

THE WILSON ADVANCE.
JOSEPHUS and C. C. DANIELS,
Editors and Proprietors.

The ADVANCE endeavors to be an honest, faithful and impartial chronicler of the news. It gives special attention to the sections in which it is published. It is Democratic in its sympathies, but it is not a party paper. It is not in hostility to Democratic success. It believes in the best interests of the people and the State. It will spare no effort to accomplish the objects of the Democratic party in that State. It will seek to promote the industrial development of the State, and sections and will take pleasure in doing whatever lies in its power to aid the farmers and laboring men in their efforts to better their condition. It is a sincere friend. Every effort looking to the establishment of more and better educational institutions will receive our hearty cooperation and endorsement.

The ADVANCE circulates largely in every county East of Raleigh, and is therefore a splendid advertising medium. Rates liberal. First-class job work is run in connection with the paper and we will be pleased to receive orders. Our office is one of the best equipped in this section of the State for work at as low prices as any office.

Entered in the Post Office at Wilson, N. C. as second class mail matter.
WILSON, N. C., Dec. 6, 1888.

The Railroads of South Carolina made 28 per cent net increase in their earnings last year. The profits of the farmer and the railroads are by no means equitably distributed.

So late as 1884 Senator Harrison declared the doctrine that "one dollar voted by the people of any school district for the support of common schools is worth $10 given out of the Treasury of the United States."

If Mr. Blaine don't get something there will be trouble; if he does get something there will be more trouble.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.—This is but a case of "you'll be damned if you do; you'll be damned if you don't."

THE THIRD PARTY.

The Democratic press of the State denounced the object of the Third Party in the recent campaign. They showed that it was merely a Republican side show. The following from the Raleigh Signal, of the 15th inst. but confirms all that they said:

OUR RALEIGH LETTER.

RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 3, 1888.
The Legislature convenes in this city on the ninth of January. For two months then there will be crowds in the city and great interest will attach to what the Legislature will do. Out of one hundred and seventy members in the General Assembly one hundred and twenty are Democrats. In the Senate there are 37 Democrats and 13 Republicans, and in the House there will be 83 Democrats, 35 Republicans and 2 Independents. The Independents were elected in Democratic counties and will probably enter the Democratic caucus. This gives the Democrats a large majority—too large many of our people think. I have always thought that the wisest legislation is secured when the majority is only a small working majority. There is usually more care taken by the party in power in shaping legislation when the majority is so small that it requires the united voice of the party to enact a law. The best legislative body in the State since the war was the Constitutional Convention of 1875 when the absence of a Democrat would give the Republicans control. At that time every Democrat was a committee of one to see that his neighbor was present at the opening of the body every day. If a man was stek he was carried to the Capitol. If he happened to be drinking, he had to be there still. This was too close to be comfortable, but the legislation was wise and will stand the test of time.

The majority in the Legislature at the coming session is larger than it would have been ordinarily. The people throughout the State were deeply aroused. They regarded the Legislature as more important even than the State officers or the election of Cleveland. They made a desperate effort to elect their legislative candidates, and whenever the Democrats make a desperate effort to do anything in North Carolina they succeed. There is no power that can withstand a scared and determined Democracy, as was evidenced in the late election.

The Legislature elected contains more farmers than almost any past Legislature. There are only twelve members in both houses who were in the last General Assembly. The people have sent new men, and in the main they have sent wise and discreet, as well as patriotic men. I think there is more experience and practical wisdom in the next Legislature than in any recent body. The men elected are good men and men who know the needs and wishes of the people. The kind of legislation needed in the State is of a practical every-day nature that the farmers know as much if not more about than any other class of our population. This year the farmers have dictated the nominations and they have shown that they know the kind of men best fitted for legislation.

The most important bill that will come before the General Assembly will be a bill to establish a Rail Road Commission. Some bill establishing a Commission will pass. It will require the wisdom of the body to shape a bill that will be effective as well as just and fair. There is no disposition anywhere to unnecessarily hamper the operations and extensions of the Rail Roads. But there is a determined intention to compel the Rail Roads to go equity, and to put a stop to all discriminations. The people have given forth no uncertain sound on this line, and the Legislators will heed the voice of their constituents.

THE WRONG PAPER.

The ADVANCE believes it has been able to do the cause of Democracy so recently closed.—The fact that some of the men whose sole desire was the defeat of the Democratic party are angered at the work of this paper, is sufficient evidence that we have been of service. We received a letter from one of the most prominent and zealous, political and financial Knights of Labor in the county, in which he abuses us for fighting for Democracy and endeavoring to keep the order of Knights of Labor pure from politics. We defy any man to show that the ADVANCE has contained one word in opposition to the work of the order—as contemplated by the founders. We have spoken without fear or favor. We expect nothing for our work save the consciousness of duty well performed. If there are others who do not desire to take the ADVANCE because we have expressed our honest sentiments—because we refuse to puff and taffy men who seek the destruction of the Democratic party—then let them come forward and have their names struck from our list of subscribers. The man who wants a "milk and cider" newspaper—the man who wants a paper that is patted on the back by the enemies of Democracy, need not subscribe for the ADVANCE. "It ain't built that way."
