

The Wilson Advance

JOSEPHUS D. DANIELS Editors and Proprietors.

The ADVANCE endeavors to be an honest, faithful and impartial chronicler of the news, devoting special attention to the section in which it is published. It is Democratic in the core and will spare neither friend, or foe who is in hostility to Democratic success. It believes the best interest of the Nation and the State imperatively demands the retention of the Democratic party in power and it will spare no effort to accomplish that result. It will seek to promote the industrial development of the State and section and will take pleasure in doing whatever lies in its power to aid the farmers and laboring men in their efforts to better their condition. Every honest man of toll will find in the ADVANCE a sincere friend. Every effort looking to the establishment of more and better national institutions will receive our hearty cooperation and endorsement. The ADVANCE circulates largely in every county East of Raleigh, and is therefore a splendid advertising medium. Rates liberal. A first-class job office is run in connection with the paper and we will be pleased to receive orders. Our office is one of the best equipped in the section of the State for commercial work and we will do good work at as low rates as an agency.

Entered in the Post Office at Wilson, N. C. as second class matter. WILSON, N. C., Oct 23, 1890.

COUNTY CANVASS.

The Democratic candidates for Wilson county will address the people at the following times and places; other Democratic speakers have been invited and are expected to be present: Gardner, Thursday, 23; Saratoga, Friday, 24; Stantonsburg, Saturday, 25; Wilson, Saturday, Nov. 1.

Owing to the appointment of W. M. Robbins, Esq., to speak here to-morrow the speaking by the county candidates at Saratoga has been postponed until Monday, Nov. 3rd, the day before the election.

W. W. Farmer, Democratic County Executive; F. W. Barnes, County Executive; J. L. Baily, Executive Committee; F. A. Woodard, Committee.

I will attend at the above dates and places for the purpose of collecting the tax for the year 1890. J. W. CROWELL, Sheriff.

SECOND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

The Democratic Executive Committee of the district recently decided not to nominate any candidate, as the time in which to make a canvass was too short.

Mr. J. B. Banks, one of Jones county's best farmers and true Democrats, proposes that the Democrats of this district cast a complimentary vote for Hon. F. M. Simmons. He thinks Jones county will certainly do so.

A correspondent of the State Chronicle suggests that the committee meet again and nominate W. H. Kitchen and enforce his ideas in a forcible way.

James M. Newborn, Esq., of Lenoir, has announced himself as a Democratic candidate for Congress in this district.

THE STATE IN DANGER.

The ADVANCE verily believes the State of North Carolina is in danger. We believe the lethargy and self-satisfied condition of the white people is greatly jeopardizing the judicial ticket. Unless the people of the State do more work to bring out the full vote of the white people of the State the Radical judges may be elected and the State humiliated and disgraced and the lives and property of our people placed in the hands of a lot of tricky lawyers in place of the upright and learned gentlemen who so ably and creditably now administer justice in the State. What are you going to do about it?

VANCE VS. MOTT.

The question that presents itself to the people of North Carolina is whether Zebulon B. Vance shall continue his fight in the United States against and iniquitous burdens that the Radical are daily laying on our shoulders, or whether Dr. J. J. Mott shall be our accredited Senator, while the whole influence of his power goes to traduce and degrade the land he disgraces by being one of its citizens.

In Wilson county and in this Senatorial district there is no question what the Democratic candidates for the House and Senate will do. They have expressed themselves for Vance, and they accepted nominations from conventions that placed that plank in their platform. Our nominees are honorable men and any insinuation that they will not vote for Vance places them in the attitude of "getting goods under false pretense." They are not such men. They are men who can be trusted and we hope they will receive such a majority as will astonish the natives.

Mr. S. L. Arrington, the efficient and enterprising Secretary of the Rocky Mount Fair Association, was in town on Monday putting up bills and distributing advertising matter for the big fair. We were pleased to receive a call from him, and glad to hear that the prospects for a big fair are so bright and promising. Just in this connection we wish to urge upon Wilson people to see that our own county is represented in the exhibits. We feel sure that this county can take every premium for fine cattle, and we trust some of our citizens may be restrained to make an exhibit.

HEAR HIM

A Rare Treat in Store for Wilson People.

