

THE WILSON ADVANCE

JOSEPHUS and C. DANIELS
Editors and Proprietors.

The ADVANCE endeavors to be an honest, ethical and impartial chronicler of the news, devoting special attention to the news which is published in the Democratic press, and to the news which is published in the press of the country generally. It is in no way hostile to Democratic success, it believes in the best interests of the people and the State. It is not a party organ, but a public organ, and its policy is to report the news as it comes, and to give the people the facts as they are. It will not be used for any special purpose, and it will not be used for any special purpose, and it will not be used for any special purpose.

Entered in the Post Office at Wilson, N. C. as second class matter.

Which will you take, Fowle and low taxes, or Dockery and the infamous special tax bonds?

Here is the Democratic policy in a nut shell: Protection for Labor and a Tariff for Revenue; but no tariff for surplus and no over-production for profits.

Mr. FINCH will you be so kind as to walk up to the Republican head quarters in compliance with Mr. Devreux's estimate of you—and have your self kicked.

The Boston Globe says the President is a good angler, and what is better, he can catch votes faster than he can fish. The anti-monopoly tariff bait is warranted every time.

The dissemination of good literature on the tariff question is the thing needed to make every sensible man favor a generous reduction of the present inordinately high tariff.

'Traitor' Moore, have you been kicked yet or do the Republicans propose to let you on account of your numerous vilestudies with that cow and the 'biters' that so severely attack you a short while since.

But good Lord Tommie Devreux, who is to kick that monstrous 'surviverous' traitor—that bull dog skulker, Dr. Tom Person. He is such a 'bully' fellow you know. That gallant knight—the man who would sign an address urging the negroes to burn and kill—might persuade a few negroes to do the kicking. We suggest Col. Stanton for the job, Tommie.

Blaine's crippled reception seems to have thrown another wet blanket on Harrison's campaign.

The Republicans of the Seventh district have nominated W. J. EHRB, of Davie, for Congress, and M. L. MOTT, of Iredeell for elector.

You can't convince any thinking man that scaling a tariff, which averages forty seven per cent, down to an average of forty two per cent, is free trade.

The Republicans want protection for American industries and the best protection will be the re-election of Grover Cleveland, who has taken such good care of them since the 4th of March, 1888.

And so J. Wiley Shock, the leading Republican of Haywood county and editor of the Clyde Register, can't stand the ignorance of Mason and declares he will vote for Maj. Finger for Supt. of Schools.

'Two-for-a-cent' Benajah Peel will not need to be kicked by the Republicans. He can never be charged with being anything but a deep-eyed uncompromising 'nigger loving' Radical. You can pass on, Mr. 'Two-for-

Mr. WITTELY the Republicans of the county are sitting for you to walk up to their head quarters so that they may follow the advice of Mr. Devreux and kick the rear part of your anatomy. Walk up like a 'little tin soldier' and take your kinking.

From what we see in print about the Prohibitionists speeches we are inclined to believe that the abuse of this campaign is all on their side. It seems that they feel it to be incumbent upon themselves to throw mud for what they call a pure cause. 'Consistency, thou art a jewel!'

Mr. DEVREUX calls a man who belongs to neither the Democratic or Republican parties a 'sneak, skulker and a traitor' and he says he deserves to be kicked. How do the men nominated by the so called Knights of Labor convention appreciate these pet epithets as applied to them?

The farmers of North Carolina do not intend to be imposed on by the 'cotton bagging trust'. The ADVANCE notes with pleasure their determination to meet the exorbitant demands of the trust with proper treatment. The 'trust' is possible only under the present high and burdensome tariff levied by the Radical party and so stoutly fought for by that same corrupt and detestable agency of the monopolists.

We are desired to say by Chairman Whitaker that he has never spoken to any body in any way about the speech of Mr. C. C. Daniels, of Wilson, at Fayetteville. What appears to the contrary in the Signal is absolutely without any foundation in fact.—News Observer.

Glad to hear that This makes out Mr. Love Harris, editor of the Raleigh Signal, a blatant, contemptible liar, unless he offers some might good explanations and apologizes for his libellous article in last week's Signal.—Kinston Free Press.

In the event of a war between China and England there will be a tremendous exodus from the former country—those who have no nerve for the fight will attempt to emigrate. Remember this: Harrison, the Republican candidate for President that's all he will ever be! Is in favor of permitting them to swarm into the United States. His record shows that he voted against the restriction of Chinese immigration. Workingmen, white men, can you support such a man? Have you thought of what it would mean to you? Think and then arise in the night of right and bury Harrison so deeply that even the smelling Chinaman can't find him.

