The inaugurators of this movement to establish a Tobacco market lightly, understood what ere the requirements. LOW charges, BETTER prices than any other market, and they have succeeded, beyond the expectation of the most sanguine. I would like to be able to secure the Photos of those who have bought on my floor and shipped to some of our BIG markets their long faces would give some idea of their LOSSES, then then there are a few who has taken up tobacco and shipped it, and without an exception have failed to realize as good figures, they are my drum mers now, and I don't want any better way to spread the news of what you will gain by selling here. Here you will get all the beneat of a home market, and whatever energy experience promptness and accurancy I can give. Lam the farmers friend, handle every tile on my floor and see to it, your interest is guarded in the sale of your tobacco
