

The Wilson Advance
JOSEPHUS and C. DANIELS
 Editors and Proprietors.

The Advance endeavors to be an exact, faithful and impartial chronicler of the news, devoting special attention to the section in which it is published. It is Democratic in its views and will spare neither friend nor foe who is in hostility to Democratic success. It believes the best interest of the Nation and the State imperatively demand the restoration of the Democratic party in power and it will spare no effort to accomplish that result. It will seek to promote the industrial development of the State and section and will take pleasure in doing whatever lies in its power to aid the farmers and laboring men in their efforts to better their conditions. Every honest son of toil will find in the Advance a sincere friend. Every effort looking to the establishment of more and better educational institutions will receive our hearty cooperation and endorsement.

The Advance circulates largely in every county East of Raleigh, and is therefore a splendid advertising medium. Rates liberal. A first-class job office is run in connection with the paper and we will be pleased to re-quip in the section of the State for commercial work and we will do as good work and at as low figures as any body.

Entered in the Post Office at Wilson, N. C. as second class matter.

WILSON, N. C. SEPT. 11th, 1890.

A NEW ERA.

Yesterday marked a new era in Wilson's history. For years the people of a wide scope of territory have looked upon Wilson as the best cotton market in the State, and they have shown their faith by their works. As a result of the large business that has been done in Wilson for the past twenty-five years (for out here is a young town) there is no town in the State that presents a better appearance. Our stores are attractive brick buildings, our residences are large and artistically constructed, while the various industries of the town are all well equipped and prosperous.

The large measure of success that the town has achieved in the past rests almost solely upon cotton. In the history of Wilson we can truly say "cotton is king". The acreage planted in cotton has not been diminished, and yet we now have another crop that is the only basis of the prosperity of many of the most successful towns in the State. The sale in our tobacco warehouse yesterday demonstrated, beyond a doubt, that the brightest tobacco is raised in Wilson and adjoining counties in the largest quantities. The fact has been made perfectly patent that tobacco is in the future the "queen" of our fortunes and to divide the state of honor with heavy old "king cotton," who has so long preserved his "strength of single blessedness" in our midst.

With a market handling twenty-five thousand bales of cotton and millions of pounds of tobacco, and a people who, through bitter trials have learned the blessings of diversified crops, why should not Wilson be the biggest and best town in Eastern North Carolina? She can; she will.

The Advance notes with pleasure the wisest determination of the white people of this district to see that the nominee of the Democratic party, Capt. W. J. Rogers, should represent them in the next Congress. He is worthy of the heartiest and most cordial support of every Democrat in the district. If we do our duty he will be elected. Let every man go to work. Let men who believe in better government make of himself a politician for once.

In last week's issue of the Wilson Advance Dr. Freeman comes out and announces his intention to vote for the reelection of Zeb. Vance to the Senate of the United States. We are glad the doctor has put himself square on this point. The people of North Carolina need the services of their ablest men in the great conflict which is to be waged in the halls of Congress, and cannot do without Vance—Nashville Argonaut.

The following from the Statesville Landmark is worthy your reading: We read sometimes in the Tarboro, Goldsboro, Wilson and New Bern papers of Republican conventions of which this was an exact counterpart. At certain stages it was a mob. Nothing like it has ever been held here before. Its bravest side, however, was the humorous, and to the disinterested spectator it was better than a play.

Mr. Rogers is an uncompromising Democrat, a farmer and a man of information and education. He can be elected if all of us will go to work for him. Do not leave all the work for him to do, but help him and his election is reasonable sure. Every man to his work now until the first Monday in November.—Warrenton Gazette.

Mr. Rogers, the Democratic candidate for Congress in this district, is a lifelong Democrat. He graduated at the University of North Carolina with distinction, served gallantly in the Confederate army, and since the war has been a farmer loved by his neighbors and honored by all who know him.—New Bern Journal.

H. B. Hardy, Esq., general agent of the State Chronicle, was in town this week in the interest of that excellent paper. We are glad that so many of the business men of this place.—Mr. Daniels' native town—take the daily. The Chronicle is the best daily in the State, many competent judges say.

A Gala Day!

THE TOBACCO WAREHOUSE OPENED.
FORTUNE AGAIN SMILES UPON FAVORED WILSON.

The Big Sale of "The Golden Weed" in The Warehouse Here Yesterday a Most Auspicious Beginning of a Live Boom for Wilson.

