THE WILSON ADVANCE.

VOLUME 18.

WILSON, NORTH CAROLINA, DEC. 20, 1888.

BILL ARP'S LETTER

HE TALKS SENSIBLY OF THE TREES.

They Speak of the Creator of the Universe and Teach as Humil-

the ground he made to grow and graphic verseevery tree that is pleasant to Twas in a shady avenue, where the sight and good for food .-The tree of life also in the And from a tree there came to midst of the garden, and the A sad and solemn sound. evil. The sacred scriptures Amid the boughs to moan, abound in notable emention of It muttered in the stem, and trees-beginning with, jas Mil- The roots took up the tone. ton says, "the fruit of that forbidden tree, whose mortal taste 'The woodman's heart is in brought death unto the world and ail our woe." That tree of His ax is sharp and good, life seems to have been a plant With sturdy arm and steady aim from heavenly gardens, for St. He smites the gaping wood John's vision he saw a river of And well to him that tree might ing from the throne of God, A sad and solemn soundwater clear as crystal proceedand near by was the tree of life, which bore twelve manner of fruits, and the leaves of that nations. Solomon in his wis- er poem, when he says: dom, spake of all the trees "I remember, I remember, from the cedar of Lebanon to The fir trees, dark and high, the hyssop that springeth out I used to think their slender tops of the wall. But Solomon, too, Were close against the sky. was something of a vandal It was a childish ignorance, among the forests, for his 4,000 But now 'tis little joy' hewers made sad .avoc with To know I'm farther off from heavthose beautiful trees. There are no cedars on Mt. Lebanon now and even in the sixth centhree centuries ago a butcher ted her back to occupy it.

"sub tegmine fagi," and said: "Give me again my hollow tree,

A crust of bread and liberty." finds tongues in trees, books in the running brooks, and good in everything." One says .-"The tree of liberty only grows when watered by the blood of tyrants." Our own George Morris says: "Woodman, spare that tree,

Touch not a single bow; In youth it sheltered me,

And I'll protect it now." The reat Dr. Johnson said hand limb?" she said. "Don't any of these things are the first to Boswe'l, "Every man, sir, owes a debt to his ancestors—a debt, sir, for the trees they planted: trees that are now giv planted: trees tha ing us fruit and shade-and at me with her inquiring eyes that debt he should pay to pos- and I smoked my tranquil pipe terity. Let him plant trees for and called the dog and played those who are to come after possum but the children could him, and the debt will be dis- not keep calm and serene and party to break up the "Solid South" Wallace D. Evans had made his little head with its long red braids, some thought it was "a good deal charged." Forty years ago their tell-tale looks betrayed is like the movements in a town to wife fall in love with the latter. It seems that some parties to ask that they should put them have become offended at articles ways with the same result—speedy advise all to have a package conthere lived a man in Rome, in me. I've been wondering," she build a new jail, The people met What a comfort a jury brings in the road. our state, who, for the love of said, "how it was that I could and resolvedthe beautiful and the good, see those hills and Mr. Mun- 1. To build a new jail. planted water oaks around the ford's house so plain. I do besquares set apart for the lieve you have cut down half the old one. churches. That good old man the trees in the grove. I won't 3. That the prisoners should be is long since dead, but the dare to leave home again; and trees live to give abounding then the children all take sides shade and to adorn the beauti- with you and keep your secrets. built on the site of the old one, ful temples that have been But never mind; I will pay Charlotte Democrat. erected there. He paid his them for it and you too." I justice, he visited the home of There is nothing like diverting his youth in New England. rie a woman's thoughts.

a poor old man. They jostled against my enemies. One against me on the sidewalk and gloomy morning I looked that said, "Look out old man.' But way, and one of the great arms Favors the Re-election of the Present I took comfort in the trees, my was gone. The good prophet friend, the magnificent elms was failing me at last and I felt that helped my father to plant like there was some calamity Two years ago the Legislature around the churches and along impending. There is a splendid elected Mr. Josephus Daniels, the sidewalks. We did it for oak in our meadow that is so editor of the State Chronicle as the love of beauty and not for proud and lofty and stands so Public Printer. We favored pay, and as I rested underneath firm on its broad base and has his election then, and we are We Should All Learn How to be their shade felt that they were such graceful, leafy curves pleased to favor his re-election, my friends, and their long upon its high top that we not only after his two years of branches waved and bowed to named it Roscoe Conking, and experience as Public Printer, in proud that I planted them."

