its father who had I realized that I had the dry grins. eggs is a familiar bird, but a dog your society as I have been. I could the bright eyes seemed looking basis. With favorable seasons she said be would care for it, but was was found in the West recently which seemed as fruitful a producer of wealth as the goose. A conjurer "No, Mark, you need not do that of wealth as the goose. A conjurer "No, Mark, you need not do that of wealth as the goose. A conjurer of wealth as the goose of wealth as the goose of conjurer of wealth as the goose. A conjurer of wealth as the goose of wea of demarcation, but they can't friend, 'that jury will acquit visited an Indian camp at Lewis- to avoid seeing me; for we are to curves which Mark remembered so Mrs. Buford, now a resident of Ma. partial remains of an infant having slicking out in knobs all over him. do it exactly, and so they dove-tail into one another in spite of other-darkey stole the tobacco.

Mrs. Baford, now a resident of Ma-well had merged into two straight, eon county, was before the war, the iar with a small dog, to which he shall go with him."

WHAT IS HAPPENING IN THE WORLD AROUND US.

A condensed report of the news as gathered from the columns of our contemporaries, State and

Work has been resumed on th Greenville Baptist church, the Re

Jacob Sharp, the New York boo-low is a complete wreck, and wa The cultivation of sorghum is Five moonshiners were captured foreign to my feelings and marched him to those who side with licit distilleries were also captured my husband loving words and ca. office not long since, an account of friendship, and with a woman's in-stinct, she knew that it must be all of the Groveland world. The annt I would give ten years of my life to been tried at Raleigh, in the Fed- some kind of girl's gomes, or up that Julian S. Carr, of I > mittee met at Chicago on the S0th which leads to the door at once de. Governor, has recently dec den sound of hurrying footsteps. of last month. The meeting is de- monstrated the fallacy of my calcu- a most emphasic manner,

> > Commission of Agriculture, Patrick states that the cotton crop of this State will probably be 5 per cent. this year than it was last .-We truly hope the people will be better able to settle up than they lost you! But, please God, nothing $25,000 goes to the department.

Rev. L. C. Vass, of New Berne, has feet fusilade of off-hand osculation. Haughton was wealthy; and in been chosen one of the representatives of Evangelical Christianity in North Carolina, to be a member of est and most obliging manner imthe great Christian Conference to aginable, volunt er the information, best educated and prominent men mieus cried, knocked "the more a "flatter Jove, even for his t As she had told Alice, her tem- best educated and prominent then great deal."

The western Union Telegraph see it stated in the newspapers - a christian, I was still filled with a midable character is concer The people will be greatly benefited strong desire to sneak out the back all. by the reduction. The company way and seek safety in flight. But But mutual absence had proved could well afford to make still furth- I composed myself, in a luxurious to each how great was their love er reductions and make big money rious and inviting chair, and was for one another. Owing to the m- on their investment. The telegraph soon deeply absorbed in the pleasfluence of the example which Alice business of the country has become ing past time of speculating on had unconclously held before Bar- a necessity to the commercial world what kind of a welcom and be give an offence, but most reduce its rates to a living price the friend. Had she forgot in me in frain from forgetting it.

WELL SAID.

ly set-off by culture and style.
A rich family without culture ranks pretty well with a poor families who lived there, surfamily with culture.

The old patrician distribution families who lived there, surfamilies who lived there surfamilies who lived there with a mixture of feelings; but she soon caused her trade to fail. Being until "store-bought" cloth we family by spinning thread and without culture.

At these strange proceedings the whole form the lips of caused her with a mixture of feelings; but she soon caused her trade to fail. Being until "store-bought" cloth which mixture of feelings; but she soon caused her trade to fail. Being until "store-bought" cloth whit a mixture of feelings; but she soon caused her trade to fail. Judge John A. Gilmer, in senfield. She rented a mule and some tencing two colored lads during sweetness! Did they want to em-The Eversen household was a land, and began farming, paying Superior Court last week, made a strangely happy one. Sometimes hall she made, and the land she very practical address to the race, own that he could not resist. She getic and economical, and begen by for larceny and transgression of the His mother was an old friend of fingers through his curley brown length she bought a home. Now arraigned were young colored men hers. Don't be worried, dear old hair; and put up her lips for a kiss; she has a comfortable home, mules, between the ages of fifteen and Always Grumbling.

Always Grumbl success for many years.

Jones mad it made Mrs. Jones, and it made Mrs. Jones mad with Mrs. Williams and the doctor too, and she said to my wife, Dr. Felton tuk and sant a passel of garding seed to Bestay Ann Williams, but he never sent me any and I'm jest as good as Betsy Ann Williams, but he never sent me any and I'm jest as good as Betsy Ann Williams, blick sliant vote for him nary nother time—that he shant.'

Southern Cultivator.

S

Her Half.

He-Now that we are married we of heads, which were kept busity kota minister. are one, and I shall insist that this be the last time you appear in a low neck dress.

She—We may be one, but you amount to those windows by a liberal use of the same amount to which was found so of the church, who sits near the down threatened to the church.

RUNNING THE GAUNTLET.