THIS FELLOW DOCKERY

The ADVANCE confesses that it has been imposed on by the Republicans of the State in regard to this man Dockery. We knew all the time that he was a man utterly devoid of principle but not until last Monday did we know that he was without the first instinct of decency. We knew that he was considered as unscrupulous and reckless in regard to almost anything that would help his corrupt party, but not until we heard him Monday did we realize the depth to which he has fallen. His repetition of lies that have been proven as such was not worthy a candidate for the lowest office within the gift of the people. His attempt to besmirch the fair name of Mrs. Cleveland is unworthy the most debased and hardened liar. His attempt to injure the pure and upright R. H. Battle was beneath the dignity of a sneak thief. We say candidly that we never heard a man on the stump who impressed us more as hardened, unscrupulous, dishonest, untruthful, demagogic, if he were elected Governor of the State it would be a reflection on the intelligence and virtue of our people such as has never been heaped upon us. If every man in the State could hear him and realize the dirty tricks that he practices, the State would go almost unanimously Democratic.

THE RADIS IN WILSON.

DOCKERY, DEVREUX, SHARP AND STANTON SPEAK.

They Sound the First Gun of the Campaign in the County. It is Loaded With the Same Harmless Powder.

For several days colored posters have been pasted up at the Court House, announcing to the people of the county that 'Col. Oliver H. Dockery and Hon. T. P. Devreux,' would address the people—or so many as had a mind to hear them—on Monday last. When the shoofly train arrived the two worthies advertised to speak, accompanied by 'dat prolied' Nash county statesman—'old glorifol John Sharp'—started up town in search of the 'Finch House'—formerly kept by the Knight of Labor (?) Candidate for treasurer. When they learned that the hospitable doors of the Finch House were no longer opened for the reception of Radical politicians, they went to the Briggs House.

At about half past ten o'clock S. A. Woodard, representing the Democratic County Executive Committee, and C. C. Daniels, a member of the Democratic State Executive Committee, called at the hotel for the purpose of securing a division of time at the speaking. A note requesting a conference for that purpose was sent them, and they replied offering to divide time on the following terms: Devreux to speak first, then John E. Woodard, to have no rejoinder. The gentlemen who asked for the division informed Mr. Devreux that they would not put up a man for Dockery to hit and then give us an opportunity for a reply to his false statements. 'The intention of Dockery and Devreux was, of course, to allow no joint discussion, and they therefore proposed terms that would not be accepted by anyone with two grains of common sense.

Shortly after twelve o'clock a dusky crowd—with here and there a white face—gathered around an impenetrable stand to hear the Republican speakers, about whom so much has been said. There were, we should judge, about 500 negroes and 75 white people present. Most of the white people were men drawn thither purely by curiosity alone.

Col. G. Washington Stanton—the boss of the Radical party in this county, as he thinks—arose and introduced Mr. J. H. P. Devreux, the Republican candidate for Attorney General. Devreux—'Little Tommie' as he is called by the State press—waded in. He made the regulation Radical speech—filled with false statements, and demagogic appeals to the prejudices of the people. He did as is the custom with Republican speakers: stated that the Mills Bill was a free trade measure and that direct taxes would be levied on the people for the support of national government if the Democrats gained complete control. He rebashed the old falsehoods that have been given the people often by Republicans and attempted to muddle the brains of the people all his could on the question of the tariff. He hit in Col. Holt savagely and said that the office of Lieutenant Governor was laden with great power—one of the most important offices in the gift of the people. The meanest part of his speech was when he attempted to fasten the theft of Cross and White on the Democratic party. He admitted that the Democrats have done well for the education; but said they should have no credit for doing their duty.

Dockery—the big gun of Radicalism—was next introduced by one of the signers of the infamous address advising negroes to burn and to kill. Stanton used only a few words in introducing the demagogue. That was one virtue.

Dockery by referring to the magnificent discourse of people who were present, and introduced himself as a 'plain farmer'. He thanked God that he was not a lawyer and we believe every decent lawyer said amen. He charged that the Democratic party had borne no fruits and gave as evidence of it the fact that the Internal Revenue had not been repealed. Notwithstanding the fact that the Democratic party in North Carolina had promised in every campaign to do all that lay in its power to effect its repeal. He neglected to say that every member of Congress sent there from this State by the Democracy had done his utmost to secure the repeal of the system. He neglected also to say that the Mills bill which was so vigorously opposed by the party of his law and modified the whole. After attacking the Democracy on the Internal Revenue he says the State has nothing to do with that question, virtually admitting that it was a question for Congressmen to consider and not for men who desired State offices.