On the third day of creation Tom Hood lament the destruc- veonmous thorn defied all the State one of the very ablest, ter than you think, mother." God made the trees. Out of tion of the trees in his tender lofty elms abound; tree of knowledge, of good and Among the leaves it seemed to sigh work.

breathe A sigh that murmured, overhead:

And groans from underground," What a beautiful, tree were for the healing of the thought is expressed in anoth-

Than when I was a boy."

William Cullen Bryant said: fifty feet.

Baal and he planted a stone un- has a love for the beautiful, young." I was traveling with The Chronicle is strong, it can but-dear me!" She broke der the tree as a witness of her heart nestles among the a northern woman to Brunswick be trusted, and Democrats their promise. Absolom was trees and the flowers and the and for the first time in her life ought to heartily sustain it .suspended in the boughs of an vines. For forty years I have she had a view of the piney Sanford Express. oak and was slain as he ought been. intimately acquainted woods from the car window. to have been. Some of the with a lady whose happiness it She went into rhapsidies over strongest metaphors in script- is my pleasure to promote.— the beautiful forests of long ure are drawn from the trees. Four times I have changed my leaf pines, and said "I declare "The wicked spreadeth himself habitation, and for her sake al- I never saw anything so stranlike a green bay tree." "As ways chose a grove rather than gely charming, but I do think few years ago the word Malaria the tree falleth so shall it lie." a house. "We can build a they have trimmed these trees was comparatively unknown, to-day "A good tree brought forth house," When General Sher- too high." man invited us with shot and These piney woods of the English language yet this word cov-In all the ages those have shell to leave our house in south provoke a world of ersonly the meaning of another been notable trees that com- Rome, Mrs. Arp sent the faith- thought. There are millions of word used by our forefathers in memorated notable events .- ful Tip back to beg him not to acres of these trees that are of times past. So it is with nervous Some of them still remain in cut down our beautiful trees .- uniform age and that age is diseases, as they and Malaria are England for the tourists tell us General Vandiver, who occu- just about one hundred years. Intended to cover what our graudof Shamble oak that is thirty- pied the house, took the mes- Did they all grow up together are caused by troubles that arise four feet in circumference, and sage kindly and said the trees and have an even start? Was a diseased condition of the Liver is 600 years old. It was called should not be harmed nor the ground they now occupy which in performing its functions shamble oak because about the dwelling either, and invi- unoccupied before they sprang finding it cannot dispose of the bile hollow. There is Greendale How could he help it for he Dame Nature wait until she the system, causing nervous oak, 700 years old, that is prop- came from Maryland. There knew our sixty million of peo- troubles, Malaria, Billious Fever, ped up on every side. Lords was a beautiful grove of Span- ple would need timber for etc. You who are suffering can well and ladies used to ride through | ish oaks around our late dwell- houses and bridges and fences appreciate a cure. We recommend the hollow of the arch at its ing in the country and my phi- and railroads? When they are base 200 years ago. Then there losophic eye told me there all cut down what will be the is Parliament oak, under whose were too many trees and that next rotation. Forty years, ago shade Edward I, held a parlia- some ought to go for the thrift a pioneer in the iron business'in of others. It was a clear case our county cut away the timber But our famous charter oak of the surviyal of the fittest.— on all the hillsides around him, pushed for topics several of answered, and she kept on sewing. has gone. How old it was no But Mrs. Arp clung to them as and left the mountain slopes one knows, but it lived eighty a mother clings to her children. all bare, but not barren. They among other subjects. "Boy- Mrs. Glenn herself. years after the charter of Con- She could not spare a single are now covered with nearly as necticut was hidden in its hol- tree. In course of time she much timber as they had below trunk. The poets drew left us on a visit to her kindred fore. Nature reproduces and There." "Taken by the Throat," express cart, which and been many of their best inspirations and like a vandal I hired help protects herself. If there is Use your Eyes," "Beware." "Off from his father and tacked into it from the trees. Horace wrote and upheaved several of those prairie that will generate a goes the Roof." "Up comes the goes the Roof." "Up comes the goes the Roof." his pastoral odes as he reclined, trees that living did languish tree, it is because there ought Man," "Can you Trust Trusts?" a good stock of merchandise from trees that living did languish tree, it is because there ought and languishing did live. We to be. Let us not be alarmed. These titles compare favorably "I suppose" said her mother, carried away every root and for Providence is always kind. with the blood curdling titles doubtfully, "that you are going branch and chips and sign re- Nature makes no mistakes, and of the sanguinary dime novels. from door to door in the villiage, never missed them, One even- blessings. ing while sitting on the veranda the flying squirrels began to meander among the branches of an oak and as she watched debt. The year before Judge bought her some flowers next Warner died our eminent chief day and diverted her thoughts.

