THE WILSON ADVANCE.
WILSON, N. C., - - Dec. 19, 1889.

A favorite cat in a Youngstown, (Penn.) store was found alive after being imprisoned six weeks without food or water.

An exchange says: "There are more puns made on Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, free of charge, than are paid far by the owners. A good thing deserves the notice of the press.

For a safe and certain remedy for fever and ague, use Dr. J. H. McLean's Chills and Fever Cure; it is warranted to cure.

No need to take those big cathartic pills; one of Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Pillets is quite sufficient and more agreeable.

Baby One Solid Rash.
Ugly, painful, blotched, malicious. No rest by day, no peace by night. Doctors and all remedies failed; tried Cuticura. Effect marvellous. Saved his life.
Cured by Cuticura.
Our eldest child, now six years of age, when an infant six months old was attacked with a virulent, malignant skin disease. All ordinary remedies fail ng, we called our family physician, who attempted to cure it; ont it spread with almost incredible rapidity, until the lower portion of the little fellow's person, from the middle of his back down to his knees, was one solid rash, ugly, painful, blotched, and malicious. We had no rest at night, no peace by day. Finally, we were advised to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. The effect was simply marvellous. In three or four weeks a complete cure was wrought, leaving the little fellow's person as white and healthy as though he had never been attacked. In my opinion, your valuable remedies saved his life, and today he is a strong, healthy child, perfectly well, no repetition of the disease having ever occurred. GEO. B. SMITH,

Boy Covered With Scabs
My boy, aged nine years, has been troubled all his life with a very bad humor, which appeared all over his body in small red blotches, with a dry white scab on them. Last year he was worse than ever, being covered with scabs from the top of his head to his feet, and continually growing worse, although he had been treated by two physicians. As a last resort, I determined to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and am happy to say they did all that I could wish. Using them according to directions, the humor rapidly disappeared, leaving the skin fair and smooth, and performing a thorough cure. The CUTICURA REMEDIES are all you claim for them. They are worth their weight in gold.

Ma. Lee. "Why, Addie, you needn't cry about it! I only said Mr. Allen was a very well-informed woman, and I wished you would follow her example."
Miss Lee. "Yes, and last week you said you wished I could manage to look as stylish as Mrs. Allen,—and she makes all her own clothes. But she has what I haven't."
Ma. Lee. "What is that?"
Miss Lee. "Well, she gets all of her information from the Magazine they take. I admit that she knows all that is going on, and is bright and entertaining in conversation, but I could do as well as she does if I had the same source of information. She lent me the last number of her Magazine lately, and I learned more in one hour's reading, about various social matters and the topics of the day, than I would pick up in a month by my occasional chats with friends. It certainly covers every topic of interest, from the news of the day down to the details of housekeeping; and everything is so beautifully illustrated, too. Every time Mamie goes over to the Allens' she comes back and teases me to get you to take Demorest's Family Magazine, as the stories are so good. Even the boys watch for it every month, as a place is found for them also in its pages; and Mr. Allen swears by it. It is really wonderful how it suits every member of the family!"
Ma. Lee. "Well, perhaps I had better send for a Specimen Copy; for, if it is anything like what you say it is, it will prove and interest the whole of us."
Miss Lee. "I see that W. Jennings Demorest, the publisher, 15 East 14th Street, New York, is offering to send a Specimen Copy for 10 cents, so we can't lose anything, as each number contains a 'Pattern Order' entitling the holder to any Pattern she may choose, and in any size—which alone makes each copy worth 30 cents; and I just want a jacket pattern like Mrs. Allen's. The subscription price is only $2.00 a year; and I must say I can't see how they can publish so elegant a Magazine for so little money."