Dockery must have pleased the old Confederate soldiers greatly when he referred to the late civil war as the 'Huge Rebellion'.

Our overburdened treasury was the next theme that this alleged statesman paid his respects to.

This is getting to be a campaign of slander, said Dockery; and we felt that he had at least told one truth, after we had heard his speech through. He deprecated (?) the race conflict but if we would have let him intimated that he was fully able to go into that to any depth necessary to make votes. He thereupon read an extract from a newspaper concerning the Episcopal Convention at Raleigh and said that Mr. R. H. Battle sat down between two big buck niggers at Bishop Lyman's table and beat 'em both eating ice cream. He followed this up with a clipping from another paper charging Mrs. Cleveland with kissing a negro wench. He added his own comments, which were in keeping with the clippings. The lie about Fred Douglass and his white wife dining with Mr. Cleveland was also rebashed for the delectation of the assembled crowd. The most outrageous false statements without the least shade of plausibility were made, with the utmost coolness.

The Legislature of 1868-'69 was his next theme. He said he heard 'paw' went to see Gov. Holden and begged him not to issue the fraudulent tax bonds. He thereupon lit into Judge Fowle with all the force he possessed and charged and insinuated everything that a thoroughly unscrupulous man could devise.

Next he put on the air of the poor hunted man whose only desire was to remain on his (wife's) farm instead of entering a political canvass. He prefaced his remarks on this line by saying that he was a farmer and a member of the Farmers Alliance. He then said that he should not have been a candidate if Alexander had been nominated. Said all he wanted was a farmer Governor. He had what fools he takes the people to be! Oliver Dockery, 'My Son Oliver,' believes the farmers to be a set of driveling idiots or he would never talk that way.

He said the office of Lieut. Governor amounted to nothing—was the mere tail to the kite. We can truthfully say we never heard a speech that was so fully imbued with so many inconsistencies and so patently the utterance of a demagogue. We do not believe any reasonable man, who heard Dockery, believes him to be honest or sincere. His very work showed him to be a vote hunter—nothing more.

Col. G. Washington Stanton took the stand when Dockery finished speaking. He said that he arose for the purpose of denouncing two Democratic newspapers, the State Chronicle and the Wilson Advance. He denounced them for publishing the infamous address signed by him in 1868-'69. The editor of this paper asked the Col. if he did not sign the address, and the old fellow, after having denounced us for publishing it, admitted that he did sign it. The case of this gentleman is attended to elsewhere in this week's ADVANCE. 'Old Glorifol John Sharp' next spoke and he made the most high toned speech that was made. He was amusing and good humor showed upon his countenance. He referred to Stanton as 'the elegant gentleman who says everything, and knows all.' Referred to Devreux as a candidate for Lieutenant Governor. His speech was full of humor and bad grammar. It was an enjoyable speech to many—to those who love a hearty laugh. He is a curiosity.

After Sharp spoke he introduced Benajah Peel to the audience, but the little 'two for' came not forth. Guess he feared Devreux would have him kicked as a 'traitor,' as he is now a Knight of Labor candidate, you know.

HE WILL BE ELECTED

There is very little doubt in the hearts of the Democrats of the Second Congressional District but that the Hon. F. M. Simmons will be re-elected to succeed himself. He has made a good representative—one whom the people feel they can trust—has proven himself awake to their every interest and always alert and careful of their material advancement. From the Kinston Free Press we clip the following and the ADVANCE heartily endorses every word. It says:

'We believe that Mr. Simmons will be re-elected. If a representative ever deserved the hearty support of every voter Mr. Simmons certainly does, because of his hard and increasing efforts for the good of the whole people whom he represents.'

'So Vote It Be.'

There will be a total eclipse of the sun Jan. 1st, 1889, visible in the United States.—Ex. There will be a total eclipse of the Republican party on the first Tuesday of November. It will be total and lasting.—State Chronicle.

Judge Russell was a candidate for Congress in the Wilmington district in 1878. An exchange says: 'We did not hear his speeches, but imagine from the tone of his recent letter, that he has his addresses something in this wise: 'My friends and fellow-savages!'

The next time you hear a Republican speaker accuse the Democrats of being in favor of free trade just show him the following which is one of the best answers to their deceptive talk we have yet seen. 'I'm a prohibitionist. I used to take forty-seven drinks a day, but now I only take forty drinks a day.'