How much of character there and on his gaying: "I found but three low grounds there was a huge companions of my youth—only three—and one of them was in the poor house. I thought that some of those people had heard some of those of the heard some of the people had heard some of those of the heard some of the people had heard some of those of the heard some of the heard some of the heard some of the people had heard some of the heard some did not stay long, and on his How much of character there of Trade at A. W. Rowland's Drug Express and P. O. address, me in the gentle breeze. I am not far away was a large black which official capacity he has locust that the poison oak had served with ability and fidelity, How plaintively did poor wound around, and its sharp but after giving the people of we name that tree?" said I to weekly papers, the Chronicle. Mrs Arp. "Sherman," she said. Mr. Daniels ought to be con-"He loves to sting and seems to tinued in officer, for two excelnot love Sherman. An old ience and ability and he deunlettered man who had learn- serves the office.

> to me: "Providence was very icle for Democracy in the 4th these days. kind in making the trees to Congressional District is clearly "The store" consisted of a few grow by laps at the top instead manifested. Two years ago the fancy articles, which were displayof stretching up the body. The district appeared to be almost ed in the front room of the Glenn's made fifty years ago is just calamity to the District. The months ago.

their old steers when the wrin- our judgement it owes its for the meal." kles on their horns run out to restoration to a large extent to the tips."

BILL ARP.

Terrible Forewarnings. Cough in the morning, hurried where is the tree the squirrels quickened pulse, chillness in the used to fly to from that right evening or sweats at night, all or

2. To build it of the material in kept in the old jail while the new one was being built, and 4. That the new jail should be

Their Business Booming.

PUBLIC PRINTER.

Encumbent.

en much from observation, said The able work of the Chronthe Chroncile newspaper.

An Explanation.

with which so many seem now to afflicted? If you will remember a from their mother earth? Was through the ordinary channel is hid some stolen sheep in its He was a gentleman, he was. it all an open prairie? Did compelled to pass it off through Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous,

After the Preachers.

dren and servants kept my se- waste and the wanton destruc- fellow that tumbled out of a mustn't expect any luck." cret, and for two months she tion of her bounties and her window!"-Christian at Work.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best Salve in the world for cures Piles, or no pay required. It into the world and make it's fortsguaranteed to give a satisfaction une, like boys in books," or money refunded. Price 25 cts per bottle. For sale by A. W.

The Value of Her Love.

Lancaster, Pa. jury awarded the great sum of eight dollars The efforts of the Republican to Jacob W. Hollinger because er in her heart, watched the plucky der had done; some indifferent;

Consumption Surely Cursa.

Please inform your readers that

A BRAVE GIRL.

CHRISTMAS.

Useful and do Something for Those Around us.