My Visit to a Female College.

(Special Correspondence to the ADYANCE,) MR. EDITOR: Some time since I and occasion to pass through a certown in this State which boasts of a very worthy and largely attended college, designed to elevate and train the female mind. While waiting for a train, and when time was Petersburg Index-Appear w banging beavy on my hands, it co- follows: Casting about for a curred to me that it would be the able Democratic candidate. proper thing to go and visit one of bernatorial honors continue the attendants at that school, with in this vicinity," and the whom I was so fortunate as to be friends of different aspira

Now, I had heard from a friend. According to a well establish who "had gone before," that at a cedent, the candidates ne college they were mighty devillsh naturally belong to the cas The Sheriff of Burke county was kind of creatures, these girls were, middle sections of the State and that a fellow had to run a per- tiring executive bailing fi fect guantlet of female gibes and west. It is the opinion of Forewared is foreatmed; so after tlemen-Judge Walter Ch carefully reconnoitering by pass- Lieut-Governor Stedmonof the college a time or two, to as- | dle section and the fatter sure myself that the coast was clear, eastern section. Each of trip in safety. So I gave my coat- Judge Clark undoubtedly and careless mein, which was very acts as judge have also e-

Alas! men never did understand as applied to punishment for

There they were every girl to ber the earnest and almost up window, wondering who that luna support of the Methodist de tic was who seemed to be hesitating whether to back out and run, member. As a still fart There'I was, calculating that they up to formidable proportion were out in the back tox playing race, may be mentioned town increasing the expense ac- who has been prominently a The National Prohibition Com- count. My entrance into the walk ed in connection with the ctions, for it was the signal for a would not, under any circu perfect cruy of heads to pop out of ces, enter the race, and calthe windows, just for the world like al his friends throughout the State a turtle will pop his head out of his to throw the weight of their intrashell, and they a-twittering and a- ence for Judge Clark. The g ggling just as if they were tickled and supporters of Lientenant Go moved me." Born, as I was, of poor but re. State. They see in their char speciable parents, what had I to a representative gentleman of tear from them, being, as I am, sin- did executive ability, fine pogularly handsome for one so young! and of first-class versatile ing strangely thoughtful and tron- thought, so as to relieve you of my Agriculture has issued sixty-nine kisses) which seemed to amuse "And I, too, my poor darling! fertilizers, making the receipts from stand that racket, and I kept their is wedded to no political winpression of the soft brown eyes. Has anything gone wrong with Life has seemed a blank since I that source $34,600. Of this amount heads pretty boxy bobbing in and is not identified with any out of the windows, after I had got "issues" that float around The Charlotte Chronicle says the warmed up to my work, by a per-

I answered not, but as Blind Barti cians of the day who won parlor. Although I had conducted na, is beyond question and to Company has reduced its rates, we myself as became a young man and candidacy will be of the mo business men will demand that the the few short months we had been government establish a telegraph separated? Perish the thought ! to be forgiven," said a woman Oh no! Here was a tender young girl away from home for the first time—had possibly not seen a fa-ceive the hereinbefore mentioned comes in my way to do her a symptoms of a hearty welcome with in, with the tull sense of the dignity and responsibility of his office of a few of the princely and answered some very pertinent endorsements of the nos. My answers were satisfactory elements of success. They and very evidently greatly impress- should select men who can ways remain in that fortres of "I know this, Mark: I love him, Mark's quick temper made him unand it is cruel in you to make such reasonable and exacting, and hasty had no help except her small childstated that during his term of ofme an excuse to stay there forever. words would escape his hips; but ren, none of whom could aid her fice he was forcibly impressed with All these thoughts were chasing but the number of individuals arrested that during his term of office he was forcibly impressed with All these thoughts were chasing John Walker, both colored, g one another around and over the a fight, when Smith attemp "He brought letters to auntie. would go up to him and thread her saving something every year. At law, and that two thirds of those brain, as I realized that, however made a victous snap at W pleasant it would be, I could not nose, but simed too low and > observe how difficult is is to walk | Sick and Billious bradsche, and fault to a great extent to careless on level ground with a balf a hun-parental training, and admonished dred pair of bright, laughing, rodation of all true citenship and resite sex leveled at you. What un- 25 cents a vial. No cheap boxes spect for the law was the family expected obstructions present thera- to allow waste of virtues. By drugselves to your feet, where the ero gista.

perfect blaze of glory, so to speak, if the aforementioned large variety fective on my entrance.

WILSON ADVANCE

Great Activity Among the Tries of Different Statesmen-Jun Walter Clark and Lieutens ernor Stedman Most Prom

The Raleigh corresponder. beginning to boom their for is fast narrowing down to t and rigid construction of In addition to this, he will tion of which of which had dence that Judes Clark to 1 to death, "But none of these things ernor Stedman may be among the "young America" my relief and showed me to the young Democracy of North

Conventional Forgiven

Giving Him a Him.

Do you find your evangeland by bors pleasant f was asked of a Da-door, threatened to fill me full of Thus ended my first visit to a holes if I didn't speak londer.— French College. YERGIN. Life