On Monday night next Rev. Thomas Dixon, D. D., will lecture in Mamona Hall. That he is one of the foremost orators of this continent is well known. Every citizen of the town should eagerly grasp this opportunity to hear this matchless genius. Dr. W. W. Tufts, of Boston Mass., says Dr. Dixon is "one of the incomparables."

First—His individuality is distinct. He stands alone as one of those natural men whom other natural men have not imitated to make him imitative. He has a full round nature of his own, uncontaminated by convention. He is a notable man in a world of shaped men.

Second—He is an orator. He is so; 1st, through his genius. Probably he has been dropping rudities as he has gone on, but I think he must have sprung full grown out of the head of the divinity. 2d. Through a grasping intellect for what will serve his purpose. What some scholars study fourteen hours of the twenty-four to make their own, he snaps in as the pike of a shiner. 3d. Through that rare gift of impulsiveness which expresses itself in outburst without rant. It is the expression of a genuine life within the man, which when analyzed reveals the moral elements of sincerity, earnestness, love, and the intellectual elements of judgment, reason and imagination. Emotional thinking is the trait. He is all alive, soul and body, and he communicates his life to his hearers. He has the power of sustaining them in their character as hearers. They hear him gladly. He has that gift of holding the attention of an audience beyond twenty minutes. The twenty minute limit would be as unendurable to him as a high, old-fashioned pulpit. He would make it as unendurable to his hearer. The gladdened hearer says to the impulsive speaker, "Go on."

A SOUND DEMOCRAT.

Ex-Congressman F. M. Simmons spoke in Edgecombe county last week. The South-erner says his speech was a good one and did much good in en- thusiasm the untrifled Demo- cracy of Webb Town. He dis- cussed the political issues in his usual lucid style and concluded with an exposition of the rights of a citizen, whose duty it was to exercise his privilege of vot- ing whenever the opportunity came. He had heard that he had many friend in Barterfield, if they would still be so they would vote for the Democratic nominee because good citizenship good government demanded it. The fact that Mr. Simmons will leave the district to make Win- ston his home left not the slight- est doubt in the minds of any that he was actuated by the best of motives, the good of the people. During his speech he was frequently interrupted with applause and received a regular ovation when he concluded.

Are you a Democrat? Then vote the ticket just as she is printed.

No time now for foolishness. Have you registered? The 24, to-morrow, is the last day you can register.

The effects of the McKinley tariff bill will be felt by every man in his most vital point—his pocketbook.

If you do not want negro judges on the bench in this State go to work to secure the election of the Democratic ticket.

The man whose laziness or indifference helps to turn the State over to Radicalism de- serves the most dire calamities of Radical rule. Wake up, you old sleepy-head.

The white man who deserts his color and goes with the negroes deserves the contempt of every decent man. Their patriotism is "office wide and dollar deep." They are sel- dom to be trusted in any voca- tion of life.

Remember when the mer- chant asks you about a third more for a carpet that he is not responsible for the rise in price, but the Republican party. They did this to foster the trusts that has grown up under the fostering care of Republicanism.

There are but two political parties in this county and when you hear a fellow say the Republican party is as good as the Democratic party—that there is no difference between the two, tell him he is a fool and don't know what he is talking about.

The charge is boldly made on the stump that the vacancies were left on the Radical Ju- dicial ticket for the purpose of placing the names of three ne- groes on the same on the day of the election. Can white men run the risk of allowing so great an outrage to be perpet- uated on them by staying at home on election day. If so, ye be not men.

MARRIED.

In Goldsboro Oct. 12th, Mr. J. Bob. Griffin, the popular young tobaccoist of Goldsboro, to Miss Mamie E. Swindell, in the Baptist church, Oxford, October 10th, Mr. B. S. Royster, a rising young lawyer of Oxford, to Miss Mamie Hobgood, daughter of Prof. F. P. Hobgood.

In the Episcopal church in Dur- ham Wednesday, Mr. Emmet E. Bishop to Miss Claude Barham, daughter of Capt. C. A. Barham. They went to Scotland Neck on a bridal visit.

In Suffolk, Va., Tuesday morn- ing of last week, Mr. Ben Williford, a popular and efficient Wilmington and Weldon railroad conductor, to Miss Irene Hart, one of Rocky Mount's most beautiful and attrac- tive young ladies. The ADVANCE extends best wishes.