"Maybe the store will pay bet lowing approach. "What shall boldest and best Democratic Little Lucy Glenn spoke hopefully. "The store" was her own idea for helping her widowed mother, who had not, appearantly, any great ex- to buy things, so the store thought that the store had "started out for just now for North Carolina to hate everybody." Mrs Arp does lent reasons: he has the experlent reasons: he has the experreasoned Lucy, "Mother doesn't expect much from anything,"which was quite true. Poor Mrs. Glenn. Glenn's spirits were pretty low in limbs of tree never get any hopelessly Republican and John little cottage, the only inheritance, the three chops or the fore and an overhelming majority. His had been left to his family by Lucy's her mother's lap and pointed to ling. aft blaze that the surveyor election was a disgrace and father, when he had died, three the empty cart.

where he put them—no higher, Chronicle took him to task tinued Lucy, who loved best of all "And everybody wanted the tow-"We shan't starve, anyway," conno lower. If the chops that determined that he should not things in the world to see her were made when the tree was return to Congress. A tussle mother's face brighten, and who small had climbed with the with this unscruplous but observed that it did not brighten tree, we would have to run the influential demagogue was no up very much after the remark lines with a ladder now. Some child's play. The Chronicle about the store, "the garden yieldof them would have run out at handled him with singular ed first rate, you know. There are had been stuck up for them to defeated, the District is over. cabbages, and then there's the cow, run on, like the Texeans do whelmingly Democratic and in and hay for her; and there's corn

"We haven't sold five doltars worth since the store opened, and that is ten days now," said Mrs. "But how did that grape vine But the wholesome influence Glenn hopelessly. "Allour friends reach the limb on that poplar?" of the Chronicle is not confined have bought everything that they I don't really know what to do, for said I, "It swings clear for to that locality. It is a State are going to buy, and strangers paper, and during the last cam- arn't going to tramp way out here tury Justinian could not find "The groves were God's first "That vine," said he, "is as paign, it was the most aggres- to buy a roll of tape or a spool of enough timber there to roof a temples. * * * This old as the tree. At first it sive and enterprising paper in cotton, when it is so much more single church. When Isaiah mighty oak, by whose immora- clung to the limbs or twigs near State politics, that has come handy in town. I don't realize was thundering his fearful ble stem I stand—not a prince ground. As these decayed the from the Capital in years. It how few people went by here, nor prophecies against the Assyrians, he said: "The trees of the word his crown as loftily as thy forests shall be cut down he wears the green coronal of a higher one still untill it."

Demogratic newspaper in the large went by here, and then higher eulogy can be given a than a mile from town, you know, thy forests shall be cut down he wears the green coronal of a higher one still, untill it Democratic newspaper in the Lucy. You ought to have some save a few and a little child leaves, with which Thy hand climbed to where you see it. State, than to say the Radicals new clothes. It seems as if I had shall count them," Joshua in hath graced him." Man is a That limb is dying at the end were afraid of it. We hope patched everything as far as it his last days called the priests rude, rough creature, and and the vine will go higher, and believe the incoming legis- would stand. But I can see we and officers together under the makes fearful havor with the All the trees that have long lature will re-elect Mr. Daniels, shan't get much out of the store for shade of a tree and made them trees. If there is money in a trunks were full of branches State Printer, because of his clothes. I did hope that we could

Even Lucy's bright homely freckled little face lengthened to hear those doleful words. She went on store, and the money was gone. braiding her long red hair without speaking. She seemed to be watchsister, Davie and Bessie, who were had suddenly occurred to Lucy's proper to her. But again she had

The next morning she sat down beside her, and began to cut off ed again at Mrs. Wilder's door. pieces of the large roll of crash toweling which formed part of the furnishing of the store.

"What on earth are you loing ?" asked her mother. 'I've got an idea, mother," replied Lucy, feeling a great pride says she only wants to spake wid "I know you will like it, but I don't trust me, won't you ?"

Lucy was only twelve but she don't do anything rash." Lucy laughed. them have recently announced She could hem towels as well as cotting the Dead," The Great | A few mornings after this con-Oil," the People who are Going versation Lucy pulled a ttout little covered the ground with grass if we do our duty her laws will Imagine Paul to announce as and try to sell those things; but and left no mark. The chil- protect us even against human his subject, "Entychus-the people don't like pedlers, and you

"It's better than staying here, them I saw her bewildered or difficult breathing, raising ped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and to anything. It has started out lieves now as much as I did in the all Skin Eruptions and positively for itself, mother. It is going out store's starting out for itself."