'Yes, but how does that make you a teetotaler?' 'Just the same as a man is a free trader who favors a reduction of taxes from 47 down to 40 per cent. Do you see?'

Jones—I say, Smith, I understand that Brown is something of a literary man, is he not? Smith—Literary man, yes. Why Brown writes for the waste baskets of some of the leading newspapers and magazines in the country.—New York Sun.

Dorothy—But, Herman, I can't answer you now. I—I—give me time to think before I reply. Herman (with rapturous passion)—certainly, my own angel. But don't make it too long, because it costs me $5 a day at this beautiful hotel.—Washington Critic.

THE TAYLOR COTTON PRESS

MANUFACTURED BY LUCIUS L. TAYLOR, SEABOARD, N. C.—AND—S. B. WHITE & BRO. NORFOLK, VA.

We desire to call the attention of cotton planters throughout the South, as well as the shippers of Hay to the following facts which are being everywhere known and which you should peruse and consider before you invest your money in any other Press.

1. It works by Lever Power without friction, to perfection.

2. It will pack a bale of cotton in less time and with more ease than any other Press manufactured.

3. It will (with two cottony hands) pack a bale of cotton in one and one-half minutes.

4. In as much as there is absolutely no friction from the ropes, pulleys, chains, &c., it will cost nothing to keep the press in repair and requires no oil for lubrication.

For simplicity in its construction and operation, as well as for durability, it cannot be excelled.

This is a Press and owing to the facts above stated, it does not require the addition of steam power.

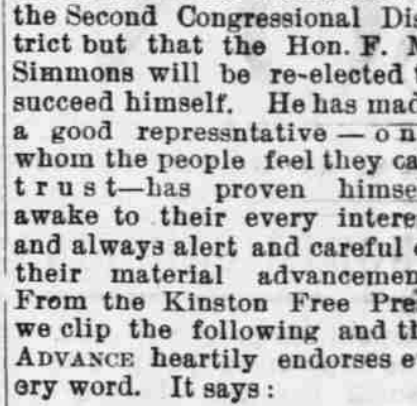

For reasons already mentioned it is not liable to get out of order.

This Press was patented in 1885, and this is the fourth season it has been in use. I desire to extend my sincere thanks to the public for their very liberal patronage and with several important improvements and superior facilities for manufacturing them I hope to merit and receive their continued patronage. I will also state that the racks of those presses heretofore made of cast iron are now made of the very best wrought iron and with reasonable use I warrant and guarantee the Taylor Press in every particular.

For further particulars I refer to the following named gentlemen: Wey DeLoach Jackson; J. G. L. Crockett; Dr. J. N. Ramsey; A. B. Doughter; C. R. Croker; Gen. Board; Capt. S. N. Braxton Jackson, N. C. and others that used them or see them work.

For Sale. One and a half horse power Waterwheel Engine with mill for grinding corn, and a steam boiler. An excellent new mill. Will be sold on liberal terms. For further particulars apply to B. F. JOHNSON & CO., 110 Main Street, Richmond, Va.

"DON"

'DON' is a beautiful dark bay, with black mane and tail. No white on him, was sired by Carl, by Emperor, imported from France by a thoroughbred horse owned by Milton White, Esq. Her dam was sired by Wyndham Robertson's Cleveland Bay, grand dam by Puzzle, he by Wyndham Robertson's Cleveland Bay, grand dam by old Washington, out imported Puzzle, out of Lady Washington, she by old Washington; Grand dam an Arabian mare. Carl's dam was Joan, by Bailey Peyton; Grand dam Sallie Champ, by Mountaineer; he by Peacemaker, out of Knowley Mare. Peacemaker was by imported Blomed, the sire of Sir Archibald, he of Timoleon, he of Boston, &c. Sallie Champ's dam was by Sir Alfred, and he by imported Sir Harry. Sir Alfred was the winner of the famous 20 mile race, in which he beat Duroc, the sire of the American Eclipse, that beat Wm. R. Johnson's Henry. Sallie Champ's grand dam was by the imported horse Bedford. Carl was raised by me, and I owned both his dam and grand dam. Carl, at 3 years old, was put to trotting, and after some four or five weeks made his mile in 3 minutes 15 seconds. ALEX. RIVES, U. S. District Judge, Ref. A. S. B. 'DON' will make the season at our farm 10 miles East of Wilson. For terms address: ELLIS & WIGGINS, Saratoga, N. C.