For more than a year the event of yesterday has been mooted and looked forward to with interest by those whose confidence in Wilson has never been shaken. For more than a year a warehouse for the sale of leaf tobacco has been talked for this town. It is now a fact. It is also a fact that we have a good one. As it now stands the warehouse is 80 feet wide by 160 feet long, with twelve feet pitch. The building is furnished with forty four sky lights, 24 windows, and nine large double doors. An elegant pair of Howe scales, weighing up to 3500 pounds and balancing down as fine as 1/4 of an ounce, is on the floor. At your left hand as you enter are the offices for book-keepers, clerks, etc, handsomely fitted up. A basement exactly the same size of the floor of the warehouse is in condition to receive tobacco for storage. It is well lighted and thoroughly ventilated. A large elevator 5 by 8 feet, will connect it with the floor above and everything is arranged for the convenience of the people who have dealings with the warehouse. Capt. Pace, the manager, is in excellent spirits at the outlook. The stockholders are more than satisfied at the bright prospects for a successful season.

THE OPENING SALE.

Early Tuesday evening wagons loaded with the "golden weed" began to arrive. From the east and from the west, from the north and from the south, from Edgecombe and Pitt, from Nash and Franklin, from Wilson and Wayne—in carts and wagons and by rail it came. The floor was soon one busy, bustling, animated scene of hurrying men and loaded trucks and at 6 o'clock was half full of tobacco. All night the hands worked and yesterday morning early the floor was covered and wagons loaded were awaiting their term to get in. At 10:30 o'clock the sale began. Capt. Pace stated in a business like way, that everything was ready, and auctioneer Harris began to cry that first pile. The crowd was tremendous. It was estimated that at least 1,000 people were in the warehouse. The sale proceeded slowly, owing to the trouble in getting around among so many people, and at 12 o'clock not over one third of the floor had been cleared off. It was a new sight for our people. A stranger here may have imagined that Robinson's circus had struck the town with full force but such was not the case. Every body was anxious to see how the thing was going on and greatly hindered the buyers. Every body seemed to begin good humor and there was little dissatisfaction expressed at the price for which the tobacco sold. Buyers were on hand from Richmond, Danville, Durham, Oxford and Henderson, and at times the bidding was spirited. Not half the tobacco brought here could get on the floor yesterday, and the sale will be continued to-day.

Such was the beginning of Wilson's tobacco sales. Under many difficulties the people here have labored, but they have money, pluck, perseverance and enterprise—qualities which always command success. The sale yesterday is no criterion by which to judge the sales of the future. The hands were green and new at the business, and some of the tobacco received rough treatment. Much of it was damaged by the people stepping on it on the floor in getting about. After this week everything will move smoothly and satisfactorily, we trust and believe. We are told by competent judges that the prices were good—the larger part of the tobacco bringing what it was worth. The quality and quantity of tobacco brought to Wilson was a surprise to everybody. The fact is demonstrated beyond doubt that this section can grow the finest tobacco in the world. Wilson is the geographical centre of this new tobacco growing section, and the enterprise shown by the Wilson people in the past is a guarantee that they will make Wilson the best tobacco market in the State. Her business men are fully imbued with this idea. A movement is now under full headway to open another warehouse here this fall for the sale of leaf tobacco. Prize houses are going up. Three have been contracted for this week. Tobacco raisers may rest assured that when they bring tobacco to Wilson they will receive the very highest price that the quality of their tobacco demands.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Pitt county's veteran tobacco grower, Mr. A. A. Forbes, was here with a fair shipment of good tobacco. Our people remember the stubborn fight he made for Col. I. A. Sugg in the Judicial Convention and good naturedly chaff him about getting left. He came up enthusiastically in favor of making Wilson the leading market of the State and is going to do some good talking in Pitt for us.

We were glad to see the following gentlemen from Battleboro in our town yesterday: Messrs J. M. Neal, W. P. Davis, J. P. Ellinger, Jas. B. Marriott, H. W. Gorham, Robt. Stewart, Jesse Price, J. W. Powell, F. G. Ward, W. B. Pippet, J. A. Whitaker, R. M. Moore, Len Pitchford, Sam Coley, W. T. Bryant, A. C. Thomas and G. W. Ward.

Rocky Mount was represented by the following: R. D. Armstrong, J. W. Hines, Thos. J. Mackney, Joo L. Arrington, Capt. A. J. Ellington.