Her mother could not help a little thrill of admiration as she saw she said. "Of course I'll wait." iant a little spirit; so off went the earnestly.

to a bleeding heart—an eight The first house that Lucy to was must be some disagreeable people Sun recently. The editor is dollar plaster.—Wilmington very large and white, and it had in the world, I suppose!) but, on personally responsible for everygreat pillows supporting the roof to the whole, Lucy felt quite encour- thing that appears in these col-

Suddenly the story came into her heart. She loved to do the work to come up and lick him out of the National Farmers Congress. mind of the old man in the Scrip- even if she never sold it. have a positive remedy for the tures, who went into the highest It was a chilly, gloomy Decem. elevens, and has considerable above named disease. By its time. room first, and then had to step ber morning when Lucy and the reputation as a kicker.- Magly use thousands of hopeless cases down lower; so she knocked at the cart started out again. She had a nolia Sun. have been permanently cured. I back door. She knew that the rich good deal better assortment of shall be glad to send two bottles of Mrs. Wilder lived in this house, goods now than she had at know Mrs. Glenn. She is a good and note-paper. woman. What have you in that

"Some towels that I hemmed store had staid home, like a lazy myself," cried Lucy, who beamed thing, and hadn't started out for HOW SHE PROVIDED FOR under the friendly word, "yet I sell itself.

> wares with an honest enthusiasm shall have a Christmas! And all Those who favor Senator Ranwhich was very pleasant. Mrs, the village people will be glad to som's re-election believe that Wilder finally bought a dollar's help her about it, I know." worth of goods.

> "You see," said Lucy, as she did not seem to like to come so far blast outside, and very thankful men; that it is not expedient it would start out for itself." Wilder just as it had umused Mrs.

> when Lucy reached home, She was so tired and excited that she could scarcely speak, but she pour—even little Bess could repeat it, — State a worthy representative, els. May be we shan't have such a forlorn Christmas after all." whom the money looked suddenly ing new goods. A good part of his must go for a new stock," "But I'll sell some more to-morrow," insisted Lucy,-"or, no, I'd a load of things for you." better hem some more towels first, more I can do in the village. Then sternation. most of the kind people have bought

Her mother sighed and shook her head. "You can't scare me with look-to the cross people again."

something else," few days later, when he had around, and some groceries had departed. been bought. A carefully new sel-ested stock had been laid in for the is everlasting, " quoted Mrs. Glenn, November came on. Lucy had ing very hard her little brother and and making simple fancy things, distrusted Him ?" playing out in the yard; but, in however, of presenting herself as point of fact she was not thinking soon at the doors of her friends, of them at all. A "great scheme" with the cart in tow, seemed iman idea. It was, perhaps, three weeks with her mother's work-basket after her first visit, that she knock-"What! that little Glenn girl again!" exclaimed Mrs. Wilder, she's going to be a regular bother." "She aint no cart along, mum,"

ve. mum." "Well, what is it ?" inquired Mrs. want to say anything about it, till Wilder, appearing before Lucy's so much that she seemed a great will be around again with things courage as Mrs. Wilder began to way herself. some watching for customers that have a little Christmas b sides, everybody!" never come." said Lucy, bravely, Of course, we couldn't be very hapand looking up into the clear blue py without father, but we can try the honest, noble-hearted little Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt October sky. "The store is sick of and have things the way he would girl behind it, who pleased "every-Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chap- being neglected and not amounting like to have us. Oh, mother be- body."

Mrs. Wilder stroked the red braids kindly. "You dear, plucky little thing!

how bravely Lucy tried to cover the To one after another of her shake, with laughter and light simple story. "I was afraid you Some received her as Mrs. Wil.

aged, and went home to hem umns, and earnestly requests go to the Paris Exposition as the "Shall I go to the front or the towels and make pincushions and those who do not like his style North Carolina representative of back door?" she asked herself, tidies, with great hopes in her

THE SENATORSHIP. "Well," said Lucy, brightly, know it will be better than if the Who Will Succeed Our Senior Sena them for just the same as if they They both laughed at the carrywere not hemmed. Then here are ing out of Lucy's little joke, and islature is to select a United large rolls of tape-not the little, as the child sped off lightly down States Senator is abundant old-fashioned rolls, you know,- the road, Mrs. Wilder looked after Scuator Ransom, Alexander, her and said, "Bless her dear, Jarvis and Waddell are all emi-Lucy went on telling over her independent little heart! She n. atly qualified for the position.