In Tarboro yesterday evening, at the residence of Judge Fred. Phillips, the bride's father, Miss Annie Hyman to Mr. Herbert Jackson, of Raleigh. The bride is one of Tarboro's fairest and most intellectual jewels, and the groom is a young man of sterling virtue and talent. Our best wishes are with them.

At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. T. D. Gay, yesterday at 12 o'clock, noon, Mr. M. T. Young was married to Miss Lula Gay. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few relatives and invited friends by Rev. D. Hender- son Tuttle. Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple, after receiving hearty congratulations, were driven to the depot and boarded the northbound train for New York City and other places of interest.

The groom is a member of the enterprising and prosperous firm of Young Bros., and is the popular manager of the establishment on Tarboro street. Polite, clever, affable and attentive to business he is universally liked and admired. Of a warm, generous, sunny-heart- ed disposition, friends were easily won and held in the firmest bonds of affection. Loyal, upright and honorable, he is a citizen of whom any town may well boast and highly esteem.

The bride is one of Wilson's lov- liest specimens of true womanhood, loved, admired and esteemed by a large circle of friends and ac- quaintances. Royally endowed by nature with many charms of man- ner, intellect and disposition, to which cultivation has added its share, she is fitted to shine with regal splendor in any position of life, and preside with gentle grace and becoming dignity over any household. A true disciple and student of noble character in woman can find in her a model wor- thy of imitation. She is a true friend, an accomplished woman, and will make a loving, faithful wife of whom any man could well feel proud. Added to other charms and graces is her domestic skill in which she is not excelled.

The ADVANCE joins with their many friends in wishing for Mr. and Mrs. Young a long and useful life, filled with peace, happiness and contentment. To such a happily mated couple the black shadow of Trouble's wing should never ap- proach—it should only come near enough to fan into a fiercer flame the burning coals on love's altar, which their willing hands and hearts have set blazing—only near enough to make them appreciate the joys and blessings which we trust and hope may crown their days.

The merchants of Wilson have been notified that nearly everything they sell will go up in price as the direct result of the McKinley tariff bill. This is what the Radicals call pro- tection. In the name of high heaven deliver us from being "protected" any more.

The good people of Greene county are making an earnest effort to shake off the yoke of Radicalism that has long held that good county in its unhal- lowed embrace. The Rads are (as is usually the plan of war- fare) working secretly, but the Democrats expect to carry the county, notwithstanding. White men of Greene, if you want white men for your magistrates and commissioners, go to work and console yourselves with the thought that success is sure to crown the efforts of the faithful.

The ADVANCE does not ad- mire a sneak who is so office hungry that he will take an office no matter from what source it comes, but who is too cowardly to go on the stump. Such men do not go on the stump because they fear the truth. If they do not go on the stump they think they can lie on the first one side then the other. You so-called inde- pendents, if you are not a set of sneaks and deceivers, go on the canvass and proclaim your- selves and tell the people who you are (if you know your- selves) and why you expect their votes.

The ADVANCE desires to warn the Democrats of those counties in which the those rare birds flour- ish, against the so-called In- dependents who are so assid- uously endeavoring to disorgan- ize and destroy the Democra- tic party. It does seem to us that the good people every- where have seen the course the Independents invariably take to warn them against such shallow hypocrisy. There are but two political parties and the men who do not give their influence towards securing Democratic success are tools of Radicalism who do not deserve the respect of many men. In- dependents are usually hypo- crites.

An Enterprising Man.

We were in Rocky Mount last week and dropped into the Eagle Warehouse for a few moments. The clever and enterprising prop- rietor, Mr. S. S. Berger told us something about the sales of the warehouse, and the growing popu- larity of Rocky Mount as a ta- bacco market. Tobacco is just rolling in—in fact they are get- ting more than they can handle, and haven't a drummer on the road for them. The rush week before last was so great that it stopped sales for two days. They are getting straight again and are selling immense quanti- ties again, working day and night to keep the floor cleared. Big prices is the best advertise- ment and that's the way he does it. He showed us a shipmen- from Danville and another from Richmond on which both sellers made money. He says he does not expect to close his doors all next year and is going to sell tobacco every day, and we be- lieve he will do it.

At his home in Edgecombe coun- ty, yesterday morning, Mr. Lafay- ette Leggett, of heart disease. He was one of the most prominent and esteemed citizens of that county, and his death will be heard of with regret.