Capt. Killeit, popular alike with every class of our people and known from Pitt to Wake and from Vance to Wayne is at the Warehouse in all his glory and is doing good work.

Capt. Ed M. Pace was the busiest man in Wilson Tuesday and yesterday. He has got a firm grip on the situation, he is cool, steady, wide-awake, and seems to be exactly the right man for the place. To him is largely due the credit for the successful management which characterized the sale yesterday and has marked the progress of the Warehouse idea here. He is coming up to the full measure of what was expected of him. The Advance tips its hat to his untiring energy, push and perseverance that is "known and read of all men," much to his credit. In the language of the "wild west" he is a "rustler" and is hard to equal.

Two of Nash county's best citizens, from Battleboro, Messrs A. C. Thomas and G. W. Ward called in to see us yesterday. Mr. Ward is one of our oldest subscribers, starting with the first issue in Battleboro twenty years ago. Mr. Thomas is not far behind him as he has taken this paper ever since it was moved to Wilson. The friendship of such men is our joy and pride. They are both large tobacco growers, and tell us that over 100,000 pounds have been shipped from Battleboro this season. All other crops are good and in the language of Mr. Thomas we certainly have something this year to feel grateful for.

Mr. J. N. Boyd, of Richmond, Va., was a large buyer on the break yesterday. It is likely he will be with us permanently. Mr. W. B. Brooks, of Danville, Va., was one of the large buyers here yesterday. We trust he will see his way to make his home here.

Durham was represented yesterday by the following gentlemen: Capt. John S. Lockhart, W. A. Lea, W. L. Cooper, W. L. Ferrell and J. G. Rayney.

W. M. Carter, of Winston, was on the floor yesterday. Messrs E. L. Flemming, W. H. Jenkins, W. W. Briscoe, L. M. Barnes and E. G. Barnes, of Henderson, were here yesterday.

Oxford was represented here yesterday by Mr. N. W. Royster and W. A. Davis, Esq.

The following citizens from Black Creek had tobacco on the break yesterday: Dr. H. D. Lucas, R. G. Privett, Wiley Barnes, E. J. Bass, W. H. Privett, A. Barnes, J. B. Paschall, Jesse M. Taylor, Amos Hays, Marcelus Privett.

From Lucama we noticed the following: L. F. Lucas, W. T. Lucas, A. T. Barnes, Addison Lamm, C. B. Capps, J. T. Capps. Among the Wayne county folks we noticed: Senator B. F. Aycock, J. V. Minshew, P. C. Coley, P. B. Norris, N. W. Musgrove, W. G. Peacock, John Aycock, Jesse Mayo, E. C. Exum.

From Edgecombe we saw the following: Robt. Pitt, Jos. Powell, M. W. Proctor, J. I. Killebrew, John Robinson, I. C. Cummings, B. W. Weaver, J. W. Williams, M. Taylor, R. Deal.

Zeno H. Green, Esq., is in town attending the sales.

The following gentlemen from the good county of Pitt were in town yesterday: A. A. Oakes, G. F. Evans, F. S. Carr, Andrew Joyner, W. J. Summerall, L. F. Evans, John Evans, C. T. Watson, J. C. Albright, Benjamin Gwaltney, Jacob Joyner, W. R. Horne, O. L. Harris, W. A. Pollard, Harvey Tyson, Robert Smith, John Crawford, Frank Allen, John Williams, Jesse Phillips, James Cobb, A. Moye, J. H. Flanagan, Andrew Joyner.

The warehouse here was built by Mr. J. D. Meredith. The Advance wants to give him credit for the excellent job of work he has put up. He is a first class contractor and merits the patronage of our people. He tells us he is figuring on a prize house 40x60 feet, two stories high, the first story to be brick. It is for the Wilson Warehouse Company.

Messrs. Branch, Briggs & Co have fitted the stables recently occupied by Bullock & Barnes for a prize house and have secured the services of an expert buyer, Mr. C. H. Flemming, of Oxford.

Nash county was represented on the warehouse floor yesterday: J. D. Manning, W. E. Swanson, Simon Cook, Henry Snell, M. M. Manning, J. J. Stone, John Dozier, J. S. Collins, Baldy Cockrell, William Batchelor, Dexter Bobbitt, Ivey Joyner, Joseph Bass, W. F. Edwards, Thos. Warren, Jim Pitt, Marion Warren, H. H. Proctor, J. J. Jones, J. S. Collins.