the present Republican ma-"Twas the night before Christ- jority will be aggressive; that his experience during eighteen bade Mrs. Wilder Good-buy, and but old Santa Claws was not suptrudged along, "we have had a posed to be about just yet. Mrs. years' service is of peculiar little store for two or three weeks Glenn sat, with her children around value and gives him great adnow in our front room, but folks her, by the fire, listening to the vantage over new and untried mill destroyed by fire, on Tuesday itself," for they were very comfort- dispense with the services of Lucy's little conceit amused Mrs. ably provided for, for at least some Senator Ransom, a cultured ceive a small share of the money Wilder just as it had umused Mrs.

Glenn.

"That was a capital idea," she said.

It was five o'clock that afternoon it was five o'clock that afternoon when Lucy reached home. She was a savory dinner.

Senator Ransom, a cultured gentlemen, and a sagacious statesman. The matter is best of the family, safely stowed away out of sight while a nice joint in the pantry promised a savory dinner.

Senator Ransom, a cultured gentlemen, and a sagacious statesman. The matter is best of the press and their wives and children.

An exchange says that Capt. S. They had just been saying the bly, have the ability and higher from the ground, and so Nichols went to Congress with besides his honest name, which had been left to his family by Lucy's ion.-Charlotte Democrat. "Nearly seven dollars' worth Glenn. "That means a song. Lucy's sold, mother!" she panted out. being God in the refuge of his

"For want of a nail, a shoe was saints,' and we will all join in it." Lucy was the best singer in the family, and she was just striking lost; for want of a borse, a rider was "There is clothing to be bought up the dear familiar old hymn when los " Never neglect things. The first of all," sighed Mrs. Glenn, to suddenly there was a knock at the fir t signs of pneumonia and condoor. There stood a man. He sumption can positively be checked R. Williams, Esq., of Pitt county very small. "And then if the store was the village teamster, Nicholas by Dr. Acker's English Remedy was re-elected, as master of the the top I reckon, unless a pole sagacity and courage, he is plenty of potatoes and beets and is to be kept up, we must keep buy Vichard, and his cart was stand. It is to be kept up, we must keep buy Vichard, and his cart was stand.

ing in front of the gate. "Good evenin', Miss Glann," he said briskly, "I 'pear to have quite "Why, I haven't ordered any--And I have a good day's work thing," began Mrs. Gleen, in condie. I know one who gilded pensioners who were wounded in "No. Mr. Richards; you've got something, and I don't want to go ly.

on it, 'for Mrs. Glenn,' and here's a tied it with a gorgeous yellow captured in the yard of hereitizens. box, another box, and one, three, bow, and then was astonished ing so forlorn, mail. " Lucy five bundles, all marked For Mrs. to find that the cook wouldn't of covetousness by Bishop Granberlaughet. "Walt tile to morrow and Glenn,' and here's a barrel of sugar use it to roll out pie crust with. ry in his thanksgiving sermon I'll go to hemming. And maybe and another one of flower, and and she thought it showed a when he said : "Covetousness is a by the time I have been quite here's a ham, and a couple of reprehensible look artistic hate. dyspeptic hunger which cannot be around the village Pll think of chickens, and here's a mess of other things, Guess that's all. Lucy had the right spirit, but by Good night, Mrs. Glenn, and a Merry Christmas to all of you. carried out all of her programme, Looks 'sif you'd have it, if presents girl by a prompt use of Dr. Acker's to choose between God and tree he wants, it. But woman when they were small and eminent service to the party. have a little Christmas out of it, she, too, felt rather ead, The fam. but dear me!! She broke ily had to have new shoes all grin on his face Nicholas Richard

> "'The Lord is good His mercy with tears ranning down her cheeks. "It is beyond our poor been knitting edging and mittens, knowledge. How could I have Lucy sat pale and weeping, too

> > "What does it mean, mother What does it mean !" was all she could say. The little ones, however, tore open the bundles. Sentiment nev er overcomes small children, espec ially of Christmas Eve. In one of the bundles was a dark brown dress-length for Lucy, a blue one for Bess and a black one for rather impatiently. "I'm afraid Mrs. Glenn. On a card attached to Lucy's was written, "For Lucy Glenn, from some of her customers said the good-natured maid. "She who love her for her goodness and intelligence which she has shown in belong her mother." Then they understood Nicholas you see how it works. You will excited little face a moment later. There was a suit of clothes and a "I was only going to tell you, warm little overcoat for Davie, and Mrs. Wilder," began Lucy, quiver- warm new shalls for all the rest; had been her mother's companion ingly, "that in about a mouth I packages of tea, coffee, crackers, canned meats; tumblers of july; such as I had before, and I shall figs, oranges, lemons,-oh, the I'll try," said Mrs. Glenn, "Only have a good many things besides, things couldn't be set down in an what we have especially to deal the U. S. Treasury engages the at--like baby's socks and mittens hour, which were contained in with, and our duty to ourselves tention of our Statesmen, but a and handkerchief cases, for Christ- those boxes and bundles, and they and to our country demands vital question has our attention, mas presents, that mother and I were given in such a way that not are making. I only wanted to ask even Mrs. Glenn's proud spirit you to please wait, if you could could feel burt. She did not wonmake it convinent to wait till I come | der that people loved and admired around if you want any such things, her honest keen-witted little Lucy. You see," Lucy went on, gaining Mrs. Glenn felt a good deal that the most sanguine, and its crease in the mortality from the look interested, "mother did not" "If father can see us now," said and it must be in the future far to still further reduce the number hink that I could sell the things at | Lucy, as they rose from their boun- more prosperous than it is, for of Consumptives. How! By keepall, and she was blue enough. She tiful Christmas dinner, "how glad its industrial growth is yet but ing constantly at hand a bottle of thought we couldn't buy any warm he is! And how lucky that we did in its infancy. This effort should Dr. King's New Discovery and things for winter, and that we set up the store, after all, instead not be confined to any parcouldn't have any Christmas nor of going out to scrub and sew, as ticular locality, but the move anything. But I earned money you thought maybe you would. To enough to buy a good many things be sure, the store did not seem to when I was around, and now I am be much of a success as long as it hoping to get enough more to buy staid here, but as soon as it startall we shall want for winter and ed out for itself it seemed to please Letter From the Ex-Sheriff of Chan words. She had not the heart to might buy all you wanted before I gave him up. Dr. Ackers English heir to, no other remedy, in my 912,53. say anymore to discourage so val. came around," she would explain Remedy for Consumption saved opinion, either external or internhim and he is well to-day. "He Speaks his Thing" > seines out for her," (there always which have appeared in The care. bis boots He wears number

But if wasn't the store. It was

A Narrow Escape.

> > Advice To Mothers

FOR ALL KINDS OF

JOB WORK

SEND YOUR ORDERS

THIS OFFICE.

NUMBER 47

tor.

Material from which our Leg-

Take it in Time.

They Decorate

She is "Grateful."

The Only Thing to do.

Winston Sentinel.

derful cures.

For the blood use B. B. B.

For scrofula, use B. B. B.

For catarrh, use B. B. B.

For rheumatism, use B. B. B.

Por eruptions, use B. B. B.

For all blood poison, use B. B. B.

free filled with certificates of won-

Look Out for the Present.

Fayetteville Observer.

tauqua County, New York.

York.

THE WORLD ABOUND US.

A Condensed Report of the News as Gathered From the Columns of our Contemporaries, St and National.

A. H. Daly Esq., of Seven Springs, had his flour and grist night of last week. The work of

There are 1,700 persons who re-

An exchange says that Capt. S. B. Alexander, president of the North Carolina Farmers' Alliance discountenances the starting of co operatives stores in the State.

The State Grange met at Kinston a short while since. We note

North Carolina pensioners at Raleigh on January 22d, 1889. This

The Raleigh Evening Visitor the family mouse-trap. She wrong house," began Lucy promptly.