A COWARDLY MURDER.

Sowell and Robt. Whitley Waylaid and Shot Dead.

The startling news was brought to town early yesterday morning that Sowell Whitley and son, Robert, had been shot and killed about three miles from town, on the Wilson and Tarboro road. Dr. J. K. Ruffin was notified and at once summoned the following jury to hold the inquest: M. B. Atkinson, J. R. Rawls, Wade Davis, G. P. Clark, McRae Boyett, E. J. Amerson. The wife of Whitley testified that the father and son left home for Wilson at about 8 o'clock, and she knew nothing to throw light upon the assassination. A. C. Burnett testified that he heard four or five shots between 8 and 9 o'clock. This was the testimony. The body of Whitley was discovered in his buggy about two miles from the spot where the shots were fired. At least 16 shot pierced his body, and death must have been instantaneous. The body of Robert Whitley was found at the spot where the shooting occurred, with six or seven shot holes in it. He was alive and was taken home where he died in a few moments.

The trees on the right side of the road were literally riddled with buck shot. Whitley was a notoriously dangerous, bad character, and had many enemies. At nearly every term of the court here he has appeared on the criminal side of the docket. He was a terror to the community in which he lived. While there are no regrets expressed at his death, the cowardly manner of his taking off is to be condemned by all good, law-abiding citizens, and the fair name of Wilson county demands that the assassins should be brought to justice.

ATTENTION, EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

HOOKERTON, N. C., Sept. 5. Mr. Editor: Please request the members of the newly elected Executive Committee for the second Congressional district, that have not done so, to send me their postoffice addresses at once.

Yours truly,
 Y. F. ORMOND.

MARRIED.

Miss Sallie S. Edmondson, daughter of Haywood Edmondson, deceased, were married on the 20th of Aug. at the residence of her mother in Greene county to Mr. John Hartley. They were married at 10 o'clock and left to take the train for Baltimore, R. V. Israel Hardin, of Kinston—officiating.

DIED.

Mr. and Mrs. Simms infant, little Sarah Eliza, died on Thursday last. The little one lingered only long enough to entwine the arms of its parents in its arms, and they returned to the beautiful city.

On the 24th of September Messrs Tarriss Gooch & Co., Henderson, N. C., will have a special sale for Eastern tobacco. The fact that the finest tobacco made this year is in the Counties of Edgecombe, Pitt, Wilson, Nash, and Wayne will give this day prominence in the tobacco world, and we look for the highest prices of the season. Parties who can get shipments ready would do well to take advantages of this sale.

Messrs. Harris, Gooch & Co., the popular warehousemen of Henderson, in addition to this large and constantly growing trade, are among the largest farmers in the section of the State, owning more than 10,000 acres of land, several thousand of which are in cultivation. If there is a firm in North Carolina knowing the needs of the farmers, and sympathizing with his condition, it is this. If there is a warehouse in the State which always protects the grower, they have proved beyond doubt that they do.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing properties of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own (instead of Hood's); he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change; I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, and was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it. Mrs. Ella A. Goff, at Terrace Street, Boston.

DAVIS & CAY

THE TAYLOR COTTON PRESS.

THE BEST ON THE MARKET. Manufactured and for sale by L. L. TAYLOR, 77 SEABOARD, N. C.

The TAYLOR COTTON PRESS has many points of excellence that sets it over the best presses that are now offered the public.

This press was patented in 1885 and after four seasons' trial by the side of other presses, we fearlessly and unhesitatingly claim for it the following advantages:

- 1st. It works perfectly by lever power.
- 2d. It works more rapidly and easily than any other press.
- 3d. Ordinary hands can pack a bale of cotton in a minute and a half.
- 3d. There are no ropes, chains, pulleys, &c., and consequently no friction whatever.
- 4th. The press is so simple both in construction and operation that it never gets out of order.

This is a hand press and consequently does not require the addition of steam.

For further information in regard to the press the following gentlemen, who have used it, are given as reference: Wesley DeJong, Crecksville, N. C.; J. G. L. Crocker, Seaboard, N. C.; Dr. J. N. Ramsey, Seaboard, N. C.; A. B. Dauguiry, Suffolk, Va.; Capt. S. N. Stanton Jackson, S. C.; J. T. Barham Caro, Va.