"Guess not," declared Mr. Richards. "This big turkey has a card tiful sheaf of wheat on it and tiful sheaf of wheat o gerated before January 20th.

sacks. The jute bagging trust is being run to the wall, and the the Democratic lines all the work. The Alliance will be very The Farmer's Alliance continnes to grow. This week the work entieth county. By midsummer of 1889 there will no doubt be suballiances in all the ninety-six counties, and the State Secratary's promise of 100,000 members will be For kidney troubles, use B. B. B made good. There will be five eclipses in 1889

A partial eclipse of the moon Jab. pary 16th and 17th between 10, o'clock p m., and 2 o'clock a, m.

Reducing the Surplus.

But whatever may befall us that we do all we can to build and that is the reduce of the Surup the South. It is a great land, plus consumptives, Since the disa great people; it has progressed for beyond the expectations of tion, there has been a marked desowth is steadily increasing, dreaded disease, and it is possible be made all along the line .- toms, such as a Cough, a Cold, a > Trial bottles free at A. W. Bowland's Drug Store. From the following statistics, Mayville, N. Y., Dec, 2, 1885. I am glad to say, through a long reported at recent sitting of the personal experience with Allcock's annual conference, held at New Porous Plasters, that I am able to Bern, some idea of the strengh and endorse all the good things that work of the Methodist E. church in Col. W. K. Nelson, of Brooklyn, have ever been said about them, North Carolina may be gained: came home one evening, feeling a and supplement these by saying Membership, 89,152, a gain of peculiar tightness in the chest. Be- that I frankly believe their value 2,607 over last year. S. S. Scholars, fore retiring, he tried to draw a cannot be estimated. The breadth 58,722, a gain of 5,836. Edulong breath but found it almost im- of usefullness is unlimited, and for cational fund, $2,722.05, a gain of nervousness which made her hands customers went Lucy with her possible. He suffered four days prompt and sure relief to almost $128.05. Paid Conference claimants 'tom pueunomia, and the doctors every ache and pain that flesh is $3,779.30. Bishop's salary, $1, > d, equals them in certainty and time for rheumatism, another for ily medicine we can recommend It seems that some parties backache, again for bronchitis, al- Laxador, the great regulator, and stantly on hand for cases of neces-

L. T. HARRINGTON. L. L. Polk has been appointed to

Our Candidate for President.

convention and elected by the peo Justice which contained the Decple, because he will come the near-laration of Right and the Con-Probably no one thing has has caused such a general revival of Trade at A. W. Rowland's Drug Store as their giving away to their Store as their giving away to their Respectfully

Probably no one thing has my remody FREE to every consumption if they will send me their lage people, knew all about the Glenn's and their troubles. She should always be used when chill of Could not help thinking that Mrs. Respectfully an incendiary.

Respec

WHAT IS HAPPENING IN

The Danbury Reporter suggests to farmers to try the experiment of raising rice for their table use, if not for market. New ground is considered the best adapted for lost; for want of a shoe, a borse was this crop.

> State Grange. There will be a convention of Olive Harper says : Thereare women who must decorate or convention is simply for State the wires and sewed velvet in the Confederate service.

satisfied. The more it eats the more it wants." New Justices of the Suprems saved the life of my little Sheperd-will be sworn in January 1st and will take their seats -MTS WM. V. HARRIMAN, New on the beach February 1st. Governor Fowle will hardly be insu-The Franklin county Aillance resolved not to buy guano in jute There is but one thing fer outhern Democrats to do in the future. We should draw closer, and against internal apt to continue in checking rob division or external pressure bery. keep the party ranks unbroken. of organization begins in the sera total eclipse of the sun i nuary 1, 1889, partly visible in North Ask your neighbor who has used Carolina, the sun setting . lipsed. B. B. B. of its merits. Get our book visible in this Stata.

Sore Throat a Chest, or Side Paln. Taken thus early a cure is guaran-

To have good health medicine is rapidity. I have used them at one necessary occasionally. As a fam-

We request all mothers to stop using laudanum for their bables, and use Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup, a safe medicine. It contains nothing

Mr. Jno. M. Moore, of Concor showed us some old relies Thursday that are worth mentioning He will be nominated by the The first was a copy of Potters